PREFACE.

THE present convenient and carefully arranged combination of the Authorised and Revised Versions of God's Holy Word, in one single volume of very moderate size, will be welcomed by all students, and especially by all teachers of the Bible.

Hitherto the use of the Revised Version in its first published form has been felt by the teacher to involve two very real difficulties. In the first place he did not find in the margin any reference to parallel or illustrative passages, nor even any indication, in the case of the numerous quotations in the New Testament from the Old Testament, of the book from which the quotation was made. This of course necessitated the use of a supplemental copy of the Authorised Version with the usual marginal references. The necessity of using two separate volumes, it may be confidently stated, was the reason why the use of the Revised Version was found to be so much less, in the case of teachers and general Bible-readers, than might naturally have been expected.

This first difficulty, after some lapse of time, has been completely removed by the publication in May 1898 of the whole Revised Version with most carefully considered marginal references, a full account of which will be found in the prefatory notice in the edition referred to.

The second difficulty, however, has still remained, viz. the necessity, in the case of the careful reader or teacher, of having two volumes before him, the Authorised Version and the Revised Version,—the editions in parallel columns being as yet unprovided with the first requisite, marginal references. Even if the smallest of these editions were supplied with these references, not only would the volume be bulky, but a minor though a real difficulty would remain, viz. that the eye of the reader, in passing from one column to the other, would, especially in the New Testament, miss many of the smaller changes, on which occasionally much does really depend.

There is thus plainly room for such a publication as the present, in which, in a single moderately sized volume, every one of the above-mentioned difficulties has been successfully overcome. The reader will, however, have thoroughly to master the explanatory Key, which is subjoined to these prefatory comments. When this is done, it will be found that every difference between the two versions, including even punctuation, can be recognised with readiness and certitude.

The volume owes its origin to a suggestion of Mr. Alfred F. Buxton, and it is to his continued interest in the work and to his generous support that its final publication is mainly due.

EXPLANATORY KEY.

In the columns marked R.V. are placed all the readings of the Revised Version which differ from the text of the Authorised Version.

The small figures in the text show where words are added or an alteration begins.

In the R.V. columns—

S denotes readings substituted in the Revised for those in the Authorised Version.

A denotes an addition.

M ,, a marginal note, or alternative reading.

¶ is used in these columns to indicate the beginning of a new paragraph. The same sign when used in the A.V. text without the mark of omission, shows that the paragraph is common to both versions.

In the A.V. text—

o denotes the omission from the Revised Version of the words marked.

] denotes the end of the portion of text altered or omitted.

† ,, that the words in italics which follow appear in roman type in the Revised Version.

Every Chapter commences with a fresh paragraph unless otherwise indicated.

TO THE MOST HIGH AND MIGHTY PRINCE JAMES, BY THE GRACE OF GOD, KING OF GREAT BRITAIN, FRANCE, AND IRELAND, DEFENDER OF THE FAITH, &c., THE TRANSLATORS OF THE BIBLE WISH GRACE, MERCY, AND PEACE, THROUGH JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD.

GREAT and manifold were the blessings, most dread Sovereign, which Almighty God, the Father of all mercies, bestowed upon us the people of England, when first he sent Your Majesty's Royal Person to rule and reign over us. For whereas it was the expectation of many, who wished not well unto our Sion, that upon the setting of that bright Occidental Star, Queen Elizabeth of most happy memory, some thick and palpable clouds of darkness would so have overshadowed this Land, that men should have been in doubt which way they were to walk; and that it should hardly be known, who was to direct the unsettled State; the appearance of Your Majesty, as of the Sun in his strength, instantly dispelled those supposed and surmised mists, and gave unto all that were well affected exceeding cause of comfort; especially when we beheld the Government established in Your Highness, and Your hopeful Seed, by an undoubted Title, and this also accompanied with peace and tranquillity at home and abroad.

But among all our joys, there was no one that more filled our hearts, than the blessed continuance of the preaching of God's sacred Word among us; which is that inestimable treasure, which excelleth all the riches of the earth; because the fruit thereof extendeth itself, not only to the time spent in this transitory world, but directeth and disposeth men unto that eternal happiness which is above in heaven.

Then not to suffer this to fall to the ground, but rather to take it up, and to continue it in that state, wherein the famous Predecessor of Your Highness did leave it: nay, to go forward with the confidence and resolution of a Man in maintaining the truth of Christ, and propagating it far and near, is that which hath so bound and firmly knit the hearts of all Your Majesty's loyal and religious people unto You, that Your very name is precious among them: their eye doth behold You with comfort, and they bless You in their hearts, as that sanctified Person, who, under God, is the immediate Author of their true happiness. And this their contentment doth not diminish or decay, but every day increaseth and taketh strength, when they observe, that the zeal of Your Majesty toward the house of God doth not slack or go backward, but is more and more kindled, manifesting itself abroad in the farthest parts of Christendom, by writing in defence of the Truth, (which hath given such a blow unto that man of sin, as will not be healed,) and every day at home, by religious and learned discourse, by frequenting the house of God, by hearing the Word preached, by cherishing the Teachers thereof, by caring for the Church, as a most tender and loving nursing Father.

There are infinite arguments of this right christian and religious affection in Your Majesty; but none is more forcible to declare it to others than the vehement and perpetuated desire of accomplishing and publishing of this work, which now with all humility we present unto Your Majesty. For when Your Highness had once out of deep judgment apprehended how convenient it was, that out of the Original Sacred Tongues, together with comparing of the labours, both in our own, and other foreign Languages, of many worthy men who went before us, there should be one more exact Translation of the holy Scriptures into the English Tongue; Your Majesty did never desist to urge and to excite those to whom it was commended, that the work might be hastened, and that the business might be expedited in so decent a manner, as a matter of such importance might justly require.

And now at last, by the mercy of God, and the continuance of our labours, it being brought unto such a conclusion, as that we have great hopes that the Church of England shall reap good fruit thereby; we hold it our duty to offer it to Your Majesty, not only as to our King and Sovereign, but as to the principal Mover and Author of the work: humbly craving of Your most Sacred Majesty, that since things of this quality have ever been subject to the censures of illmeaning and discontented persons, it may receive approbation and patronage from so learned and judicious a Prince as Your Highness is, whose allowance and acceptance of our labours shall more honour and encourage us, than all the calumniations and hard interpretations of other men shall dismay us. So that if, on the one side, we shall be traduced by Popish Persons at home or abroad, who therefore will malign us, because we are poor instruments to make God's holy Truth to be yet more and more known unto the people, whom they desire still to keep in ignorance and darkness; or if, on the other side, we shall be maligned by selfconceited Brethren, who run their own ways, and give liking unto nothing, but what is framed by themselves, and hammered on their anvil; we may rest secure, supported within by the truth and innocency of a good conscience, having walked the ways of simplicity and integrity, as before the Lord; and sustained without by the powerful protection of Your Majesty's grace and favour, which will ever give countenance to honest and christian endeavours against bitter censures and uncharitable imputations.

The Lord of heaven and earth bless Your Majesty with many and happy days, that, as his heavenly hand hath enriched Your Highness with many singular and extraordinary graces, so You may be the wonder of the world in this latter age for happiness and true felicity, to the honour of that great GOD, and the good of his Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord and only Saviour.

ZEAL to promote the common good, whether it be by devising any thing ourselves, or revising that which hath been laboured by others, deserveth certainly much respect and esteem, but yet findeth but cold entertainment in the world. It is welcomed with suspicion instead of love, and with emulation instead of thanks: and if there be any hole left for cavil to enter, (and cavil, if it do not find an hole, will make one,) it is sure to be misconstrued, and in danger to be condemned. This will easily be granted by as many as know story, or have any experience. For was there ever any thing projected, that savoured any way of newness or renewing, but the same endured many a storm of gainsaying or opposition? A man would think that civility, wholesome laws, learning and eloquence, synods, and Churchmaintenance, (that we speak of no more things of this kind,) should be as safe as a sanctuary, and out of shot, as they say, that no man would lift up his heel, no, nor dog move his tongue against the motioners of them. For by the first we are distinguished from brute beasts led with sensuality: by the second we are bridled and restrained from outrageous behaviour, and from doing of injuries, whether by fraud or by violence: by the third we are enabled to inform and reform others by the light and feeling that we have attained unto ourselves: briefly, by the fourth, being brought together to a parley face to face, we sooner compose our differences, than by writings, which are endless: and lastly, that the Church be sufficiently provided for is so agreeable to good reason and conscience, that those mothers are holden to be less cruel, that kill their children as soon as they are born, than those nursing fathers and mothers (whersoever they be) that withdraw from them who hang upon their breasts (and upon whose breasts again themselves do hang to receive the spiritual and sincere milk of the word) livelihood and support fit for their estates. Thus it is apparent, that these things which we speak of are of most necessary use, and therefore that none, either without absurdity can speak against them, or without note of wickedness can spurn against them.

Yet for all that, the learned know, that certain worthy men have been brought to untimely death for none other fault, but for seeking to reduce their countrymen to good order and discipline: And that in some Commonweals it was made a capital crime, once to motion the making of a new law for the abrogating of an old, though the same were most pernicious: And that certain, which would be counted pillars of the State, and patterns of virtue and prudence, could not be brought for a long time to give way to good letters and refined speech; but bare themselves as averse from them, as from rocks or boxes of poison: And fourthly, that he was no babe, but a great Clerk, that gave forth, (and in writing to remain to posterity,) in passion peradventure, but yet he gave forth, That he had not seen any profit to come by any synod or meeting of the Clergy, but rather the contrary: And lastly, against Churchmaintenance and allowance, in such sort as the ambassadors and messengers of the great King of kings should be furnished, it is not unknown what a fiction or fable (so it is esteemed, and for no better by the reporter himself, though superstitious) was devised: namely, That at such time as the professors and teachers of Christianity in the Church of Rome, then a true Church, were liberally endowed, a voice forsooth was heard from heaven, saying, Now is poison poured down into the Church, &c. Thus not only as oft as we speak, as one saith, but also as oft as we do any thing of note or consequence, we subject ourselves to every one's censure, and happy is he that is least tossed upon tongues; for utterly to escape the snatch of them it is impossible. If any man conceit, that this is the lot and portion of the meaner sort only, and that Princes are privileged by their high estate, he is deceived. As the sword devoureth as well one as another, as it is in Samuel; nay, as the great commander charged his soldiers in a certain battle to strike at no part of the enemy, but at the face; and as the king of Syria commanded his chief captains to fight neither with small nor great, save only against the king of Israel: so it is too true, that envy striketh most spitefully at the fairest, and the chiefest. David was a worthy prince, and no man to be compared to him for his first deeds; and yet for as worthy an act as ever he did, even for bringing back the ark of God in solemnity, he was scorned and scoffed at by his own wife. Solomon was greater than David, though not in virtue, yet in power; and by his power and wisdom he built a temple to the Lord, such an one as was the glory of the land of Israel, and the wonder of the whole world. But was that his magnificence liked of by all? We doubt of it. Otherwise why do they lay it in his son's dish, and call unto him for easing of the burden? Make, say they, the grievous servitude of thy father, and his sore yoke, lighter. Belike he had charged them with some levies, and troubled them with some carriages; hereupon they raise up a tragedy, and wish in their heart the temple had never been built. So hard a thing it is to please all, even when we please God best, and do seek to approve ourselves to every one's conscience.

If we will descend to latter times, we shall find many the like examples of such kind, or rather unkind, acceptance. The first Roman Emperor did never do a more pleasing deed to the learned, nor more profitable to posterity, for conserving the record of times in true supputation, than when he corrected the Calendar, and ordered the year according to the course of the sun: and yet this was imputed to him for novelty, and arrogancy, and procured to him great obloquy. So the first Christened Emperor (at the least wise, that openly professed the faith himself, and allowed others to do the like,) for strengthening the empire at his great charges, and providing for the Church, as he did, got for his labour the name Pupillus, as who would say, a wasteful Prince, that had need of a guardian or overseer. So the best Christened Emperor, for the love that he bare unto peace, thereby to enrich both himself and his subjects, and because he did not seek war, but find it, was judged to be no man at arms, (though indeed he excelled in feats of chivalry, and shewed so much when he was provoked,) and condemned for giving himself to his ease, and to his pleasure. To be short, the most learned Emperor of former times, (at the least, the greatest politician,) what thanks had he for cutting off the superfluities of the laws, and digesting them into some order and method? This, that he hath been blotted by some to be an Epitomist, that is, one that extinguished worthy whole volumes, to bring his abridgments into request. This is the measure that hath been rendered to excellent Princes in former times, cum bene faceremt, male audire, for their good deeds to be evil spoken of. Neither is there any likelihood that envy and malignity died and were buried with the ancient. No, no, the reproof of Moses taketh hold of most ages, Ye are risen up in your fathers' stead, an increase of sinful men. What is that that hath been done? that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun, saith the wise man. And St. Stephen, As your fathers did, so do ye. This, and more to this purpose, his Majesty that now reigneth (and long, and long, may he reign, and his offspring for ever, Himself, and children, and children's children always!) knew full well, according to the singular wisdom given unto him by God, and the rare learning and experience that he hath attained unto; namely, That whosoever attempteth any thing for the publick, (especially if it pertain to religion, and to the opening and clearing of the word of God,) the same setteth himself upon a stage to be glouted upon by every evil eye; yea, he casteth himself headlong upon pikes, to be gored by every sharp tongue. For he that meddleth with men's religion in any part meddleth with their custom, nay, with their freehold; and though they find no content in that which they have, yet they cannot abide to hear of altering. Notwithstanding his royal heart was not daunted or discouraged for this or that colour, but stood resolute, as a statue immoveable, and an anvil not easy to be beaten into plates, as one saith; he knew who had chosen him to be a soldier, or rather a captain; and being assured that the course which he intended made much for the glory of God, and the building up of his Church, he would not suffer it to be broken off for whatsoever speeches or practices. It doth certainly belong unto kings, yea, it doth specially belong unto them, to have care of religion, yea, to know it aright, yea, to profess it zealously, yea, to promote it to the uttermost of their power. This is their glory before all nations which mean well, and this will bring unto them a far most excellent weight of glory in the day of the Lord Jesus. For the Scripture saith not in vain, Them that honour me I will honour: neither was it a vain word that Eusebius delivered long ago, That piety toward God was the weapon, and the only weapon, that both preserved Constantine's person, and avenged him of his enemies.

But now what piety without truth? What truth, what saving truth, without the word of God? What word of God, whereof we may be sure, without the Scripture? The Scriptures we are commanded to search, John v. 39. Isai. viii. 20. They are commended that searched and studied them, Acts xvii. 11. and viii. 28, 29. They are reproved that were unskilful in them, or slow to believe them, Matt. xxii. 29. Luke xxiv. 25. They can make us wise unto salvation, 2 Tim. iii. 15. If we be ignorant, they will instruct us; if out of the way, they will bring us home; if out of order, they will reform us; if in heaviness, comfort us; if dull, quicken us; if cold, inflame us. Tolle, lege; tolle, lege; Take up and read, take up and read the Scriptures, (for unto them was the direction,) it was said unto St. Augustine by a supernatural voice. Whatsoever is in the Scriptures, believe me, saith the same St. Augustine, is high and divine; there is verily truth, and a doctrine most fit for the refreshing and renewing of men's minds, and truly so tempered, that every one may draw from thence that which is sufficient for him, if he come to draw with a devout and pious mind, as true religion requireth. Thus St. Augustine. And St. Hierome, Ama Scripturas, et amabit te sapientia, &c. Love the Scriptures, and wisdom will love thee. And St. Cyrill against Julian, Even boys that are bred up in the Scriptures become most religious, &c. But what mention we three or four uses of the Scripture, whereas whatsoever is to be believed, or practised, or hoped for, is contained in them? or three or four sentences of the Fathers, since whosoever is worthy the name of a Father, from Christ's time downward, hath likewise written not only of the riches, but also of the perfection of the Scripture? I adore the fulness of the Scripture, saith Tertullian against Hermogenes. And again, to Apelles an heretick of the like stamp he saith, I do not admit that which thou bringest in (or concludest) of thine own (head or store, de tuo) without Scripture. So St. Justin Martyr before him; We must know by all means (saith he) that it is not lawful (or possible) to learn (any thing) of God or of right piety, save only out of the Prophets, who teach us by divine inspiration. So St. Basil after Tertullian, It is a manifest falling away from the faith, and a fault of presumption, either to reject any of those things that are written, or to bring in (upon the head of them, ἐπεισαγεῖν) any of those things that are not written. We omit to cite to the same effect St. Cyrill Bishop of Jerusalem in his 4. Catech. St. Hierome against Helvidius, St. Augustine in his third book against the letters of Petilian, and in very many other places of his works. Also we forbear to descend to later Fathers, because we will not weary the reader. The Scriptures then being acknowledged to be so full and so perfect, how can we excuse ourselves of negligence, if we do not study them? of curiosity, if we be not content with them? Men talk much of εἰρεσιώνῃ, how many sweet and goodly things it had hanging on it; of the Philosopher's stone, that it turneth copper into gold; of Corne-copia, that it had all things necessary for food in it; of Panaces the herb, that it was good for all diseases; of Catholicon the drug, that it is instead of all purges; of Vulcan's armour, that it was an armour of proof against all thrusts and all blows, &c. Well, that which they falsely or vainly attributed to these things for bodily good, we may justly and with full measure ascribe unto the Scripture for spiritual. It is not only an armour, but also a whole armoury of weapons, both offensive and defensive; whereby we may save ourselves, and put the enemy to flight. It is not an herb, but a tree, or rather a whole paradise of trees of life, which bring forth fruit every month, and the fruit thereof is for meat, and the leaves for medicine. It is not a pot of Manna, or a cruse of oil, which were for memory only, or for a meal's meat or two; but, as it were, a shower of heavenly bread sufficient for a whole host, be it never so great, and, as it were, a whole cellar full of oil vessels; whereby all our necessities may be provided for, and our debts discharged. In a word, it is a panary of wholesome food against fenowed traditions; a physician's shop (as St. Basil calls it) of preservatives against poisoned heresies; a pandect of profitable laws against rebellious spirits; a treasury of most costly jewels against beggarly rudiments; finally, a fountain of most pure water springing up unto everlasting life. And what marvel? the original thereof being from heaven, not from earth; the author being God, not man; the inditer, the Holy Spirit, not the wit of the Apostles or Prophets; the penmen, such as were sanctified from the womb, and endued with a principal portion of God's Spirit; the matter, verity, piety, purity, uprightness; the form, God's word, God's testimony, God's oracles, the word of truth, the word of salvation, &c.; the effects, light of understanding, stableness of persuasion, repentance from dead works, newness of life, holiness, peace, joy in the Holy Ghost; lastly, the end and reward of the study thereof, fellowship with the saints, participation of the heavenly nature, fruition of an inheritance immortal, undefiled, and that never shall fade away. Happy is the man that delighteth in the Scripture, and thrice happy that meditateth in it day and night.

But how shall men meditate in that which they cannot understand? How shall they understand that which is kept close in an unknown tongue? as it is written, Except I know the power of the voice, I shall be to him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian to me. The Apostle excepteth no tongue; not Hebrew the ancientest, not Greek the most copious, not Latin the finest. Nature taught a natural man to confess, that all of us in those tongues which we do not understand are plainly deaf; we may turn the deaf ear unto them. The Scythian counted the Athenian, whom he did not understand, barbarous: so the Roman did the Syrian, and the Jew: (even St. Hierome himself calleth the Hebrew tongue barbarous; belike, because it was strange to so many:) so the Emperor of Constantinople calleth the Latin tongue barbarous, though Pope Nicolas do storm at it: so the Jews long before Christ called all other nations Lognasim, which is little better than barbarous. Therefore as one complaineth that always in the Senate of Rome there was one or other that called for an interpreter; so lest the Church be driven to the like exigent, it is necessary to have translations in a readiness. Translation it is that openeth the window, to let in the light; that breaketh the shell, that we may eat the kernel; that putteth aside the curtain, that we may look into the most holy place; that removeth the cover of the well, that we may come by the water; even as Jacob rolled away the stone from the mouth of the well, by which means the flocks of Laban were watered. Indeed without translation into the vulgar tongue, the unlearned are but like children at Jacob's well (which was deep) without a bucket or something to draw with: or as that person mentioned by Esay, to whom when a sealed book was delivered with this motion, Read this, I pray thee, he was fain to make this answer, I cannot, for it is sealed.

While God would be known only in Jacob, and have his name great in Israel, and in none other place; while the dew lay on Gideon's fleece only, and all the earth besides was dry; then for one and the same people, which spake all of them the language of Canaan, that is, Hebrew, one and the same original in Hebrew was sufficient. But when the fulness of time drew near, that the Sun of righteousness, the Son of God, should come into the world, whom God ordained to be a reconciliation through faith in his blood, not of the Jew only, but also of the Greek, yea, of all them that were scattered abroad; then, lo, it pleased the Lord to stir up the spirit of a Greek prince, (Greek for descent and language,) even of Ptolemy Philadelph king of Egypt, to procure the translating of the book of God out of Hebrew into Greek. This is the translation of the Seventy interpreters, commonly so called, which prepared the way for our Saviour among the Gentiles by written preaching, as St. John Baptist did among the Jews by vocal. For the Grecians, being desirous of learning, were not wont to suffer books of worth to lie moulding in kings' libraries, but had many of their servants, ready scribes, to copy them out, and so they were dispersed and made common. Again the Greek tongue was well known and made familiar to most inhabitants in Asia by reason of the conquests that there the Greeians had made, as also by the colonies which thither they had sent. For the same causes also it was well understood in many places of Europe, yea, and of Africk too. Therefore the word of God, being set forth in Greek, becometh hereby like a candle set upon a candlestick, which giveth light to all that are in the house; or like a proclamation sounded forth in the marketplace, which most men presently take knowledge of; and therefore that language was fittest to contain the Scriptures, both for the first preachers of the Gospel to appeal unto for witness, and for the learners also of those times to make search and trial by. It is certain, that that translation was not so sound and so perfect, but that it needed in many places correction; and who had been so sufficient for this work as the Apostles or apostolick men? Yet it seemed good to the Holy Ghost and to them to take that which they found, (the same being for the greatest part true and sufficient,) rather than by making a new, in that new world and green age of the Church, to expose themselves to many exceptions and cavillations, as though they made a translation to serve their own turn; and therefore bearing witness to themselves, their witness not to be regarded. This may be supposed to be some cause, why the translation of the Seventy was allowed to pass for current. Notwithstanding, though it was commended generally, yet it did not fully content the learned, no not of the Jews. For not long after Christ, Aquila fell in hand with a new translation, and after him Theodotion, and after him Symmachus: yea, there was a fifth, and a sixth edition, the authors whereof were not known. These with the Seventy made up the Hexapla, and were worthily and to great purpose compiled together by Origen. Howbeit the edition of the Seventy went away with the credit, and therefore not only was placed in the midst by Origen, (for the worth and excellency thereof above the rest, as Epiphanius gathereth,) but also was used by the Greek Fathers for the ground and foundation of their commentaries. Yea, Epiphanius abovenamed doth attribute so much unto it, that he holdeth the authors thereof not only for interpreters, but also for prophets in some respect: and Justinian the Emperor, injoining the Jews his subjects to use especially the translation of the Seventy, rendereth this reason thereof, Because they were, as it were, enlightened with prophetical grace. Yet for all that, as the Egyptians are said of the Prophet to be men and not God, and their horses flesh and not spirit: so it is evident, (and St. Hierome affirmeth as much,) that the Seventy were interpreters, they were not prophets. They did many things well, as learned men; but yet as men they stumbled and fell, one while through oversight, another while through ignorance; yea, sometimes they may be noted to add to the original, and sometimes to take from it: which made the Apostles to leave them many times, when they left the Hebrew, and to deliver the sense thereof according to the truth of the word, as the Spirit gave them utterance. This may suffice touching the Greek translations of the Old Testament.

There were also within a few hundred years after Christ translations many into the Latin tongue: for this tongue also was very fit to convey the Law and the Gospel by, because in those times very many countries of the West, yea of the South, East, and North, spake or understood Latin, being made provinces to the Romans. But now the Latin translations were too many to be all good: for they were infinite; (Latini interpretes nullo modo numerari possunt, saith St. Augustine.) Again, they were not out of the Hebrew fountain, (we speak of the Latin translations of the Old Testament,) but out of the Greek stream; therefore the Greek being not altogether clear, the Latin derived from it must needs be muddy. This moved St. Hierome, a most learned Father, and the best linguist without controversy of his age, or of any other that went before him, to undertake the translating of the Old Testament out of the very fountains themselves; which he performed with that evidence of great learning, judgment, industry, and faithfulness, that he hath for ever bound the Church unto him in a debt of special remembrance and thankfulness.

Now though the Church were thus furnished with Greek and Latin translations, even before the faith of Christ was generally embraced in the Empire: (for the learned know, that even in St. Hierome's time the Consul of Rome and his wife were both Ethnicks, and about the same time the greatest part of the Senate also:) yet for all that the godly learned were not content to have the Scriptures in the language which themselves understood, Greek and Latin, (as the good lepers were not content to fare well themselves, but acquainted their neighbours with the store that God had sent, that they also might provide for themselves;) but also for the behoof and edifying of the unlearned, which hungered and thirsted after righteousness, and had souls to be saved as well as they, they provided translations into the vulgar for their countrymen, insomuch that most nations under heaven did shortly after their conversion hear Christ speaking unto them in their mother tongue, not by the voice of their minister only, but also by the written word translated. If any doubt hereof, he may be satisfied by examples enough, if enough will serve the turn. First, St. Hierome saith, Multarum gentium linguis Scriptura ante translata docet falsa esse quæ addita sunt, &c. that is, The Scripture being translated before in the languages of many nations doth shew that those things that were added (by Lucian or Hesychius) are false. So St. Hierome in that place. The same Hierome elsewhere affirmeth that he, the time was, had set forth the translation of the Seventy, suæ linguæ hominibus; that is, for his countrymen of Dalmatia. Which words not only Erasmus doth understand to purport, that St. Hierome translated the Scripture into the Dalmatian tongue; but also Sixtus Senensis, and Alphonsus a Castro, (that we speak of no more,) men not to be excepted against by them of Rome, do ingenuously confess as much. So St. Chrysostome, that lived in St. Hierome's time, giveth evidence with him: The doctrine of St. John (saith he) did not in such sort (as the Philosophers' did) vanish away: but the Syrians, Egyptians, Indians, Persians, Ethiopians, and infinite other nations, being barbarous people, translated it into their (mother) tongue, and have learned to be (true) Philosophers, he meaneth Christians. To this may be added Theodoret, as next unto him both for antiquity, and for learning. His words be these, Every country that is under the sun is full of these words, (of the Apostles and Prophets;) and the Hebrew tongue (he meaneth the Scriptures in the Hebrew tongue) is turned not only into the language of the Grecians, but also of the Romans, and Egyptians, and Persians, and Indians, and Armenians, and Scythians, and Sauromatians, and, briefly, into all the languages that any nation useth. So he. In like manner Ulpilas is reported by Paulus Diaconus and Isidore, and before them by Sozomen, to have translated the Scriptures into the Gothick tongue: John Bishop of Sevil by Vasseus, to have turned them into Arabick about the Year of our Lord 717: Beda by Cistertiensis, to have turned a great part of them into Saxon: Efnard by Trithemius, to have abridged the French Psalter (as Beda had done the Hebrew) about the year 800: King Alured by the said Cistertiensis, to have turned the Psalter into Saxon: Methodius by Aventinus (printed at Ingolstad) to have turned the Scriptures into Sclavonian: Valdo Bishop of Frising by Beatus Rhenanus, to have caused about that time the Gospels to be translated into Dutch rhyme, yet extant in the library of Corbinian: Valdus by divers, to have turned them himself, or to have gotten them turned, into French, about the Year 1160: Charles the Fifth of that name, surnamed The wise, to have caused them to be turned into French about 200 years after Valdus' time; of which translation there be many copies yet extant, as witnesseth Beroaldus. Much about that time, even in our King Richard the Second's days, John Trevisa translated them into English, and many English Bibles in written hand are yet to be seen with divers; translated, as it is very probable, in that age. So the Syrian translation of the New Testament is in most learned men's libraries, of Widmanstadius' setting forth; and the Psalter in Arabick is with many, of Augustinus Nebiensis' setting forth. So Postel affirmeth, that in his travel he saw the Gospels in the Ethiopian tongue: And Ambrose Thesius alledgeth the Psalter of the Indians, which he testifieth to have been set forth by Potken in Syrian characters. So that to have the Scriptures in the mother tongue is not a quaint conceit lately taken up, either by the Lord Cromwell in England, or by the Lord Radevile in Polony, or by the Lord Ungnadius in the Emperor's dominion, but hath been thought upon, and put in practice of old, even from the first times of the conversion of any nation; no doubt, because it was esteemed most profitable to cause faith to grow in men's hearts the sooner, and to make them to be able to say with the words of the Psalm, As we have heard, so we have seen.

Now the Church of Rome would seem at the length to bear a motherly affection toward her children, and to allow them the Scriptures in the mother tongue: but indeed it is a gift, not deserving to be called a gift, an unprofitable gift: they must first get a licence in writing before they may use them; and to get that, they must approve themselves to their Confessor, that is, to be such as are, if not frozen in the dregs, yet soured with the leaven of their superstition. Howbeit it seemed too much to Clement the Eighth, that there should be any licence granted to have them in the vulgar tongue, and therefore he overruleth and frustrateth the grant of Pius the Fourth. So much are they afraid of the light of the Scripture, (Lucifugæ Scripturarum, as Tertullian speaketh,) that they will not trust the people with it, no not as it is set forth by their own sworn men, no not with the licence of their own Bishops and Inquisitors. Yea, so unwilling they are to communicate the Scriptures to the people's understanding in any sort, that they are not ashamed to confess, that we forced them to translate it into English against their wills. This seemeth to argue a bad cause, or a bad conscience, or both. Sure we are, that it is not he that hath good gold, that is afraid to bring it to the touchstone, but he that hath the counterfeit; neither is it the true man that shunneth the light, but the malefactor, lest his deeds should be reproved; neither is it the plaindealing merchant that is unwilling to have the weights, or the meteyard, brought in place, but he that useth deceit. But we will let them alone for this fault, and return to translation.

Many men's mouths have been opened a good while (and yet are not stopped) with speeches about the translation so long in hand, or rather perusals of translations made before: and ask what may be the reason, what the necessity, of the employment. Hath the Church been deceived, say they, all this while? Hath her sweet bread been mingled with leaven, her silver with dross, her wine with water, her milk with lime? (lacte gypsum male miscetur, saith St. Irenee.) We hoped that we had been in the right way, that we had had the Oracles of God delivered unto us, and that though all the world had cause to be offended, and to complain, yet that we had none. Hath the nurse holden out the breast, and nothing but wind in it? Hath the bread been delivered by the Fathers of the Church, and the same proved to be lapidosus, as Seneca speaketh? What is it to handle the word of God deceitfully, if this be not? Thus certain brethren. Also the adversaries of Judah and Jerusalem, like Sanballat in Nehemiah, mock, as we hear, both at the work and workmen, saying, What do these weak Jews, &c. will they make the stones whole again out of the heaps of dust which are burnt? although they build, yet if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stony wall. Was their translation good before? Why do they now mend it? Was it not good? Why then was it obtruded to the people? Yea, why did the Catholicks (meaning Popish Romanists) always go in jeopardy for refusing to go to hear it? Nay, if it must be translated into English, Catholicks are fittest to do it. They have learning, and they know when a thing is well, they can manum de tabula. We will answer them both briefly: and the former, being brethren, thus with St. Hierome, Damnamus veteres? Minime, sed post priorum studia in domo Domini quod possumus laboramus. That is, Do we condemn the ancient? In no case: but after the endeavours of them that were before us, we take the best pains we can in the house of God. As if he said, Being provoked by the example of the learned that lived before my time, I have thought it my duty to assay, whether my talent in the knowledge of the tongues may be profitable in any measure to God's Church, lest I should seem to have laboured in them in vain, and lest I should be thought to glory in men (although ancient) above that which was in them. Thus St. Hierome may be thought to speak.

And to the same effect say we, that we are so far off from condemning any of their labours that travelled before us in this kind, either in this land, or beyond sea, either in King Henry's time, or King Edward's, (if there were any translation, or correction of a translation, in his time,) or Queen Elizabeth's of ever renowned memory, that we acknowledge them to have been raised up of God for the building and furnishing of his Church, and that they deserve to be had of us and of posterity in everlasting remembrance. The judgment of Aristotle is worthy and well known: If Timotheus had not been, we had not had much sweet musick: But if Phrynis (Timotheus' master) had not been, we had not had Timotheus. Therefore blessed be they, and most honoured be their name, that break the ice, and give the onset upon that which helpeth forward to the saving of souls. Now what can be more available thereto, than to deliver God's book unto God's people in a tongue which they understand? Since of an hidden treasure, and of a fountain that is sealed, there is no profit, as Ptolemy Philadelph wrote to the Rabbins or masters of the Jews, as witnesseth Epiphanius: and as St. Augustine saith, A man had rather be with his dog than with a stranger (whose tongue is strange unto him.) Yet for all that, as nothing is begun and perfected at the same time, and the latter thoughts are thought to be the wiser: so, if we building upon their foundation that went before us, and being holpen by their labours, do endeavour to make that better which they left so good; no man, we are sure, hath cause to mislike us; they, we persuade ourselves, if they were alive, would thank us. The vintage of Abiezer, that strake the stroke: yet the gleaning of grapes of Ephraim was not to be despised. See Judges viii. 2. Joash the king of Israel did not satisfy himself till he had smitten the ground three times; and yet he offended the Prophet for giving over then. Aquila, of whom we spake before, translated the Bible as carefully and as skilfully as he could; and yet he thought good to go over it again, and then it got the credit with the Jews, to be called κατ' ἀκρίβειαν, that is, accurately done, as St. Hierome witnesseth. How many books of profane learning have been gone over again and again, by the same translators, by others? Of one and the same book of Aristotle's Ethicks there are extant not so few as six or seven several translations. Now if this cost may be bestowed upon the gourd, which affordeth us a little shade, and which to day flourisheth, but to morrow is cut down; what may we bestow, nay, what ought we not to bestow, upon the vine, the fruit whereof maketh glad the conscience of man, and the stem whereof abideth for ever? And this is the word of God, which we translate. What is the chaff to the wheat? saith the Lord. Tanti vitreum, quanti verum margaritum! (saith Tertullian.) If a toy of glass be of that reckoning with us, how ought we to value the true pearl! Therefore let no man's eye be evil, because his Majesty's is good; neither let any be grieved, that we have a Prince that seeketh the increase of the spiritual wealth of Israel; (let Sanballats and Tobiahs do so, which therefore do bear their just reproof:) but let us rather bless God from the ground of our heart for working this religious care in him to have the translations of the Bible maturely considered of and examined. For by this means it cometh to pass, that whatsoever is sound already, (and all is sound for substance in one or other of our editions, and the worst of ours far better than their authentick vulgar) the same will shine as gold more brightly, being rubbed and polished; also, if any thing be halting, or superfluous, or not so agreeable to the original, the same may be corrected, and the truth set in place. And what can the King command to be done, that will bring him more true honour than this? And wherein could they that have been set a work approve their duty to the King, yea, their obedience to God, and love to his Saints, more, than by yielding their service, and all that is within them, for the furnishing of the work? But besides all this, they were the principal motives of it, and therefore ought least to quarrel it. For the very historical truth is, that upon the importunate petitions of the Puritanes at his Majesty's coming to this crown, the conference at Hampton-court having been appointed for hearing their complaints, when by force of reason they were put from all other grounds, they had recourse at the last to this shift, that they could not with good conscience subscribe to the communion book, since it maintained the Bible as it was there translated, which was, as they said, a most corrupted translation. And although this was judged to be but a very poor and empty shift, yet even hereupon did his Majesty begin to bethink himself of the good that might ensue by a new translation, and presently after gave order for this translation which is now presented unto thee. Thus much to satisfy our scrupulous brethren.

Now to the latter we answer, That we do not deny, nay, we affirm and avow, that the very meanest translation of the Bible in English, set forth by men of our profession, (for we have seen none of their's of the whole Bible as yet) containeth the word of God, nay, is the word of God: As the King's speech which he uttered in Parliament, being translated into French, Dutch, Italian, and Latin, is still the King's speech, though it be not interpreted by every translator with the like grace, nor peradventure so fitly for phrase, nor so expressly for sense, every where. For it is confessed, that things are to take their denomination of the greater part; and a natural man could say, Verum ubi multa nitent in carmine, non ego paucis offendor maculis, &c. A man may be counted a virtuous man, though he have made many slips in his life, (else there were none virtuous, for in many things we offend all,) also a comely man and lovely, though he have some warts upon his hand; yea, not only freckles upon his face, but also scars. No cause therefore why the word translated should be denied to be the word, or forbidden to be current, notwithstanding that some imperfections and blemishes may be noted in the setting forth of it. For what ever was perfect under the sun, where Apostles or apostolick men, that is, men endued with an extraordinary measure of God's Spirit, and privileged with the privilege of infallibility, had not their hand? The Romanists therefore in refusing to hear, and daring to burn the word translated, did no less than despite the Spirit of grace, from whom originally it proceeded, and whose sense and meaning, as well as man's weakness would enable, it did express. Judge by an example or two.

Plutarch writeth, that after that Rome had been burnt by the Gauls, they fell soon to build it again: but doing it in haste, they did not cast the streets, nor proportion the houses, in such comely fashion, as had been most sightly and convenient. Was Cataline therefore an honest man, or a good patriot, that sought to bring it to a combustion? Or Nero a good Prince, that did indeed set it on fire? So by the story of Ezra and the prophecy of Haggai it may be gathered, that the temple built by Zerubbabel after the return from Babylon was by no means to be compared to the former built by Solomon: for they that remembered the former wept when they considered the latter. Notwithstanding might this latter either have been abhorred and forsaken by the Jews, or profaned by the Greeks? The like we are to think of translations. The translation of the Seventy dissenteth from the Original in many places, neither doth it come near it for perspicuity, gravity, majesty. Yet which of the Apostles did condemn it? Condemn it? Nay, they used it, (as it is apparent, and as St. Hierome and most learned men do confess;) which they would not have done, nor by their example of using of it so grace and commend it to the Church, if it had been unworthy the appellation and name of the word of God. And whereas they urge for their second defence of their vilifying and abusing of the English Bibles, or some pieces thereof, which they meet with, for that hereticks forsooth were the authors of the translations: (hereticks they call us by the same right that they call themselves catholicks, both being wrong:) we marvel what divinity taught them so. We are sure Tertullian was of another mind: Ex personis probamus fidem, an ex fide personas? Do we try men's faith by their persons? We should try their persons by their faith. Also St. Augustine was of another mind: for he, lighting upon certain rules made by Tychonius a Donatist for the better understanding of the word, was not ashamed to make use of them, yea, to insert them into his own book, with giving commendation to them so far forth as they were worthy to be commended, as is to be seen in St. Augustine's third book De Doctr. Christ. To be short, Origen, and the whole Church of God for certain hundred years, were of another mind: for they were so far from treading under foot (much more from burning) the translation of Aquila a proselyte, that is, one that had turned Jew, of Symmachus, and Theodotion, both Ebionites, that is, most vile hereticks, that they joined them together with the Hebrew original, and the translation of the Seventy, (as hath been before signified out of Epiphanius.) and set them forth openly to be considered of and perused by all. But we weary the unlearned, who need not know so much; and trouble the learned, who know it already.

Yet before we end, we must answer a third cavil and objection of their's against us, for altering and amending our translations so oft; wherein truly they deal hardly and strangely with us. For to whom ever was it imputed for a fault, (by such as were wise,) to go over that which he had done and to amend it where he saw cause? St. Augustine was not afraid to exhort St. Hierome to a Palinodia or recantation. The same St. Augustine was not ashamed to retractate, we might say, revoke, many things that had passed him, and doth even glory that he seeth his infirmities. If we will be sons of the truth, we must consider what it speaketh, and trample upon our own credit, yea, and upon other men's too, if either be any way an hinderance to it. This to the cause. Then to the persons we say, that of all men they ought to be most silent in this case. For what varieties have they, and what alterations have they made, not only of their service books, portesses, and breviaries, but also of their Latin translation? The service book supposed to be made by St. Ambrose, (Officium Ambrosianum,) was a great while in special use and request: but Pope Adrian, calling a council with the aid of Charles the Emperor, abolished it, yea, burnt it, and commanded the service book of St. Gregory universally to be used. Well, Officium Gregorianum gets by this means to be in credit; but doth it continue without change or altering? No, the very Roman service was of two fashions; the new fashion, and the old, the one used in one Church, and the other in another; as is to be seen in Pamelius a Romanist, his preface before Micrologus. The same Pamelius reporteth out of Radulphus de Rivo, that about the year of our Lord 1277 Pope Nicolas the Third removed out of the churches of Rome the more ancient books (of service,) and brought into use the missals of the Friers Minorites, and commanded them to be observed there; insomuch that about an hundred years after, when the above named Radulphus happened to be at Rome, he found all the books to be new, of the new stamp. Neither was there this chopping and changing in the more ancient times only, but also of late. Pius Quintus himself confesseth, that every bishoprick almost had a peculiar kind of service, most unlike to that which others had; which moved him to abolish all other breviaries, though never so ancient, and privileged and published by Bishops in their Dioceses, and to establish and ratify that only which was of his own setting forth in the year 1568. Now when the Father of their Church, who gladly would heal the sore of the daughter of his people softly and slightly, and make the best of it, findeth so great fault with them for their odds and jarring; we hope the children have no great cause to vaunt of their uniformity. But the difference that appeareth between our translations, and our often correcting of them, is the thing that we are specially charged with; let us see therefore whether they themselves be without fault this way, (if it be to be counted a fault to correct,) and whether they be fit men to throw stones at us: O tandem major parcas insane minori: They that are less sound themselves ought not to object infirmities to others. If we should tell them, that Valla, Stapulensis, Erasmus, and Vives, found fault with their vulgar translation, and consequently wished the same to be mended, or a new one to be made; they would answer peradventure, that we produced their enemies for witnesses against them; albeit they were in no other sort enemies, than as St. Paul was to the Galatians, for telling them the truth: and it were to be wished, that they had dared to tell it them plainlier and oftener. But what will they say to this, That Pope Leo the Tenth allowed Erasmus' translation of the New Testament, so much different from the vulgar, by his apostolick letter and bull? That the same Leo exhorted Pagnine to translate the whole Bible, and bare whatsoever charges was necessary for the work? Surely, as the apostle reasoneth to the Hebrews, that if the former Law and Testament had been sufficient, there had been no need of the latter: so we may say, that if the old vulgar had been at all points allowable, to small purpose had labour and charges been undergone about framing of a new. If they say, it was one Pope's private opinion, and that he consulted only himself; then we are able to go further with them, and to aver, that more of their chief men of all sorts, even their own Trent champions, Paiva and Vega, and their own inquisitor Hieronymus ab Oleastro, and their own Bishop Isidorus Clarius, and their own Cardinal Thomas a vio Cajetan, do either make new translations themselves, or follow new ones of other men's making, or note the vulgar interpreter for halting, none of them fear to dissent from him, nor yet to except against him. And call they this an uniform tenor of text and judgment about the text, so many of their worthies disclaiming the now received conceit? Nay, we will yet come nearer the quick. Doth not their Paris edition differ from the Lovain, and Hentenius's from them both, and yet all of them allowed by authority? Nay, doth not Sixtus Quintus confess, that certain Catholicks (he meaneth certain of his own side) were in such an humour of translating the Scriptures into Latin, that Satan taking occasion by them, though they thought of no such matter, did strive what he could, out of so uncertain and manifold a variety of translations, so to mingle all things, that nothing might seem to be left certain and firm in them, &c.? Nay further, did not the same Sixtus ordain by an inviolable decree, and that with the counsel and consent of his Cardinals, that the Latin edition of the Old and New Testament, which the council of Trent would have to be authentick, is the same without controversy which he then set forth, being diligently corrected and printed in the printinghouse of Vatican? Thus Sixtus in his preface before his Bible. And yet Clement the Eighth, his immediate successor to account of, publisheth another edition of the Bible, containing in it infinite differences from that of Sixtus, and many of them weighty and material; and yet this must be authentick by all means. What is to have the faith of our glorious Lord Jesus Christ with yea and nay, if this be not? Again, what is sweet harmony and consent, if this be? Therefore, as Demaratus of Corinth advised a great King, before he talked of the dissensions among the Grecians, to compose his domestick broils; (for at that time his queen and his son and heir were at deadly feud with him) so all the while that our adversaries do make so many and so various editions themselves, and do jar so much about the worth and authority of them, they can with no shew of equity challenge us for changing and correcting.

But it is high time to leave them, and to shew in brief what we proposed to ourselves, and what course we held, in this our perusal and survey of the Bible. Truly, good Christian Reader, we never thought from the beginning that we should need to make a new translation, nor yet to make of a bad one a good one; (for then the imputation of Sixtus had been true in some sort, that our people had been fed with gall of dragons instead of wine, with wheal instead of milk;) but to make a good one better, or out of many good ones one principal good one, not justly to be excepted against; that hath been our endeavour, that our mark. To that purpose there were many chosen, that were greater in other men's eyes than in their own, and that sought the truth rather than their own praise. Again, they came, or were thought to come, to the work, not exercendi causa, (as one saith,) but exercitati, that is, learned, not to learn; for the chief overseer and ἐργοδιώκτης under his Majesty, to whom not only we, but also our whole Church was much bound, knew by his wisdom, which thing also Nazianzen taught so long ago, that it is a preposterous order to teach first, and to learn after; that τὸ ἐν πίθῳ κεραμίαν μανθάνειν, to learn and practise together, is neither commendable for the workman, nor safe for the work. Therefore such were thought upon, as could say modestly with St. Hierome, Et Hebræum sermonem ex parte didicimus, et in Latino pene ab ipsis incunabulis, &c. detriti sumus; Both we have learned the Hebrew tongue in part, and in the Latin we have been exercised almost from our very cradle. St. Hierome maketh no mention of the Greek tongue, wherein yet he did excel; because he translated not the Old Testament out of Greek, but out of Hebrew. And in what sort did these assemble? In the trust of their own knowledge, or of their sharpness of wit, or deepness of judgment, as it were in an arm of flesh? At no hand. They trusted in him that hath the key of David, opening, and no man shutting; they prayed to the Lord, the Father of our Lord, to the effect that St. Augustine did; O let thy Scriptures be my pure delight; let me not be deceived in them, neither let me deceive by them. In this confidence, and with this devotion, did they assemble together; not too many, lest one should trouble another; and yet many, lest many things haply might escape them. If you ask what they had before them; truly it was the Hebrew text of the Old Testament, the Greek of the New. These are the two golden pipes, or rather conduits, wherethrough the olivebranches empty themselves into the gold. St. Augustine calleth them precedent, or original, tongues; St. Hierome, fountains. The same St. Hierome affirmeth, and Gratian hath not spared to put it into his decree, That as the credit of the old books (he meaneth of the Old Testament) is to be tried by the Hebrew volumes; so of the new by the Greek tongue, he meaneth by the original Greek. If truth be to be tried by these tongues, then whence should a translation be made, but out of them? These tongues therefore (the Scriptures, we say, in those tongues) we set before us to translate, being the tongues wherein God was pleased to speak to his Church by his Prophets and Apostles. Neither did we run over the work with that posting haste that the Septuagint did, if that be true which is reported of them, that they finished it in seventy two days; neither were we barred or hindered from going over it again, having once done it, like St. Hierome, if that be true which himself reporteth, that he could no sooner write any thing, but presently it was caught from him, and published, and he could not have leave to mend it: neither, to be short, were we the first that fell in hand with translating the Scripture into English, and consequently destitute of former helps, as it is written of Origen, that he was the first in a manner, that put his hand to write commentaries upon the Scriptures, and therefore no marvel if he overshot himself many times. None of these things: The work hath not been huddled up in seventy two days, but hath cost the workmen, as light as it seemeth, the pains of twice seven times seventy two days, and more. Matters of such weight and consequence are to be speeded with maturity: for in a business of moment a man feareth not the blame of convenient slackness. Neither did we think much to consult the translators or commentators, Chaldee, Hebrew, Syrian, Greek, or Latin; no, nor the Spanish, French, Italian, or Dutch; neither did we disdain to revise that which we had done, and to bring back to the anvil that which we had hammered: but having and using as great helps as were needful, and fearing no reproach for slowness, nor coveting praise for expedition, we have at length, through the good hand of the Lord upon us, brought the work to that pass that you see.

Some peradventure would have no variety of senses to be set in the margin, lest the authority of the Scriptures for deciding of controversies by that shew of uncertainty should somewhat be shaken. But we hold their judgment not to be so sound in this point. For though whatsoever things are necessary are manifest, as St. Chrysostome saith; and, as St. Augustine, in those things that are plainly set down in the Scriptures all such matters are found, that concern faith, hope, and charity: Yet for all that it cannot be dissembled, that partly to exercise and whet our wits, partly to wean the curious from lothing of them for their every where plainness, partly also to stir up our devotion to crave the assistance of God's Spirit by prayer, and lastly, that we might be forward to seek aid of our brethren by conference, and never scorn those that be not in all respects so complete as they should be, being to seek in many things ourselves, it hath pleased God in his Divine Providence here and there to scatter words and sentences of that difficulty and doubtfulness, not in doctrinal points that concern salvation, (for in such it hath been vouched that the Scriptures are plain,) but in matters of less moment, that fearfulness would better beseem us than confidence, and if we will resolve, to resolve upon modesty with St. Augustine, (though not in this same case altogether, yet upon the same ground,) Melius est dubitare de occultis, quam litigare de incertis: It is better to make doubt of those things which are secret, than to strive about those things that are uncertain. There be many words in the Scriptures, which be never found there but once, (having neither brother nor neighbour, as the Hebrews speak,) so that we cannot be holpen by conference of places. Again, there be many rare names of certain birds, beasts, and precious stones, &c. concerning which the Hebrews themselves are so divided among themselves for judgment, that they may seem to have defined this or that, rather because they would say something, than because they were sure of that which they said, as St. Hierome somewhere saith of the Septuagint. Now in such a case doth not a margin do well to admonish the Reader to seek further, and not to conclude or dogmatize upon this or that peremptorily? For as it is a fault of incredulity, to doubt of those things that are evident; so to determine of such things as the Spirit of God hath left (even in the judgment of the judicious) questionable, can be no less than presumption. Therefore as St. Augustine saith, that variety of translations is profitable for the finding out of the sense of the Scriptures: so diversity of signification and sense in the margin, where the text is not so clear, must needs do good; yea, is necessary, as we are persuaded. We know that Sixtus Quintus expressly forbiddeth that any variety of readings of their vulgar edition should be put in the margin; (which though it be not altogether the same thing to that we have in hand, yet it looketh that way;) but we think he hath not all of his own side his favourers for this conceit. They that are wise had rather have their judgments at liberty in differences of readings, than to be captivated to one, when it may be the other. If they were sure that their high priest had all laws shut up in his breast, as Paul the Second bragged, and that he were as free from error by special privilege, as the dictators of Rome were made by law inviolable, it were another matter; then his word were an oracle, his opinion a decision. But the eyes of the world are now open, God be thanked, and have been a great while; they find that he is subject to the same affections and infirmities that others be, that his body is subject to wounds; and therefore so much as he proveth, not as much as he claimeth, they grant and embrace.

Another thing we think good to admonish thee of, gentle Reader, that we have not tied ourselves to an uniformity of phrasing, or to an identity of words, as some peradventure would wish that we had done, because they observe, that some learned men somewhere have been as exact as they could that way. Truly, that we might not vary from the sense of that which we had translated before, if the word signified the same thing in both places, (for there be some words that be not of the same sense every where,) we were especially careful, and made a conscience according to our duty. But that we should express the same notion in the same particular word; as for example, if we translate the Hebrew or Greek word once by purpose, never to call it intent; if one where journeying, never travelling; if one where think, never suppose; if one where pain, never ache; if one where joy, never gladness, &c. thus to mince the matter, we thought to savour more of curiosity than wisdom, and that rather it would breed scorn in the atheist, than bring profit to the godly reader. For is the kingdom of God become words or syllables? Why should we be in bondage to them, if we may be free? use one precisely, when we may use another no less fit as commodiously? A godly Father in the primitive time shewed himself greatly moved, that one of newfangledness called κραββάτον, σκίμπους, though the difference be little or none; and another reporteth, that he was much abused for turning cucurbita (to which reading the people had been used) into hedera. Now if this happen in better times, and upon so small occasions, we might justly fear hard censure, if generally we should make verbal and unnecessary changings. We might also be charged (by scoffers) with some unequal dealing towards a great number of good English words. For as it is written of a certain great Philosopher, that he should say, that those logs were happy that were made images to be worshipped; for their fellows, as good as they, lay for blocks behind the fire: so if we should say, as it were, unto certain words, Stand up higher, have a place in the Bible always; and to others of like quality, Get you hence, be banished for ever; we might be taxed peradventure with St. James's words, namely, To be partial in ourselves, and judges of evil thoughts. Add hereunto, that niceness in words was always counted the next step to trifling; and so was to be curious about names too: also that we cannot follow a better pattern for elocution than God himself; therefore he using divers words in his holy writ, and indifferently for one thing in nature: we, if we will not be superstitious, may use the same liberty in our English versions out of Hebrew and Greek, for that copy or store that he hath given us. Lastly, we have on the one side avoided the scrupulosity of the Puritanes, who leave the old Ecclesiastical words, and betake them to other, as when they put washing for baptism, and congregation instead of Church: as also on the other side we have shunned the obscurity of the Papists, in their azymes, tunike, rational, holocausts, prepuce, pasche, and a number of such like, whereof their late translation is full, and that of purpose to darken the sense, that since they must needs translate the Bible, yet by the language thereof it may be kept from being understood. But we desire that the Scripture may speak like itself, as in the language of Canaan, that it may be understood even of the very vulgar.

Many other things we might give thee warning of, gentle Reader, if we had not exceeded the measure of a preface already. It remaineth that we commend thee to God, and to the Spirit of his grace, which is able to build further than we can ask or think. He removeth the scales from our eyes, the vail from our hearts, opening our wits that we may understand his word, enlarging our hearts, yea, correcting our affections, that we may love it above gold and silver, yea, that we may love it to the end. Ye are brought unto fountains of living water which ye digged not; do not cast earth into them, with the Philistines, neither prefer broken pits before them, with the wicked Jews. Others have laboured, and you may enter into their labours. O receive not so great things in vain: O despise not so great salvation. Be not like swine to tread under foot so precious things, neither yet like dogs to tear and abuse holy things. Say not to our Saviour with the Gergesites, Depart out of our coasts; neither yet with Esau sell your birthright for a mess of pottage. If light be come into the world, love not darkness more than light: if food, if clothing, be offered, go not naked, starve not yourselves. Remember the advice of Nazianzene, It is a grievous thing (or dangerous) to neglect a great fair, and to seek to make markets afterwards: also the encouragement of St. Chrysostome, It is altogether impossible, that he that is sober (and watchful) should at any time be neglected: lastly, the admonition and menacing of St. Augustine, They that despise God's will inviting them shall feel God's will taking vengeance of them. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God; but a blessed thing it is, and will bring us to everlasting blessedness in the end, when God speaketh unto us, to hearken; when he setteth his word before us, to read it; when he stretcheth out his hand and calleth, to answer, Here am I, here we are to do thy will, O God. The Lord work a care and conscience in us to know him and serve him that we may be acknowledged of him at the appearing of our Lord JESUS CHRIST, to whom with the Holy Ghost be all praise and thanksgiving. Amen.

THE TWO-VERSION BIBLE

THE OLD TESTAMENT

PREFACE TO THE REVISED VERSION OF THE OLD TESTAMENT.*

THE Revision of the Authorised Version was undertaken in consequence of a Resolution passed by both houses of the Convocation of the Province of Canterbury, as has been fully explained in the Preface to the Revised Version of the New Testament, which was first published in May 1881. When the two Companies were appointed for carrying out this work, the following General Principles, among others, were laid down by the Revision Committee of Convocation for their guidance:—

'1. To introduce as few alterations as possible into the Text of the Authorised Version consistently with faithfulness.'

'2. To limit, as far as possible, the expression of such alterations to the language of the Authorised and earlier English Versions.'

'4. That the Text to be adopted be that for which the evidence is decidedly preponderating; and that when the Text so adopted differs from that from which the Authorised Version was made, the alteration be indicated in the margin.'

'7. To revise the headings of chapters and pages, paragraphs, italics, and punctuation.'

In order to shew the manner in which the Old Testament Company have endeavoured to carry out their instructions, it will be convenient to treat the subjects mentioned in the foregoing rules in a somewhat different order.

It will be observed that in Rule 4 the word 'Text' is used in a different sense from that in Rule 1, and in the case of the Old Testament denotes the Hebrew or Aramaic original of the several books. In this respect the task of the Revisers has been much simpler than that which the New Testament Company had before them. The Received, or, as it is commonly called, the Massoretic Text of the Old Testament Scriptures has come down to us in manuscripts which are of no very great antiquity, and which all belong to the same family or recension[1]. That other recensions were at one time in existence is probable from the variations in the Ancient Versions, the oldest of which, namely the Greek or Septuagint, was made, at least in part, some two centuries before the Christian era. But as the state of knowledge on the subject is not at present such as to justify any attempt at an entire reconstruction of the text on the authority of the Versions, the Revisers have thought it most prudent to adopt the Massoretic Text as the basis of their work, and to depart from it, as the Authorised Translators had done[2], only in exceptional cases. With regard to the variations in the Massoretic Text itself, the Revisers have endeavoured to translate what appeared to them to be the best reading in the text, and where the alternative reading seemed sufficiently probable or important they have placed it in the margin. In some few instances of extreme difficulty a reading has been adopted on the authority of the Ancient Versions, and the departure from the Massoretic Text recorded in the margin. In other cases, where the versions appeared to supply a very probable though not so necessary a correction of the text, the text has been left and the variation indicated in the margin only.

In endeavouring to carry out as fully as possible the spirit of Rules 1 and 2, the Revisers have borne in mind that it was their duty not to make a new translation but to revise one already existing, which for more than two centuries and a half had held the position of an English classic. They have therefore departed from it only in cases where they disagreed with the Translators of 1611 as to the meaning or construction of a word or sentence; or where it was necessary for the sake of uniformity to render such parallel passages as were identical in Hebrew by the same English words, so that an English reader might know at once by comparison that a difference in the translation corresponded to a difference in the original; or where the language of the Authorised Version was liable to be misunderstood by reason of its being archaic or obscure; or finally, where the rendering of an earlier English version seemed preferable, or where by an apparently slight change it was possible to bring out more fully the meaning of a passage of which the translation was already substantially accurate.

It has been thought advisable in regard to the word 'JEHOVAH' to follow the usage of the Authorised Version, and not to insert it uniformly in place of 'LORD' or 'GOD', which when printed in small capitals represent the words substituted by Jewish custom for the ineffable Name according to the vowel points by which it is distinguished. It will be found therefore that in this respect the Authorised Version has been departed from only in a few passages, in which the introduction of a proper name seemed to be required.

Terms of natural history have been changed only where it was certain that the Authorised Version was incorrect and where there was sufficient evidence for the substituted rendering. In cases of doubt the alternative rendering has been given in the margin; and even where no doubt existed, but where there was no familiar English equivalent for the original word, the Old Version has been allowed to remain[1], and the more accurate term has been placed in the margin.

In some words of very frequent occurrence, the Authorised Version being either inadequate or inconsistent, and sometimes misleading, changes have been introduced with as much uniformity as appeared practicable or desirable. For instance, 'the tabernacle of the congregation' has been everywhere changed to 'the tent of meeting', on account of Exodus xxv. 22, xxix. 42, 43, and also because 'the tabernacle of the congregation' conveys an entirely wrong sense. The words 'tabernacle' and 'tent', as the renderings of two different Hebrew words, are in the Authorised Version frequently interchanged in such a manner as to lead to confusion; and the Revisers have endeavoured throughout the Pentateuch to preserve a consistent distinction between them. Their practice in regard to the words 'assembly' and 'congregation' has been the same in principle, although they have contented themselves with introducing greater consistency of rendering without aiming at absolute uniformity. In consequence of the changes which have taken place in the English language, the term 'meat offering' has become inappropriate to describe an offering of which flesh was no part; and by the alteration to 'meal offering' a sufficiently accurate representation of the original has been obtained with the least possible change of form.

As regards the use of words, there are only a few cases in which it has been found needful to deviate from the language employed in the Authorised Version. One of these deviations occurs so frequently that it may be well to state briefly why it was adopted. The word 'peoples' was nowhere used by King James's Translators in the Old Testament, and in the New Testament it occurs only twice (Rev. x. 11, xvii. 15). The effect of this was to leave the rendering of numerous passages inadequate or obscure or even positively misleading. Thus in one of the best known Psalms (Ps. lxvii.), where the Septuagint has λαοί and the Vulgate populi, the English had 'Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee'; leaving it at least doubtful whether the 'nations' of verse 4, or God's people, Israel, be referred to. And in Isaiah lv. 4, 'Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people', the word 'people' is naturally understood by the English reader to refer to Israel.

Again, the Hebrew word goyim 'nations', which is applied to the nations of Canaan dispossessed by the Hebrews, and then also to the surrounding nations among whom the people of Israel were afterwards dispersed, acquired in later times a moral significance, which is represented in the Authorised Version by the rendering 'heathen' or 'Gentiles'. While recognizing this moral sense of the word, the Revisers have employed it much more sparingly than their predecessors had done.

Similarly, the Hebrew Sheôl, which signifies the abode of departed spirits, and corresponds to the Greek Hades, or the under world, is variously rendered in the Authorised Version by 'grave', 'pit', and 'hell'. Of these renderings 'hell', if it could be taken in its original sense as used in the Creeds, would be a fairly adequate equivalent for the Hebrew word; but it is so commonly understood of the place of torment that to employ it frequently would lead to inevitable misunderstanding. The Revisers therefore in the historical narratives have left the rendering 'the grave' or 'the pit' in the text, with a marginal note 'Heb. Sheol' to indicate that it does not signify 'the place of burial'; while in the poetical writings they have put most commonly 'Sheol' in the text and 'the grave' in the margin. In Isaiah xiv. however, where 'hell' is used in more of its original sense and is less liable to be misunderstood, and where any change in so familiar a passage which was not distinctly an improvement would be a decided loss, the Revisers have contented themselves with leaving 'hell' in the text, and have connected it with other passages by putting 'Sheol' in the margin.

In connexion with this it may be mentioned that 'Abaddon', which has hitherto been known to the English reader of the Bible only from the New Testament (Rev. ix. 11), has been introduced in three passages (Job xxvi. 6; Prov. xv. 11, xxvii. 20), where a proper name appears to be required for giving vividness and point.

The Hebrew word Ashêrah, which is uniformly and wrongly rendered 'grove' in the Authorised Version, most probably denotes the wooden symbol of a goddess; and the Revisers therefore have not hesitated to introduce it as a proper name in the singular (Judg. vi. 25, &c.), with the plurals Asherim (Ex. xxxiv. 13, &c.) and Asheroth (Judg. iii. 7, &c.), following the analogy of the Baalim (Judg. iii. 7) and the Ashtaroth (Judg. ii. 13), which are already familiar.

In regard to the language of the Authorised Version, the Revisers have thought it no part of their duty to reduce it to conformity with modern usage, and have therefore left untouched all archaisms, whether of language or construction, which though not in familiar use cause a reader no embarrassment and lead to no misunderstanding. They are aware that in so doing they will disappoint the large English-speaking race on the other side of the Atlantic, and it is a question upon which they are prepared to agree to a friendly difference of opinion. The principle by which they have been guided has been clear and consistent. Where an archaic word or expression was liable to be misunderstood or at least was not perfectly intelligible, they have substituted for it another, in equally good use at the time the Authorised Version was made, and expressing all that the archaism was intended to convey, but more familiar to the modern reader. In such cases the gain was greater than the loss. But in other instances where the word or expression, although obsolete, was not unintelligible, it was thought that the change would involve greater loss than gain, and the old rendering was therefore allowed to stand. More especially was this the case when the archaism was a perfectly correct rendering of the original and there was no exact modern equivalent for it. The principle adopted by the Company will be best illustrated by two typical examples. The verb 'to ear' in the sense of 'to plough' and the substantive 'earing' for 'ploughing' were very reluctantly abandoned, and only because it was ascertained that their meaning was unknown to many persons of good intelligence and education. But it was easy to put in their place equivalents which had a pedigree of almost equal antiquity, and it would have been an excess of conservatism to refuse to substitute for an unintelligible archaism an expression to which no ambiguity could be attached. On the other hand the word 'bolled' (Ex. ix. 31), which signifies 'podded for seed' and is known in provincial dialects, has no synonym in literary English. To have discarded it in favour of a less accurate or more paraphrastic expression would have been to impoverish the language; and it was therefore left, because it exactly expresses one view which is taken of the meaning of the original.

One of the few instances in which the language of the Authorised Version has been modified in accordance with later usage is the change of the neuter possessive pronoun from 'his' to 'its'. It is well known that 'its' does not occur in the Bible of 1611, and it does not appear to have been introduced into any edition before 1660. But it is found ten times in Shakespeare, and there is other evidence to shew that at the time of the Authorised Version it was coming into use. It was found necessary in some cases to substitute 'its' for 'his' in order to avoid obscurity, and there seemed no good reason, when it was once introduced, for refusing to admit it generally when it referred to purely inanimate objects.

In making minor changes, whether in translation or language, the Revisers have followed the example of the translators of the Authorised Version, who allowed themselves in this respect a reasonable freedom, without permitting their liberty to degenerate into license.

It will be at once seen that the old division of the books into chapters and verses has been abandoned in favour of the arrangement in paragraphs, the numbering of the chapters and verses being however retained for convenience of reference. Where the change of subject seemed to require a greater break than was marked by the beginning of a new paragraph, it has been indicated by a space before the paragraph. Occasionally the divisions of the chapters in the Authorised Version differ from those in the common Hebrew Bibles. In such cases the variations are given in the margin. In the Psalms, the titles are printed in smaller type, as in some modern English Bibles, which differ in this respect from the edition of 1611. One consequence of the arrangement in paragraphs has been the omission of the headings of chapters, which for other and more important reasons it was thought advisable to abandon, as involving questions which belong rather to the province of the commentator than to that of the translator. With the headings of chapters the head-lines of pages naturally disappeared also, and for the same reason.

In the poetical portions, besides the division into paragraphs, the Revisers have adopted an arrangement in lines, so as to exhibit the parallelism which is characteristic of Hebrew Poetry. But they have not extended this arrangement to the prophetical books, the language of which although frequently marked by parallelism is, except in purely lyrical passages, rather of the nature of lofty and impassioned prose.

In the use of italics the Revisers departed from the custom of the Authorised Version and adopted as their rule the following resolution of their Company:

'That all such words now printed in italics, as are plainly implied in the Hebrew and necessary in English, be printed in common type.'

But where any doubt existed as to the exact rendering of the Hebrew, all words which have been added in order to give completeness to the English expression are printed in italic type, so that the reader by omitting them may be able to see how far their insertion is justified by the words of the original. This of course is especially true of those renderings for which an alternative is given in the margin, where the roman and italic type play exactly opposite parts.

To complete the account of the Revised Version it remains only to describe the marginal notes. These will be found to contain

(1) The renderings of such variations in the Massoretic Text as appeared to be of sufficient importance. These variations are known by the technical names of K'ri (read) and C'thib (written), which denote that the K'ri, or reading in the margin of the Hebrew Bible, is to be substituted for the C'thib which appears in the written text. The Revisers have generally, though not uniformly, rendered the C'thib in the text, and left the K'ri in the margin, with the introductory note 'Or, according to another reading', or 'Another reading is'. When the K'ri has been followed in the text, the C'thib has been placed in the margin, if it represented a variation of sufficient importance.

(2) Alternative renderings, introduced by 'Or'. These are either different meanings of the word or passage, or they serve to connect it with other renderings elsewhere.

(3) Literal renderings of the Hebrew or Aramaic, indicated by the prefix 'Heb.' or 'Aram.'

(4) Changes of text made on the authority of the ancient Versions.

(5) Readings from ancient Versions which appeared to be of sufficient importance to be noticed.

(6) Renderings of the Hebrew consonants as read with different vowel points, or as differently divided. These are introduced by the words 'Or, as otherwise read'.

(7) Marginal references to other passages, which are either strictly parallel, or serve the purpose of illustrating or justifying a particular rendering.

(8) Explanations of certain proper names, the meaning of which is referred to in the text.

In the Proper Names the Revisers have endeavoured to ascertain the system of transliteration adopted by the Translators of the Authorised Version and to carry it out with somewhat greater consistency. They have not however attempted anything like rigid uniformity, and have left unchanged all those names which by usage have become English; as, for instance, Moses, Aaron, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, and the like.

Among the Rules laid down by the Revision Committee of Convocation for the guidance of the Revisers was one that no change should be finally made in the text of the Authorised Version except by the vote of two-thirds of the Company present and voting; and this Rule has been invariably acted upon. The result has been that in many cases a rendering which was preferred by the majority of the Company voting has been recorded in the margin, the majority not being sufficient to give it a place in the text. But all questions of marginal readings, as well as of punctuation and division into paragraphs, except where these affected the sense of a passage, were decided by a simple majority.

It may be of some interest to describe the method observed by the Company in their work, if only to shew that every question raised was carefully and deliberately considered. In the first Revision it was the practice for the Secretary to read over each verse, first in the original and then in the Authorised Version: the proposals for change were then taken; first those communicated in writing by absent members, and next those made by the members present. Each proposal was moved, and if seconded was discussed and voted upon; the decision in the first Revision being by a majority only. If a proposal met with no seconder, it was not discussed but allowed to drop. In the second Revision, the Secretary read out in order the changes which had been made at the first Revision; if these were unchallenged they were allowed to remain, otherwise they were put to the vote and affirmed or rejected according as they were or were not supported by the requisite majority of two-thirds. In the second Revision new propositions could only be made by special permission of the Company, and discussion was limited, as far as possible, to exceptional cases. In the final review, which was in reality the completion of the second Revision, the Company employed themselves in making a general survey of what they had done, deciding finally upon reserved points, harmonizing inconsistencies, smoothing down roughnesses, removing unnecessary changes, and generally giving finish and completeness to their work. Everything in this final survey was decided by the vote of a majority of two-thirds.

The Revisers had already made some progress, and had in fact gone twice through the Pentateuch, before they secured the co-operation of the American Old Testament Revision Company. The first Revision of the several books was submitted to the consideration of the American Revisers, and, except in the case of the Pentateuch, the English Company had the benefit of their criticisms and suggestions before they proceeded to the second Revision. The second Revision was in like manner forwarded to America, and the latest thoughts of the American Revisers were in the hands of the English Company at their final review. In every instance the suggestions from America were treated with the same consideration as those proceeding from members of the English Company, and were adopted or rejected on their merits. It was a part of the terms of agreement with the American Company that all points of ultimate difference between them and the English Revisers should be placed on record, and they will accordingly be found fully stated at the end of the Old Testament, or at the end of the several portions, according as the Revised Version appears in one or more volumes. Many of them will be found to be changes of language which are involved in the essentially different circumstances of American and English readers; others express a preference for the marginal rendering over that given in the text; others again involve a real difference of opinion; but all shew that they have been dictated by the same leading principle, the sincere desire to give to modern readers a faithful representation of the meaning of the original documents.

It could not but be expected that in the course of fourteen years many changes would take place in the members of the Company. Of the original number who first put their hands to the work on the 30th of June 1870, only fifteen now remain. Ten of the Company have been removed by death, and two resigned: the places of these were filled from time to time by others; but since October 1875 no new members have been added. The Revision was completed in eighty-five sessions, ending on 20th June, 1884; and it occupied 792 days. The greater part of the sessions were for ten days each, and each day the Company generally sat for six hours. The labour therefore has been great, but it has been given ungrudgingly; and now with a feeling of deep thankfulness to Almighty God, and the earnest hope that their endeavours may with His blessing tend to a clearer knowledge of the Old Testament Scriptures, the Revisers bring their long task to a close.

THE FIRST BOOK OF MOSES,

[1] CALLED

GENESIS.

CHAPTER 1.

[o]1 The creation of heaven and earth, 3 of the light, 6 of the firmament, 9 of the earth separated from the waters, 11 and made fruitful, 14 of the sun, moon, and stars, 20 of fish and fowl, 24 of beasts and cattle, 26 of man in the image of God. 29 The appointment of food.

IN the [b] beginning [c] God created the heaven and the earth.

2 And the earth was [2] without form,' and void; and darkness [†] was upon the face of the deep[3]. [d] And the Spirit' of God [4] moved upon the face of the waters.

3 [e] And God said, [h] Let there be light: and there was light.

4 And God saw the light, that [†] it was good: and God divided [k] the light from the darkness.

5 And God called the light [l] Day, and the darkness he called Night. [m] And [5] the evening and the morning were the first' day.

6 ¶ And God said, [r] Let there be a [6 r] firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.

7 And God made the firmament, [z] and divided the waters which [†] were under the firmament from the waters which [†] were [z] above the firmament: and it was so.

8 And God called the firmament Heaven. And [7] the evening and the morning were the' second day.

9 ¶ And God said, [a] Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry [†] land appear: and it was so.

10 And God called the dry [†] land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that [†] it was good.

11 And God said, Let the earth [8 g] bring' forth [h] grass, [o] the' herb yielding seed, and [o] the' fruit tree [1] yielding' [a] fruit after [2] his kind, whose seed is in itself,' upon the earth: and it was so.

12 And the earth brought forth grass, [o] and [1] herb yielding seed after [3] his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his' kind: and God saw that [†] it was good.

13 And [4] the evening and the morning were the' third day.

14 ¶ And God said, Let there be [c] lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide [f] the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and [i] for seasons, and for days [9],' and years:

15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so.

16 And God [n] made [5] two great lights; the greater light [p] to rule the day, and [q] the lesser light to rule the night: he made [n] the stars also.

17 And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth, 18 And to [g] rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that [†] it was good.

19 And [6] the evening and the morning were the' fourth day.

20 [7] And God said, Let the waters [8] bring forth abundantly the [b] moving creature that hath [c] life, and [8 d] fowl that may' fly above the earth [1] in the [c] open firmament of heaven.

22 And God blessed them, saying, [a]Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth.

23 And [1]the evening and the morning were the[1] fifth day.

24 ¶ And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after [2]his[1] kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after [2]his[1] kind: and it was so.

25 And God made the beast of the earth after [2]his[1] kind, and [3]cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the [4]earth after his[1] kind: and God saw that [†]it was good.

27 [5]So[1] God created man in his [†]own image, [n]in the image of God created he him; [p]male and female created he them.

28 And God blessed them[6], and God said unto them, [z]Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it[7]:[1] and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that [8d]moveth upon the earth.

6 But [m]there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground.

of Assyria. And the fourth river [t] is Euphrates.

15 And the LORD God took [b] the man, and [c] put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it.

16 And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden [d] thou mayest freely eat:

17 [e] But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, [g] thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof [t] thou shalt surely die.

18 ¶ And the LORD God said, [t] It is not good that the man should be alone; [k] I will make him an help [1 l] meet for him.

19 [m] And out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and [p] brought [t] them unto [2 q] Adam [1] to see what he would call them: and whatsoever [2] Adam [1] called every living creature, that [t] was the name thereof.

20 And [2] Adam [1] [u] gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for [3] Adam [1] there was not found an help meet for him.

21 And the LORD God caused a [b] deep sleep to fall upon [4] Adam, [1] and he slept [5]: [1] and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof [6]: [1]

22 And the rib, which the [7] LORD God had taken from [7] man, [8 r] made he a woman, and [g] brought her unto the man.

23 And [9] Adam [1] said, This [t] is now [h] bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called [1 s] Woman, because she was [t] taken out of [2 m] Man.

24 [n] Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh.

25 [v] And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not [r] ashamed.

CHAPTER 3.

[o] 1 The serpent deceiveth Eve. 6 Man's shameful fall. 14 The serpent is cursed. 15 The promised seed. 16 Mankind's punishment, and loss of paradise.[1]

NOW [t] the serpent was [u] more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, [a] Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of [1] every tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said unto the serpent, [2] We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden [1]:

3 [e] But of the fruit of the tree which [t] is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die.

4 [h] And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die:

5 For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then [m] your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as [2] gods, [1] knowing good and evil.

6 And when the woman saw that the tree [t] was good for food, and that it [4] was [r] pleasant to the eyes, and a tree [1] [5] to be desired to make [t] one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, [r] and did [6] eat, and [1] gave also unto her husband with her [7]; [1] [z] and he did eat.

7 And [y] the eyes of them both were opened, [z] and they knew that they [t] were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves [8 a] aprons.

8 And they heard [c] the [3] voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the [1 d] cool of the day: and [2] Adam [1] and his wife [c] hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God amongst the trees of the garden.

9 And the LORD God called unto [3] Adam, [1] and said unto him, Where [t] art thou?

10 And he said, I heard thy [4] voice in the garden, [k] and I was afraid, because I [t] was naked; and I hid myself.

11 And he said, Who told thee that thou [t] wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat?

12 And the man said, [q] The woman whom thou gavest [t] to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.

13 And the LORD God said unto the woman, What [t] is this [o] that [1] thou hast done? And the woman said, [x] The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.

AND [1] Adam [1] knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare [c] Cain, and said, I have [2] gotten a man [2] from [1] the LORD.

2 And [4] she again [1] bare his brother [g] Abel. And Abel was [h] a keeper of sheep, but Cain was [i] a tiller of the ground.

3 And [l] in process of time it came to pass, that Cain brought [n] of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the LORD.

4 And Abel, he also brought of [7] the firstlings of his [t] flock and of the fat thereof. And the LORD had [z] respect unto Abel and to his offering:

5 But unto Cain and to his offering he had not respect. And Cain was very wroth, [b] and his countenance fell.

6 And the LORD said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen?

7 If thou doest well, [5] shalt thou not [g] be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin [6] lieth at the door. And [f] unto thee [7] [shall be] his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.

8 And Cain [8] talked with [1] Abel his brother [9]: and [1] it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and [n] slew him.

9 [o] ¶ [1] And the LORD said unto Cain, [p] Where [1] is Abel thy brother? And he said, [q] I know not: [1] Am [1] I my brother's keeper?

10 And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's [n] blood [z] crieth unto me from the ground.

11 And now [2] art thou cursed from the earth, [1] which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand;

12 When thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength; a fugitive and a [3] vagabond [1] shalt thou be in the earth.

LORD, [1a] My punishment † is greater [2] than I can bear.

14 [b] Behold, thou hast driven me out this day from the face of the [3] earth[1]; and [c] from thy face shall I be hid; and I shall be a fugitive and a [4] vagabond[1] in the earth; and it shall come to pass, †[g] that [5] every one that[1] findeth me shall slay me.

15 And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him [i] sevenfold. And the LORD [6k] set a mark upon[1] Cain, lest any finding him should [7] kill[1] him.

16 ¶ And Cain [m] went out from the presence of the LORD, and dwelt in the land of [8] Nod, [9] on the east of Eden.

17 And Cain knew his wife; and she conceived, and bare [n] Enoch: and he builded a city, [q] and called the name of the city, after the name of his son, Enoch.

18 And unto Enoch was born Irad: and Irad begat Mehujael: and Mehujael begat [1] Methusael[1]: and [1] Methusael[1] begat [z] Lamech.

19 [o] ¶ [1] And Lamech took unto him two wives: the name of the one † was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah.

20 And Adah bare Jabal: he was the father of such as dwell in tents[1], and [o] of such as[1] have cattle.

21 And his brother's name † was Jubal: he was the [a] father of all such as handle the harp and [2] organ.[1]

22 And Zillah, she also bare Tubal-cain, [3] an [b] instructer of every artificer in[1] [4] brass and iron: and the sister of Tubal-cain † was Naamah.

23 And Lamech said unto his wives[3],[1] [6] Adah and Zillah, 'Hear[1] my voice; ye wives of Lamech, hearken unto my speech: for [8d] I have slain a man [9] to my wounding,[1] and a young man [1e] to my hurt.[1]

24 [g] If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold, truly Lamech seventy and sevenfold.

25 ¶ And Adam knew his wife again; and she bare a son, and [h] called his name [2i] Seth: [3] For God, said she,[1] [4] hath appointed me another seed instead of Abel[1], whom Cain slew.[1]

26 And to Seth, [r] to him also there was born a son; and he called his name [2r] Enos[1]: then began men [s] to call upon the name of the LORD.

CHAPTER 6.

○1 The wickedness of the world. 8 Noah findeth grace. 14 The order, form, and use of the ark.[1]

AND it came to pass, [b] when men began to multiply on the face of the [2] earth,[1] and daughters were born unto them,

2 That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they [t] were fair; and they [c] took them wives of all [3] which[1] they chose.

3 And the LORD said, [e] My spirit shall not [4] always strive with man,[1] [5] for that he also [t] is flesh: [6] yet [7] his days shall[1] be an hundred and twenty years.

4 [8] There were giants[1] in the earth in those days [9];[1] and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare [t] children to them[1], the same became[1] mighty men which [t] were of old, [2] men of renown.

5 ○¶ [i] And GOD[1] saw that the wickedness of man [t] was great in the earth, and [t] that [t] every [i] imagination of the thoughts of his heart [t] was only evil [m] continually.

6 And [n] it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it [q] grieved him at his heart.

7 And the LORD said, I will [4] destroy man whom I have created from the face of the [5] earth[1]; [7] both man, and beast, and [o] the[1] creeping thing, and [6] the fowls[1] of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them.

8 But Noah [r] found grace in the eyes of the LORD.[7]

9 ¶ These [t] are the generations of Noah[8]:[1] [u] Noah was a [v] just man[1] and [12] perfect in his generations[2], and[1] Noah [c] walked with God.

10 And Noah begat three sons, [b] Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

11 [3] The[1] earth [o] also[1] was corrupt [c] before God, and the earth was [d] filled with violence.

12 And God [4] [c] looked upon[1] the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

13 [5] And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is 14 °¶ [1]Make thee an ark of gopher wood; [1d]rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.

15 And this [2]is the fashion which[1] thou shalt make it [3]of: The[1] length of the ark °shall be[1] three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.

16 A [4]window[1] shalt thou make to the ark, and [5]in[1] a cubit shalt thou finish it [6]above[1]; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof; †with lower, second, and third †stories shalt thou make it.

17 [7i]And, behold, I, even I, do bring a[1] flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein †is the breath of life, from under heaven; °and[1] every thing that †is in the earth shall die.

18 But [8]with thee will I[1] establish my covenant [9]; and [k]thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee.

19 And of every living thing of all flesh, [m]two of every †sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep †them alive with thee; they shall be male and female.

20 Of [1]fowls[1] after their kind, and of [2]cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the [3]earth after his[1] kind, two of every †sort [p]shall come unto thee, to keep †them alive.

21 And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and °thou shalt[1] gather †it to thee; and it shall be for food for thee, and for them.

22 [q]Thus did Noah; [r]according to all that God commanded him, so did he.

CHAPTER 7.

°1 Noah, with his family, and the living creatures, enter into the ark. 17 The beginning, increase, and continuance of the flood.[1]

AND the LORD said unto Noah, [z]Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for [b]thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation.

2 Of every [d]clean beast thou shalt take to thee [4]by [e]sevens,[1] the male and his female[1]: [a]and of beasts that are not clean by[1] two, the male and his female[2].

3 Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female;[1] to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth.

4 For yet seven days, and I will cause it to rain upon the earth [c]forty days and forty nights; and every living [5]substance[1] that I have made will I [1f]destroy from off the face of the [5]earth.[1]

5 [g]And Noah did according unto all that the LORD commanded him.

6 [6]And Noah †was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth.

7 °¶ [1h]And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood.

8 Of clean beasts, and of beasts that †are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the [7]earth,[1]

9 There went in two and two unto Noah into the ark, °the[1] male and °the[1] female, as God °had[1] commanded Noah.

10 And it came to pass [f]after [8]seven days, that the waters of the flood were upon the earth.

11 °¶ [1]In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, [9]the seventeenth day of the month, [9]the same day were all [n]the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the [9]windows of heaven were opened.

12 [r]And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

13 In the selfsame day [t]entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the ark;

14 [y]They, and every beast after [1]his[1] kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after [1]his[1] kind, and every fowl after [1]his[1] kind, every bird of every [2a]sort.

15 And they [c]went in unto Noah into the ark, two and two of all flesh°,[1] wherein †is the breath of life.

17 [c]And the flood was forty days upon the earth; and the waters increased, and bare up the ark, and it was lift up above the earth.

18 And the waters prevailed, and [c]were' increased greatly upon the earth; [e]and the ark went upon the face of the waters.

19 And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth: [g]and all the high 'hills,' that [t]were under the whole heaven[c],' were covered.

20 Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail; and the mountains were covered.

21 [i]And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both [c]of' fowl, and [c]of' cattle, and [c]of' beast, and [c]of' every [2]creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and every man:

24 [p]And the waters prevailed upon the earth an hundred and fifty days.

AND God [q]remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the cattle that [9]was' with him in the ark: [r]and God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters ['asswaged';

2 [t]The fountains also of the deep and the windows of heaven were stopped, and [u]the rain from heaven was restrained;

3 And the waters returned from off the earth [v]continually: and after the end [a]of 'the' hundred and fifty days the waters [2]were abated.'

4 And the ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat.

5 And the waters [d]decreased continually until the tenth month: in the tenth [t]month, on the first [t]day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen.

6 [c]And' it came to pass at the end of forty days, that Noah opened [f]the window of the ark which he had made:

7 And he sent forth a raven, [3]which' went forth [h]to and fro, until the waters were dried up from off the earth.

8 [4]Also' he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground;

9 But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him [5]into' the ark, for the waters [t]were on the face of the whole earth: [6]then' he put forth his hand, and took her, and [7][m]pulled' her in unto him into the ark.

15 And God spake unto Noah, saying,

[5]AND God blessed Noah and his sons, and said unto them, [c]Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth.

2 [d]And the fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every fowl of the [6]air, upon all that moveth upon the earth, and upon[1] all the fishes of the sea[1]; into your hand are they delivered.

3 [f]Every moving thing that liveth shall be [5]meat[1] for you; [o]even[1] as the [h]green herb have I given you [t]all [o]things[1].

4 [k]But flesh with the life thereof, which is the blood thereof, shall ye not eat.

5 And surely your blood[1] of your lives[2] will I require; [b]at the hand of every beast will I require it[3],[1] and [c]at the hand of man[4];[1] at the hand of every [d]man's brother[5] will I require the life of man.

6 [f]Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: [g]for in the image of God made he man.

7 And you, [k]be ye fruitful, and multiply; bring forth abundantly in the earth, and multiply therein.

8 ¶ And God spake unto Noah, and to his sons with him, saying,

9 And I, [k]behold, I establish [l]my covenant with you, and with your seed after you;

10 [n]And with every living creature that [t]is with you, [o]of[1] the fowl, [o]of[1] the cattle, and [o]of[1] every beast of the earth with you; [e]from[1] all that go out of the ark, [7]to[1] every beast of the earth.

11 And [n]I will establish my covenant with you; neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of [8]a[1] flood; neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth.

12 And God said, [z]This [t]is the token of the covenant which I make between me and you and every living creature that [t]is with you, for perpetual generations:

13 [9]I do set [b]my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth.

14 And it shall come to pass, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow shall be seen in the cloud[1]:[1]

15 And [c]I will remember my covenant, which [t]is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh.

4 And the sons of Javan; Elishah, and Tarshish, Kittim, and [2c]Dodanim.

5 [3]By' these were [e]the [4]isles of the [5]Gentiles' divided in their lands[6];' every one after his tongue[7],' after their families, in their nations.

7 And the sons of Cush; Seba, and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and [9]Sabtechah[1]: and the sons of Raamah; Sheba, and Dedan.

8 And Cush begat Nimrod: he began to be a mighty one in the earth.

9 He was a mighty [l]hunter [m]before the LORD: wherefore it is said, [1]Even as' Nimrod [2]the' mighty hunter before the LORD.

10 [n]And the beginning of his kingdom was [o]Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.

13 And Mizraim begat Ludim, and Anamim, and Lehabim, and Naphtuhim, 15 ¶ And Canaan begat [7 c]Sidon' his firstborn, and Heth[8],'

16 And the Jebusite, and the Amorite, and the [9]Girgasite,'

17 And the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite[8],'

AND the whole earth was of one [7a]language[o],[1] and of one [8a]speech.

2 And it came to pass, as they journeyed [o][8]from the[1] [9]east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar; and they dwelt there.

3 And [e]they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and [f]burn them throughly. And they had brick for stone, and [1]slime had they for [2]morter.[1]

4 And they said, Go to, let us build us a city[2] and a tower, [a]whose top may reach unto heaven[4];[1] and let us make us a name[5],[1] lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.

5 [d]And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded.

6 And the LORD said, Behold, [6e]the people is one,[1] and they have all [g]one language; and this [7] they begin to do: and now nothing will be [8]restrained[1] from them, which they [9]have [k]imagined[1] to do.

7 Go to, [l]let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may [m]not understand one another's speech.

8 So [n]the LORD scattered them abroad from thence [p]upon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city.

9 Therefore [1]is[1] the name of it called [q]Babel; [r]because the LORD did there [2]confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.[3]

26 [1] And Terah lived seventy years, and [k]begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran.
27 ¶ Now these [t]are the generations of Terah[2]:[1] Terah begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran; and Haran begat Lot.
28 And Haran died [3]before[1] his father Terah in the land of his nativity, in Ur of the Chaldees.
29 And Abram and Nahor took them wives: the name of Abram's wife [t]was [r]Sarai; and the name of Nahor's wife, [u]Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah, and the father of Iscah.
30 [4]But[1] [z]Sarai was barren; she [t]had no child.
31 And Terah [y]took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Haran[5] his son's son, and Sarai his daughter in law, his son Abram's wife; and they went forth with them from [b]Ur of the Chaldees, to go into [c]the land of Canaan; and they came unto Haran, and dwelt there.
32 And the days of Terah were two hundred and five years: and Terah died in Haran.[6]

CHAPTER 12.

○[1] God calleth Abram, and blesseth him.
4 He departeth with Lot from Haran.

He is driven by a famine into Egypt.

NOW the [h]LORD ○had[1] said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto [1]a land that I will shew thee:
2 [d]And I will make of thee a great nation, [b]and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; [c]and [2]thou shalt be a blessing:
3 [e]And I will bless them that bless thee, and [5]curse him that curseth thee[1]: [f]and in thee shall all [4]families of the earth be blessed.
4 So Abram [5]departed,[1] as the LORD had spoken unto him; and Lot went with him: and Abram [t]was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran.
5 And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and [h]the souls that they had gotten [i]in Haran; and they went forth to go into the land of Canaan; and into the land of Canaan they came.
6 ○¶[1] And Abram [l]passed through the land unto the place of [6]Sichem,[1] [m]unto the [7]plain[1] of Moreh. [n]And the Canaanite [t]was then in the land.
7 [p]And the LORD appeared unto Abram, and said, [q]Unto thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an [s]altar unto the LORD, who appeared unto him.
8 And he removed from thence unto [8]a[1] mountain on the east of Beth-el, and pitched his tent, [t]having Beth-el on the west, and [9]Hai[1] on the east: and there he builded an altar unto the LORD, and [v]called upon the name of the LORD.
9 And Abram journeyed, [w]going on still toward the [1]south.[1]
10 ¶ And there was [x]a famine in the land: and Abram [w]went down into Egypt to sojourn there; for the famine [t]was [z]grievous[1] in the land.
11 And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Egypt, that he said unto Sarai his wife, Behold now, I know that thou [t]art [a]a fair woman to look upon:

13 [b]Say, I pray thee, thou †art my sister: that it may be well with me for thy sake[1]; and my soul shall[1] live because of thee.

14 °¶[1] And it came to pass, that, when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians [c]beheld the woman that she †was very fair.

15 [2]The[1] princes °also[1] of Pharaoh saw her, and [3]commended her before[1] Pharaoh: and the woman was [d]taken into Pharaoh's house.

16 And he [e]entreated Abram well for her sake: and he had sheep, and oxen, and [4]he asses, and menservants, and maidservants, and [5]she asses,[1] and camels.

17 And the LORD [n]plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai Abram's wife.

18 And Pharaoh called Abram, and said, [p]What †is this †that thou hast done unto me? why didst thou not tell me that she †was thy wife?

19 Why saidst thou, She †is my sister? so [6]I might have taken her to me[1] wife: now therefore behold thy wife, take †her, and go thy way.

20 [q]And Pharaoh [7]commanded his men[1] concerning him: and they [8]sent him away,[1] and his wife, and all that he had.

CHAPTER 13.

°1 Abram and Lot return out of Egypt. 11 They part asunder. 12 Lot goeth to Sodom. 14 God reneweth the promise to Abram. 18 Abram removeth to Hebron, and buildeth an altar.[1]

AND Abram went up out of Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him, [c]into the [9]south[1].

2 [c]And Abram †was very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold.

3 And he went on his journeys [g]from the [9]south[1] even to Beth-el, unto the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Beth-el and [1]Hai[1];

4 Unto the [k]place of the altar, which he had made there at the first: and there Abram [26]called on the name of the LORD.

5 °¶[1] And Lot also, which went with Abram, had flocks, and herds, and tents.

6 And [c]the land was not able to bear them, that they might dwell together: for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together.

7 And there was [d]a strife between the herdmen of Abram's cattle and the herdmen of Lot's cattle: [f]and the Canaanite and the Perizzite dwelled then in the land.

8 And Abram said unto Lot, [h]Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen; for we [1]be[1] [h]brethren.

9 †[t]Is not the whole land before thee? separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: [m]if thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if thou [2]depart to[1] the right hand, then I will go to the left.

10 And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all [q]the [3]plain[1] of Jordan, that it †was well watered every where, before the LORD [r]destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, [4]†even as[1] the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, as thou [5]comest[1] unto [u]Zoar.

11 [6]Then[1] Lot chose him all the [3]plain[1] of Jordan; and Lot journeyed east: and they separated themselves the one from the other.

12 Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot [g]dwelled in the cities of the [7]plain, and [7]pitched his tent toward[1] Sodom.

13 [8]But[1] the men of Sodom †[a]were wicked and [b]sinners [9]before[1] the LORD exceedingly.

14 °¶[1] And the LORD said unto Abram, after that Lot [d]was separated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art[1] [f]northward °,[1] and southward °,[1] and eastward °,[1] and westward:

15 For all the land which thou seest, [h]to thee will I give it, and [i]to thy seed for ever.

16 And [i]I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, †then shall thy seed also be numbered.

AFTER these things the word of the LORD came unto Abram [1]in a vision, saying, [n]Fear not, Abram: I [†]am thy [p]shield, [q]and thy exceeding [r]great reward.

2 And Abram said, [1] Lord [2]GOD, what wilt thou give me, [y]seeing I [3]go childless, and [4]the steward of my house is this Eliezer of Damascus[1]?

3 And Abram said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed: and, lo, [b]one born in my house is mine heir.

4 And, behold, the word of the LORD [†]came unto him, saying, This [5]shall not be thine heir; but he that [e]shall come forth out of thine own bowels shall be thine heir.

5 And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and [h]tell the [i]stars, if thou be able to [6]number[1] them: and he said unto him, [k]So shall thy seed be.

6 And he [l]believed in the LORD; and he [m]counted it to him for righteousness.

7 And he said unto him, I [†]am the LORD that [n]brought thee out of [p]Ur of the Chaldees, [q]to give thee this land to inherit it.

8 And he said, [7] Lord GOD, [r]whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it?

9 And he said unto him, Take me an heifer of three years old, and a [1] she goat[1] of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtledove, and a young pigeon.

10 And he took [o]unto[1] him all these, and [c]divided them in the midst, and laid each [2]piece one against another[1]: but [c]the birds divided he not.

11 And [3]when the fowls[1] came down upon the carcases, [4] Abram drove them away.

12 And when the sun was going down, [g]a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and, lo, an horror of great darkness fell upon him.

13 And he said unto Abram, Know of a surety [h]that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land [†]that is not [5]their's,[1] and shall serve them; and [i]they shall afflict them four hundred years;

14 And also that nation, whom they shall serve, [k]will I judge: and afterward [m]shall they come out with great substance.

15 [6]And[1] [q]thou shalt go [r]to thy fathers in peace; [u]thou shalt be buried in a good old age.

16 [7]But[1] [x]in the fourth generation they shall come hither again: for the iniquity [z]of the [8]Amorites [a]is[1] not yet full.

17 And it came to pass, that, when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold a smoking furnace, and [c]a [9]burning lamp[1] that [a]passed between [1]those[1] pieces.

18 In [c]the same[1] day the LORD [f]made a covenant with Abram, saying, [y]Unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates:

Egyptian, whose name †was [a]Hagar.

2 [b]And Sarai said unto Abram, Behold now, the LORD [c]hath restrained me from bearing[1]: I pray thee, [d]go in unto my maid[1]; it may be that I [2]may[3] [e]obtain children by her. And Abram [g]hearkened to the voice of Sarai.

3 And Sarai Abram's wife took Hagar [h]her maid the Egyptian,[1] after Abram [i]had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to [j]her husband Abram[1] to be his wife.

4 °¶[1] And he went in unto Hagar, and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was [k]despised in her eyes.

5 And Sarai said unto Abram, My wrong †be upon thee: I [l]have given my maid[1] into thy bosom; and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes: [m]the LORD judge between me and thee.

6 [7]But Abram said unto Sarai, [n]Behold, thy maid †is in thy hand; do to her [7g]as it pleaseth thee. And when[1] Sarai [n]dealt hardly with her, [8] [b]she fled from her face.

7 °¶[1] And the angel of the LORD found her by a fountain of water in the wilderness, [o]by the fountain in the way to [p]Shur.

8 And he said, Hagar, Sarai's [9]maid,[1] whence camest thou? and whither [1]wilt thou go[1]? And she said, I flee from the face of my mistress Sarai.

9 And the angel of the LORD said unto her, Return to thy mistress, and [m]submit thyself under her hands.

10 And the angel of the LORD said unto her, [n]I will [2]multiply thy seed exceedingly,[1] that it shall not be numbered for multitude.

11 And the angel of the LORD said unto her, Behold, thou †art with child, and shalt bear a son,[1] [n]and [4] shalt call his name [5g]Ishmael[6]; [1]because the LORD hath heard thy affliction.

12 [7]And he [7]will be a wild man; his hand will[1] be against every man, and every man's hand against him; [7]and he shall dwell [1]in the presence of all his brethren.

13 And she called the name of the LORD that spake unto her, [p]Thou [q]God seest me[1]: for she said, Have I [4]also[1] here looked after him [r]that seeth me?

14 Wherefore the well was called [5h]Beer-lahai-roi; behold, †it is [1]between Kadesh and Bered.

15 °¶[1] And [s]Hagar bare Abram a son: and Abram called [s]his son's name,[1] which Hagar bare, [m]Ishmael.

16 And Abram †was fourscore and six years old, when Hagar bare Ishmael to Abram.

5 Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram, but [i]thy name shall be [k]Abraham; [l]for [2]a father of many[1] nations have I made thee.

9 °¶ [1] And God said unto Abraham, [1]Thou[1] shalt keep my covenant °therefore[1], thou, and thy seed after thee [2]in[1] their generations.

10 This †is my covenant, which ye shall keep, between me and you and thy seed after thee; [3]*d*Every man child[1] among you shall be circumcised.

11 And ye shall [4]circumcise[1] the flesh of your foreskin; and it shall be [e]a token of [5]the[1] covenant betwixt me and you.

12 And [f]he that is eight days old [g]shall be circumcised among you, every [6]man child in[1] your generations, he that is born in the house, or bought with money of any stranger, which †is not of thy seed.

13 He that is born in thy house, and he that is bought with thy money, must needs be circumcised: and my covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

14 And the uncircumcised [7]man child whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised,[1] that soul [h]shall be cut off from his people; he hath broken my covenant.

15 ¶ And God said unto Abraham, As for Sarai thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sarai, but [8]*k*Sarah †shall her name †be.

16 And I will bless her, [l]and [9]give thee a son °also[1] of her: yea, I will bless her, and [m]she shall be a mother [1*n*]of[1] nations; kings of [2]people[1] shall be of her.

17 Then Abraham fell upon his face, [o]and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall †a child be born unto him that is an hundred years old? and shall Sarah, that is ninety years old, bear?

18 And Abraham said unto God, [3]O[1] that Ishmael might live before thee!

19 And God said, [4*m*]Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a son °indeed[1]; and thou shalt call his name [5]Isaac: and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant[6], and with[1] his seed after him.

20 And as for Ishmael, I have heard thee: [7]Behold,[1] I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and [a]will multiply him exceedingly; [a]twelve princes shall he beget, [b]and I will make him a great nation.

21 But my covenant will I establish with Isaac, [c]which Sarah shall bear unto thee at this set time in the next year.

22 And he left off talking with him, and God went up from Abraham.

23 °¶ [1] And Abraham took Ishmael his son, and all that were born in his house, and all that were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's house[1]; [1] and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in the selfsame day, as God had said unto him.

24 And Abraham †was ninety years old and nine, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

25 And Ishmael his son †was thirteen years old, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

26 In the selfsame day was Abraham circumcised, and Ishmael his son.

27 And [2]all the men of his house, [2] born in the house, and [2] bought with money of the stranger, were circumcised with him.

°1 Abraham entertaineth three angels. 17 The destruction of Sodom is revealed to Abraham, who maketh intercession for the men thereof.

AND the LORD appeared unto him [3]in the [p]plains[1] of Mamre[4]: and[1] he sat in the tent door in the heat of the day;

2 [r]And he lift up his eyes and looked, and, lo, three men stood [5]by[1] him: [t]and when he saw †them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself [6]toward the ground,[1]

3 And said, [7]My Lord,[1] if now I have found favour in thy sight, pass not away, I pray thee, from thy servant:

4 Let [8*z*]a little water°, I pray you,[1] be fetched, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree:

5 And [y]I will fetch a morsel of bread, and [z]comfort ye your [9]hearts[1]: after that ye shall pass on: [1*b*]for therefore [c]are ye[1] come to your servant. And they said, So do, as thou hast said.

6 And Abraham hastened into the tent unto Sarah, and said, [c]Make ready quickly three measures of fine meal, knead † it, and make cakes [o]upon the hearth[1].

7 And Abraham ran unto the herd, and [1]fetcht[1] a calf tender and good, and gave † it unto [2]a young man[1]; and he hasted to dress it.

8 And [e]he took butter, and milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set † it before them; and he stood by them under the tree, and they did eat.

9 [o]¶ [f]And they said unto him, Where † is Sarah thy wife? And he said, Behold, [h]in the tent.

10 And he said, I [k]will certainly return unto thee [3m]according to the time of life[1]; and, lo, [g]Sarah thy wife shall have a son. And Sarah heard [o]it in the tent door, which † was behind him.

11 Now [t]Abraham and Sarah † were old [4] and well stricken in age; [5]and it[1] ceased to be with Sarah [u]after the manner of women.

12 [6]Therefore[1] Sarah [x]laughed within herself, saying, [y]After I am waxed old shall I have pleasure, my [d]lord being old also?

13 And the LORD said unto Abraham, Wherefore did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I of a surety bear a child, which am old?

14 [d]Is any thing too [7]hard for the LORD? [c]At the [8]time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life,[1] and Sarah shall have a son.

15 Then Sarah denied, saying, I laughed not; for she was afraid. And he said, Nay; but thou didst laugh.

16 ¶ And the men rose up from thence, and looked toward Sodom: and Abraham went with them [h]to bring them on the way.

17 And the LORD said, [i]Shall I hide from Abraham that [o]thing[1] which I do;

18 Seeing that Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be [a]blessed in him?

19 For I [1]know him, [b]that he will[1] command his children and his household after him, [2]and they shall[1] keep the way of the LORD, to do justice and [3]judgment;[1] that the LORD may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him.

20 And the LORD said, [4]Because [d]the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and [4]because their sin is very grievous;

21 [f]I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me; and if not, [g]I will know.

22 And the men turned [o]their faces[1] from thence, [i]and went toward Sodom: but Abraham [f]stood yet before the LORD.

23 [o]¶ [f]And Abraham [n]drew near, and said, [p]Wilt thou [5]also destroy[1] the righteous with the wicked?

24 [r]Peradventure there be fifty righteous within the city: wilt thou [5]also destroy[1] and not spare the place for the fifty righteous that † are therein?

25 That be far from thee to do after this manner, to slay the righteous with the wicked[6]: and [z]that[1] the righteous should be as the wicked[7],[1] that be far from thee: [8b]Shall[1] not the Judge of all the earth do right?

26 And the LORD said, [c]If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their [g]sakes.[1]

27 And Abraham answered and said, [f]Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord, which † am [g]but dust and ashes:

28 Peradventure there shall lack five of the fifty righteous: wilt thou destroy all the city for † lack of five? And he said, [1]If I find there forty and five, I will not destroy it.[1]

29 And he spake unto him yet again, and said, Peradventure there shall be forty found there. And he said, I will not do † it for [2] forty's sake.

30 And he said [o]unto him[1], Oh

14 And Lot went out, and spake unto his sons in law, [t]which [9]married his daughters, and said, [x]Up, get you out of this place: for the LORD will destroy [1]this[1] city. [y]But he seemed [2]as one that mocked unto his sons in law.[1]

15 ○[t][1] And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying, [z]Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters[9], which [a]are here; lest thou be consumed in the [3][c]iniquity of the city.

17 ¶ And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said, [d]Escape for thy life; [e]look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the [1]plain'; escape to the mountain, lest thou be consumed.

18 And Lot said unto them, Oh, [2]not so, [2]my Lord':

19 Behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast shewed unto me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the mountain, lest [3]some evil take[1] me, and I die:

20 Behold now, this city †is near to flee unto, and it †is a little one: Oh, let me escape thither, (†is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live.

21 And he said unto him, See, [k]I have accepted [l]thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow [4]this city, for the [1] which thou hast spoken.

22 Haste thee, escape thither; for [m]I cannot do any thing till thou be come thither. Therefore [n]the name of the city was called [5][o]Zoar.

23 ¶ The sun was [q]risen upon the earth when Lot [6]entered into[1] Zoar.

24 Then [r]the LORD rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven;

25 And he overthrew those cities, and all the [7]plain,[1] and all the inhabitants of the cities, and [t]that which grew upon the ground.

26 ¶ But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became [u]a pillar of salt.

27 ¶ And Abraham gat up early in the morning to the place where [8]he [8]stood before the LORD:

28 And he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the [7]plain,[1] and beheld, and, lo, [9]the smoke of the [9]country[1] went up as the smoke of a furnace.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the [1]plain,[1] that God [c]remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in the which Lot dwelt.

30 ¶ And Lot went up out of Zoar, and [f]dwelt in the mountain, and his two daughters with him: for he feared to dwell in Zoar: and he dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters.

31 And the firstborn said unto the younger, Our father †is old, and †there is not a man in the earth [h]to come in unto us after the manner of all the earth:

32 Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we [i]may preserve seed of our father.

33 And they made their father drink wine that night: and the firstborn went in, and lay with her father; and he [2]perceived[1] not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

34 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the firstborn said unto the younger, Behold, I lay yesternight with my father: let us make him drink wine this night also; and go thou in, †and lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

35 And they made their father drink wine that night also: and the younger arose, and lay with him; and he [2]perceived[1] not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

36 Thus were both the daughters of Lot with child by their father.

37 And the firstborn bare a son, and called his name Moab: "the same †is the father of the Moabites unto this day.

38 And the younger, she also bare a son, and called his name Ben-ammi: [z]the same †is the father of the children of Ammon unto this day.

AND Abraham journeyed from [a]thence toward the [1]south country, and dwelled[1] between [b]Kadesh and Shur[2], and[1] [c]sojourned in Gerar.

2 And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, [c]She †is my sister: and Abimelech king of Gerar sent, and [d]took Sarah.

3 But [e]God came to Abimelech [f]in a dream [2]by[1] night, and said to him, [g]Behold, thou †art but a dead man, [4]for[1] the woman which thou hast taken; for she †is [m]a man's wife.

4 [5]But[1] Abimelech had not come near her: and he said, Lord, [n]wilt thou slay [6]also[1] a righteous nation?

5 Said he not [7] unto me, She †is my sister? and she, even she herself said, He †is my brother: [o]in the [8]integrity of my heart and [8] innocency of my hands have I done this.

6 And God said unto him in [9]a[1] dream, Yea, I know that [o]thou didst this[1] in the integrity of thy heart[1]; for[1] [p]I also withheld thee from sinning [b]against me: therefore suffered I thee not to touch her.

7 Now therefore restore the [2]man his[1] wife; [c]for he †is a prophet, and he shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live: and if thou restore †her not, [c]know thou that thou shalt surely die, thou, [r]and all that †are thine.

8 [3]Therefore[1] Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ears: and the men were sore afraid.

9 Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said unto him, What hast thou done unto us? and [4]what have I offended[1] thee, [k]that thou hast brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? thou hast done deeds unto me [m]that ought not to be done.

10 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What sawest thou, that thou hast done this thing?

11 And Abraham said, Because I thought, Surely [q]the fear of God †is not in this place; and [r]they will slay me for my wife's sake.

12 And [5]yet indeed [s]she is my sister; she is[1] the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife[1].[1]

13 And it came to pass, when [d]God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said unto her, This †is thy kindness which thou shalt shew unto me; at every place whither we shall come, [k]say of me, He †is my brother.

14 And Abimelech [t]took sheep°,[1] and oxen, and menservants°,[1] and womenservants, and gave †them unto Abraham, and restored him Sarah his wife.

15 And Abimelech said, Behold, [p]my land †is before thee: dwell [q]where it pleaseth thee.

16 And unto Sarah he said, Behold, I have given [u]thy brother a thousand †pieces of silver: [z]behold, [2]he is to[1] thee [y]a covering of the [3]eyes, unto all that are with thee, and with all other: thus she was reproved.

17 ¶ So[1] Abraham [a]prayed unto God: and God healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his maidservants; and they bare †children.

18 For the LORD [d]had fast closed up all the wombs of the house of Abimelech, because of Sarah Abraham's wife.

7 And she said, Who would have said unto Abraham, that Sarah should [2]have given[1] children suck? [d]for I have [4]born him[1] a son in his old age.

8 [e]And the child grew, and was weaned: and Abraham made a great feast [6]the same[1] day that Isaac was weaned.

9 [c]¶ And Sarah saw the son of Hagar [g]the Egyptian, [h]which she had [7]born[1] unto Abraham, [8]mocking.

10 Wherefore she said unto Abraham, [m]Cast out this bondwoman and her son: for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, even with Isaac.

11 And the thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight [9]because[1] of his son.

12 [c]¶ And God said unto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight because of the lad, and because of thy bondwoman; in all that Sarah [1]hath said[1] unto thee, hearken unto her voice; for [r]in Isaac shall thy seed be called.

13 And also of the son of the bondwoman will I make [u]a nation, because he [t]is thy seed.

14 And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread[c],[1] and a [2]bottle of water, and gave [t]it unto Hagar, putting [t]it on her shoulder, and the child, and [y]sent her away: and she departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Beer-sheba.

15 And the water [z]was spent in the bottle,[1] and she cast the child under one of the shrubs.

16 And she went, and sat her down over against [t]him a good way off, as it were a bowshot: for she said, Let me not [4]see[1] the death of the child. And she sat over against [t]him, and lift up her voice, and wept.

17 And [c]God heard the voice of the lad; and the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, Hagar? fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he [t]is.

18 Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him in thine hand; for [a]I will make him a great nation.

19 And [c]God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; and she went, and filled the bottle with water, and gave the lad drink.

20 And God [e]was with the lad[1];[1] and he grew[2], and[1] dwelt in the wilderness, [f]and [3]became an archer.

21 And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran: and his mother [4]took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ And it came to pass at that time, that [1]Abimelech and [4]Phichol the chief[1] captain of his host spake unto Abraham, saying, [n]God is with thee in all that thou doest:

23 Now therefore [p]swear unto me here by God [q]that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with [5]my son, nor with my son's son: [t]but according to the kindness that I have done unto thee, thou shalt do unto me, and to the land wherein thou hast sojourned.

24 And Abraham said, I will swear.

25 And Abraham reproved Abimelech because of [6]a[1] well of water, which Abimelech's servants [2]had violently taken away.

26 And Abimelech said, I [7]wot[1] not who hath done this thing: neither didst thou tell me, neither yet heard I [t]of it, but [8]to day.[1]

27 And Abraham took sheep and oxen, and gave them unto Abimelech; and [9]both of them[1] [z]made a covenant.

28 And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.

29 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, [a]What [t]mean these seven ewe lambs which thou hast set by themselves?

30 And he said, [1]For these[1] seven ewe lambs shalt thou take of my hand, that [2b]they[1] may be a witness unto me, that I have digged this well.

31 Wherefore he [d]called that place [c]Beer-sheba; because there they sware both of them.

2 And he said, Take now thy son, [i]thine only [8]son Isaac,[1] whom thou lovest, [9] and get thee [k]into the land of Moriah; and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of.

3 ¶[1] And Abraham rose [6]up[1] early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his [1]son, and[1] clave the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went unto the place of which God had told him.

4 [2]Then on[1] the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off.

5 And Abraham said unto his young men, Abide ye here with the ass[2];[1] and I and the lad will go yonder[4] and[1] worship, and come again to you.

6 And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering, and [q]laid †it upon Isaac his son; and he took [5]the fire in his hand, and a[1] knife; and they went both of them together.

7 And Isaac spake unto Abraham his father, and said, My father: and he said, [z]Here †am I, my son. And he said, Behold[6] the fire and the wood: but where †is the [a]lamb for a burnt offering?

9 And they came to the place which God had told him of; and Abraham built [1]an[1] altar there, and laid the wood in order, and bound Isaac his son, and [d]laid him on the altar upon the wood.

10 And Abraham stretched forth his hand, and took the knife to slay his son.

11 And the angel of the LORD called unto him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham: and he said, Here †am I.

CHAPTER 23.

[o]1 The age and death of Sarah. 3 The purchase of Machpelah, 19 where Sarah was buried.

AND [7] Sarah was an hundred and seven and twenty years [o]old[1]: [t]these were the years of the life of Sarah.
2 And Sarah died in [8i]Kirjath-arba; the same is [k]Hebron[1] in the land of Canaan: and Abraham came to mourn for Sarah, and to weep for her.
3 [o]¶[1] And Abraham [9]stood[1] up from before his dead, and spake unto the [1]sons[1] of Heth, saying,
4 [m]I [t]am a stranger and a sojourner with you: [p]give me a possession of a buryingplace with you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight.
5 And the children of Heth answered Abraham, saying unto him,
6 Hear us, my lord: thou [t]art [2r]a mighty prince among us: in the choice of our sepulchres bury thy dead; none of us shall withhold from thee his sepulchre, but that thou mayest bury thy dead.
7 And Abraham [9]stood[1] up, and bowed himself to the people of the land, [t]even to the children of Heth.
8 And he communed with them, saying, If it be your mind that I should bury my dead out of my sight[1];[1] hear me, and intreat for me to Ephron the son of Zohar, 9 That he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he hath, which [t]is in the end of his field; for [5u]as much money as it is worth he shall give it me[1] for a possession of a buryingplace [d]amongst you[1].
10 [1]And Ephron dwelt among[1] the children of Heth: and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the [d]audience of the children of Heth, [t]even of all that [e]went in at the gate of his city, saying,
11 [h]Nay, my lord, hear me: the field give I thee, and the cave that is therein, I give it thee; in the presence of the sons of my people give I it thee: bury thy dead.
12 And Abraham bowed [2]down himself[1] before the people of the land.
13 And he spake unto Ephron in the audience of the people of the land, saying, But if thou [3]wilt give it,[1] I pray thee, hear me: I will give [4]thee money for[1] the field; take [t]it of me, and I will bury my dead there.
14 And Ephron answered Abraham, saying unto him,
15 My lord, hearken unto me: [5]the land is worth four hundred [l]shekels of silver;[1] what [t]is that betwixt me and thee? bury therefore thy dead.
16 And Abraham hearkened unto Ephron; and Abraham [n]weighed to Ephron the silver, which he had named in the audience of the [6]sons[1] of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, current money with the merchant.
17 [7] ¶ And[1] [q]the field of Ephron, which [t]was in Machpelah, which [t]was before Mamre, the field, and the cave which [t]was therein, and all the trees that [t]were in the field, that [t]were in all the [8]borders[1] round about, were made sure 18 Unto Abraham for a possession in the presence of the children of Heth, before all that went in at the gate of his city.
19 And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre[9]: the same is Hebron[1] in the land of Canaan.
20 And the field, and the cave that [t]is therein, [t]were made sure unto Abraham for a possession of a buryingplace by the [1]sons[1] of Heth.

CHAPTER 24.

°1 Abraham sendeth his servant to seek a wife for Isaac. 50 He obtaineth Rebekah. 62 Isaac meeteth her.

AND Abraham [c]was old, and [d]well stricken in age: and the LORD [f]had blessed Abraham in all things.

2 And Abraham said [g]unto his [1]eldest servant[1] of his house, that [k]ruled over all that he had, [l]Put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh:

3 And I will make thee [m]swear by the LORD, the God of heaven°,[1] and the God of the earth, that [n]thou shalt not take a wife [2]unto[1] my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell:

4 [p]But thou shalt go [q]unto my country, and to my kindred, and take a wife [2]unto[1] my son Isaac.

5 And the servant said unto him, Peradventure the woman will not be willing to follow me unto this land: must I needs bring thy son again unto the land from whence thou camest?

6 And Abraham said unto him, Beware thou that thou bring not my son thither again.

7°¶[1] The LORD[3] God of heaven, [4]which[1] [g]took me from my father's house, and from the land of my [5]kindred, and which[1] spake unto me, and that sware unto me, saying, [z]Unto thy seed will I give this land; [6]he shall send his angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife [6]unto[1] my son from thence.

8 And if the woman [7]will not be[1] willing to follow thee, then [6]thou shalt be clear from this my oath[3]: only bring not[1] my son thither again.

9 And the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and sware to him concerning [9]that[1] matter.

10°¶[1] And the servant took ten camels[1] of the camels of his master, and departed; [2d]for all the goods of his master were[1] in his hand: and he arose, and went to [3]Mesopotamia, unto [f]the city of Nahor.

11 And he made [4]his[1] camels to kneel down without the city by [4]a[1] well of water at the time of [t]the evening, °even[1] the time [u]that women go out to draw [t]water.

12 And he said, [b]O LORD[1] God of my master Abraham, [2]I pray thee, °[c]send me[1] good speed this day, and shew kindness unto my master Abraham.

13 Behold, [h]I stand [3]here by the well[1] of water; and [i]the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water:

14 And let it come to pass, that the damsel to whom I shall say, Let down thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: †let the same he she †that thou hast appointed for thy servant Isaac; and [r]thereby shall I know that thou hast shewed kindness unto my master.

15°¶[1] And it came to pass, before he had done speaking, that, behold, Rebekah came out, who was born to Bethuel[4], [l]son of [l]Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, with her pitcher upon her shoulder.

16 And the damsel †[u]was [z]very fair to look upon, a virgin, neither had any man known her: and she went down to the [5]well,[1] and filled her pitcher, and came up.

17 And the servant ran to meet her, and said, [6]Let me, I pray thee, drink[1] a little water of thy pitcher.

18 [b]And she said, Drink, my lord: and she hasted, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink.

19 And when she had done giving him drink, she said, I will draw °water[1] for thy camels also, until they have done drinking.

20 And she hasted, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again unto the well to draw °water[1], and drew for all his camels.

21 And the man [7]wondering at her held his peace, to wit[1] whether [e]the LORD had made his journey prosperous or not.

22 And it came to pass, as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden [8g]earring[1] of [9]half a shekel weight, 20 And Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah °to wife[1], [c]the daughter of Bethuel the [2]Syrian of [3]Padan-aram,[1] [g]the sister [4]to[1] Laban the [2]Syrian [5].

21 And Isaac intreated the LORD for his wife, because she †was barren: [h]and the LORD was intreated of him, and [i]Rebekah his wife conceived.

22 And the children struggled together within her; and she said, If †it be so, [6]why am I thus[1]? [n]And she went to [7]enquire[1] of the LORD.

23 And the LORD said unto her, [8 p]Two nations †are in thy womb, and two [9]manner of people[1] shall be separated [1] from thy bowels[2];[1] and †[r]the one people shall be stronger than †the other people; and [u]the elder shall serve the younger.

24 °¶ [1] And when her days to be delivered were fulfilled, behold, †there were twins in her womb.

25 And the first came [3]out[1] [4]red, [y]all over like an hairy garment; and they called his name Esau.

26 And after that came [5]his brother out,[1] and [b]his hand [6]took[1] hold on Esau's heel; and [c]his name was called [7]Jacob: and Isaac †was threescore years old when she bare them.

27 And the boys grew: and Esau was [d]a cunning hunter, a man of the field; and Jacob †was [f]a [8]plain man, [g]dwelling in tents.

28 [9]And[1] Isaac loved Esau, because [h]he did [i]eat of †his venison: [1 k]but[1] Rebekah loved Jacob.

29 °¶ [1] And Jacob sod pottage: and Esau came [2]from the field, and he †was faint:

30 And Esau said to Jacob, Feed me, I pray thee, [m]with [3]that same red pottage; for I †am faint: therefore was his name called [4 p]Edom.

31 And Jacob said, Sell me [5]this day thy birthright.

CHAPTER 26.

[c]1 Isaac because of famine went to Gerar. 18 He diggeth wells. 23 God appeareth to him at Beer-sheba, and blesseth him. 26 His covenant with Abimelech. 34 Esau's wives.[1]

AND there was a famine in the land, beside [d]the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went unto [e]Abimelech king of the Philistines unto Gerar.
2 And the LORD appeared unto him, and said, Go not down into Egypt; dwell in [f]the land which I shall tell thee of:
3 [7]Sojourn in this land, and [g]I will be with thee, and [h]will bless thee; for unto thee, and unto thy seed, [x]I will give all these [6]countries,[1] and I will [7]perform[1] [y]the oath which I sware unto Abraham thy father;
4 And [a]I will [8]make thy seed to multiply[1] as the stars of heaven, and will give unto thy seed all these [9]countries[1]; [b]and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth [1]be blessed;
5 [c]Because that Abraham obeyed my voice, and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws.
6 [c]¶[1] And Isaac dwelt in Gerar:
7 And the men of the place asked †him of his wife; and [c]he said, She †is my sister: for [f]he feared to say, [2]She is my wife[1]; lest, said he, the men of the place should kill me for Rebekah[3];[1] because she †[i]was fair to look upon.
8 And it came to pass, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out at a window, and saw, and, behold, Isaac †was sporting with Rebekah his wife.
9 And Abimelech called Isaac, and said, Behold, of a surety she †is thy wife: and how saidst thou, She †is my sister? And Isaac said unto him, Because I said, Lest I die for her.
10 And Abimelech said, What †is this thou hast done unto us? one of the people might lightly have lien with thy wife, and [c]thou shouldest have brought guiltiness upon us.
11 And Abimelech charged all [1]his[1] people, saying, He that [d]toucheth this man or his wife shall surely be put to death.
12 [2]Then[1] Isaac sowed in that land, and [3][e]received[1] in the same year [f]an hundredfold: and the LORD [g]blessed him.
13 And the man [h]waxed great, and [4][k]went forward, and grew[1] until he became very great:
14 [5]For[1] he had [6]possession[1] of flocks, and [6]possession[1] of herds, and [7]great store of [m]servants[1]: and the Philistines [n]envied him.
15 [8]For[1] all the wells [q]which his father's servants had digged in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines had stopped them, and filled them with earth.
16 And Abimelech said unto Isaac, Go from us; for [z]thou art much mightier than we.
17 [o]¶[1] And Isaac departed thence, and [9]pitched his tent[1] in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there.
18 And Isaac digged again the wells of water, which they had digged in the days of Abraham his father; for the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham: [d]and he called their names after the names by which his father had called them.
19 And Isaac's servants digged in the valley, and found there a well of [10][y]springing water.
20 And the herdmen of Gerar [2][h]did strive[1] with Isaac's herdmen, saying, The water †is [3]our's[1]: and he called the name of the well [4][k]Esek; because they [5]strove[1] with him.
21 And they digged another well, and [6]strove for that also: and he called the name of it [7][l]Sitnah.
22 And he removed from thence, and digged another well; and for that they strove

23 And he went up from thence to Beer-sheba.

24 And the LORD appeared unto him the same night, and said, [e]I †am the God of Abraham thy father: [f]fear not, for [g]I †am with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed for my servant Abraham's sake.

30 [a]And he made them a feast, and they did eat and drink.

31 And they rose up betimes in the morning, and [c]sware one to another: and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace.

32 And it came to pass the same day, that Isaac's servants came, and told him concerning the well which they had digged, and said unto him, We have [e]found water.

33 And he called it [7]/Shebah': [g]therefore the name of the city †is [i]Beer-sheba unto this day.

AND it came to pass, that when Isaac was old, and [h]his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called Esau his [5]eldest' son, and said unto him, My son: and he said unto him, [4]Behold, here am' I.

2 And he said, Behold now, I am old, I 'know not the day of my death[5]:'

5 And Rebekah heard when Isaac spake to Esau his son. And Esau went to the field to hunt †for venison, †and to bring †it.

6 °¶ ' And Rebekah spake unto Jacob her son, saying, Behold, I heard thy father speak unto Esau thy brother, saying,

7 Bring me venison, and make me savoury meat, that I may eat, and bless thee before the LORD before my death.

8 Now therefore, my son, [b]obey my voice according to that which I command thee.

9 Go now to the flock, and fetch me from thence two good kids of the goats; and I will make them [d]savoury meat for thy father, such as he loveth:

10 And thou shalt bring †it to thy father, that he may eat, [6]and' that he [c]may bless thee before his death.

13 And his mother said unto him, [a]Upon me be thy curse, my son: only obey my voice, and go fetch me [†]them.
14 And he went, and fetched, and brought [†]them to his mother: and his mother [b]made savoury meat, such as his father loved.
15 And Rebekah took [1][d]goodly raiment of [2]her eldest son Esau, [†] which [†]were with her in the house, and put them upon Jacob her younger son:
16 And she put the skins of the kids of the goats upon his hands, and upon the smooth of his neck:
17 And she gave the savoury meat and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob.
18 °¶[†] And he came unto his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here [†]am I; who [†]art thou, my son?
19 And Jacob said unto his father, I [†]am Esau thy firstborn; I have done according as thou badest me: arise, I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, [m]that thy soul may bless me.
20 And Isaac said unto his son, How [†]is it that thou hast found [†]it so quickly, my son? And he said, Because the LORD thy God [3]brought it [p]to me.[†]
21 And Isaac said unto Jacob, Come near, I pray thee, that I [†]may feel thee, my son, whether thou [†]be my very son Esau or not.
22 And Jacob went near unto Isaac his father; and he felt him, and said, The voice [†]is Jacob's voice, but the hands [†]are the hands of Esau.
23 And he discerned him not, because [y]his hands were hairy, as his brother Esau's hands: so he blessed him.
24 And he said, [†]Art thou my very son Esau? And he said, I [†]am.
25 And he said, Bring [†]it near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, [c]that my soul may bless thee. And he brought [†]it near to him, and he did eat: and he brought him wine, and he drank.
26 And his father Isaac said unto him, Come near now, and kiss me, my son.
27 And he came near, and kissed him: and he smelled the smell of his raiment, and blessed him, and said, [1]See, [c]the smell of my son [†]is as the smell of a field which the LORD hath blessed:
28 [2]Therefore[†] [e]God give thee of [f]the dew of heaven, and [3][g]the fatness of the earth, and [h]plenty of corn and wine:
29 [i]Let [4]people[†] serve thee, and nations bow down to thee: be lord over thy brethren, and [k]let thy mother's sons bow down to thee: [l]cursed [†]be every one that curseth thee, and blessed [5]be he[†] that blesseth thee.
30 °¶[†] And it came to pass, as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was yet scarce gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting.
31 And he also °had[†] made savoury meat, and brought it unto his father[6], and[†] said unto his father, Let my father arise, and [n]eat of his son's venison, that thy soul may bless me.
32 And Isaac his father said unto him, Who [†]art thou? And he said, I [†]am thy son, thy firstborn[7] Esau.
33 And Isaac [q]trembled very exceedingly, and said, [8]Who[†] where is[†] he that hath [r]taken venison, and brought [†]it me, and I have eaten of all before thou camest, and have blessed him? yea, [u]and he shall be blessed.
34 [9]And when[†] Esau heard the words of his father, [x]he cried with [1]a great and exceeding[†] bitter cry, and said unto his father, Bless me, [†]even me also, O my father.
35 And he said, Thy brother came with [2]subtilty,[†] and hath taken away thy blessing.
36 And he said, [z]Is not he rightly named [3][a]Jacob? for he hath supplanted me these two times: [b]he took away my birthright; and, behold, now he hath taken away my blessing. And he said, Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me?

CHAPTER 28.

°1 Isaac blesseth Jacob, and sendeth him to Padan-aram. 10 The vision of Jacob's ladder. 18 The stone of Beth-el. 20 Jacob's vow.

1 AND Isaac called Jacob, and [c]blessed him, and charged him, and said unto him, [d]Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan.

2 [e]Arise, go to [2]Padan-aram,[1] to the house of [g]Bethuel thy mother's father; and take thee a wife from thence of the daughters of [i]Laban thy mother's brother.

3 [l]And [3]God Almighty bless thee, and make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, that thou mayest be [n]a [4]multitude of people[1];

4 And give thee [q]the blessing of Abraham, to thee, and to thy seed with thee; that thou mayest inherit the land [5t]wherein thou art a stranger,[1] which God gave unto Abraham.

5 And Isaac sent away Jacob; and he went to [6]Padan-aram[1] unto Laban, son of Bethuel the [7]Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, Jacob's and Esau's mother.

6 [s] ¶ When[1] Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob°,[1] and sent him away to [6]Padan-aram[1], to take him a wife from thence; and that as he blessed him he gave him a charge, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan;

7 And that Jacob obeyed his father and his mother, and was gone to [9]Padan-aram;

8 And Esau seeing[1] [b]that the daughters of Canaan [c]pleased not Isaac his father;

9 [1]Then went Esau[1] unto Ishmael, and took unto the wives which he had [d]Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael Abraham's son, [e]the sister of [2]Nebajoth,[1] to be his wife.

10 ¶ And Jacob [f]went out from Beer-sheba, and went toward [g]Haran.

11 And he lighted upon [3]a certain place, and tarried there all night, because the sun was set; and he took [4] of the stones of [5]that place, and put them for his pillows,[1] and lay down in that place to sleep.

13 [c]And, behold, the LORD stood [1]above it, and said, [d]I am the LORD [2] God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: [h]the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed;

14 And [i]thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt [3k]spread abroad [l]to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: and in thee and [m]in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed.

15 And, behold, [n]I am with thee, and will [o]keep thee [4]in all places whither[1] thou goest, and will [q]bring thee again into this land; for [r]I will not leave thee, [s]until I have done [t]that which I have spoken to thee of.

17 And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful [t]is this place! this [t]is none other but the house of God, and this [t]is the gate of heaven.

°1 Jacob, coming to the well of Haran, 9 meeteth Rachel. 13 Laban entertaineth him. 18 Jacob, covenanting for Rachel, 23 is deceived with Leah. 28 He marrieth Rachel also. 32 Leah beareth Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah.

THEN Jacob [1e]went on his journey, [f]and came [2]into[1] the land of the [3g]people[1] of the east.

2 And he looked, and behold a well in the field, and, lo, °there were[1] three flocks of sheep lying [4] by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks: and [5]a great stone was[1] upon the well's mouth[6].

3 And thither were all the flocks gathered: and they rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again upon the well's mouth in [7]his[1] place.

4 And Jacob said unto them, My brethren, whence [8]be ye? And they said, Of Haran [8]are we.

5 And he said unto them, Know ye Laban the son of Nahor? And they said, We know [8]him.

6 And he said unto them, [8x]Is he well[1]? And they said, [9]He is[1] well: and, behold, Rachel his daughter cometh with the sheep.

7 And he said, Lo, [8y]it is yet high day, neither [8]is it time that the cattle should be gathered together: water ye the sheep, and go [8]and feed [8]them.

8 And they said, We cannot, until all the flocks be gathered together, and °[10]till[1] they roll the stone from the well's mouth; then we water the sheep.

9 °[1]¶ And while[1] he yet spake with them, [f]Rachel came with her father's sheep[2]:[1] for she kept them.

10 And it came to pass, when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, that Jacob went near, and [k]rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother.

14 °¶[1] And Reuben went in the days of wheat harvest, and found [f]mandrakes in the field, and brought them unto his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, [h]Give me, I pray thee, of thy son's mandrakes.

15 And she said unto her, [t]Is it a small matter that thou hast taken [8]my husband[1]; and wouldest thou take away my son's mandrakes also? And Rachel said, Therefore he shall lie with thee [9]to night[1] for thy son's mandrakes.

16 And Jacob came [1]out of[1] the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, Thou must come in unto me; for [2]surely I have[1] hired thee with my son's mandrakes. And he lay with her that night.

17 And God hearkened unto Leah, and she conceived, and bare Jacob [1]the[1] fifth son.

18 And Leah said, God hath given me my [2]hire, because I [5]have given my maiden[1] to my husband: and she called his name [7]Issachar.

19 And Leah conceived again, and bare [4]Jacob the sixth son.[1]

20 And Leah said, God hath [5]endued[1] me [t]with a good dowry; now will my husband [6]dwell with me, because I have [7]born[1] him six sons: and she called his name [i]Zebulun.

21 And afterwards she bare a daughter, and called her name [l]Dinah.

22 °¶[1] And God [m]remembered Rachel, and God hearkened to her, and [n]opened her womb.

23 And she conceived, and bare a son[8];[1] and said, God hath taken away [q]my reproach:

24 And she called his name [s]Joseph[9]; and said,[1] [u]The LORD °shall[1] [v]add to me another son.

CHAPTER 31.

[o]1 Jacob departeth from Laban secretly. 19 Rachel stealeth her father's images. 22 Laban pursueth Jacob. 43 They make a covenant at Galeed.'

AND he heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, Jacob hath taken away all that [t]was our father's; and of [t]that which [t]was our father's hath he gotten all this [4]glory.

2 And Jacob beheld [g]the countenance of Laban, and, behold, it [t]was not [h]toward him [i]as [5]before.'

3 And the LORD said unto Jacob, [k]Return unto the land of thy fathers, and to thy kindred; and I will be with thee.

4 And Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field unto his flock,

5 And said unto them, [l]I see your father's countenance, that it [t]is not toward me as [6]before[1]; but the God of my father [n]hath been with me.

6 And [p]ye know that with all my power I have served your father.

7 And your father hath deceived me, and [q]changed my wages [r]ten times; but God [s]suffered him not to hurt me.

8 If he said thus, [o]The speckled shall be thy wages; then all the [7]cattle' bare speckled: and if he said thus, The ringstraked shall be thy [8]hire'; then bare all the [7]cattle' ringstraked.

9 Thus God hath [7]taken away the cattle of your father, and given [t]them to me.

10 And it came to pass at the time that the [7]cattle' conceived, that I lifted up mine eyes, and saw in a dream, and, behold, the [9g]rams' which leaped upon the [1]cattle' [t]were ringstraked, speckled, and grisled.

11 And [a]the angel of God [1]spake unto me in a dream, saying, Jacob: And' I said, Here †am I.

12 And he said, Lift up now thine eyes, and see, all the [2]rams' which leap upon the [3]cattle' †are ringstraked, speckled, and grisled: for [d]I have seen all that Laban doeth unto thee.

13 I †am the God of Beth-el, [e]where thou anointedst [4]the' pillar, °and' where thou vowedst a vow unto me: now [g]arise, get thee out from this land, and return unto the land of thy [5]kindred.'

14 And Rachel and Leah answered and said unto him, †'Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house?

15 Are we not counted of him strangers? for 'he hath sold us, and hath [6]quite devoured °also' [7]our money.

16 For all the riches which God hath taken [8]from our father, that †is [9]our's,' and our children's: now then, whatsoever God hath said unto thee, do.

17 °¶' Then Jacob rose up, and set his sons and his wives upon [1]camels;

18 And he carried away all his cattle, and all his [2]goods' which he had [3]gotten,' the cattle of his getting, which he had [4]gotten in Padan-aram,' for to go to Isaac his father [5]in' the land of Canaan.

19 [6]And Laban went' to shear his sheep: and Rachel [7]had stolen' the [8]ℓ images' that †were her father's.

20 And Jacob [9]stole away [u]unawares to Laban the Syrian, in that he told him not that he fled.

21 So he fled with all that he had; and he rose up, and passed over 'the [2]river,' and [z]set his face †toward the [5]mount' Gilead.

22 [4]And it was told Laban on the third day that Jacob was fled.

23 And he took [y]his brethren with him, and pursued after him seven days' journey; and [5]they' overtook him in the [5]mount' Gilead.

24 And God [a]came to Laban the Syrian in a dream '[1]by' night, and said unto him, Take heed [2]that thou [b]speak not to Jacob [c]either good or bad.

25 [3]¶ Then Laban overtook' Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the [4]mount': and Laban with his brethren pitched in the [4]mount' of Gilead.

26 And Laban said to Jacob, What hast thou done, that thou hast stolen away unawares to me, and [f]carried away my daughters°,' as captives [g]taken with' the sword?

27 Wherefore didst thou flee °away' secretly, and [6h]steal away from me; and didst not tell me, that I might have sent thee away with mirth°,' and with songs, with tabret°,' and with harp[7i]?'

28 And hast not suffered me [k]to kiss my sons and my daughters? [8m]thou hast now done foolishly in so doing.'

29 It is in the power of my hand to do you hurt: but the [n]God of your father spake unto me [p]yesternight, saying, Take [9]thou heed' that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad.

30 And now, though thou wouldest needs be gone, because thou sore longedst after thy father's house, yet wherefore hast thou [q]stolen my gods?

31 And Jacob answered and said to Laban, Because I was afraid: for I said, 'Peradventure thou wouldest take by force thy daughters from me.'

32 With whomsoever thou findest thy gods, [27]let him' not live: before our brethren discern thou what †is thine with me, and take †it to thee. For Jacob knew not that Rachel had stolen them.

33 And Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the [2]two maidservants' tents'; but he found †them not. [4]Then went he' out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent.

34 Now Rachel had taken the [5]images,' and put them in the camel's furniture, and sat upon them. And Laban [6z]searched' all the tent, but found †them not.

35 And she said to her father, Let [7]it not displease my lord' that I cannot rise up before thee; for the manner of women is upon me. And he searched, but found not the [8]ℓ images.

36 [c]¶[1] And Jacob was wroth, and chode with Laban: and Jacob answered and said to Laban, What [†]is my trespass? what [†]is my sin, that thou hast [c]so[1] hotly pursued after me?

37 Whereas thou hast [3c]searched[1] all my stuff, what hast thou found of all thy household stuff? [4]set[1] [†]it here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may judge betwixt us [5]both.[1]

38 This twenty years [†]have I [†]been with thee; thy ewes and thy [6]she goats[1] have not cast their young, and the rams of thy [7]flock[1] have I not eaten.

39 [g]That which was torn [†]of beasts I brought not unto thee; I bare the loss of it; of [h]my hand didst thou require it, [†]whether stolen by day[c],[1] or stolen by night.

40 [†]Thus I was; in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep [8]departed[1] from mine eyes.

41 [i]Thus have I been twenty years[1] in thy house; I [k]served thee fourteen years for thy two daughters, and six years for thy [1]cattle[1]: and [p]thou hast changed my wages ten times.

42 [q]Except the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and [r]the [2]fear[1] of Isaac, had been with me, surely [s]thou hadst sent me away now[1] empty. [t]God hath seen mine affliction and the labour of my hands, and [x]rebuked [†]thee yesternight.

43 [c]¶[1] And Laban answered and said unto Jacob, [4]These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and these cattle are my cattle, and all that thou seest [†]is mine: and what can I do this day unto these my daughters, or unto their children which they have [5]born?

44 Now therefore come thou,[1] [a]let us make a covenant, I and thou; [b]and let it be for a witness between me and thee.

45 And Jacob [d]took a stone, and set it up [†]for a pillar.

46 And Jacob said unto his brethren, Gather stones; and they took stones, and made an heap: and they did eat there [1]upon[1] the heap.

47 And Laban called it [2b]Jegarsahadutha: but Jacob called it [3c]Galeed.

48 And Laban said, [a]This heap [†]is [c]a[1] witness between me and thee this day. Therefore was the name of it called Galeed[4];[1]

49 And [5f]Mizpah[6];[1] for he said, The LORD watch between me and thee, when we are [7]absent one from another.

50 If thou shalt afflict my daughters, [8]or[1] if thou shalt take [c]other[1] wives beside my daughters, no man [†]is with us; see, God [†]is witness betwixt me and thee.

51 And Laban said to Jacob, Behold this heap, and behold [9]this[1] pillar, which I have [1]cast[1] betwixt me and thee[2];[1]

52 This heap the witness, and [9]this[1] pillar [†]be witness, that I will not pass over this heap to thee, and that thou shalt not pass over this heap and this pillar unto me, for harm.

53 The God of Abraham, and the God of Nahor, the [2]God of their father, [t]judge betwixt us. And Jacob [l]sware by [m]the [4]fear[1] of his father Isaac.

54 [5]Then[1] Jacob [n]offered [6]sacrifice upon the mount,[1] and called his brethren to eat bread: and they did eat bread, and tarried all night in the [7]mount.[1]

55 [h]And early in the morning Laban rose up, and kissed his sons and his daughters, and [n]blessed them: and Laban departed, and [g]returned unto his place.

[a]unto the land of Seir, [b]the [1c]country of Edom.

4 And he commanded them, saying, [d]Thus shall ye [2]speak unto my lord Esau; [3]Thy servant Jacob saith thus, I have sojourned with Laban, and stayed [e]there until now:

5 And [e]I have oxen, and [4]asses, flocks, and menservants[c], and [5]womenservants: and I have sent to tell my lord, that [f]I may find grace in thy sight.

6 [c]¶ And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, We came to thy brother Esau, and [6]also [g]he cometh to meet thee, and four hundred men with him.

7 Then Jacob was greatly afraid and [7][h]distressed: and he divided the people that [i]was with him, and the flocks, and [8]herds, and the camels, into two [9]bands;

8 And[1] said, If Esau come to the one company, and smite it, then the [c]other company which is left shall escape.

9 [c]¶ [k]And Jacob said, [k]O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, [1]the LORD, [m]which saidst unto me, Return unto thy country, and to thy kindred, and I will [2]deal well with thee:

10 [3][p]I am not worthy of the least of all the [q]mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shewed unto thy servant; for with [r]my staff I passed over this Jordan; and now I am become two [4]bands.

11 [s]Deliver me, I pray thee, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I fear him, lest he [c]will come and smite me, [c]and[1] [t]the mother [u]with the children.

12 And [c]thou saidst, I will surely do thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.

13 [c]¶ And he lodged there that [c]same night; and took of that which [5]came to his hand[1] [v]a present for Esau his brother;

14 Two hundred [6]she goats, and twenty [7]he goats, two hundred ewes[c], and twenty rams, 15 Thirty milch camels [8]with their colts, forty kine[c], and ten bulls, twenty [1]she asses, and ten foals.

16 And he delivered [i]them into the hand of his servants, every drove by [2]themselves; and said unto his servants, Pass over before me, and put a space betwixt drove and drove.

17 And he commanded the foremost, saying, When Esau my brother meeteth thee, and asketh thee, saying, Whose [i]art thou? and whither goest thou? and whose [i]are these before thee?

18 Then thou shalt say, They be thy servant Jacob's; it [i]is a present sent unto my lord Esau: and, behold, [3]also he is[1] behind us.

19 And [4]so commanded [5]he[1] the second, and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, On this manner shall ye speak unto Esau, when ye find him [6].

20 And say ye moreover, Behold,[1] thy servant Jacob [i]is behind us. For he said, I will [l]appease him with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see his face; peradventure he will accept [c]of[1] me.

21 So [7]went the present[1] over before him: and [8]himself lodged that night in the company.

22 [9]And he rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two [1]womenservants,[1] and his eleven [2]sons,[1] [x]and passed over the ford [3]Jabbok.

23 And he took them, and [z]sent them over the [4]brook,[1] and sent over that he had.

24 [c]¶ And Jacob was left alone; and there [z]wrestled a man with him until the [b]breaking of the day.

25 And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and [a]the hollow of Jacob's thigh was [5]out of joint,[1] as he wrestled with him.

26 And [f]he said, Let me go, for the day breaketh. And he said, [g]I will not let thee go, except thou bless me.

27 And he said unto him, What [i]is thy name? And he said, Jacob.

°1 Dinah is defiled. 24 The Shechemites, being circumcised, are slain by the sons of Jacob. 30 Jacob reproveth Simeon and Levi.'

AND [h]Dinah the daughter of Leah, which she bare unto Jacob, [i]went out to see the daughters of the land.

2 And °when' Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, [6]prince of the country, [l]saw her,' he [m]took her, and lay with her, and [7n]defiled' her.

3 And his soul clave unto Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the damsel, and spake [8F]kindly unto the damsel.

4 And Shechem [q]spake unto his father Hamor, saying, Get me this damsel to wife.

5 [9]And' Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter': now' his sons were with his cattle in the field: and Jacob [r]held his peace until they [2]were come.'

13 And the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father [1g]deceitfully, and said,' because he had defiled Dinah their sister[2]:

14 And they' said unto them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that is uncircumcised; for [k]that were a reproach unto us:

25 ¶ And it came to pass on the third day, when they were sore, that two of the sons of Jacob, [d]Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brethren, took each man his sword, and came upon the city [1]boldly, and slew all the males.

26 And they slew Hamor and Shechem his son with the [2]edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went [2]out.

27 The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and spoiled the city, because they had defiled their sister.

28 They took their [3]sheep, and their oxen, and their asses, and that which [†]was in the city, and that which [†]was in the field,

29 And all their wealth, and all their little ones, and their wives took they captive, and spoiled even all that [†]was in the house.

CHAPTER 37.

°2 Joseph is hated of his brethren. 5 His two dreams. 13 He is sent to his brethren. 24 They cast him into a pit. 28 He is sold to the Ishmeelites, 36 who sell him to Potiphar in Egypt.

AND Jacob dwelt in the land [3e]wherein his father was a stranger,[1] in the land of Canaan.

2 These †are the generations of Jacob. Joseph, †being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brethren; and [4]the lad was[1] with the sons of Bilhah, and with the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives: and Joseph brought [5]unto his father [f]their evil report.[1]

3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he †was [4]the son of his old age: and he made him [6g]a coat of †many [k]colours.

4 And °when[1] his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren[7],[1] they [l]hated him, and could not speak peaceably unto him.

5 °¶[1] And Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told [8]it[1] his brethren: and they hated him yet the more.

6 And he said unto them, Hear, I pray you, this dream which I have dreamed:

7 For, [p]behold, we †were binding sheaves in the field, and, lo, my sheaf arose, and also stood upright; and, behold, your sheaves [9]stood[1] round about, and made obeisance to my sheaf.

8 And his brethren said to him, Shalt thou indeed reign over us? or shalt thou indeed have dominion over us? And they hated him yet the more for his dreams, and for his words.

9 °¶[1] And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it[1] his brethren, and said, Behold, I have dreamed [2]a dream more[1]; and, behold, [r]the sun and the moon and °the[1] eleven stars made obeisance to me.

10 And he told †it to his father, and to his brethren[3]:[1] and his father rebuked him, and said unto him, What †is this dream that thou hast dreamed? Shall I and thy mother and [b]thy brethren indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth?

11 And [c]his brethren envied him; but his father [1d]observed the saying.[1]

12 °¶[1] And his brethren went to feed their father's flock in Shechem.

13 And Israel said unto Joseph, Do not thy brethren feed †the flock in Shechem? come, and I will send thee unto them. And he said to him, Here †am I.

14 And he said to him, Go[2], I pray thee,[1] [f]see whether it be well with thy brethren, and well with the [3]flocks[1]; and bring me word again. So he sent him out of the vale of [h]Hebron, and he came to Shechem.

15 °¶[1] And a certain man found him, and, behold, †he was wandering in the field: and the man asked him, saying, What seekest thou?

16 And he said, I seek my brethren: [m]tell me, I pray thee, where they [4]feed their flocks.[1]

17 And the man said, They are departed hence[5];[1] for I heard them say, Let us go to Dothan. And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in [n]Dothan.

18 And °when[1] they saw him afar off, [6]even[1] before he came near unto them, [q]they conspired against him to slay him.

19 And they said one to another, Behold, this [7r]dreamer cometh.

20 [1]Come now therefore, and let us slay him, and cast him into [8]some pit,[1] and we will say, [9]Some[1] evil beast hath devoured him: and we shall see what will become of his dreams.

21 And [u]Reuben heard †it, and °he[1] delivered him out of their [1]hands[1]; and said, Let us not [2]kill him.[1]

22 And Reuben said unto them, Shed no blood[3], but[1] cast him into this pit that †is in the wilderness, [4]and[1] lay no hand upon him[5];[1] that he might

23 [c]¶ [1]And it came to pass, when Joseph was come unto his brethren, that they stript Joseph [3]out of his coat, his coat of [4]many [5]colours that [4]was on him;

24 And they took him, and cast him into [6]a[1] pit: and the pit [4]was empty, [1]there was no water in it.

25 [2]And they sat down to eat bread: and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and, behold, a [7] company of [8h]Ishmeelites[1] came from Gilead[7] with their camels bearing [8]spicery and [9i]balm and [1]myrrh, going to carry [1]it down to Egypt.

26 And Judah said unto his brethren, What profit [1]is it if we slay our brother[c], [1]and [1]conceal his blood?

27 Come, and let us sell him to the [2]Ishmeelites,[1] and [2]let not our hand be upon him; for he [1]is [9]our [3]brother and[1] [9]our flesh. And his brethren [4][1]were content.

28 Then[1] there passed by [m]Midianites[5] merchantmen; and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, [2]and sold Joseph to the [6]Ishmeelites[1] for [m]twenty [4]pieces of silver[7]: and[1] they brought Joseph into Egypt.

29 [c]¶ And Reuben returned unto the pit; and, behold, Joseph [4]was not in the pit; and he [m]rent his clothes.

30 And he returned unto his brethren, and said, The child [4]is not; and I, whither shall I go?

31 And they took [h]Joseph's coat, and killed a [8]kid of the goats,[1] and dipped the coat in the blood;

32 And they sent the coat of [4]many colours, and they brought [4]it to their father; and said, This have we found: know now whether it [4]be thy son's coat or [9]no.[1]

33 And he knew it, and said, [4]It is my son's coat; an [4]evil beast hath devoured him; Joseph is without doubt [1]rent[1] in pieces.

34 And Jacob [p]rent his [9]clothes,[1] and put sackcloth upon his loins, and mourned for his son many days.

35 And all his sons and all his daughters [m]rose up to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted; and he said, For [h]I will go down [1]into[1] [2]the grave [1]unto[1] my son mourning. [3]Thus[1] his father wept for him.

36 And [d]the [4]Midianites sold him into Egypt unto Potiphar, an [c]officer of Pharaoh's, [b]and[1] [c]captain of the guard.

CHAPTER 38.

[o]1 Judah begetteth Er, Onan, and Shelah. 6 Er marrieth Tamar. 8 The trespass of Onan. 27 Tamar beareth Pharez and Zarah.

AND it came to pass at that time, that Judah went down from his brethren, and [k]turned in to a certain Adullamite, whose name [4]was Hirah.

2 And Judah [m]saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite[o], [1]whose name [7]was [p]Shuah[1]; and he took her, and went in unto her.

3 And she conceived, and bare a son; and he called his name [z]Er.

4 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and she called his name [c]Onan.

5 And she yet again [o]conceived, and[1] bare a son[8]; [1]and called his name [b]Shelah: and he was at Chezib, when she bare him.

6 And Judah [c]took a wife for Er his firstborn, [9]whose[1] name [4]was Tamar.

7 And [z]Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the LORD; [2]and the LORD slew him.

8 And Judah said unto Onan, Go in unto [4]thy brother's wife, and [1]marry[1] her, and raise up seed to thy brother.

9 And Onan knew that the seed should not be [k]his; and it came to pass, when he went in unto his brother's wife, that he spilled [4]it on the ground, lest [c]that[1] he should give seed to his brother.

10 And the thing which he did [2m]displeased[1] the LORD: [3]wherefore[1] he slew [m]him also.

11 Then said Judah to Tamar his daughter in law, [9]Remain a widow [1]at[1] thy father's house, till Shelah my son be grown [1]: for he said, Lest [2]peradventure he die also, as his brethren did.[1] And Tamar went and dwelt [a]in her father's house.

12 °¶[1] And [b]in process of time [3]the daughter of Shuah Judah's wife[1] died; and Judah [d]was conforted, and went up unto his sheepshearers to [4]Timnath[1], he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite.

13 And it was told Tamar, saying, Behold [5] thy father in law goeth up [e]to [4]Timnath[1] to shear his sheep.

14 And she put [6]her widow's garments off from her,[1] and covered [7]her with a vail,[1] and wrapped herself, and [h]sat in [6i]an open place,[1] which [t]is by the way to [3]Timnath[1]; for she saw [k]that Shelah was grown[1], and she was not given unto him to wife.

15 When Judah saw her, he thought her [t]to be an harlot; [2]because[1] she had covered her face.

16 And he turned unto her by the way, and said, Go to, I pray thee, let me come in unto thee[2]; (for[1] he knew not that she [t]was his daughter in law.°)[1] And she said, What wilt thou give me, that thou mayest come in unto me?

17 And he said, [t]I will send [t]thee [u]a kid [4] from the flock. And she said, [x]Wilt thou give [t]me a pledge, till thou send [t]it?

18 And he said, What pledge shall I give thee? And she said, [y]Thy signet°,[1] and thy [5]bracelets,[1] and thy staff that [t]is in thine hand. And he gave [6]it[1] her, and came in unto her, and she conceived by him.

19 And she arose, and went away, and [7b]laid by her vail[1] from her, and put on the garments of her widowhood.

20 And Judah sent the kid [8] by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to receive [9]his[1] pledge from the woman's hand: but he found her not.

21 Then he asked the men of [1]that[1] place, saying, Where [t]is the [2]harlot, that [3]was [c]openly[1] by the way side? And they said, There [4]was[1] no [2]harlot [5]in this place.[1] 12 And [9]she caught him by his garment, saying, Lie with me: and he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and got him out.

13 And it came to pass, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled forth,

14 That she called unto the men of her house, and spake unto them, saying, See, he hath brought in an Hebrew unto us to mock us; he came in unto me to lie with me, and I cried with a [d]loud voice:

15 And it came to pass, when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment [1]with[1] me, and fled, and got him out.

16 And she laid up his garment by her, until his [2]lord[1] came home.

17 And she [h]spake unto him according to these words, saying, The Hebrew servant, which thou hast brought unto us, came in unto me to mock me:

18 And it came to pass, as I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment [1]with[1] me, and fled out.

19 And it came to pass, when his master heard the words of his wife, which she spake unto him, saying, After this manner did thy servant to me; that his [k]wrath was kindled.

20 And Joseph's master took him, and [m]put him into the [n]prison, [3]a[1] place where the king's prisoners [†]were bound: and he was there in the prison.

21 [°¶][1] But the LORD was with Joseph, and [p]shewed [4]him mercy,[1] and [q]gave him favour in the sight of the keeper of the prison.

22 And the keeper of the prison [r]committed to Joseph's hand all the prisoners that [†]were in the prison; and whatsoever they did there, he was the doer [†]of it.

23 The keeper of the prison looked not to any thing [†]that was under his hand[5];[1] because [s]the LORD was with him[6],[1] and [†]that which he did, the LORD made [†]it to prosper.

AND it came to pass after these things, †that the [a]butler of the king of Egypt and †his baker [c]had] offended their lord the king of Egypt.

2 And Pharaoh was [b]wroth against †two of his] officers, against the chief of the butlers, and against the chief of the bakers.

3 [e]And he put them in ward in the house of the captain of the guard, into the prison, the place where Joseph †was bound.

4 And the captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he [2]served] them: and they continued a season in ward.

5 [o]¶ And they dreamed a dream both of them, each man his dream[3] in one night, each man according to the interpretation of his dream, the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, which †were bound in the prison.

6 And Joseph came in unto them in the morning, and [4]looked upon] them, and, behold, they †were sad.

7 And he asked Pharaoh's officers that †were with him in [5]the ward of his lord's] house, saying, Wherefore [m]look ye †so sadly [6]to day]?

8 And they said unto him, [n]We have dreamed a dream, and †there is [7]no interpreter of] it. And Joseph said unto them, †[q]Do not interpretations †belong to God? tell [8]me them,] I pray you.

9 And the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, In my dream, behold, a vine †was before me;

10 And in the vine †were three branches: and it †was as though it budded, and [9]her] blossoms shot forth; [1]and] the clusters thereof brought forth ripe grapes:

11 And Pharaoh's cup †was in my hand[2]:] and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand.

12 And Joseph said unto him, [a]This †is the interpretation of it: [3]The] three branches †[b]are three days[4]:

13 Yet within] three days shall Pharaoh [c]lift up thine head, and restore thee unto [1]thy place]: and thou shalt [2]deliver] Pharaoh's cup into his hand, after the former manner when thou wast his butler.

14 But [3c]think on me] when it shall be well with thee, and [d]shew kindness, I pray thee, unto me, and make mention of me unto Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house:

15 For indeed I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews: [f]and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon.

16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said unto Joseph, I also †was in my dream, and, behold, [4]I had three [g]white baskets] on my head:

17 And in the uppermost basket †there was of all manner of [h]bakemeats for Pharaoh; and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon my head.

18 And Joseph answered and said, [i]This †is the interpretation thereof: [5]The] three baskets †are three days[6]:

19 [k]Yet within] three days shall Pharaoh [l]lift up thy head from off thee, and shall hang thee on a tree; and the birds shall eat thy flesh from off thee.

20 [o]¶ And it came to pass the third day, †which was Pharaoh's [p]birthday, that he [r]made a feast unto all his servants: and he [t]lifted up the head of the chief butler and [7]of the chief baker among his servants.

21 And he [u]restored the chief butler unto his butlership again; and [x]he gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand:

22 But he [y]hanged the chief baker: as Joseph had interpreted to them.

23 Yet did not the chief butler remember Joseph, but [z]forgat him.

B.C. 1715.

2 And, behold, there came up out of the river seven [1] kine[1] well favoured kine[1] and fatfleshed; and they fed in [2a] meadow.[1]

3 And, behold, seven other kine came up after them out of the river, ill favoured and leanfleshed; and stood by the [†]other kine upon the brink of the river.

4 And the ill favoured and leanfleshed kine did eat up the seven well favoured and fat kine. So Pharaoh awoke.

5 And he slept and dreamed [3] the[1] second time: and, behold, seven ears of corn came up upon one stalk, [4] rank and good.

6 And, behold, seven [5] thin ears[1] and blasted with the east wind[6] sprung up after them.

7 And the [7] seven thin ears devoured[1] the seven [4] rank and full ears. And Pharaoh awoke, and, behold, [†]it was a dream.

8 And it came to pass in the morning [g] that his spirit was troubled; and he sent and called for all [h] the [8] magicians of Egypt, and all the [i] wise men thereof: and Pharaoh told them his dream; but [†]there was none that could interpret them unto Pharaoh.

9 [°¶] [1] Then spake the chief butler unto Pharaoh, saying, I [9] do remember my faults this day:

10 Pharaoh was [l] wroth with his servants, [m] and put me in ward in the [1] captain of the guard's house, both[1] me and the chief baker:

11 And [p] we dreamed a dream in one night, I and he; we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream.

12 And [†]there was [2] there with us[1] a young man, an Hebrew, [r] servant to the captain of the guard; and we told him, and he [l] interpreted to us our dreams; to each man according to his dream he did interpret.

13 And it came to pass, [z] as he interpreted to us, so it was; [a] me he restored unto mine office, and him he hanged.

14 [°¶] [1] [b] Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they [2] brought him hastily [c] out of the dungeon: and he shaved [†]himself, and changed his raiment, and came in unto Pharaoh.

15 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and [†]there is none that can interpret it: [d] and I have heard say of thee, [1] that [b] thou canst understand a dream to[1] interpret it.

16 And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, [†][e] It is not in me: [d] God shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace.

17 And Pharaoh [2] said[1] unto Joseph, [e] In my dream, behold, I stood upon the [2] bank[1] of the river:

18 And, behold, there came up out of the river seven kine, fatfleshed and well favoured; and they fed in [4a] meadow[1]:

19 And, behold, seven other kine came up after them, poor and very ill favoured and leanfleshed, such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for badness:

20 And the lean and [°] the[1] ill favoured kine did eat up the first seven fat kine:

21 And when they had [k] eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them; but they [†]were still ill favoured, as at the beginning. So I awoke.

22 And I saw in my dream, and, behold, seven ears came up [5] in[1] one stalk, full and good:

23 And, behold, seven ears, [n] withered, thin, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them:

24 And the thin ears [6] devoured[1] the seven good ears: and [q] I told [7] this[1] unto the magicians; but [†]there was none that could declare [†]it to me.

25 [°¶] [1] And Joseph said unto Pharaoh, The dream of Pharaoh [†]is one: [8] [s] God hath shewed Pharaoh what he is about to do.[1] blasted with the east wind[1] shall be [a]seven years of famine.

26 The seven good kine [†]are seven years; and the seven good ears [†]are seven years: the dream [†]is one.

28 [2c]This is[1] the thing which I [3]have spoken[1] unto Pharaoh: [4]What[1] God †is about to do he [5]sheweth[1] unto Pharaoh.
29 Behold, there come [c]seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt:
30 And there shall [d]arise after them seven years of famine; and all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt; and the famine [m]shall consume the land;
31 And the plenty shall not be known in the land by reason of that famine [6]following[1]; for it †shall be very [p]grievous.
32 And for that the dream was doubled unto Pharaoh twice[7];[1] †it is because the [r]thing †is [t]established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass.
33 Now therefore let Pharaoh look out a man discreet and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt.
34 Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint [8y]officers[1] over the land, and †take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt in the seven plenteous years.
35 And [a]let them gather all the food of [9]those[1] good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Pharaoh[1], and let them keep food in the cities.[1]
36 And [2]that[1] food shall be for [3]store to the land against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt; that the land [b]perish not through the famine.
37 °¶[1] And [a]the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants.
38 And Pharaoh said unto his servants, Can we find †such a one as this [c]is[1], a man [f]in whom the [4]Spirit[1] of God †is?
39 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Forasmuch as God hath shewed thee all this, †there is none so discreet and wise as [5]thou art:[1] 40 [g]Thou shalt be over my house, and according unto thy word shall all my people [6k]be ruled: only in the throne will I be greater than thou.
41 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, See, I have [h]set thee over all the land of Egypt.
42 And Pharaoh [d]took off his [1]ring from his hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand, and [f]arrayed him in vestures of [2g]fine linen, [h]and put a gold chain about his neck;
43 And he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had; [k]and they cried before him, [2l]Bow the knee: and he [4]made him ruler[1] [n]over all the land of Egypt.
44 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I †am Pharaoh, and without thee shall no man lift up his hand or [5] foot in all the land of Egypt.
45 And Pharaoh called Joseph's name [6q]Zaphnath-paaneah[1]; and he gave him to wife Asenath the daughter of [7]Poti-pherah[1] [u]priest of On. And Joseph went out over °all[1] the land of Egypt.
46 °¶[1] And Joseph †was thirty years old when he [z]stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt.
47 And in the seven plenteous years the earth brought forth by handfuls.
48 And he gathered up all the food of the seven years[b],[1] which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities: the food of the field, which †was round about every city, laid he up in the same.
49 And Joseph [s]gathered[1] corn [c]as the sand of the sea, very much, until he left numbering; for †it was without number.
50 [c]And unto Joseph were born two sons before the [9]years[1] of famine came, which Asenath the daughter of [7]Poti-pherah[1] [y]priest of On bare unto him.
51 And Joseph called the name of the firstborn [1h]Manasseh: For [2] God, said he,[1] hath made me forget all my toil, and all my father's house.
52 And the name of the second called he [3i]Ephraim: For God hath [4]caused me to be[1] [m]fruitful in the land of my affliction.

17 And he [n]put them all together into ward three days.
18 And Joseph said unto them the third day, This do, and live; †[q]for I fear God:
19 If ye †be true †men, let one of your brethren be bound in °the house of your prison:' 5 S your prison house; but go ye, carry corn for the famine of your houses:
20 [6]But' [u]bring your youngest 6 S and 21 °¶ And they said one to another, [y]We †are verily guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the 'anguish' 7 C distress of his soul, when he besought us, and we would not hear; [a]therefore is this distress come upon us.

22 And Reuben answered them, saying, [b]Spake I not unto you, saying, Do not sin against the child; and ye would not hear? therefore, behold, also[1] his blood is [c]required.

23 And they knew not that Joseph understood them; for [2]he spake unto them by an interpreter.[1]

24 And he turned himself about from them, and wept; and [3] returned to [4]them again, and communed with them, and took from them Simeon,[1] and bound him before their eyes.

25 ¶[1] Then Joseph commanded to fill their [5]sacks[1] with corn, and to restore every man's money into his sack, and to give them provision for the way: and [h]thus [6]did he[1] unto them.

26 And they laded their asses with [7]the[1] corn, and departed thence.

27 And as [i]one of them opened his sack to give his ass provender in the [8]inn,[1] he espied his money; [9]for,[1] behold, it was in [1]his sack's mouth.[1]

28 And he said unto his brethren, My money is restored; and, lo, it is even in my sack: and their heart [n]failed them, and they [2]were afraid, saying one to another,[1] What is this that God hath done unto us?

29 ¶[1] And they came unto Jacob their father unto the land of Canaan, and told him all that [3]befell unto[1] them; saying, 30 The man, [o]who is[1] the lord of the land, [q]spake [r]roughly [4]to[1] us, and took us for spies of the country.

31 And we said unto him, We are true men; we are no spies:

32 We be twelve brethren, sons of our father; one is not, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan.

33 And the man, the lord of the [5]country,[1] said unto us, [s]Hereby shall I know that ye are true men; leave one of your brethren here[1] with me, and take food[1] for the famine of your [2]households, and be gone[1]:

34 And bring your youngest brother unto me: then shall I know that ye are no spies, but that ye are true men: so will I deliver you your brother, and ye shall [d]traffick in the land.

35 ¶[1] And it came to pass as they emptied their sacks, that, behold, [f]every man's bundle of money was in his sack: and when [o]both[1] they and their father saw [2]the[1] bundles of money, they were afraid.

36 And Jacob their father said unto them, Me have ye [p]bereaved of my children: Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye will take Benjamin away: all these things are [4]against me.

37 And Reuben spake unto his father, saying, Slay my two sons, if I bring him not to thee: deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to thee again.

38 And he said, My son shall not go down with you; for [t]his brother is dead, and he [5]is left alone[1]: [u]if mischief befall him by the way in the which ye go, then shall ye [m]bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to [v]the grave.

CHAPTER 43.

[o]1 Jacob is hardly persuaded to send Benjamin. 15 Joseph entertaineth his brethren. 31 He maketh them a feast.[1]

AND the famine was [p]sore in the land.

2 And it came to pass, when they had eaten up the corn which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said unto them, Go again, buy us a little food.

3 And Judah spake unto him, saying, The man [t]did solemnly protest unto us, saying, Ye shall not see my face, except your [u]brother be with you.

4 If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go down and buy thee food:

5 But if thou wilt not send him, we will not go down:

for the man said unto us, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother [t]be with you.

6 And Israel said, Wherefore dealt ye [t]so ill with me, [t]as to tell the man whether ye had yet a brother?

7 And they said, The man [c]asked [c]us straitly [1]of our state, and of [1]our kindred, saying, [t]Is your father yet alive? have ye another brother? and we told him according to the [a]tenor of these words: [c]could we [2]certainly [1]know that he would say, Bring your brother down?

8 And Judah said unto Israel his father, Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go; that we may live, and not die, both we, and thou, [t]and also our little ones.

9 I will be surety for him; of my hand shalt thou require him: [z]if I bring him not unto thee, and set him before thee, then [3]let me bear the blame for ever:

10 For except we had lingered, surely [4]now we had [1]returned [5k]this[1] second time.

11 And their father Israel said unto them, If [6]it must be[1] so now, do this; take of the [7]best fruits in [1]the land in your vessels, and [f]carry down the man a present, a little [8m]balm, and a little honey, [9]spices, [1]and myrrh, [1]nuts, and almonds:

12 And take double money in your hand; and the money [b]that was [2]brought again[1] in the mouth of your sacks [5], [1]carry [6]it[1] again in your hand; peradventure it [t]was an oversight:

13 Take also your brother, and arise, go again unto the man:

14 And [3]God Almighty give you mercy before the man, that he may [4]send away[1] your other brother [6], [1]and Benjamin. [5r]If I be bereaved [t]of my children, I am bereaved.

15 ¶ And the men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin; and rose up, and went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph.

16 And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the [6z]ruler[1] of his house, Bring [1]these men home,[1] and [d]slay, and make ready; for [2]these[1] men shall [e]dine with me at noon.

17 And the man did as Joseph bade; and the man brought the men into Joseph's house.

18 And the men were afraid, because they were brought into Joseph's house; and they said, Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time are we brought in; that he may [2f]seek occasion against us, and fall upon us, and take us for bondmen, and our asses.

19 And they came near to the steward of Joseph's house, and they [4]communed with[1] him at the door of the house,

20 And said, [5]O sir,[1] [g]we came indeed down at the first time to buy food:

21 And [h]it came to pass, when we came to [6]inn,[1] that we opened our sacks, and, behold, [t]every man's money [t]was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight: and we have brought it again in our hand.

22 And other money have we brought down in our [7]hands[1] to buy food: we [c]cannot tell[1] who put our money in our sacks.

23 And he said, Peace [t]be to you, fear not: your God, and the God of your father, hath given you treasure in your sacks: [n]I had your money. And he brought Simeon out unto them.

24 And the man brought the men into Joseph's house, and [g]gave [t]them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their asses provender.

25 And they made ready the present against Joseph came at noon: for they heard that they should eat bread there.

26 [6]¶[1] And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present which [t]was in their hand into the house, and [f]bowed [9]themselves to him to the earth.

27 And he asked them of [t]their [u]welfare, and said, [t][x]Is your father well, the old man [g]of whom ye spake? [t]Is he yet alive?

[o]1 Joseph's policy to stay his brethren.
14 Judah's humble supplication to Joseph.

AND he commanded [p]the steward of his house, saying, Fill the men's sacks [4]with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in his sack's mouth.

2 And put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, and his corn money. And he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken.

3 As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their asses.

4 And when they were gone out of the city, [2]and not yet' far off, Joseph said unto his steward, Up, follow after the men; and when thou dost overtake them, say unto them, Wherefore have ye rewarded evil for good?

5 [4]Is not this [4]it in which my lord drinketh, and whereby [1]indeed he' [c]divineth? ye have done evil in so doing.

6 [o]¶ And he overtook them, and he spake unto them these [o]same' words.

7 And they said unto him, Wherefore [2]saith' my lord [3]these words'? God forbid that thy servants should do [4]according to this thing:'

8 Behold, [g]the money, which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again unto thee out of the land of Canaan: how then should we steal out of thy lord's house silver or gold?

9 With whomsoever of thy servants it be found, [o][2]both' let him die, and we also will be my lord's bondmen.

10 And he said, Now also [4]let it [4]be according unto your words: he with whom it is found shall be my [5]servant'; and ye shall be blameless.

11 Then they [6]speedily' took down every man his sack to the ground, and opened every man his sack.

12 And he searched, and began at the eldest, and left at the youngest: and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

13 Then they [m]rent their clothes, and laded every man his ass, and returned to the city.

14 [o]¶ And Judah and his brethren came to Joseph's house; [7]for' he [4]was yet there: and they [g]fell before him on the ground.

15 And Joseph said unto them, What deed [4]is this that ye have done? [8]wot' ye not that such a man as I can [9]certainly' [r]divine?

16 And Judah said, What shall we say unto my lord? what shall we speak? or how shall we clear ourselves? God hath found out the iniquity of thy servants: behold, [7]we [4]are my lord's [1]servants,' both we, and [4]he also [2]with whom' the cup is found.

18 ¶ Then Judah came near unto him, and said, Oh my lord, let thy servant, I pray thee, speak a word in my lord's ears, and [c]let not thine anger burn against thy servant: for thou [†]art even as Pharaoh.

19 My lord asked his servants, saying, Have ye a father, or a brother?

20 And we said unto my lord, We have a father, an old man, and [d]a child of his old age, a little one; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loveth him.

21 And thou saidst unto thy servants, [e]Bring him down unto me, that I may set mine eyes upon him.

22 And we said unto my lord, The lad cannot leave his father: for [†]if he should leave his father, [†]his father would die.

23 And thou saidst unto thy servants, [f]Except your youngest brother come down with you, ye shall see my face no more.

25 And [f]our father said, Go again, [g]and[1] buy us a little food.

26 And we said, We cannot go down: if our youngest brother be with us, then will we go down: for we may not see the man's face, except our youngest brother [†]be with us.

27 And thy servant my father said unto us, Ye know that [h]my wife bare me two [†]sons:

28 And the one went out from me, and I said, [i]Surely he is torn in pieces; and I [2]saw him not[1] since:

29 And if ye [j]take this [3]also from me, and mischief befall him, ye shall bring down my gray hairs with [k]sorrow to [5]the grave.

30 Now therefore when I come to thy servant my father, and the lad [†]be not with us; seeing that [l]his life is bound up in the lad's life;

31 It shall come to pass, when he seeth that the lad [†]is not with us, that he will die: and thy servants shall bring down the gray hairs of thy servant our father with sorrow to [5]the grave.

32 For thy servant became surety for the lad unto my father, saying, [m]If I bring him not unto thee, then [3]I shall[1] bear the blame to my father for ever.

33 Now therefore, [n]I pray thee,[1] [4]let thy servant[4] abide instead of the lad a bondman to my lord; and let the lad go up with his brethren.

34 For how shall I go up to my father, and the lad [†]be not with me? lest [o]peradventure I see the evil that shall [h]come on my father.

CHAPTER 45.

[o]1 Joseph maketh himself known to his brethren. 5 He comforteth them, [p]and sendeth for his father. 27 Jacob's spirit reviveth.[1]

THEN Joseph could not refrain himself before all them that stood by him; and he cried, Cause every man to go out from me. And there stood no man with him, while Joseph made himself known unto his brethren.

2 And he [5A]wept aloud: and the Egyptians [6] and the house of Pharaoh heard.

3 And Joseph said unto his brethren, [m]I [†]am Joseph; doth my father yet live? And his brethren could not answer him; for they were [n]troubled at his presence.

4 And Joseph said unto his brethren, Come near to me, I pray you. And they came near. And he said, I [†]am Joseph your brother, [q]whom ye sold into Egypt.

5 [7]Now therefore[1] [r]be not grieved, [s]nor angry with yourselves, that ye sold me hither: [t]for God did send me before you to preserve life.

20 Also [b]regard not your stuff; for the good of all the land of Egypt †is [1]your's.[1]

21 And the [2]children[1] of Israel did so: and Joseph gave them wagons, according to the [d]commandment of Pharaoh, and gave them provision for the way.

22 To all of them he gave each man changes of raiment; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred †pieces of silver, and [e]five changes of raiment.

23 And to his father he sent after this †manner; ten asses [f]laden with the good things of Egypt, and ten [3]she asses[1] laden with corn and bread and [4]meat[1] for his father by the way.

24 So he sent his brethren away, and they departed: and he said unto them, See that ye fall not out by the way.

25 ¶ And they went up out of Egypt, and came into the land of Canaan unto Jacob their father[5],[1]

26 And [6] told him, saying, Joseph †is yet alive, and he †is [7]governor[1] over all the land of Egypt. And [8]k Jacob's[1] heart fainted, for he believed them not.

27 And they told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said unto them: and when he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived:

28 And Israel said, †It is enough; Joseph my son †is yet alive: I will go and see him before I die.

4 [d]I will go down with thee into Egypt; and I will also surely [e]bring thee up [t]again: and [f]Joseph shall put his hand upon thine eyes.

5 And [f]Jacob rose up from Beer-sheba: and the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father, and their little ones, and their wives, in the wagons [p]which Pharaoh had sent to carry him.

6 And they took their cattle, and their goods, which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and came into Egypt, [f]Jacob, and all his seed with him:

7 His sons, and his sons' sons with him, his daughters, and his sons' daughters, and all his seed brought he with him into Egypt.

25 [c]These [t]are the sons of Bilhah, [f]which Laban gave unto Rachel his daughter, and [4]she bare these[1] unto Jacob: all the souls [t]were seven.

26 [t]All the [5]souls that came with Jacob into Egypt, which came out of his [n]loins, besides Jacob's sons' wives, all the souls [t]were threescore and six;

THEN Joseph [6][7]came[1] and told Pharaoh, and said, My father and my brethren, and their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have, are come out of the land of Canaan; and, behold, they †are in [n]the land of Goshen.
2 And [7]he took some of his brethren, even[1] five men, and [p]presented them unto Pharaoh.
3 And Pharaoh said unto his brethren, [a]What †is your occupation? And they said unto Pharaoh, [b]Thy servants †are shepherds, both we, †and °also[1] our fathers.
4 [8]They said moreover[1] unto Pharaoh, [9][c]For to[1] sojourn in the land are we come; for [1]thy servants have no pasture for their[1] flocks; [d]for the famine †is sore in the land of Canaan: now therefore, we pray thee, let thy servants [f]dwell in the land of Goshen.
5 And Pharaoh spake unto Joseph, saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come unto thee:
6 [a]The land of Egypt †is before thee; in the best of the land make thy father and[1] brethren to dwell; [c]in the land of Goshen let them dwell: and if thou knowest †any [2]men of activity[1] among them, then make them rulers over my cattle.
7 And Joseph brought in Jacob his father, and set him before Pharaoh: and Jacob blessed Pharaoh.
8 And Pharaoh said unto Jacob, [e]How [3]old art thou[1]?
9 And Jacob said unto Pharaoh, [g]The days of the years of my [4]pilgrimage †are an hundred and thirty years: [h]few and evil have [5]the days of the years of my life °been[1], and [6][i]have not attained unto the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their [4]pilgrimage.
10 And Jacob [n]blessed Pharaoh, and went out from [7]before[1] Pharaoh.
11 °¶[1] And Joseph placed his father and his brethren, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of [l]Rameses, [q]as Pharaoh had commanded.
12 And Joseph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his father's household, with bread, [8][r]according to †their families.
13 ¶ And †there was no bread in all the land; for the famine †was very sore, [z]so that the land of Egypt and °all[1] the land of Canaan fainted by reason of the famine.
14 [z]And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the corn which they bought: and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.
15 And when [9]money failed[1] in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came unto Joseph, and said, Give us bread: for [s]why should we die in thy presence? for [1]the[1] money faileth.

18 [5]When[1] that year was ended, they came unto him the second year, and said unto him, We will not hide [o]it[1] from my lord, how that our money is [6] spent; [7]my lord also hath our herds of cattle[1]; there is [8]not ought[1] left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies, and our lands:

19 Wherefore [9]shall[1] we die before thine eyes, both we and our land? buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants unto Pharaoh: and give [t]us seed, that we may live, and not die, [1]that the land be not desolate.

20 [2]And[1] Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh; for the Egyptians sold every man his field, because the famine [3]prevailed over them: so[1] the land became Pharaoh's.

21 And as for the people, [4]he removed them [5]to [6] cities from [t]one end of the [7]borders[1] of Egypt even to the [t]other end thereof.

22 [r]Only the land of the [q]priests bought he not[5]; [1] for the priests had a portion [s]assigned them of[1] Pharaoh, and did eat their portion which Pharaoh gave them[1]: wherefore they sold not their[2] lands.[1]

23 Then Joseph said unto the people, Behold, I have bought you this day and your land for Pharaoh: lo, [t]here is seed for you, and ye shall sow the land.

24 And it shall come to pass [u]in the increase,[1] that ye shall give [4]the fifth part[1] unto Pharaoh, and four parts shall be your own, for seed of the field, and for your food, and for them of your households, and for food for your little ones.

25 And they said, Thou hast saved our lives: [v]let us find grace in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants.

26 And Joseph made it a [5]law over[1] the land of Egypt unto this day, [t]that Pharaoh should have the fifth [1]part; [a]except[1] the land of the [b]priests [2]only, which[1] became not Pharaoh's.

27 [o]¶ And Israel [c]dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the [3]country[1] of Goshen; and they [4]had[1] possessions therein, and [5c]grew, and multiplied exceedingly.

28 [6] And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years: so [7]the [7]whole age of Jacob was[1] an hundred forty and seven years.

29 And the time [g]drew [8]nigh[1] that Israel must die: and he called his son Joseph, and said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, [h]put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh, and [i]deal kindly and truly with me; [k]bury me not, I pray thee, in Egypt:

30 But [9]I will lie[1] with my fathers, [o]and[1] thou shalt carry me out of Egypt, and [m]bury me in their buryingplace. And he said, I will do as thou hast said.

31 And he said, Swear unto me[1]. And[1] he sware unto him. And [n]Israel bowed himself upon the bed's head.

6 And thy issue, which thou [2]begettest after them, shall be thine[3], and[!] shall be called after the name of their brethren in their inheritance.

7 And as for me, when I came from [4]Padan,[!] [a]Rachel died [5]by me in the land of Canaan in the way, when [6]yet there was but a little[!] way to come unto Ephrath: and I buried her there in the way [7]of[!] Ephrath[8]; the same is Beth-lehem.[!]

8 And Israel beheld Joseph's sons, and said, Who [t]are these?

9 And Joseph said unto his father, [p]They [t]are my sons, whom God hath given me [9]in this place.[!] And he said, Bring them, I pray thee, unto me, and [k]I will bless them.

10 Now [t]the eyes of Israel were [m]dim for age, [t]so that he could not see. And he brought them near unto him; and [n]he kissed them, and embraced them.

11 And Israel said unto Joseph, [q]I had not thought to see thy face: and, lo, God hath [1]shewed me also thy seed.[!]

12 And Joseph brought them out from between his knees[2], and he bowed himself with his face to the earth.

13 And Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel's right hand, and brought [t]them near unto him.

14 And Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid [t]it upon Ephraim's head, who [t]was the younger, and his left hand upon Manasseh's head, [2]guiding his hands wittingly; for Manasseh [t]was the firstborn.

15 ¶ [r]And [a]he blessed Joseph, and said, [4]God,[!] [c]before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac did walk, the God which [5]fed me all my life long unto this day, 16 The [6]Angel[!] [f]which [5] redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let [k]my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them [c]grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth.

17 And when Joseph saw that his father [b]laid his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it [c]displeased him: and he held up his father's hand, to remove it from Ephraim's head unto Manasseh's head.

18 And Joseph said unto his father, Not so, my father: for this [t]is the firstborn; put thy right hand upon his head.

19 And his father refused, and said, [c]I know it, my son, I know it: he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great: [1]but truly[!] [f]his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become [2]a [h]multitude of nations.

20 And he blessed them that day, saying, [3][i]In thee shall Israel bless, saying, God make thee as Ephraim and as Manasseh: and he set Ephraim before Manasseh.

21 And Israel said unto Joseph, Behold, I die: but [p]God shall be with you, and bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

22 Moreover [r]I have given to thee one [4]portion above thy brethren, which I took out of the hand [c]of the Amorite with my sword and with my bow.

28 ¶ All these †are the twelve tribes of Israel: and this †is it that their father spake unto them°,' and blessed them; every one according to his blessing he blessed them.

29 And he charged them, and said unto them, I [y]am to be gathered unto my people: [z]bury me with my fathers [b]in the cave that †is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, 30 In the cave that †is in the field of Machpelah, which †is [17]in the land that is before Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field of Ephron the Hittite, for a possession of a burying place.

31 There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife; there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife; and there I buried Leah.

32 The purchase of the field and of the cave that is therein was from the children of Heth.

33 And when Jacob made an end of commanding his sons, he gathered up his feet into the bed, and yielded up the ghost, and was gathered unto his people.

50 And Joseph fell upon his father's face, and wept upon him, and kissed him.

2 And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father: and the physicians embalmed Israel.

3 And forty days were fulfilled for him; for so are fulfilled the days of those which are embalmed: and the Egyptians mourned for him threescore and ten days.

4 And when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph spake unto the house of Pharaoh, saying, If now I have found grace in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in the ears of Pharaoh, saying,

5 My father made me swear, saying, Lo, I die: in my grave which I have digged for me in the land of Canaan, there shalt thou bury me. Now therefore let me go up, I pray thee, and bury my father, and I will come again.

6 And Pharaoh said, Go up, and bury thy father, according as he made thee swear.

7 And Joseph went up to bury his father: and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt,

8 And all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his father's house: only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Goshen.

9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen: and it was a very great company.

10 And they came to the threshingfloor of Atad, which is beyond Jordan, and there they mourned with a great and very sore lamentation: and he made a mourning for his father seven days.

11 And when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning in the threshingfloor of Atad, they said, This is a grievous mourning to the Egyptians: wherefore the name of it was called Abelmizraim, which is beyond Jordan.

12 And his sons did unto him according as he commanded them:

13 For his sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham bought with the field for a possession of a burying place of Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre.

14 And Joseph returned into Egypt, he, and his brethren, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father.

15 And when Joseph's brethren saw that their father was dead, they said, Joseph will peradventure hate us, and will certainly requite us all the evil which we did unto him.

16 And they sent a messenger unto Joseph, saying, Thy father did command before he died, saying, 17 So shall ye say unto Joseph, Forgive, I pray thee now, the trespass of thy brethren, and their sin; for they did unto thee evil: and now, we pray thee, forgive the trespass of the servants of the God of thy father. And Joseph wept when they spake unto him.

18 And his brethren also went and fell down before his face; and they said, Behold, we be thy servants.

19 And Joseph said unto them, Fear not: for am I in the place of God?

20 But as for you, ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive.

21 Now therefore fear ye not: I will nourish you, and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spake kindly unto them.

22 And Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he, and his father's house: and Joseph lived an hundred and ten years.

23 And Joseph saw Ephraim's children of the third generation: the children also of Machir the son of Manasseh were brought up upon Joseph's knees.

24 And Joseph said unto his brethren, I die: and God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land unto the land which he sware to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

25 And Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry up my bones from hence.

26 So Joseph died, being an hundred and ten years old: and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

10 [a]Come °on[1], let us [b]deal wisely with them; lest they multiply, and it come to pass, that, when there falleth out any war, they [1]join also[1] unto our enemies, and fight against us, and °so[1] get them up out of the land.

2 S store 12 [g]But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and [3]grew.[1] And they [4]were grieved because of the children of Israel.
3 S the more they spread abroad. 13 And the Egyptians made the children of Israel to serve with rigour:
1 M Or, abhorred 14 And they [m]made their lives bitter with hard [5]bondage, [n]in morter,[1] and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field[6]:[1] all their service, wherein they made them serve°, was[1] with rigour.
5 S service, in mortar 6 S , 15 ¶ And the king of Egypt spake to the Hebrew midwives, of which the name of the one [t]was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah:
16 And he said, When ye do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see †them upon the [1]stools[1]; if it †be a son, then ye shall kill him[2:1]: but if it †be a daughter, then she shall live.

17 But the midwives [a]feared God, and did not [b]as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the men children alive.

18 And the king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said unto them, Why have ye done this thing, and have saved the men children alive?

19 And [c]the midwives said unto Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew women †are not as the Egyptian women; for they †are lively, and are delivered ere the [3]midwives[1] come °in[1] unto them.

20 [4d]Therefore[1] God dealt well with the midwives: and the people multiplied, and waxed very mighty.

21 And it came to pass, because the midwives feared God, [e]that he made them houses.

22 And Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, [h]Every son that is born ye shall cast into [5]the river, and every daughter ye shall save alive.

CHAPTER 2.

°1 Moses is born, 3 and in an ark cast into the flags. 5 He is found, and brought up by Pharaoh's daughter. 11 He slayeth an Egyptian. 15 He fleeth into Midian. 21 He marrieth Zipporah.

AND there went [i]a man of the house of Levi, and took †to wife a daughter of Levi.

2 And the woman conceived, and bare a son: and [p]when she saw him that he †was a goodly †child, she hid him three months.

3 And when she could not longer hide him, she took for him an ark of [6]bulrushes, and daubed it with [7]slime and with pitch[8], and[1] put the child therein[9]; and she laid it[1] in the flags by the river's brink.

4 [t]And his sister stood afar off, to [1]wit[1] what would be done to him.

5 °¶[1] And the [z]daughter of Pharaoh came down to [2]wash herself[1] at the river; and her maidens walked along by the [1]river's[1] side; and °when[1] she saw the ark among the flags, [2]she sent her maid[1] to fetch it.

6 And [3]when she had opened it, she[1] saw the child: and, behold, the babe wept. And she had compassion on him, and said, This †is one of the Hebrews' children.

7 Then said his sister to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call °to[1] thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for thee?

8 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go. And the maid went and called the child's mother.

9 And Pharaoh's daughter said unto her, Take this child away, and nurse it for me, and I will give †thee thy wages. And the woman took the child, and nursed it.

10 And the child grew, and she brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he became [e]her son. And she called his name [4g]Moses: and she[1] said, Because I [5]drew him out of the water.

11 ¶ And it came to pass in those days, [7]when Moses was grown[6], that he went out unto his brethren, and looked on their [k]burdens: and he [7]spied[1] an Egyptian smiting an Hebrew, one of his brethren.

12 And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that †there was no man, he [8m]slew[1] the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.

13 And [o]°when[1] he went out the second day, [9]behold, two men of the Hebrews strove together: and he said to him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow?

14 And he said, [q]Who made thee [r]a prince and a judge over us? [1]intendest[1] thou to kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely [2]this[1] thing is known.

15 Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But [u]Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian: and he sat down by [y]a well.

○1 Moses keepeth Jethro's flock. 2 God appeareth to him in a burning bush. 9 He sendeth him to deliver Israel. 15 God's message to Israel.[1]

NOW Moses [9]kept[1] the flock of Jethro his father in law, [m]the priest of Midian: and he led the flock to the [1]backside[1] of the [2]desert,[1] and came to [n]the mountain of God, [3]even to[1] Horeb.

2 And [g]the angel of the LORD appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush: and he looked, and behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush †was not consumed.

3 And Moses said, I will [1]now turn aside,[1] and see this [b]great sight, why the bush is not burnt.

4 And when the LORD saw that he turned aside to see, God called [d]unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses. And he said, Here †am I.

5 And he said, Draw not nigh hither: [f]put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest †is holy ground.

6 Moreover he said, [g]I †am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face; for [t]he was afraid to look upon God.

7 ○¶[1] And the LORD said, [k]I have surely seen the affliction of my people which †are in Egypt, and have heard their cry [u]by reason of their taskmasters; for [p]I know their sorrows;

9 [3]Now therefore,[1] behold, [f]the cry of the children of Israel is come unto me: [4]and I have also[1] seen the [k]oppression wherewith the Egyptians oppress them.

10 [k]Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt.

11 ○¶[1] And Moses said unto God, [t]Who †am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt?

CHAPTER 5.

[o]1 Pharaoh chideth Moses and Aaron for their message. 5 He increaseth the Israelites' task.

2 AND afterward Moses and Aaron [3]went in, and told[1] Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD [4] God of Israel, Let my people go, that they may hold [d]a feast unto me in the wilderness.

2 And Pharaoh said, [e]Who †is the LORD, that I should [5]obey[1] his voice to let Israel go? I know not the LORD, [6]neither will I[1] let Israel go.

3 And they said, [g]The God of the Hebrews hath met with us: let us go, we pray thee, three days' journey into the [7]desert,[1] and sacrifice unto the LORD our God; lest he fall upon us with pestilence, or with the sword.

4 And the king of Egypt said unto them, Wherefore do ye, Moses and Aaron, [8]let[1] the people from their works? get you unto your [h]burdens.

5 And Pharaoh said, Behold, the people of the land [9]now are[1] [i]many, and ye make them rest from their burdens.

6 And [1]Pharaoh commanded the same day[1] the [k]taskmasters of the people, and their officers, saying,

7 Ye shall no more give the people straw to make brick, as heretofore: let them go and gather straw for themselves.

8 And the tale of the bricks, which they did make heretofore, ye shall lay upon them: ye shall not diminish [2]ought[1] thereof: for they †be idle; therefore they cry, saying, Let us go †and sacrifice to our God.

9 [n]Let [3]there more[1] work be laid upon the men, that they may labour therein; and let them not regard [4]vain[1] words.

10 °¶[1] And the taskmasters of the people went out, and their officers, and they spake to the people, saying, Thus saith Pharaoh, I will not give you straw.

11 Go [5]ye,[1] get you straw where ye can find it: [6]yet not ought[1] of your work shall be diminished.

12 So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble [1]instead of[1] straw.

13 And the taskmasters [2]hasted them,[1] saying, Fulfil your works, [c]your daily tasks, as when there was straw.

14 And the officers of the children of Israel, which Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them, were beaten, [3]†and demanded, Wherefore have ye not fulfilled your task °in making brick[1] both yesterday and [4]to day,[1] as heretofore?

15 °¶[1] Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried unto Pharaoh, saying, Wherefore dealest thou thus with thy servants?

16 There is no straw given unto thy servants, and they say to us, Make brick: and, behold, thy servants †are beaten; but the fault †is in thine own people.

17 But he said, Ye †are idle, †ye are idle: therefore ye say, Let us go †and °do[1] sacrifice to the LORD.

18 Go therefore now, †and work; for there shall no straw be given you, yet shall ye deliver the tale of bricks.

19 And the officers of the children of Israel did see †that they [5]†were in evil †case, [6]after[1] it was said, Ye shall not minish [7]ought[1] from your [8]bricks of your daily task.[1]

20 °¶[1] And they met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh:

21 [l]And they said unto them, The LORD look upon you, and judge; because ye have made our savour [m]to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to slay us.

22 And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Lord, wherefore hast thou [9]so[1] evil entreated this people? why †is it †that thou hast sent me?

23 For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in thy name, he hath [9]done evil to[1] this people; [p]neither hast thou delivered thy people at all.

1 AND the LORD spake unto Moses, Go [2] unto Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Let my people go, [c]that they may serve me.

2 And if thou [f]refuse to let [†]them go, behold, I will smite all thy borders with [2]frogs:

3 And the river shall [3]bring forth frogs abundantly,[1] which shall go up and come into thine house, and into [i]thy bedchamber, and upon thy bed, and into the house of thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thine ovens, and into thy [i]kneadingtroughs:

4 And the frogs shall come up both [4]on[1] thee, and upon thy people, and upon all thy servants.

5 ○¶ [5]And the LORD [6]spake[1] unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, [u]Stretch forth thine hand with thy rod over the [7]streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds,[1] and cause frogs to come up upon the land of Egypt.

6 And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt; and [q]the frogs came up, and covered the land of Egypt.

7 [r]And the magicians did [8]so[1] with their enchantments, and brought up frogs upon the land of Egypt.

8 ○¶ Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, [z]Intreat the LORD, that he ○may[1] take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may ○do[1] sacrifice unto the LORD.

9 And Moses said unto Pharaoh, [a]○Glory[1] over me: [b]when[1] shall I intreat for thee, and for thy servants, and for thy people, [c]○to destroy the frogs[1] from thee and thy houses, [3]that they may[1] remain in the river only?

10 And he said, [d]To morrow.[1] And he said, †Be it according to thy word: that thou mayest know that †there is none like unto the LORD our God.

and from thy servants, and from thy people; they shall remain in the river only.

12 And Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh: and Moses [a]cried unto the LORD [1]because of[1] the frogs [2]which he had brought [3]against[1] Pharaoh.

13 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the [4]villages,[1] and out of the fields.

14 And [5]they gathered them together [6]upon[1] heaps: and the land stank.

15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was [7]respite, [8]he [6]hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had [7]said.[1]

16 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the [8]land,[1] that it may become [9]lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

17 And they did so; [1]for[1] Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth, and [2]it became lice in man, and in[1] beast; all the dust of the [3]land[1] became lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

18 And [10]the magicians did so with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they [n]could not: [4]so[1] there were lice upon man, and upon beast.

19 Then the magicians said unto Pharaoh, This [1]is [q]the finger of God: and Pharaoh's [7]heart [5]was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had [6]said.[1]

20 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, [t]Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh; lo, he cometh forth to the water; and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, [z]Let my people go, that they may serve me.

21 Else, if thou wilt not let my people go, behold, I will send [z]swarms [1]of flies upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms [1]of flies, and also the ground whereon they [1]are.

22 And [b]I will sever in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms [1]of flies shall be there; to the end thou mayest know that I [1]am the LORD in the midst of the earth.

23 And I will [1]put [b]a division between my people and thy people: [2c]to morrow[1] shall this sign be.

24 And the LORD did so; and [d]there came [c]a[1] grievous [3]swarm[1] [1]of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and [1]into his servants' houses[4], and into[1] all the land of Egypt [c]:[1] the land was [5c]corrupted by reason of the [3]swarm[1] [1]of flies.

25 [c]¶[1] And Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, Go ye, sacrifice to your God in the land.

26 And Moses said, It is not meet so to do; for we shall sacrifice [h]the abomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God: lo, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not stone us?

27 We will go [k]three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, as [l]he shall command us.

28 And Pharaoh said, I will let you go, that ye may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only ye shall not go very far away: [p]intreat for me.

29 And Moses said, Behold, I go out from thee, and I will intreat the LORD that the swarms [1]of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, [6]to morrow: but[1] let not Pharaoh [u]deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.

30 And Moses went out from Pharaoh, and [y]intreated the LORD.

31 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and he removed the swarms [1]of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people; there remained not one.

32 And Pharaoh [7a]hardened his heart [c]at[1] this time also, [8]neither would he[1] let the people go.[9]

CHAPTER 9.

°1 The murrain of beasts. 8 The plague of boils and blains. 22 The plague of hail. 27 Pharaoh sueth to Moses, 35 but is still hardened.

B.C. 1491.

THEN the LORD said unto Moses, [b]Go in unto Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD[1] God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

2 For if thou [d]refuse to let †them go, and wilt hold them still,

3 Behold, the [e]hand of the LORD is upon thy cattle which †is in the field, upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the [2]oxen,[1] and upon the [3]sheep[1]: there shall be a very grievous murrain.

4 And [h]the LORD shall sever between the cattle of Israel and the cattle of Egypt: and there shall nothing die of all †that [4]is the children's[1] of Israel.

5 And the LORD appointed a set time, saying, [5]To morrow[1] the LORD shall do this thing in the land.

6 And the LORD did that thing on the morrow, and [i]all the cattle of Egypt died: but of the cattle of the children of Israel died not one.

7 And Pharaoh sent, and, behold, there was not [6]one of the cattle of the Israelites dead. [7]And[1] [m]the heart of Pharaoh was [8]hardened,[1] and he did not let the people go.

8 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses and unto Aaron, Take to you handfuls of [9]ashes of the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward the heaven in the sight of Pharaoh.

9 And it shall become small dust [1]in[1] all the land of Egypt, and shall be [n]a boil breaking forth †with blains upon man[°],[1] and upon beast, throughout all the land of Egypt.

10 And they took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh; and Moses sprinkled it up toward heaven; and it became [q]a boil breaking forth †with blains upon man[°],[1] and upon beast.

11 And the [r]magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils; for the [2]boil was[1] upon the magicians, and upon all the Egyptians.

12 And the LORD [1]hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he hearkened not unto them; [a]as the LORD had spoken unto Moses.

13 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, [c]Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD[2] God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

14 For I will [o]at[1] this time send all my plagues upon thine heart, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people; [f]that thou mayest know that †there is none like me in all the earth.

15 For now I [3]will [g]stretch out[1] my hand, [4]that I may smite[1] thee and thy people with pestilence[5]; and thou shalt be[1] cut off from the earth[6].

16 And[1] in very deed for [i]this †cause have I [7]raised thee up,[1] for to shew [°]in[1] thee my power [8],[1] and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth.

17 As yet exaltest thou thyself against my people, that thou wilt not let them go?

18 Behold, [9]to morrow[1] about this time I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail, such as hath not been in Egypt since the [1]foundation thereof[1] even until now.

19 [2]Send therefore now, and gather[1] thy cattle[°],[1] and all that thou hast in the field; for [°]upon[1] every man and beast which shall be found in the field, and shall not be brought home, the hail shall come down upon them, and they shall die.

20 He that feared the word of the LORD among the servants of Pharaoh made his servants and his cattle flee into the houses:

21 And he that [p]regarded not the word of the LORD left his servants and his cattle in the field.

22 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch forth thine hand toward heaven, that there may be [r]hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man, and upon beast, and upon every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt.

his rod toward heaven: and [a]the LORD sent thunder and hail, and [c]the[1] fire ran [1]along upon the ground[1]; and the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt.

24 So there was hail, and fire [2]mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as [3]there was none like it[1] in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.

25 And the hail smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that [t]was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail [c]smote every herb of the field, and brake every tree of the field.

26 [g]Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel [t]were, was there no hail.

27 [c]¶ [1]And Pharaoh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said unto them, [h]I have sinned this time: [i]the LORD [t]is righteous, and I and my people [t]are wicked.

28 [k]Intreat the [4]LORD (for it is enough) that there be no more[1] [5]*l*mighty thunderings and hail; and I will let you go, and ye shall stay no longer.

29 And Moses said unto him, As soon as I am gone out of the city, I will [n]spread abroad my hands unto the LORD; [o]and[1] the[c]thunder[1] shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail; that thou mayest know [c]how[1] that the [r]earth [t]is the LORD's.

30 But as for thee and thy servants, [q]I know that ye will not yet fear the LORD God.

31 And the flax and the barley [7]was[1] smitten: [x]for the barley [t]was in the ear, and the flax [8]t[1]was bolled.

32 But the wheat and the [9]rie[1] were not smitten: for they [t]were [z]not grown up.

33 And Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and [a]spread abroad his hands unto the LORD: and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain was not poured upon the earth.

34 And when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders were ceased, he sinned yet more, and [1]hardened his heart, he and his servants.

35 And [c]the heart of Pharaoh [2]was hardened, [3]neither would he[1] let the children of Israel go; as the LORD had spoken [b]by Moses.

[o]1 Locusts are threatened. 7 Pharaoh inclineth to let the Israelites go. 12 The plague of locusts, 21 of darkness. 24 Pharaoh sueth to Moses, but is still hardened.[1]

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh: [c]for I have [1]hardened his heart, and the heart of his servants, [d]that I might shew these my signs [2]before him[1]:

2 And that [f]thou mayest tell in the ears of thy son, and of thy son's son, [3]what things I have wrought [4]in[1] Egypt, and my signs which I have done among them; that ye may know [c]how[1] that I [t]am the LORD.

3 And Moses and Aaron [5]came[1] in unto Pharaoh, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD[6] God of the Hebrews, How long wilt thou refuse to [m]humble thyself before me? let my people go, that they may serve me.

4 Else, if thou refuse to let my people go, behold, [7]to morrow[1] will I bring [c]the[1] [p]locusts into thy [8]coast[1]:

5 And they shall cover the [q]face of the earth, that one [9]cannot[1] be able to see the earth: and [t]they shall eat the residue of that which is escaped, which remaineth unto you from the hail, and shall eat every tree which groweth for you out of the field:

6 And [1]they [y]shall fill thy houses,[1] and the houses of all thy servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians; [z]which[1] neither thy fathers[c],[1] nor thy fathers' fathers have seen, since the day that they were upon the earth unto this day. And he turned [c]himself[1], and went out from Pharaoh.

7 And Pharaoh's servants said unto him, How long shall this man be [b]a snare unto us? let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God: knowest thou not yet that Egypt is destroyed?

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Yet [1]will I bring one plague more[1] upon Pharaoh, and upon Egypt; afterwards he will let you go hence: [2§]when he shall let [†]you go, he shall surely thrust you out hence altogether.

2 Speak now in the ears of the people, and let [3]every man borrow[1] of his neighbour, and every woman of her neighbour, [a]jewels of silver, and jewels of gold.

3 [b]And the LORD gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover the man [4]Moses [†]was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in the sight of the people.

4 ¶ [4] And Moses said, Thus saith the LORD, [h]About midnight will I go out into the midst of Egypt:

5 And [i]all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sitteth upon his throne, even unto the firstborn of the maidservant that [†]is behind the mill; and all the firstborn of [5]beasts.[1]

6 [m]And there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there [6]was[1] none like it, nor shall be like it any more.

7 [q]But against any of the children of Israel [r]shall not a dog [7]move his tongue, against man or beast: that ye may know how that the LORD doth put a difference between the Egyptians and Israel.

8 And [t]all these thy servants shall come down unto me, and bow down themselves unto me, saying, Get thee out, and all the people [z]that follow thee: and after that I will go out. And he went out from Pharaoh in [8§]a great[1] anger.

9 [2] And the LORD said unto Moses, [a]Pharaoh [1]shall[1] not hearken unto you[2];[1] that [c]my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.

10 And Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh: [a]and the LORD [1]hardened Pharaoh's heart, [2]so that he would[1] not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

3 °¶[1] Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them every man a [3§]lamb, according to [4]the house of their fathers,[1] a lamb for an [5]house[1]:

4 And if the household be too little for [6]the lamb, let him[1] and his neighbour next unto his house take [7]it[1] according to the number of the souls; [8]every man according to his eating[1] shall make your count for the lamb.

6 And ye shall keep it up until the [n]fourteenth day of the same month: and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it [9§]in the evening.[1]

7 And they shall take of the blood, and [1]strike[1] [†]it on the two side posts and on the [2]upper door post of[1] the houses°,[1] wherein they shall eat it.

8 And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roast with fire, and [u]unleavened bread; °and[1] with bitter [†]herbs they shall eat it.

12 For I [b]will [2]pass[1] through the land of Egypt [3]this[1] night, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and "against all the [c]gods of Egypt I will execute [4]judgment[1]: [y]I †am the LORD.

13 And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye †are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and [5]the plague shall not[1] be upon you [6K]to destroy †you, when I smite the land of Egypt.

14 And this day shall be unto you [1]for a memorial[2]; and ye shall keep it a [z]feast to the LORD [8] throughout your generations°; ye shall keep it a feast [P]by an ordinance for ever.

15 [r]Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread; even the first day ye shall put away leaven out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, "that soul shall be cut off from Israel.

18 °¶[1]/In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at even, ye shall eat unleavened bread, until the one and twentieth day of the month at even.

19 [k]Seven days shall there be no leaven found in your houses: for whosoever eateth that which is leavened, °[r]even[1] that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a [1]stranger, or[1] born in the land.

20 Ye shall eat nothing leavened; in all your habitations shall ye eat unleavened bread.

22 [h]And ye shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip †it in the blood that †is in the bason, and [i]strike the lintel and the two side posts with the blood that †is in the bason; and none of you shall go out [5]at[1] the door of his house until the morning.

23 [m]For the LORD will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and [q]will not suffer [t]the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite †you.

24 And ye shall observe this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sons for ever.

25 And it shall come to pass, when ye be come to the land which the LORD will give you, [y]according as he hath promised, that ye shall keep this service.

26 [z]And it shall come to pass, when your children shall say unto you, What mean ye by this service?

27 That ye shall say, †[b]It †is the sacrifice of the LORD'S passover, [6]who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. And the people [d]bowed the head and worshipped.

28 And the children of Israel went [7]away, and °did[1] as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

29 ¶ [y]And it came to [8]pass, that at midnight[1] [h]the LORD smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, [t]from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive that †was in the [m]dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, [a]that they turn [3] and encamp before [c]Pi-hahiroth, between [f]Migdol and the sea, [4]over against[1] Baal-zephon: [5]before[1] it shall ye encamp by the sea.

10 °¶[1] And when Pharaoh drew nigh, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and, behold, the Egyptians marched after them; and they were sore afraid: and the children of Israel [a]cried out unto the LORD.

11 [b]And they said unto Moses, Because [1]there were no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to [1]carry[1] us forth out of Egypt?

12 [1°]Is not this the word that we [2]did tell[1] thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? For [3]it had been[1] better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness.

20 And it came between the camp of [1]the Egyptians' and the camp of Israel; and [2]"it was a cloud and darkness to them, but it gave light by night to these: so that' the one came not near the other all the night.

21 And Moses [d]stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all [3]that' night, and [f]made the sea dry land, and the waters were [h]divided.

22 And [i]the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry [4]ground: and the waters [4]were [k]a wall unto them on their right hand, and

23 ¶ And the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them [4]to' the midst of the sea, [o]even' all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.

24 And it came to pass[5], that' in the morning watch[5] [n]the LORD looked [6]unto' the host of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and of [o]the' cloud, and [7]troubled' the host of the Egyptians[5],'

25 And [p]took off their chariot wheels, [12]that they drave them heavily: so that the Egyptians said, Let us flee from the face of Israel; for the LORD [q]fighteth for them against the Egyptians.

26 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, 'Stretch out thine hand over the sea, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen.

27 And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea [h]returned to [2]his' [3]strength when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it; and the LORD [4k]overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

28 And [n]the waters returned, and [q]covered the chariots, and the horsemen, [5]and' all the host of Pharaoh that [6]came into the sea after them'; there remained not so much as one of them.

29 But [n]the children of Israel walked upon dry [t]land in the midst of the sea; and the waters [t]were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

30 Thus the LORD [b]saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; and Israel [c]saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea shore.

31 And Israel saw [1]that' great [2e]work which the LORD did upon the Egyptians[5]:' and the people feared the [4]LORD, and [g]believed the LORD, and' his servant Moses.[5]

CHAPTER 15.

[o]1 Moses' song. 22 The people want water. 23 The bitter waters at Marah.
27 The wells at Elim.'

THEN sang [1]Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the LORD, and spake, saying, [6]I will [m]sing unto the LORD, for he [7]hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

2 [8]The LORD [t]is my strength and [r]song, and he is become my salvation: [9]he is' my God, and I will [u]prepare him [9]an habitation'; my [s]father's God, and I [t]will exalt him.

3 The LORD [t]is a man of [v]war:
the LORD [t]is his [8]name.

4 [s]Pharaoh's chariots and his host hath he cast into the sea: [2b]his chosen captains [3]also are drowned in the Red sea.'

5 [c]The [4]depths have covered them: [d]they sank into the bottom as' a stone.

6 [7]Thy right hand, O LORD, is [9]become' glorious in power[5]:'
thy right hand, O LORD, [6]hath dashed' in pieces the enemy.

7 And in the greatness of thine [g]excellency thou [7]hast overthrown them that rose' up against thee: thou [5]sentest' forth thy wrath, [9]which [i]consumed' them [t]as stubble.

8 And [m]with the blast of thy nostrils the waters were [1]gathered together,' [p]the floods stood upright as an heap[2], and the depths' were congealed in the heart of the sea.

9 [7]The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will [r]divide the spoil[3];' my lust shall be satisfied upon them;
I will draw my sword, my hand shall [r]destroy them.

at even[1] [a]the quails came up, and covered the camp: and in the morning [b]the dew lay round about the [1]host.[1] 14 And when the dew that lay was gone up, behold, upon the face of the wilderness
[c]there lay[1] [d]a small [2]round thing, [c]as[1] small as the hoar frost on the ground.
15 And when the children of Israel saw [t]it, they said one to another, [c]*y*It is manna:[1] for they wist not what it [t]was.
And Moses said unto them, [e]This is[1] the bread which the LORD hath given you to eat.
16 °¶ This [t]is the thing which the LORD hath commanded, Gather [5] of it every man according to his eating[6],[1] [f]an omer [7m]for every man, according to[1] the number of your [g]persons[5]; take ye every man for them which are in his tents.[1]
17 And the children of Israel did so, and gathered[9],[1] some more, some less.
18 And when they did mete
[t]it with an omer, [7]he that gathered much had nothing over, and he that gathered little had no lack; they gathered every man according to his eating.
19 And Moses said[9], Let no man leave of it till the morning.
20 Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto Moses;
but some of them left of it until the morning, and it bred worms, and stank: and Moses was wroth with them.
21 And they gathered it
[1]every[1] morning, every man according to his eating: and when the sun waxed hot, it melted.
22 °¶ And it came to pass,
[t]that on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for [2]one man:[1] and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses.
23 And he said unto them,
This [t]is that which the LORD hath [3]said, To morrow is [t]the rest of the[1] holy sabbath unto the LORD: bake [t]that which ye will [4]bake to day,[1] and seethe that [5] ye will seethe;

25 And Moses said, Eat that [2]to day[1]; for [2]to day[1] is a sabbath unto the LORD: [2]to day[1] ye shall not find it in the field.

[c]1 The people murmur for water at Rephidim. 5 God sendeth Moses for water to the rock in Horeb. 8 Amalek is overcome by the holding up of Moses' hands. 15 Moses buildeth the altar Jehovah-nissi.[1]

AND [b]all the congregation of the children of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, [1]after[1] their [2]journeys, according to the commandment of the LORD, and pitched in Rephidim: and †there was no water for the people to drink.

2 [d]Wherefore the people [3]did chide[1] with Moses, and said, Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said unto them, Why [4]chide[1] ye with me? wherefore do ye [f]tempt the LORD?

3 And the people thirsted there for water; and the people [g]murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore [5]is this that thou hast[1] brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst?

4 And Moses [h]cried unto the LORD, saying, What shall I do unto this people? they be almost ready to [k]stone me.

5 And the LORD said unto Moses, [c][1]Go[1] on before the people, and take with thee of the elders of Israel; and thy rod, wherewith [m]thou smotest the river, take in thine hand, and go.

6 [n]Behold, I will stand before thee there upon the rock in Horeb; and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.

7 And he called the name of the place [9]Massah, and [8]Meribah, because of the [9]chiding[1] of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, Is the LORD among us, or not?

8 ¶ [z]Then came Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim.

9 And Moses said unto [a]Joshua, Choose us out men, and go out, fight with Amalek: [1]to morrow[1] I will stand on the top of the hill with [c]the rod of God in mine hand.

10 So Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and fought with Amalek: and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill.

11 And it came to pass, when Moses [c]held up his hand, that Israel prevailed: and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed.

12 But Moses' hands †were heavy; and they took a stone, and put †it under him, and he sat thereon; and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun.

13 And Joshua [2]discomfited Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

14 And the LORD said unto Moses, [l]Write this †for a memorial in a book, and rehearse †it in the ears of Joshua: [2]for [m]I will utterly [4]put[l] out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven.

15 And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it [5p]Jehovah-nissi:

16 [6]For[l] he said, [7q]Because [r]the[l] LORD hath [8]sworn that[l] the LORD †will have war with Amalek from generation to generation.[9]

1 [1]WHEN[l] [q]Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father in law, heard of all that [c]God had done for Moses, and for Israel his people, [2]and[l] that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt[3];

2 Then[l] Jethro, Moses' father in law, took Zipporah, Moses' wife, [b]after he had sent her [4]back,[l]

3 And her [c]two sons; of which the [d]name of the one †was [e]Gershom; for he said, I have been [5]an alien[l] in a strange land:

B.C. 1491.

4 And the name of the other †was [1b]Eliezer; for [2]the God of my father, said he, was mine[l] help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh:

5 And Jethro, Moses' father in law, came with his sons and his wife unto Moses into the wilderness, where he [3]encamped[l] at [d]the mount of God:

6 And he said unto Moses, I thy father in law Jethro am come unto thee, and thy wife, and her two sons with her.

7 [o]¶ And Moses [f]went out to meet his father in law, and did obeisance, and [g]kissed him; and they asked each other of †their [h]welfare; and they came into the tent.

8 And Moses told his father in law all that the LORD had done unto Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, [o]and[l] all the travail that had [i]come upon them by the way, and †how the LORD [k]delivered them.

9 And Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness which the LORD had done to Israel, [4]whom[l] he had delivered [5]out of the hand of the Egyptians.

10 And Jethro said, [n]Blessed †be the LORD, who hath delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh[6], [l]who hath delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians.

11 Now I know that the LORD †is [7r]greater than all gods: [7s]for[l] in the thing wherein they dealt [r]proudly [8]he was above[l] them.

12 And Jethro, Moses' father in law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God: and Aaron came, and all the elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' father in law [d]before God.

13 [o]¶[l] And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses sat to judge the people: and the people stood [9]by[l] Moses from the morning unto the evening.

14 And when Moses' father in law saw all that he did to the people, he said, What †is this thing that thou doest to the people? why sittest thou thyself alone, and all the people

19 Hearken now unto my voice, I will give thee counsel, and [k]God [l]shall[1] be with thee: [5]Be[1] thou [m]for the people to God-ward, [6]that thou mayest [n]bring[1] the causes unto God:

20 And thou shalt [o]teach them [7]ordinances and[1] laws, and shalt shew them [m]the way wherein they must walk, and [q]the work that they must do.

21 Moreover thou shalt provide out of all the people [r]able men, such as [s]fear God, [b]men of truth, [d]hating [8]covetousness[1]; and place †such over them, †to be rulers of thousands, [t]and[1] rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens:

24 So Moses hearkened to the voice of his father in law, and did all that he had said.

IN the third month[1], when[1] the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the same day [k]came they †into the wilderness of Sinai.

2 [2]For[1] they were departed from [m]Rephidim, and were come †to the [3]desert[1] of Sinai, [4]and had[1] pitched in the wilderness; and there Israel camped before [r]the mount.

3 And [t]Moses went up unto God, and the LORD [x]called unto him out of the mountain, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel;

4 [c]Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and †how [e]I bare you on eagles' wings, and brought you unto myself.

5 Now [f]therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then [g]ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me [5]above all people[1]: for [k]all the earth †is mine:

6 And ye shall be unto me a [7]kingdom of priests, and an [m]holy nation. These †are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

7 ○¶ And Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and [6]laid before their faces[1] all these words which the LORD commanded him.

8 And [7]all the people answered together, and said, All that the LORD hath spoken we will do. And Moses [7]returned[1] the words of the people unto the LORD.

11 And be ready against the third day: for the third day the LORD [e]will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai.

12 And thou shalt set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves, 'that ye go 'not up into the mount, or touch the border of it: [k]whosoever toucheth the mount shall be surely put to death:

13 [5]There shall not an hand touch it,' but he shall surely be stoned, or shot through; whether 'it be beast or man, it shall not live: when the [6][l]trumpet soundeth long, they shall come up to the mount.

14 [c]¶ And Moses went down from the mount unto the people, and [m]sanctified the people; and they washed their [7]clothes.'

15 And he said unto the people, [n]Be ready against the third day: [p]come not [8]at your wives.'

16 [c]¶ And it came to pass on the third [9]day in the' morning, that there were [q]thunders and lightnings, and a [n]thick cloud upon the mount, and the [r]voice of [1]the' trumpet exceeding loud; [s]so that' all the people that [t]was' in the camp [t]trembled.

17 And [d]Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet [c]with' God; and they stood at the nether part of the mount.

18 And [e]mount Sinai was altogether on [u]a' smoke, because the LORD descended upon it [g]in fire: [h]and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and [i]the whole [4][M]mount quaked greatly.

19 And [m]when the voice of the trumpet [v]sounded long, and' waxed louder and louder, [p]Moses spake, and [g]God answered him by a voice.

20 And the LORD came down upon mount Sinai, [w]on' the top of the mount: and the LORD called Moses [x]up' to the top of the mount; and Moses went up.

21 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go down, [y]charge the people, lest they break through unto the LORD [z]to gaze, and many of them perish.

22 And let the priests also, which come near to the LORD, [y]sanctify themselves, lest the LORD [h]break forth upon them.

23 And Moses said unto the LORD, The people cannot come up to mount Sinai: for thou [2]chargedst' us, saying, [i]Set bounds about the mount, and sanctify it.

24 And the LORD said unto him, [3]Away,' get thee down[4],' and thou shalt come up, thou, and Aaron with thee: but let not the priests and the people break through to come up unto the LORD, lest he break forth upon them.

25 So Moses went down unto the people, and [5]spake unto' them.

9 [e]Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work:

10 But the seventh day [t]is [3]the sabbath of[t] the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that [t]is within thy gates:

11 For [t]in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them [t]is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

20 And Moses said unto the people, [t]Fear not: [h]for God is come to prove you, and [t]that his fear may be before [8]your faces,[l] that ye sin not.

21 And the people stood afar off, and Moses drew near unto [p]the thick darkness where God [t]was.

5 And he sent young men of the children of Israel, which offered burnt offerings, and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen unto the LORD.

6 And Moses [q]took half of the blood, and put [†]it in basons; and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.

7 And he [a]took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people: and they said, [b]All that the LORD hath [1]said[1] will we do, and be obedient.

8 And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled [†]it on the people, and said, Behold [c]the blood of the covenant, which the LORD hath made with you [2]concerning all these words.

9 ¶ Then [d]went up Moses, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel:

10 And they [e]saw the God of Israel[3]:[1] and [†]there was under his feet as it were [4]a paved work of [5]a[1] [f]sapphire stone, and as it were the [5]body of heaven in his[1] clearness.

13 And Moses rose up, and [10]his minister Joshua[1]: and Moses [e]went up into the mount of God.

14 And he said unto the elders, Tarry ye here for us, until we come again unto you: and, behold, Aaron and Hur [†]are with you: [2]if any man have any matters to do,[1] let him come [3]unto them.

15 And Moses went up into the mount, and [d]a[1] cloud covered the mount.

16 And [f]the glory of the LORD abode upon mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days: and the seventh day he called unto Moses out of the midst of the cloud.

17 And the [5]sight[1] of the glory of the LORD [†]was like [i]devouring fire on the top of the mount in the eyes of the children of Israel.

[1] What the Israelites must offer for the making of the tabernacle. [10] The form of the ark, &c.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, that they [1]d[1]bring[1] me an [2]e[1]offering: [f]of every man [c]that giveth it willingly with his heart[1] ye shall take my [2]offering.

3 And this [†]is the [2]offering which ye shall take of them; gold, and silver, and brass[4],[1]

4 And blue, and purple, and scarlet, and [5]i[1]fine linen, and goats' hair[4],[1]

5 And rams' skins dyed red, and [6]badgers' skins, and shittim wood,[1]

7 [p]Onyx stones, and stones to be set[1] in[1] the [u]ephod, and [2]in[1] the [q]breastplate.

8 And let them make me a [a]sanctuary; that [b]I may dwell among them.

9 [c]According to all that I shew thee, [o]after[1] the pattern of the [3]tabernacle, and the pattern of all the [4]instruments[1] thereof, even so shall ye make [†]it.

10 ¶ [r]And they shall make an ark [5]of shittim[1] wood: two cubits and a half [†]shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

11 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, within and without shalt thou overlay it, and shalt make upon it a [s]crown of gold round about.

12 And thou shalt cast four rings of gold for it, and put [†]them in the four [7]corners[1] thereof; and two rings [†]shall be [8]in[1] the one [9]side of it, and two rings [8]in[1] the other [9]side of it.

13 And thou shalt make staves [1]of shittim[1] wood, and overlay them with gold.

14 And thou shalt put the staves into the rings [8]by[1] the sides of the ark, [2]that the ark may be borne with them.[1]

16 And thou shalt put into the ark [a]the testimony which I shall give thee.

17 And [b]thou shalt make a [1]mercy seat[1] [†]of pure gold: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof.

18 And thou shalt make two [2]cherubims of gold, of[1] [3]beaten work shalt thou make them, [4]in[1] the two ends of the [5]mercy seat[1].

23 ¶ [4 n]Thou shalt also[1] make a table [5]of shittim[1] wood: two cubits shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

24 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, and make thereto a [6]crown of gold round about.

26 And thou shalt make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings in the four corners that [†]are on the four feet thereof.

27 [1]Over against[1] the border shall the rings [2]be for places of[1] the staves to bear the table.

28 And thou shalt make the staves [3]of shittim[1] wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be borne with them.

29 And thou shalt make [c]the dishes thereof, and [4] spoons thereof, and [c]covers thereof, and bowls thereof, [d]to cover[1] withal: [†]of pure gold shalt thou make them.

30 And thou shalt set upon the table [6 e]shewbread before me alway.

31 ¶ [g]And thou shalt make a candlestick [†]of pure gold: [†]of [7]beaten work shall the candlestick be made[5]: his shaft, and his branches, his bowls, his knops, and his flowers, shall be of the same.[1]

32 [9]And six branches shall come out of the sides of it[1]; three branches of the candlestick out of the one side[10], and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side[10]:

33 [11]Three bowls made like unto almonds, with a knop and a flower in one branch; and three bowls made like almonds[1] in the other branch, [°]with[1] a knop and a flower: so [12]in the six branches that come[1] out of the candlestick[12].[1]

34 And in the candlestick [14]shall be four bowls made like unto almonds, with their knops and their flowers.

35 And there shall be[1] a knop under two branches [15]of the same[1], and a knop under two branches [15]of the same[1], and a knop under two branches [15]of the same[1], [16]according to the six branches that proceed[1] out of the candlestick.

36 Their knops and their branches shall be[15] of the same[1]: [17]all it shall be[1] one [15]beaten work [†]of pure gold.

37 And thou shalt make the [18]seven lamps thereof[1]: and [p]they shall [17]light the lamps thereof, that they may give light over against it.

38 And the tongs thereof, and the snuffdishes thereof, shall be of pure gold.

11 With the work of an engraver in stone, [t]like the engravings of a signet, shalt thou engrave the two stones[5] with[1] the names of the children of Israel: thou shalt make them to be [6]set[1] in ouches of gold.

12 And thou shalt put the two stones upon the [7]shoulders[1] of the ephod[8] for[1] stones of memorial [9]unto[1] the children of Israel: and [a]Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD upon his two shoulders [b]for a memorial.

28 And they shall bind the breastplate by the rings thereof unto the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that [t]it may be [9]above the curious girdle[1] of the ephod, and that the breastplate be not loosed from the ephod.

11 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 When thou takest the sum of the children of Israel [3]after [p]their number,' then shall they give every man [q]a ransom for his soul unto the LORD, when thou numberest them; that also of' brass, to wash †withal:

and thou shalt [g]put it between

[o]1 Bezaleel and Aholiab are called and made meet for the work of the tabernacle. 12 Of keeping the sabbath. 18 Moses receiveth the two tables.[1]

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 [p]See, I have called by name [7]Bezaleel[1] the [t]son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah:

3 And I have [u]filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship,

4 To devise cunning works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass,

5 And in cutting of stones[1], to set them,[1] and in carving of [2]timber,[1] to work in all manner of workmanship.

6 And I, behold, I have [3]given[1] with him [4c]Aholiab,[1] the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan[5]:[1] and in the hearts of all that are [d]wise hearted I have put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded thee[6];

CHAPTER 32.

°1 The people cause Aaron to make a calf. 19 Moses breaketh the tables. 25 The idolaters slain. 30 Moses prayeth for the people.

AND when the people saw that Moses [i]delayed to come down [2]out of [1] the mount, the people gathered themselves together unto Aaron, and said unto him, [j]Up, make us [3]gods, which shall [k]go before us; for †as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we [4]wot [1] not what is become of him.

2 And Aaron said unto them, Break off the "golden [5]earrings[1], which †are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring †them unto me.

3 And all the people brake off the golden [2]earrings[1] which †were in their ears, and brought †them unto Aaron.

4 "And he received [6]them[1] at their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool, [7]after he had[1] made it a molten calf: and they said, [8]These †be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

5 And when Aaron saw [9]it, [1] he built an altar before it; and Aaron made [q]proclamation, and said, [1]To morrow is[1] a feast to the LORD.

6 And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the [r]people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

7 ¶ And the LORD [2]said[1] unto Moses, "Go, get thee down; for thy people, which thou broughtest [1] out of the land of Egypt, [s]have corrupted †themselves:

8 They have turned aside quickly out of the way which [t]I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed [2]thereunto, [1] and said, [1]These †be thy gods, O Israel, which °have[1] brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, [u]I have seen this people, and, behold, it †is a stiffnecked people:

10 Now therefore [v]let me alone, that [k]my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and [l]I will make of thee a great nation.

11 [m]And Moses besought "the LORD his God, and said, LORD, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power°, [1] and with a mighty hand?

12 [n]Wherefore should the Egyptians speak, [2]and say, For mischief[1] did he bring them [1]out, [1] to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and [z]repent of this evil against thy people.

13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, thy servants, to whom thou [y]swarest by thine own self, and saidst unto them, [z]I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit †it for ever.

14 And the LORD [b]repented of the evil which he [5]thought to[1] do unto his people.

15 ¶ And [c]Moses turned, and went down from the mount, [6]and[1] the two tables of the testimony °were[1] in his hand[1]: the tables were[1] written on both their sides; on the one side and on the other †were they written.

16 And the [f]tables †were the work of God, and the writing †was the writing of God, graven upon the tables.

17 And when Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said unto Moses, †There is a noise of war in the camp.

18 And he said, †It is not the voice of †them that shout for mastery, neither †is it the voice of †them that cry for [b]being overcome: †but the noise of †them that sing do I hear.

19 °¶ And it came to pass, as soon as he came nigh unto the camp, that [c]he saw the calf°,' and the dancing: and Moses' anger waxed hot, and he cast the tables out of his hands, and brake them beneath the mount.

20 [g]And he took the calf which they had made, and burnt †it in the' fire, and ground †it to powder, and [2 S]strawed it' upon the water, and made the children of Israel drink †of it.

21 And Moses said unto Aaron, [m]What did this people unto thee, that thou hast brought [3 S]so great a' sin upon them?

22 And Aaron said, Let not the anger of my lord wax hot: [q]thou knowest the people, that they [4 S]are set on evil.

23 For they said unto me, [r]Make us gods, which shall go before us: for †as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we [5 S]wot' not what is become of him.

24 And I said unto them, Whosoever hath any gold, let them break [6 S]it off. So' they gave †it me: [7 S]then' I cast it into the fire, and there [z]came out this calf.

25 °¶ And when Moses saw that the people [8 S]were [a]naked; (for' Aaron [b]had [9 S]made them naked unto their shame' among [c]their enemies:°)'

26 Then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, †Who' †is on the LORD'S side[2]?' let him come unto me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together unto him.

27 And he said unto them, Thus saith the LORD [3] God of Israel, Put [4] every man his sword [5]by his side, and go in and out' from gate to gate throughout the camp, and [a]slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbour.

28 And the [1]children' of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men.

29 [z °]For' Moses °had' said, [3 d]Consecrate yourselves [4]to day' to the LORD, [5]even' every man [6]upon' his son, and [6]upon' his brother; that he may bestow upon you a blessing this day.

30 °¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses said unto the people, [r]Ye have sinned a great sin: and now I will go up unto the LORD; [h]peradventure I shall [i]make °an' atonement for your sin.

31 And Moses [k]returned unto the LORD, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have [l]made them gods of gold.

32 Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin—; and if not, [n]blot me, I pray thee, [p]out of thy book which thou hast written.

33 And the LORD said unto Moses, [r]Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book.

34 [r]Therefore' now go, lead the people unto the place of which I have spoken unto thee: [n]behold, mine [8]Angel' shall go before thee: nevertheless [x]in the day when I visit [9] I will visit their sin upon them.

35 And the LORD [1]plagued' the people, because [y]they made the calf, which Aaron made.

°1 The tables are renewed. 5 The name of the LORD proclaimed. 29 Moses' face shineth.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, [b] Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first: [c] and I will write upon [1] these tables the words that were [2] in' the first tables, which thou brakest.

2 And be ready [3] in' the morning, and come up in the morning unto mount Sinai, and present thyself there to me [2] in' the top of the mount.

3 And no man shall [h] come up with thee, neither let any man be seen throughout all the mount; neither let the flocks nor herds feed before that mount.

4 °¶ ' And he hewed two tables of stone like unto the first; and Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up unto mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand °the' two tables of stone.

5 And the LORD descended in the cloud, [4] and stood with him there, and [g] proclaimed [5] the name of the LORD.

6 And the LORD passed by before him, and proclaimed, The LORD, [6] The LORD [b] God, merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and abundant in [d] goodness' and [e] truth','

7 [8f] Keeping mercy for thousands, [h] forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin°,' and [i] that will by no means clear the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, 'unto' the third and 'to' the fourth †generation.

8 And Moses made haste, and [m] bowed his head toward the earth, and worshipped.

9 And he said, If now I have found grace in thy sight, O Lord, [n] let [2] my ' Lord, I pray thee, go [3] among ' us; for [r] it [i] is a stiffnecked people; and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for [t] thine inheritance.

10 °¶ ' And he said, Behold, [g] I make a covenant: before all thy people I will [2] do marvels, such as have not been [1] done' in all the earth, nor in any nation: and all the people among which thou †art shall see the work of the LORD [2] :' for it [i] is [a] a terrible thing that I °will' do with thee.

11 [d] Observe thou that which I command thee this day: behold, [e] I drive out before thee the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite.

12 [f] Take heed to thyself, lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land whither thou goest, lest it be for [a] a snare in the midst of thee:

13 But ye shall [3k] destroy [1] their altars, [4] break their [l] images, ' and [5m] cut down their [6] groves ':

14 For thou shalt worship [n] no other god: for the LORD, whose [p] name †is Jealous, †is a [q] jealous God:

15 [r] Lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they [t] go a whoring after their gods, and do sacrifice unto their gods, and [t] one [u] call thee°,' and thou [x] eat of his sacrifice;

16 And thou take of [z] their daughters unto thy sons, and their daughters [a] go a whoring after their gods, and make thy sons go a whoring after their gods.

17 [c] Thou shalt make thee no molten gods.

18 °¶ ' The feast of [g] unleavened bread shalt thou keep. Seven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, as I commanded thee, [7] in ' the time [8] of' the month Abib: for in the [k] month Abib thou camest out from Egypt.

19 [l] All that openeth the [9] matrix ' [i] is mine; and [1] every firstling among thy cattle, whether ox or sheep, that is male.'

20 [2] But' [n] the firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a [3y] lamb; and if thou [4] redeem him not, then shalt thou break his' neck. All the firstborn of thy sons thou shalt redeem. And none shall appear before me [o] empty.

B.C. 1491.

°1 The offerings delivered to the workmen. 5 The liberality of the people restrained. 8 The curtains. 19 The covering. 35 The vail, 37 and hanging for the door.

1 THEN wrought Bezaleel and Aholiab,[1] and every [a] wise hearted man, in whom the LORD [2] put wisdom and understanding to know how to work all [3] manner of[1] work for the service of the [b] sanctuary, according to all that the LORD [4] had[1] commanded.

[a] ch. 28. 3. & 31. 6. & 35. 10, 35.

[b] ch. 25. 8.

2 [c] And Moses called [6] Bezaleel and Aholiab,[1] and every wise hearted man, in whose heart the LORD had put wisdom, †even every one [d] whose heart stirred him up to come unto the work to do it:

[c] ch. 26. 5.

[d] ch. 35. 21, 26. 1 Chr. 29. 5.

3 And they received of Moses all the offering, which the children of Israel [e] had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, to make it †withal. And they brought yet unto him [7] free[1] offerings every morning.

[e] ch. 26. 7.

[f] ch. 35. 27.

4 And all the wise men, that wrought all the work of the sanctuary, came every man from his work which they [8] made[1];

5 °¶[1] And they spake unto Moses, saying, [g] The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work, which the LORD commanded to make.

[g] 2 Cor. 8. 2, 3.

6 And Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman make any more work for the offering of the sanctuary. So the people were restrained from bringing.

[h] ch. 26. 14.

7 For the stuff they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too much.

[i] ch. 26. 15.

8 ¶ [9] [k] And every wise hearted man among them that wrought the work [1] of[1] the tabernacle [2] made ten curtains of[1] fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet [3]: with cherubims of cunning work[1] made he them.

[k] ch. 26. 1.

9 The length of [4] one curtain was twenty and eight[1] cubits, and the breadth of [5] one[1] curtain four cubits: [6] the curtains were all of one size.[1]

10 And he coupled [°] the[1] five curtains one [1] unto[1] another: and the other five curtains he coupled one [1] unto[1] another.

11 And he made loops of blue [2] on the edge of[1] one curtain [3] from the selvedge in the coupling: likewise he made in the [4] uttermost side of another curtain, in the coupling of the second.[1]

12 [c] Fifty loops made he in [5] one curtain, and fifty loops made he in the edge of the curtain [6] which[1] †was in the [7] coupling of the second: the loops held one curtain[1] to another.

13 And he made fifty [8] taches[1] of gold, and coupled the curtains one [9] unto[1] another with the [1] taches: so it became one tabernacle.[1]

14 °¶[1] [e] And he made curtains †of goats' hair for [2] the[1] tent over the tabernacle: eleven curtains he made them.

15 The length of [3] one[1] curtain †was thirty cubits, and four cubits °was[1] the breadth of [3] one[1] curtain: the eleven curtains [4] were of one size.[1]

16 And he coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves.

17 And he made fifty loops [5] upon the uttermost[1] edge of the curtain [6] in the [7] coupling, and fifty loops made he upon the edge of the curtain which [8] coupleth the second.[1]

18 And he made fifty [9] taches[1] †of brass to couple the tent together, that it might be one.

19 [h] And he made a covering for the tent †of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering †of [1] badgers' skins above that.[1]

20 ¶ [2] [i] And he made [3] boards for the tabernacle [1] of shittim[1] wood, standing up.

21 [5] The length of a board was ten cubits, and the breadth of a board one cubit and a half.

22 One[1] board had two tenons, [6] equally distant one from[1] another: thus did he make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

23 And he made [7] boards for the tabernacle; twenty boards for the south side southward:

24 And [8] forty sockets of silver °he made[1] under the twenty boards; two sockets under one

CHAPTER 2.

[o] 1 The meat offering of flour with oil and incense. 12 The oblation of first-fruits, &c.

AND when any [9] will offer [m] a meat offering unto the LORD, his offering shall be †of fine flour; and he shall pour oil upon it, and put frankincense thereon:

2 And he shall bring it to Aaron's sons the priests: and he shall take thereout his handful of the [2] flour thereof, and of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof; and the priest shall burn [3] [r] the memorial [4] of it upon the altar, [o] to be an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD:

3 [5] And [z] the remnant of the meat offering †shall be Aaron's and his sons': †[a] it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

4 ¶ And [c] if thou [7] bring an oblation of a [8] meat offering baken in the oven, †it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, or unleavened wafers [c] anointed with oil.

5 [o] ¶ And if thy oblation †be a [8] meat offering [9] baken [d] in a pan, it shall be †of fine flour unleavened, mingled with oil.

6 Thou shalt part it in pieces, and pour oil thereon: it †is a [8] meat offering.

7 [o] ¶ And if thy oblation †be a [8] meat offering [1] baken in the fryingpan, it shall be made †of fine flour with oil.

8 And thou shalt bring the meat offering that is made of these things unto the LORD: and [2] when it is presented unto the priest, [3] he shall bring it unto the altar.

9 And the priest shall take [4] from the meat offering [5 c] a memorial thereof, and shall burn †it upon the altar: [o] it is an [f] offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

10 And [g] that which is left of the meat offering †shall be Aaron's and his sons': †it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

11 No meat offering, which ye shall [6] bring unto the LORD, shall be made with [k] leaven: for ye shall burn no leaven, nor any honey, [7] in any offering of the LORD made by fire.

12 [o] ¶ [l] As [8] for the oblation of [9] the firstfruits, ye shall offer them unto the LORD: but they shall not [10] be burnt on the altar for a sweet savour.

13 And every oblation of thy [2] meat offering [p] shalt thou season with salt; neither shalt thou suffer [q] the salt of the covenant of thy God to be lacking from thy [2] meat offering: [r] with all thine [3] offerings thou shalt offer salt.

14 [4] And if thou offer a [2] meat offering of [o] thy firstfruits unto the LORD, [u] thou shalt offer for the [2] meat offering of thy firstfruits [5] green ears of corn dried by the fire, even corn beaten out of [y] full ears.

15 And [z] thou shalt put oil upon it, and lay frankincense thereon: it †is a [2] meat offering.

10 [e]And Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all that [†]was therein, and sanctified them.

11 And he sprinkled thereof upon the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all [9]his[1] vessels, [1]both[1] the laver and [2]his foot,[1] to sanctify them.

12 And he [g]poured of the anointing oil upon Aaron's head, and anointed him, to sanctify him.

13 [h]And Moses brought Aaron's sons, and [3]put coats upon them,[1] and girded them with girdles, and [4][i]put bonnets[1] upon them; as the LORD commanded Moses.

14 [k]And he brought the bullock [5]for[1] the sin offering: and Aaron and his sons [m]laid their hands upon the head of the bullock [5]for[1] the sin offering.

15 And he slew [†]it; [n]and Moses took the blood, and put [†]it upon the horns of the altar round about with his finger, and purified the altar, and poured [6]the blood at the [7]bottom[1] of the altar, and sanctified it, to make [8]reconciliation upon[1] it.

16 [q]And he took all the fat that [†]was upon the inwards, and the caul [9]above[1] the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and Moses burned [†]it upon the altar.

17 But the bullock, and [1]his hide, his[1] flesh, and [2]his[1] dung, he burnt with fire without the camp; as the LORD [u]commanded Moses.

18 [°¶] [1] [x]And he [3]brought[1] the ram [4]for[1] the burnt offering: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram.

19 And he killed [5]it;[1] and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.

B.C. 1490.

20 And he cut the ram into [1] pieces; and Moses burnt the head, and the pieces, and the fat.

21 And he washed the inwards and the legs [2]in[1] water; and Moses burnt the whole ram upon the altar: it [†]was a burnt [3]sacrifice[1] for a sweet savour[4], and[1] an offering made by fire unto the LORD; [c]as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 [°¶] [1] And [e]he [5]brought[1] the other ram, the ram of consecration: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram.

23 And he slew [†]it; and Moses took of the blood [6]of it,[1] and put [†]it upon the tip of Aaron's right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

24 And he brought Aaron's sons, and Moses put of the blood upon the tip of their right ear, and upon the [7]thumbs[1] of their right [8]hands,[1] and upon the great [9]toes[1] of their right [1]feet[1]: and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.

25 [t]And he took the fat, and the [2]rump,[1] and all the fat that [†]was upon the inwards, and the caul [3]above[1] the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right [4]shoulder[1]:

26 [p]And out of the basket of unleavened bread, that [†]was before the LORD, he took one unleavened cake, and [5]a[1] cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and [6]put[1] [†]them on the fat, and upon the right [4]shoulder[1]:

27 And he put [7]all[1] [7]upon [8]Aaron's hands, and upon his sons' hands,[1] and waved them [†]for a wave offering before the LORD.

28 [t]And Moses took them from off their hands, and burnt [†]them on the altar upon the burnt offering: they [†]were [9]consecrations[1] for a sweet savour: it [1]is[1] an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

29 And Moses took the breast, and waved it [†]for a wave offering before the LORD: [2]for of the ram of consecration it was Moses'[1] [y]part[1]; as the LORD commanded Moses.

°1, 8 Aaron's offerings for himself and the people. 23 Moses and Aaron bless the people. 24 Fire cometh from the Lord, upon the altar.

AND 'it came to pass on the eighth day, †that Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the elders of Israel;

2 And he said unto Aaron, [p]Take thee a [4]young' calf for a sin offering, [z]and a ram for a burnt offering, without blemish, and offer †them before the LORD.

3 And unto the children of Israel thou shalt speak, saying, [b]Take ye a [5]kid of the goats' for a sin offering; and a calf and a lamb, †both of the first year, without blemish, for a burnt offering;

5 °¶' And they brought †that which Moses commanded before the [4]tabernacle of the congregation': and all the congregation drew near and stood before the LORD.

6 And Moses said, This †is the thing which the LORD commanded that ye should do: and [c]the glory of the LORD shall appear unto you.

7 And Moses said unto Aaron, [5]Go' unto the altar, and [f]offer thy sin offering, and thy burnt offering, and make °an' atonement for thyself, and for the people: and [h]offer the [6]offering' of the people, and make °an' atonement for them; as the LORD commanded.

3 Then Moses said unto Aaron, This [†]is it that the LORD spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them [a]that [1]come nigh me, and before all the people I will be [f]glorified. [g]And Aaron held his peace.

4 And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of [i]Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said unto them, [2]Come[1] near, [i]carry your brethren from before the sanctuary out of the camp.

5 So they [3]went[1] near, and carried them in their coats out of the camp; as Moses had said.

6 And Moses said unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons, [4m]Uncover not your heads,[1] neither rend your clothes; [5]lest ye die, and lest [p]wrath come upon all the people[1]: but let your brethren, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which the LORD hath kindled.

7 [r]And ye shall not go out from the door of the [v]tabernacle of the congregation,[1] lest ye die: [u]for the anointing oil of the LORD [†]is upon you. And they did according to the word of Moses.[7]

12 ¶ Moses spake unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons that were left, Take [f]the [4]meat[1] offering that remaineth of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and eat it without leaven beside the altar: for [†]it [†]is most holy:

34 And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the scall: and, behold, †if the scall be not spread in the skin, [7]nor be in sight' deeper than the skin; then the priest shall pronounce him clean: and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

35 But if the scall spread [8]much' in the skin after his cleansing;

36 Then the priest shall look on him: and, behold, if the scall be spread in the skin, the priest shall not seek for [9]yellow hair; he †is unclean.

41 And [5]he that hath his hair' fallen off from the [6]part of his head [o]toward his face', he †is forehead bald [7];' yet †is he clean.

42 [5]And' if there be in the bald head, or [9]bald forehead, a [1]white reddish sore'; it †is [o]a' leprosy [2]sprung up' in his bald head, or his bald forehead.

43 Then the priest shall look upon [8]it': and, behold, †if the rising of the [4]sore be white reddish' in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, as the [5]leprosy appeareth' in the skin of the flesh;

44 He is a leprous man, he †is unclean: the priest shall [6]pronounce him [o]utterly' unclean; his plague †is in his head.

45 ¶ And the leper in whom the plague †is, his clothes shall be rent, and [8]his head bare,' and he shall [9b]put a covering upon' his upper lip, and shall cry, [c]Unclean, unclean.

46 All the days wherein the plague [1]shall be' in him he shall be [2]defiled'; he †is unclean: he shall dwell alone; [d]without the camp †shall his [5]habitation' †be.

47 ¶ The garment also that the plague of leprosy is in, †whether it be a woollen garment, or a linen garment;

4 Then shall the priest command to take for him that is to be cleansed two [1][b] birds alive and clean,[1] and [e]cedar wood, and [d]scarlet, and [e]hyssop:

5 And the priest shall command [2]that[1] one of the birds [g]be killed[1] in an earthen vessel over [3]running water:

6 As for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird † that was killed over the [3]running water:

8 And he that is to be cleansed [k]shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, [l]and [5]wash[1] himself in water, [6]that he may[1] be clean: and after that he shall come into the camp, [7]and [m]shall tarry abroad out of[1] his tent seven days.

16 And the priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that †is in his left hand, and shall sprinkle of the oil with his finger seven times before the LORD:

17 And of the rest of the oil that †is in his hand shall the priest put upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the blood of the [4]trespass[1] offering:

CHAPTER 16.

[c]1 The high priest's entry into the holy place. 11 The sin offering for himself, 15 and for the people. 20 The scapegoat. 29 The feast of the expiations.'

AND the LORD spake unto Moses [6] after [z]the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they [7]offered' before the LORD, and died;

2 And the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he [a]come not at all times into the holy †place within the [8]vail' before the [9]mercy seat', which †is upon the ark; that he die not: for [a]I will appear in the cloud upon the [9]mercy seat.'

3 [2]Thus' shall Aaron [b]come into the holy †place: [c]with a young bullock for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering.

4 He shall put on [d]the holy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with [3]a' linen girdle, and with the linen [4]mitre shall he be attired: [2]these are' holy garments; [6]therefore [e]shall he wash' his flesh in water, and [c]so' put them on.

5 And he shall take of [g]the congregation of the children of Israel two [7]kids of the goats' for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering.

6 And Aaron shall [8]offer his' bullock of the sin offering, which †is for himself, and [h]make [c]an' atonement for himself, and for his house.

7 And he shall take the two goats, and [9]present' them before the LORD †at the door of the [1]tabernacle of the congregation.'

8 And Aaron shall cast lots upon the two goats; one lot for the LORD, and the other lot for [2]the [k]scapegoat.'

9 And Aaron shall [3]bring' the goat upon which the [4]LORD's lot [m]fell,' and offer him †for a sin offering.

10 But the goat, on which the lot fell [5]to be the scapegoat, shall be presented' alive before the LORD, to make [c]r an' atonement [6]with him, and to let him go for a scapegoat' into the wilderness.

11 And Aaron shall [3]bring' the bullock of the sin offering, which †is for himself, and shall make [c]an' atonement for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the bullock of the sin offering which †is for himself:

12 And he shall take [y]a censer full of [c]burning' coals of fire from off the altar before the LORD, and his hands full of [5]sweet incense beaten small, and bring †it within the [7]vail':

13 [b]And he shall put the incense upon the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of the incense may cover the [8c]mercy

CHAPTER 17.

°1 Of the blood of beasts. 7 Of offering to devils. 10 Eating of blood is forbidden.[1]

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto Aaron, and unto his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them; This † is the thing which the LORD hath commanded, saying,

3 What man soever † there be of the house of Israel, [t] that killeth an ox, or lamb, or goat, in the camp, or that killeth † it [3] out of[1] the camp,

4 [u] And [1] bringeth it not[1] unto the door of the [2] tabernacle of the congregation,[1] to offer [2] an offering[1] unto the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD [4];[1] blood shall be [x] imputed unto that man; he hath shed blood; and that man [u] shall be cut off from among his people:

5 To the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices, [e] which they [5] offer[1] in the open field, even that they may bring them unto the LORD, unto the door of the [2] tabernacle of the congregation,[1] unto the priest, and [5] offer[1] them † for [6] peace offerings unto the LORD.

6 And the priest [f] shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar of the LORD † at the door of the [2] tabernacle of the congregation,[1] and [b] burn the fat for [6] a sweet savour unto the LORD.

7 And they shall no more [1] offer[1] their sacrifices [d] unto [2] devils,[1] after whom they [2] have gone[1] a whoring. This shall be a statute for ever unto them throughout their generations.

8 ¶ And thou shalt say unto them, Whatsoever man † there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers [4] which[1] sojourn among [5] you,[1] [h] that offereth a burnt offering or sacrifice, 9 And [i] bringeth it not unto the door of the [6] tabernacle of the congregation,[1] to [7] offer[1] it unto the LORD; even that man shall be cut off from °among[1] his people.

10 ¶ [m] And whatsoever man † there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among [5] you,[1] that eateth any manner of blood; [n] I will °even[1] set my face against that soul that eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people.

11 [p] For the [8] life of the flesh † is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar [7] to make °an[1] atonement for your souls: for [r] it † is the blood † that maketh °an[1] atonement [9] for the soul.[1]

12 Therefore I said unto the children of Israel, No soul of you shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger that sojourneth among you eat blood.

13 And whatsoever man † there be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among [1] you,[1] [z] which [29] hunteth and catcheth[1] any beast or fowl that may be eaten; he shall °even[1] [9] pour out the blood thereof, and [c] cover it with dust.

14 [d] For [3] it is[1] the life of all flesh [4]: the blood of it is for[1] the life thereof: therefore I said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall eat the blood of no manner of flesh: for the life of all flesh † is the blood thereof: whosoever eateth it shall be cut off.

sister: she † is thy father's near kinswoman.
13 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister: for she † is thy mother's 14 [c] Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy father's brother, thou shalt not approach to his wife: she † is thine aunt.

15 [f] Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy daughter in law: she † is thy son's wife; thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.
16 [i] Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy brother's wife: it † is thy brother's nakedness.
17 [l] Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter [l], neither shalt thou [l] take her son's daughter, or her daughter's daughter, to uncover her nakedness; [2] for they are her [l] near kinswomen:

I have separated from you as unclean.

26 And ye shall be holy unto me: [b]for I the LORD [t]am holy, and [c]have [1]severed' you from [2]other people,' that ye should be mine.

27 ¶ [c]A man also or [3]woman that hath a familiar spirit, or that is a wizard, shall surely be put to death: they shall stone them with stones: [h]their blood [t]shall be upon them.[4]

CHAPTER 21.

[o]1 Of the priests' mourning. 6 Of their holiness. 8 Of their estimation. 7, 13 Of their marriages. 17 Of priests that have blemishes.'

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto the priests the sons of Aaron, and say unto them, [m]There shall none [5]be defiled' for the dead among his people[6]:

2 But' for his kin, that is near unto him, [o]that is,' for his mother, and for his father, and for his son, and for his daughter, and for his brother','

3 And for his sister a virgin, that is [8]nigh' unto him, which hath had no husband[9];' for her may he [1]be defiled.'

4 [2]But [p]he' shall not defile himself, [3]being a chief man among his people, to profane himself.

5 [r]They shall not make baldness upon their head, neither shall they shave off the corner of their beard, nor make any cuttings in their flesh.

6 They shall be holy unto their God, and [z]not profane the name of their God: for the offerings of the LORD made by fire, [o]and' [2]the bread of their God, they do offer: therefore they shall be holy.

7 [b]They shall not take a 'wife' [t]that is a [5]whore,' or [6]profane; neither shall they take a woman [t]put away from her husband: for he [t]is holy unto his God.

8 Thou shalt sanctify him therefore; for he offereth the bread of thy God: he shall be holy unto thee: [g]for I the LORD, which sanctify you, [t]am holy.

9 [o]¶' [h]And the daughter of any priest, if she profane herself by playing the [6]whore,' she profaneth her father: she shall be burnt with fire.

10 [1][a]And [t]he that is the high priest among his brethren, upon whose head the anointing oil [2]was' poured, and [2][a]that is consecrated to put on the garments, [z]shall not [4]uncover his head,' nor rend his clothes;

11 Neither shall he [g]go in to any dead body, nor defile himself for his father, or for his mother;

12 [z]Neither shall he go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God; for [k]the [5]crown of the anointing oil of his God [t]is upon him: I [t]am the LORD.

13 And [t]he shall take a wife in her virginity.

14 A widow, or [6]a divorced woman, or profane, or' an harlot, these shall he not take: but [o]he shall take' a virgin of his own people [7] to wife.

15 [8]Neither shall he' profane his seed among his people: for [9]"I [9]the LORD [9]do' sanctify him.

16 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

17 Speak unto Aaron, saying, Whosoever [t]he be of thy seed [2]in' their generations that hath [3]any' blemish, let him not [g]approach to offer the [r]bread of his God.

18 For whatsoever man [t]he be that hath a blemish, he shall not approach: a blind man, or a lame, or he that hath a [4]flat nose, or any thing [u]superfluous,

19 Or a man that is brokenfooted, or brokenhanded,

20 Or crookbackt, or [g]a dwarf, or that hath a blemish in his eye, or [5]be' scurvy, or scabbed, or [u]hath his stones broken;

21 No man [o]that hath a blemish' of the seed of Aaron the priest [6]shall come nigh to [c]offer the offerings of the LORD made by fire: he hath a blemish; he shall not come nigh to offer the bread of his God.

22 He shall eat the bread of his God, [t]both of the [c]most holy, and of the [z]holy.

23 Only he shall not go in unto the [7]vail,' nor come nigh unto the altar, because he hath a blemish; that [t]he profane not my sanctuaries: for I [8]the LORD [9]do' sanctify them.

CHAPTER 22.

°1 The priests in their uncleanness must abstain from the holy things. 10 Who of the priest's house may eat of them. 17 The sacrifices must be without blemish. 26 The age of the sacrifice.'

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, that they [d]separate themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, [3] and that they [f]profane not my holy name °in those things which they [g]hallow unto me[1]: I [†]am the LORD.

3 Say unto them, Whosoever [†]he be of all your seed [4]among[1] your generations, that [5]goeth[1] unto the holy things, which the children of Israel hallow unto the LORD, [k]having his uncleanness upon him, that soul shall be cut off from [6]my presence[1]: I [†]am the LORD.

4 What man soever of the seed of Aaron [†]is a leper, or hath [7][m]a [n]running[1] issue; he shall not eat of the holy things, [r]until he be clean. And [t]whoso toucheth [8]any thing [†]that is unclean [†]by the dead, or [u]a man whose seed goeth from him;

5 Or [z]whosoever toucheth any creeping thing, whereby he may be made unclean, or [2]a man of whom he may take uncleanness, whatsoever uncleanness he hath;

6 The soul which [9]hath touched[1] any such shall be unclean until [1]even, and shall not eat of the holy things, unless he [2a]wash[1] his flesh [2]with[1] water.

7 And when the sun is down, he shall be clean[4], and shall afterward[1] eat of the holy things[5];[1] because [c]it [†]is his [c]food.'

8 [e]That which dieth of itself, or is torn [7]with[1] [†]beasts, he shall not eat to defile himself therewith: I [†]am the LORD.

9 They shall therefore keep [8]mine ordinance,[1] [y]lest they bear sin for it, and die [9]therefore,[1] if they profane it: I [1]the LORD [2]do[1] sanctify them.

10 [h]There shall no stranger eat [†]of the holy thing: a sojourner of the [1]priest,[1] or an hired servant, shall not eat [†]of the holy thing.

11 But if [2]the[1] priest buy [†]any soul [3]°[a]with[1] his money, he shall eat of it[4], and he that is[1] born in his house[5]:[1] [b]they shall eat of his [6]meat.

12 If the[1] priest's daughter °also[1] be [†]married unto [c]a stranger, she [7]may not eat of an[1] offering of the holy things.

13 But if [8]the[1] priest's daughter be a widow, or divorced, and have no child, and is [e]returned unto her father's house, [g]as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's [9]meat[1]: but there shall no stranger eat thereof.

14 °¶[1] [i]And if a man eat [†]of the holy thing unwittingly, then he shall put the fifth [†]part thereof unto it, and shall give °it[1] unto the priest °with[1] the holy thing.

15 And [l]they shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer unto the LORD;

16 [i]Or [p]suffer[1] them [q]to bear the iniquity [2]of trespass,[1] when they eat their holy things: for I [3]the LORD [4]do[1] sanctify them.

17 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

18 Speak unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them, [5z]Whatsoever[1] [†]he be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel, that [6]will offer[1] his oblation[7] for all his vows, and for all his[1] freewill offerings, which they °will[1] offer unto the LORD for a burnt offering;

19 [8b]Ye shall offer at your own will[1] a male without blemish, of the beeves, of the sheep, or of the goats.

20 †[d]But whatsoever hath a blemish, †that shall ye not offer: for it shall not be acceptable for you.

21 And [j]whosoever offereth a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD [k]to [9]accomplish [1]his[1] vow, or [2]a freewill offering[3] in beeves or [4]sheep,[1] it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish therein.

25 Ye shall do no servile work: but ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

26 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

38 [c]Beside the sabbaths of the LORD, and beside your gifts, and beside all your vows, and beside all your freewill offerings, which ye give unto the LORD.

39 [3]Also in[1] the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when ye have [e]gathered in the [4]fruit[1] of the land, ye shall keep [5]a feast [e]unto[1] the LORD seven days: on the first day [f]shall be a [7]sabbath[1], and on the eighth day [f]shall be a [7]sabbath[1].

40 And [g]ye shall take you on the first day the [8][h]boughs[1] of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and [o]the[1] boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook; [i]and ye shall rejoice before the LORD your God seven days.

41 [m]And ye shall keep it a feast unto the LORD seven days in the year[9]. It shall be[1] a statute for ever in your generations: ye shall [1]celebrate[1] it in the seventh month.

42 [n]Ye shall dwell in booths seven days; all that are [2]Israelites born[1] shall dwell in booths:

43 [q]That your generations may know that I made the children of Israel to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I [r]am the LORD your God.

44 And Moses [s]declared unto the children of Israel the [3]feasts of the LORD.[4]

CHAPTER 24.

[o]1 The oil for the lamps. 5 The shewbread. 17 Of murder. 23 The blasphemer is stoned.[1]

5 AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 [a]Command the children of Israel, that they bring unto thee pure [6]oil olive[1] beaten for the light, [b]to cause [8]the lamps[1] to burn continually.

3 Without the [9]vail[1] of the testimony, in the [1]tabernacle of the congregation, shall Aaron order it from [o]the[1] evening [2]unto the[1] morning before the LORD continually: †it shall be a statute for ever [9]in[1] your generations.

4 He shall order the lamps upon [a]the pure candlestick before the LORD continually.[1]

5 ¶ And thou shalt take fine flour, and bake twelve [b]cakes thereof: two tenth [2]deals[1] shall be in one cake.

6 And thou shalt set them in [3]two rows, six on a row, [d]upon the pure table before the LORD.

7 And thou shalt put pure frankincense upon †each[1] row, that it may be [9]on[1] the bread for a memorial, †even an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

8 [f]Every sabbath [6]he shall set it in order before the LORD continually[7], being taken from[1] the children of Israel[8] [9]by[1] an everlasting covenant.

9 And [i]it shall be [9]Aaron's and his sons'[1]; [k]and they shall eat it in [1]the[1] holy place: for it †is most holy unto him of the offerings of the LORD made by fire by a perpetual statute.[2]

10 ¶ And the son of an Israelitish woman, whose father †was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel: and [3]this[1] son of the Israelitish †woman and a man of Israel strove together in the camp;

11 And the [4]Israelitish woman's son[1] [l]blasphemed the [5]name of the LORD, and [7]cursed. And[1] they [c]brought him unto Moses[6]: (and[1] his mother's name †was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan[7]:)[1]

12 And they [p]put him in ward, [g]that [8]the mind of the LORD might be shewed them.[1]

13 [9]And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

14 Bring forth him that hath cursed without the camp; and let all that heard †him [2]lay their hands upon his head, and let all the congregation stone him.

15 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Whosoever curseth his God [e]shall bear his sin.

16 And he that [d]blasphemeth the name of the LORD, he shall surely be put to death[1], and[1] all the congregation shall certainly stone him: as well the stranger, as [2]he that is born in the land,[1] when he blasphemeth

° 1 Sabbath of the seventh year. 8 The jubile. 14 Of oppression. 23 Redemption of land, 29 of houses. 35 Compassion of the poor. 47 Redemption of servants.[1]

AND the LORD spake unto Moses in mount Sinai, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land which I give you, then shall the land [t]keep [u]a sabbath unto the LORD.

3 Six years thou shalt sow thy field, and six years thou shalt prune thy vineyard, and gather in the [2]fruit[1] thereof;

4 But in the seventh year shall be a sabbath of [3]rest unto[1] the land, a sabbath [4]for[1] the LORD: thou shalt neither sow thy field, nor prune thy vineyard.

5 [z]That which groweth of [5]its own accord[1] of thy harvest thou shalt not reap, [6]neither gather[1] the grapes [a]of thy [7]vine undressed: for it is[1] a year of [3]rest unto[1] the land.

6 And the sabbath of the land shall be [8]meat[1] for you; for thee, and for thy servant°, and for thy maid, and for thy hired servant°, and for thy stranger that [1]sojourneth with thee,[1]

7 And for thy cattle, and for the [2]beast[1] that †are in thy land, shall all the increase thereof be [2]meat.[1]

8 ¶ And thou shalt number seven sabbaths of years unto thee, seven times seven years; and [4]the space of the seven sabbaths of years shall be unto thee[1] forty and nine years.

9 Then shalt thou [5]cause the trumpet of the jubile to sound[1] on the tenth †day of the seventh month[6], [9]in the day of atonement shall ye [7]make[1] the trumpet °sound[1] throughout all your land.

10 And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and †proclaim liberty throughout °all[1] the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubile unto you; [m]and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family.

11 A jubile shall that fiftieth year be unto you: [p]ye shall not sow, neither reap that which groweth of itself in it, nor gather the grapes in it of [8]thy vine undressed.[1]

12 For it †is [9]the[1] jubile; it shall be holy unto you: [q]ye shall eat the increase thereof out of the field.

13 [r]In [1]the[1] year of °this[1] jubile ye shall return every man unto his possession.

14 And if thou sell [2]ought[1] unto thy neighbour, or [3]buyest ought[1] of thy neighbour's hand, [s]ye shall not [4]oppress[1] one another:

15 [y]According to the number of years after the jubile thou shalt buy of thy neighbour, and according unto the number of years of the [5]fruits[1] he shall sell unto thee[6]:[1]

16 According to the multitude of [7] years thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewness of [7] years thou shalt diminish the price of it[8]: for according to the number of the years of the fruits[1] doth he sell unto thee.

17 [9b]Ye[1] shall not [1]therefore oppress[1] one another; [c]but thou shalt fear thy God: for I †am the LORD your God.

27 Then [d]let him count the years of the sale thereof, and restore the overplus unto the man to whom he sold it; [6]that he may[1] return unto his possession.
28 But if he be not able to [7]restore it to him,[1] then that which [8]is[1] sold shall remain in the hand of him that hath bought it until the year of 29 [z]And if a man sell a dwelling

30 And if it be not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that [†]is in the throughout his generations: it shall not go out in the jubile.

31 But the houses of the villages which have no wall round

[c]they may be redeemed, and they shall go out in the jubile.
32 [2]Notwithstanding[1] [d]the 33 And if [2h]a man purchase of the Levites,[1] then the house that was sold, and the city of his possession, [k]shall go out in [†]the [o]year of[1] jubile: for the 34 But [n]the field of the [4]suburbs of their cities may not though he be a stranger, or a

2 [o]¶[1] [i]Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I [†]am the LORD.

5 And [r]your threshing shall reach unto the vintage, and the vintage shall reach unto the sowing time: and [t]ye shall eat your bread to the full, and [x]dwell in your land safely.

6 And [y]I will give peace in the land, and [z]ye shall lie down, and none shall make [†]you afraid: and I will [5a]rid[1] [b]evil beasts [6]out of the land, neither shall [c]the sword go through your land.

7 And ye shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword.

8 And [e]five of you shall chase an hundred, and an hundred of you shall [7]put[1] ten thousand [8]to flight[1]: and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.

9 [8]For[1] I will [f]have respect unto you, and [g]make you fruitful, and multiply you[c], and[1] establish my covenant with you.

10 And ye shall eat [h]old store[1], and[1] bring forth the old [2]because of the new.

13 [c]I am the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that ye should not be their bondmen; [d]and I have broken the [1]bands of your yoke, and made you go upright.[2]

14 ¶ [e]But if ye will not hearken unto me, and will not do all these commandments;

15 And if ye shall [2f]despise my statutes, [4]or if your soul abhor my [5]judgments, so that ye will not do all my commandments, [6]but [g]that ye break my covenant:[7]

16 I also will do this unto you; I will [h]even appoint [7i]over you [j]terror, [k]consumption, and the burning ague, that shall [l]consume the eyes, and [8]cause sorrow of heart: and [m]ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it.

17 And [n]I will set my face against you, and [9]ye shall be [o]slain before your enemies: [p]they that hate you shall [q]reign over you; and [r]ye shall flee when none pursueth you.

18 And if ye will not yet for [2]all this hearken unto me, then I will [s]punish [t]you [u]seven times more for your sins.

19 And I will [v]break the pride of your power; and I [w]will make your heaven as iron, and your earth as brass:

20 And your [x]strength shall be spent in vain: for [y]your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their [4]fruits.

21 [z]¶ [1]And if ye walk [a]contrary unto me, and will not hearken unto me; I will bring seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins.

22 [5b]I will also send wild beasts [c]among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number; and [d]your [3]high ways shall [e]be desolate.

23 And if [f]ye [g]will not be reformed [h]by me by these things, but will walk contrary unto me;

24 [i]Then will I also walk contrary unto you, and will punish you yet seven times for your sins.

25 And [k]I will bring a sword upon you, that shall [l]avenge the quarrel of my covenant: and when ye are [m]gathered together within your cities, [n]I will send the pestilence among you; and ye shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.

26 [3o]And when I have broken the staff of your [1]bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver [p]you your bread again by weight: and [q]ye shall eat, and not be satisfied.

31 [x]And I will make your cities [3]waste, and [y]bring your sanctuaries unto desolation, and I will not smell the savour of your sweet odours.

32 [z]And I will bring the land into desolation: and your enemies which dwell therein shall be [a]astonished at it.

33 And [1a]I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a[1] sword after you: and your land shall be [2]desolate, and your cities [3]waste.

40 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, [a]Number all the firstborn [c]of the[f] males of the children of Israel from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names.

41 [b]And thou shalt take the Levites for me (I †am the LORD) instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel; and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstlings among the cattle of the children of Israel.

42 And Moses numbered, as the LORD commanded him, all the firstborn among the children of Israel.

43 And all the firstborn males [1]by[f] the number of names, from a month old and upward, of those that were numbered of them, were twenty and two thousand two hundred and threescore and thirteen.

44 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

46 And for [4]those that are to be [1]redeemed[f] of the two hundred and threescore and thirteen of the firstborn of the children of Israel, [m]which are [5]more than[f] the Levites[6];[f]

47 Thou shalt [c]even[f] take [n]five shekels apiece by the poll[7],[f] after the shekel of the sanctuary shalt thou take [8]them:[f] (*n*the shekel †is twenty gerahs[9]:)[f]

48 And thou shalt give the money [c],[f] wherewith the odd number of them is [c]to be[f] redeemed[c],[f] unto Aaron and to his sons.

49 And Moses took the [1]redemption money of[f] them that were over and above them that were redeemed by the Levites:

50 [2]Of[f] the firstborn of the children of Israel took he the money; [y]a thousand three hundred and threescore and five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary:

3 [a]"From thirty years old and upward even until fifty years old, all that enter [3]into the host,[1] to do the work in the [4]tabernacle of the congregation[1].

4 [c]This [5]shall be[1] the [6]service of the sons of Kohath in the [4]tabernacle of the congregation[1], about [d]the most holy things:

5 °¶ And[1] when the camp setteth forward, Aaron shall [7]come,[1] and his sons, and they shall take down [7]the [8]covering vail,[1] and cover the [h]ark of [9]testimony with it:

6 And shall put thereon [1]the[1] covering of [2]badgers' skins,[1] and shall spread over [†]it a cloth [3]wholly[1] of blue, and shall put in [k]the staves thereof.

7 And upon the [m]table of shewbread they shall spread a cloth of blue, and put thereon the dishes, and the spoons, and the bowls, and [4]covers to [r]cover[1] withal: and the continual bread shall be thereon:

8 And they shall spread upon them a cloth of scarlet, and cover the same with a covering of [2]badgers' skins,[1] and shall put in the staves thereof.

9 And they shall take a cloth of blue, and cover the [t]candlestick of the light, [u]and [5]his[1] lamps, and [5]his[1] tongs, and [5]his[1] snuffdishes, and all the oil vessels thereof, wherewith they minister unto it:

10 And they shall put it and all the vessels thereof within a covering of [2]badgers' skins,[1] and shall put [†]it upon [6]a bar.[1]

11 And upon [x]the golden altar they shall spread a cloth of blue, and cover it with a covering of [2]badgers' skins,[1] and shall put [7]to[1] the staves thereof:

12 And they shall take all the [8]instruments[1] of ministry, wherewith they minister in the sanctuary, and put [†]them in a cloth of blue, and cover them with a covering of [1]badgers' skins,[1] and shall put [†]them on [2]a bar:[1]

13 And they shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth thereon:

14 And they shall put upon it all the vessels thereof, wherewith they minister about it, [3]even the censers,[1] the fleshhooks, and the shovels, and the [b]basons, all the vessels of the altar; and they shall spread upon it a covering of [1]badgers' skins,[1] and put [4]to[1] the staves [5]of it.[1]

15 And when Aaron and his sons have made an end of covering the sanctuary, and all the [c]vessels[1] of the sanctuary, as the camp is to set forward; after that, [z]the sons of Kohath shall come to bear [†]it: [y]but they shall not touch [7]any holy thing,[1] lest they die. 17 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

18 Cut ye not off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites:

19 But thus do unto them, that they may live, and not die, when they approach unto [x]the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in, and appoint them every one to his service and to his burden:

20 [y]But they shall not go in to see [5]when the holy things are covered,[1] lest they die.

self unto the LORD, he shall be holy, [1]and[1] shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow [2].

6 All the days that he separateth †himself unto the LORD "he shall [3]come at no[1] dead body.

7 [b] He shall not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, for his brother, or for his sister, when they die: because [4]the [d]consecration of his[1] God is upon his head.

8 All the days of his separation he †is holy unto the LORD.

9 And if any man die very suddenly [5]by[1] him, and he [6]hath defiled[1] the head of his [7]consecration[1]; then he shall [e]shave his head in the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day shall he shave it.

10 And [g]on the eighth day he shall bring two [8]turtles,[1] or two young pigeons, to the priest, to the door of the [9]tabernacle of the congregation[1]:

11 And the priest shall offer °the[1] one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, and make [o]an[1] atonement for him, for that he sinned by [1]the dead, and shall hallow his head that same day.

12 And he shall [2]consecrate[1] unto the LORD the days of his separation, and shall bring a [3]lamb[1] of the first year [k]for a [4]trespass[1] offering: but the [5]days that were before shall [4]be lost,[1] because his separation was defiled.

13 ¶ And this †is the law of the [6]Nazarite,[1] [m]when the days of his separation are fulfilled: he shall be brought unto the door of the [7]tabernacle of the congregation[1]:

14 And he shall offer his [8]offering[1] unto the LORD, one [9]he lamb[1] of the first year without blemish for a burnt offering, and one [1]ewe lamb[1] of the first year without blemish [p]for a sin offering, and one ram without blemish [q]for peace offerings, 15 And a basket of unleavened bread, "cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, and [2]wafers of unleavened bread[1] [c]anointed with oil, and their [3]meat[1] offering, and their [d]drink offerings.

16 And the priest shall [4]bring[1] †them before the LORD, and shall offer his sin offering, and his burnt offering:

17 And he shall offer the ram †for a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread: the priest shall offer also [1]his meat offering, and his drink offering.[1]

18 [c] And the [2]Nazarite[1] shall shave the head of his separation †at the door of the [2]tabernacle of the congregation,[1] and shall take the hair of the head of his separation, and put [4]it in[1] the fire which †is under the sacrifice of °the[1] peace offerings.

19 And the priest shall take the [f]sodden shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and [h]shall put †them upon the hands of the [2]Nazarite[1], after [5]the hair of his separation is shaven[1]:

20 And the priest shall wave them †for a wave offering before the LORD[6]:[1] [i]this †is holy for the priest,[7] with the wave breast and heave [8]shoulder[1]: and after that the [2]Nazarite[1] may drink wine.

21 This †is the law of the [9]Nazarite who hath vowed,[1] and of his [1]offering[1] unto the LORD for his separation, beside [2]that that his hand shall[1] get: according to [3]the[1] vow which he [4]vowed,[1] so he must do after the law of his separation.

22 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, saying, On this wise [n]ye shall bless the children of Israel [5], saying[1] unto them,

24 [6] The LORD bless thee, and [p]keep thee:

25 [6] The LORD [q]make his face [r]shine upon thee, and [r]be gracious unto thee:

26 [6] The LORD lift up his countenance upon thee, and [s]give thee peace.

6 Take the Levites from among the children of Israel, and cleanse them.

7 And thus shalt thou do unto them, to cleanse them: [8]Sprinkle [z]water of purifying[1] upon them, and [y]let them [8]shave[1] all their flesh, and let them wash their clothes, and [7]so make themselves clean.[1]

8 Then let them take a young [8]bullock with [b]his meat[1] offering, [o]even[1] fine flour mingled with oil, and another young bullock shalt thou take for a sin offering.

9 [d]And thou shalt [9]bring[1] the Levites before the [1]tabernacle of the congregation[1]: [a]and thou shalt [2]gather[1] the whole [3]assembly[1] of the children of Israel [o]together[1]:

10 And thou shalt [4]bring[1] the Levites before the LORD: and the children of Israel [b]shall [5]put[1] their hands upon the Levites:

11 And Aaron shall [6 c]offer the Levites before the LORD [7]for an[1] [e]offering[8] of the children of Israel, that [f]they may [9]execute[1] the service of the LORD.

12 [k]And the Levites shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bullocks: and [1]thou shalt offer[1] the one [t]for a sin offering, and the other [t]for a burnt offering, unto the LORD, to make [o]an[1] atonement for the Levites.

13 And thou shalt set the Levites before Aaron, and before his sons, and offer them [7]for an[1] offering unto the LORD.

14 Thus shalt thou separate the Levites from among the children of Israel: and the Levites shall be [m]mine.

15 And after that shall the Levites go in to do the service of the [2]tabernacle of the congregation[1]: and thou shalt cleanse them, and [n]offer them [2]for an[1] offering.

16 For they [t]are [4]wholly given unto me from among the children of Israel; [q]instead of [5]such as open every womb, even instead of[1] the firstborn of all the children of Israel, have I taken them unto me.

17 [u]For all the firstborn [6]of[1] the children of Israel [t]are mine, [t]both man and beast: on the day that I smote [7]every[1] firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them for myself.

18 And I have taken the Levites [8]for[1] all the firstborn [6]of[1] the children of Israel.

19 And [z]I have given the Levites [t]as [9 a]a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the children of Israel in the [1]tabernacle of the congregation,[1] and to make [o]an[1] atonement for the children of Israel: [c]that there be no plague among the children of Israel,

CHAPTER 9.

[o]1 The passover commanded. 6 A second passover allowed. 15 A cloud guideth the Israelites.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 [7]Let[1] the children of Israel [o]also[1] keep [p]the passover [8]at his[1] appointed season.

3 In the fourteenth day of this month, [9][q]at even, ye shall keep it in [1]his[1] appointed season: according to all the [2]rites[1] of it, and according to all the [3]ceremonies[1] thereof, shall ye keep it.

4 And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, that they should keep the passover.

5 And [a]they kept the passover [1]on the fourteenth day of the [2]first month at even[1] in the wilderness of Sinai: according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

6 [c]¶[1] And there were certain men, who were [3][c]defiled[1] by the dead body of a man, [4]that they could not keep the passover on that day: [e]and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day:

7 And those men said unto him, We [5]are defiled[1] by the dead body of a man: wherefore are we kept back, that we may not offer [6]an offering[1] of the LORD in [7]his[1] appointed season among the children of Israel?

8 And Moses said unto them, [8]Stand still, and [h]I will[1] hear what the LORD will command concerning you.

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If any man of you or of your [9]posterity[1] shall be unclean by reason of a dead body, or the in a journey afar off, yet he shall keep the passover unto the LORD[1].

11 [m]The fourteenth day of the second month[1] [2]at even they shall keep [3]it, and[1] [p]eat it with unleavened bread and bitter [4]herbs.[1]

12 [r]They shall leave none of it unto the morning, [7]nor break [5]any bone of it[1]: [t]according to all the [6]ordinances[1] of the passover they shall keep it.

13 But the man that [1][s]is clean, and is not in a journey, and forbeareth to keep the passover, [7]even the same[1] soul [u]shall be cut off from [o]among[1] his people: because he [8][x]brought not the offering[1] of the LORD in [9]his[1] appointed season, that man shall [z]bear his sin.

14 And if a stranger shall sojourn among you, and will keep the passover unto the LORD; according to the [6]ordinance[1] of the passover, and according to the [1]manner[1]

11 ¶ And it came to pass [1] on the twentieth day of the second month, in the second year, † that the cloud [b] was taken up from [2]off[1] the tabernacle of the testimony.

12 And the children of Israel [3]took[1] [c] their journeys out of the [d] wilderness of Sinai; and the cloud [4]rested[1] in the [e] wilderness of Paran.

13 And they first took their journey [f] according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

14 [5] ¶ [g] In[1] the first place [6] went[1] the standard of the camp of the children of Judah [6] according to their [7]armies[1]: and over his host †was [7]Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

15 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Issachar [8]was Nethaneel[1] the son of Zuar.

16 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Zebulun †was Eliab the son of Helon.

17 And [p] the tabernacle was taken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari [9] set forward, [q] bearing the tabernacle.[1]

18 [o] ¶[1] And [r] the standard of the camp of Reuben set forward according to their [1]armies[1]: and over his host †was Elizur the son of Shedeur.

19 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Simeon †was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

20 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Gad †was Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

21 And the Kohathites set forward, bearing the [y] sanctuary: and [a] the other did set up the tabernacle against they came.

22 [o] ¶[1] And [b] the standard of the camp of the children of Ephraim set forward according to their [1]armies[1]: and over his host †was Elishama the son of Ammihud.

23 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Manasseh †was Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

24 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Benjamin †was Abidan the son of Gideoni.

25 [o] ¶[1] And [a] the standard of the camp of the children of Dan[1] set forward, which was the rereward[1] of all the [2]camps throughout[1] their hosts: and over his host †was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

28 [h] Thus †were the journeyings of the children of Israel according to their [4]armies, when[1] they set forward.

29 ¶ And Moses said unto Hobab, the son of [5] [k] Raguel[1] the Midianite, Moses' father in law, We are journeying unto the place of which the LORD said, [l] I will give it you: come thou with us, and [m] we will do thee good: for [n] the LORD hath spoken good concerning Israel.

30 And he said unto him, I will not go; but I will depart to mine own land, and to my kindred.

31 And he said, Leave us not, I pray thee; forasmuch as thou knowest how we are to encamp in the wilderness, and thou [6]mayest[1] be to us [s] instead of eyes.

32 And it shall be, if thou go with us, yea, it shall be, that [u] what[1] goodness[1] the LORD shall do unto us, the same will we do unto thee.

33 ¶ And they [8]departed[1] from [x] the mount of the LORD three days' journey[2]:[1] and the ark of the covenant of the LORD [z] went before them [o] in the[1] three days' journey, to [1]search[1] out a resting place for them.

[o] 1 The burning at Taberah. 4 The people lust for flesh. 31 Quails are given.

AND [2 d] when the people [c] complained, [e] it displeased the LORD: and [3] the LORD heard it; and his anger was kindled; and the [k] fire of the LORD burnt among them, and [6] consumed them that were in the uttermost [6] parts of the camp.

2 And the people cried unto Moses; and [o] when Moses [m] prayed unto the LORD, [7] the fire [8 n] was quenched.

3 And [o] he called the name of [9] the place [q] Taberah: because the fire of the LORD burnt among them.

4 ¶ And the [1 e] mixt multitude that was among them [z] fell a lusting: and the children of Israel also [y] wept again, and said, [a] Who shall give us flesh to eat?

5 [b] We remember the fish, which we did eat in Egypt [2] freely; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlick:

6 But now [c] our soul is dried away: [4] there is nothing at all, beside this manna, before our eyes.

7 And [f] the manna [5] was as coriander seed, and the [6 g] colour thereof as the [7] colour of [h] bdellium.

8 [8] And the people went about, and gathered it, and ground it in mills, or beat it in a mortar, and baked it in pans, and made cakes of it: and [m] the taste of it was as the taste of [10] fresh oil.

9 And [n] when the dew fell upon the camp in the night, the manna fell upon it.

10 [2] ¶ Then Moses heard the people [3] weep throughout their families, every man in the door of his tent: and [r] the anger of the LORD was kindled greatly; [5] Moses also was displeased.

11 [t] And Moses said unto the LORD, Wherefore hast thou [5] afflicted thy servant? and wherefore have I not found favour in thy sight, that thou layest the burden of all this people upon me?

°1 Names of those sent to search the land. 17 Their instructions, 21 acts, 26 and relation.[1]

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 [y]Send thou men, that they may [7]search[1] the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel: of every tribe of their fathers shall ye send a man, every one a [1]ruler[1] among them.

3 And Moses [2]by the commandment of the LORD sent them [z]from the wilderness of Paran: all those men were[1] heads of the children of Israel.

4 And these [†]were their names: of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur.

5 Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori.

6 [1]Of the tribe of Judah, [m]Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

7 Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph.

8 Of the tribe of Ephraim, [3n]Oshea[1] the son of Nun.

9 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu.

10 Of the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi.

11 Of the tribe of Joseph, namely, of the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi.

12 Of the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli.

13 Of the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael.

14 Of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi.

15 Of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.

16 These [†]are the names of the men which Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called [4z]Oshea[1] the son of Nun [4]Jehoshua.[1]

17 °¶[1] And Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said unto them, Get you up this [5]way [z]southward,[1] and go up into [a]the [c]mountain[1]:

18 And see the land, what it [†]is; and the people that dwelleth therein, whether they [†]be strong or weak, [7]few or many;

19 And what the land [†]is that they dwell in, whether it [†]be good or bad; and what cities [†]they be that they dwell in, whether in [8]tents,[1] or in strong holds;

21 °¶[1] So they went up, and [9]searched[1] the land [g]from the wilderness of Zin unto [h]Rehob, [1]as men come to[1] Hamath.

30 And [g]Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it.

31 [8]But the men that went up with him said, We be not able to go up against the people; for they [t]are stronger than we.

[o]1 The people murmur. 11 God threateneth them. 29 Moses obtaineth pardon.[1]

AND all the congregation lifted up their voice, and cried; and [p]the people wept that night.

2 [g]And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said unto them, Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt[1]! or [u]would God we had died in this wilderness[1]!

3 And wherefore [3]hath[1] the LORD [4]brought[1] us unto this land, to fall by the [5]sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey[1]? were it not better for us to return into Egypt[1]?

[a]and the LORD [†]is with us: fear them not.

10 [c]But all the congregation bade stone them with stones. And [e]the glory of the LORD appeared in the [1]tabernacle of the congregation before[1] all the children of Israel.

11 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, How long will this people [2g]provoke[1] me? and how long will [s]it be ere they [i]believe[1] me, for all the signs which I have [4]shewed[1] among them?

12 I will smite them with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and [t]will make of thee a [5]greater nation[1] and mightier than they.

13 °¶[1] And [u]Moses said unto the LORD, Then the Egyptians shall hear [6]it, (for[1] thou broughtest up this people in thy might from among them;°)[1]

14 And they will tell [†]it to the inhabitants of this land: °[q]for[1] they have heard that thou LORD [7]art among this people, that[1] thou LORD art seen [8]face to face, and °that[1] [r]thy cloud standeth over them, and °that[1] thou goest before them, °[1]by day time[1] in a pillar of [9]a cloud,[1] and in a pillar of fire by night.

15 °¶[1] Now [†]if thou shalt kill °all[1] this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of thee will speak, saying,

16 Because the LORD was not [a]able to bring this people into the land which he sware unto them, therefore he hath slain them in the wilderness.

17 And now, I [1]beseech[1] thee, let the power of [2]my[1] Lord be great, according as thou hast spoken, saying,

18 The LORD [3]is [c]longsuffering, and of great[1] mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and [4]by no means [5]clearing the guilty,[1] [f]visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children[6] unto the third and[1] fourth [†]generation.

19 [h]Pardon, I [7]beseech[1] thee, the iniquity of this people [t]according unto the greatness of thy mercy, and [s][t]as thou hast forgiven this people, from Egypt even [n]until now.

20 And the LORD said, I have pardoned [b]according to thy word:

21 But [1]as truly as I live,[1] [d]all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD[2].[1]

22 [f]Because all those men which have seen my glory, and my [3]miracles, which I did[1] in Egypt and in the wilderness, [4]and[1] have tempted me °now[1] [h]these ten times, and have not hearkened to my voice;

23 [k]Surely they shall not see the land which I sware unto their fathers, neither shall any of them that [5]provoked[1] me see it:

24 But my servant [m]Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, [p]and hath followed me fully, him will I bring into the land whereinto he went; and his seed shall possess it.

25 °(1Now the [6]Amalekites[1] and the [7]Canaanites dwelt in the valley.) To morrow turn you,[1] [r]and get you into the wilderness by the way [8]of the Red sea.[1]

26 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

27 [u]How long shall I bear [†]with this evil congregation, which murmur against me? [z]I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against me.

28 Say unto them, [99]As truly as I live, saith the LORD, [1z]as ye have spoken in mine ears, so will I do to you:

29 Your carcases shall fall in this wilderness; and [b]all that were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, which have murmured against me,

30 [2]Doubtless[1] ye shall not come into the land, [†]concerning which I [3d]sware to[1] make you dwell therein, [e]save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

31 [g]But your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, them will I bring in, and they shall know the land which [k]ye have [4]despised.[1]

32 But [†]as for you, [m]your carcases°, they[1] shall fall in this wilderness.

NOW [m]Korah, the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, [6]and[1] Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On, the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took men:

2 And they rose up before Moses, with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty princes of the [7]assembly, [7][r]famous in the congregation,[1] men of renown:

3 And [1]they [8]gathered[1] themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said unto them, [9][x][t]Ye take too much upon you, seeing [y]all the congregation [t]are holy, every one of them, [a]and the LORD [t]is among them: wherefore then lift ye up yourselves above the [1]congregation[1] of the LORD?

4 And when Moses heard [t]it, [d]he fell upon his face:

5 And he spake unto Korah and unto all his company, saying, [1]Even to morrow[1] the LORD will shew who [t]are his, and [t]who is [c]holy[2]; [1]and [c]will cause [t]him to come near unto him: even [t]him whom he [4]hath [d]chosen[1] will he cause to [e]come near unto him.

6 This do; [5]Take[1] you censers, Korah, and all his company;

7 And put fire therein, and put incense [6]in[1] them before the LORD [7]to morrow[1]: and it shall be [t]that the man whom the LORD doth choose, he shall be holy: [t]ye take too much upon you, ye sons of Levi.

8 And Moses said unto Korah, [8]Hear, I pray you,[1] ye sons of Levi:

9 Seemeth it but [g]a small thing unto you, that the God of Israel hath [h]separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself [9] to do the service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to minister unto them[1]?

10 And[1] he hath brought thee near [o]to him[1], and all thy brethren the sons of Levi with thee[2]: and seek ye the priesthood also?

11 [o]For which cause both[1] thou and all thy company [t]are gathered together against the LORD: [m]and [4]what is Aaron,[1] that ye murmur against him?

12 [o]¶[1] And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab: [5]which[1] said, We will not come up:

[1 S congregation] [a] Be thou and all thy [1] company [1] [c] before the LORD, thou, and they, and Aaron, [2] to morrow [1]:
17 And take [3] every man his censer, and put incense [4] in [1] them, and bring ye before the LORD every man his censer, two hundred and fifty censers; thou also, and Aaron, each [o] of you [1] his censer.
18 And they took every man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood [5] in [1] the door of the [6] tabernacle of the congregation [1] with Moses and Aaron.
19 And Korah [7] gathered [1] all the congregation against them unto the door of the [6] tabernacle of the congregation [1]: and [i] the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the congregation.
20 [8] And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,
21 [l] Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may [m] consume them in a moment.
22 And they [n] fell upon their faces, and said, O God, [p] the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation?
23 [o ¶] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
24 Speak unto the congregation, saying, Get you up from about the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.
25 And Moses rose up and went unto Dathan and Abiram; and the elders of Israel followed him.
26 And he spake unto the congregation, saying, [q] Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of [9] their's, [1] lest ye be consumed in all their sins.
27 So they gat [1] up from the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side: and Dathan and Abiram came out, and stood [2] in [1] the door of their tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their little [3] children. [1] 28 And Moses said, [r] Hereby ye shall know that the LORD hath sent me to do all these works; for I have not done them [q] of mine own mind.

18 And the flesh of them shall be thine, as the [u]wave breast and as the right [1]shoulder are thine.

19 [v]All the heave offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer unto the LORD, have I given thee, and thy sons and thy daughters with thee, [2]by a statute for ever: [w]it [t]is a covenant of salt for ever before the LORD unto thee and to thy seed with thee.

20 [x]¶ And the LORD [y]spake unto Aaron, Thou shalt have no inheritance in their land, neither shalt thou have any [4]part among them: [z]I [t]am thy [4]part and thine inheritance among the children of Israel.

21 [5]And, behold, [z]I have given the children of Levi all the tenth [1]in Israel for an inheritance, [6]for their service which they serve, [t]even [a]the service of the [7]tabernacle of the congregation.

22 [b]Neither must the children of Israel [8]henceforth come nigh the tabernacle of the congregation, [c]lest they bear sin, [d]and die.

23 [e]But the Levites shall do the service of the [9]tabernacle of the congregation, and they shall bear their iniquity: [t]it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, that among the children of Israel they [2]have no inheritance.

24 [3 f]But the tithes of the children of Israel, which they offer [t]as an heave offering unto the LORD, I have given to the Levites [4]to inherit: therefore I have said unto them, [g]Among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.

25 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

26 [5]Thus speak unto the Levites, and say unto them, When ye take of the children of Israel the [6]tithes which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then ye shall offer up an heave offering of it for the LORD, [t]even [h]a tenth part of the tithe.

27 [c]And [i]this your heave offering shall be reckoned unto you, as though [t]it were the corn of the [2]threshingfloor, and as the fulness of the winepress.

28 Thus ye also shall offer an heave offering unto the LORD of all your tithes, which ye receive of the children of Israel: and [3]ye shall give [i]thereof [t]the LORD'S heave offering to Aaron the priest.

29 Out of all your gifts ye shall offer every heave offering of the LORD, of all the [4]f best thereof, [t]even the hallowed part thereof out of it.

30 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, When ye [5]have heaved [t]the [4]best thereof from it, [i]then it shall be counted unto the Levites as the increase of the [6]threshingdoor, and as the increase of the winepress.

31 And ye shall eat it in every place, ye and your households: for it [t]is your reward [7] for your service in the [8]tabernacle of the congregation.

32 And ye shall [k]bear no sin by reason of it, when ye have heaved from it the [5]best of it: neither shall ye [9]pollute the holy things of the children of Israel, [l]lest ye die.[t] [2]

3 And the people [2c]chode[1] with Moses, and spake, saying, Would God that we had died [f]when our brethren died before the LORD!

4 And [h]why have ye brought [3]up the congregation[1] of the LORD into this wilderness, that we [4]and our cattle should die there[1]?

5 And wherefore have ye made us to come up out of Egypt, to bring us in unto this evil place? it [t]is no place of seed, or of figs, or of vines, or of pomegranates; neither [t]is there any water to drink.

6 And Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly unto the door of the [5]tabernacle of the congregation, and [q]they[1] fell upon their faces: and [r]the glory of the LORD appeared unto them.

7 [o]¶ [1]And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

8 [t]Take the rod, and [6]gather thou the assembly together,[1] thou, and Aaron thy brother, and speak ye unto the rock before their eyes[7]; and it shall[1] give forth [8]his water,[1] and [u]thou shalt bring forth to them water out of the rock: so thou shalt give the congregation and their [9]beasts[1] drink.

9 And Moses took the rod [y]from before the LORD, as he commanded him.

10 And Moses and Aaron gathered the [1]congregation[1] together before the rock, and he said unto them, [a]Hear now, ye rebels; [z]must we fetch you[1] water out of this rock?

11 And Moses lifted up his hand, and [3]with his rod he smote the rock[1] twice: and [4d]the water came out[1] abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their [5]beasts also.[1]

12 [o]¶ [1]And the LORD [6]spake[1] unto Moses and Aaron, Because [y]ye believed [7]me not,[1] to [h]sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this [3]congregation[1] into the land which I have given them.

13 [y][k]This is the water[1] of [1b]Meribah; because the children of Israel strove with the LORD, and he [2]was sanctified in them.

14 ¶ [d]And Moses sent messengers from Kadesh unto the king of Edom, [e]Thus saith thy brother Israel, Thou knowest all the [3]travel[1] that hath [g]befallen us:

15 [i]How our fathers went down into Egypt, [k]and we [c]have[1] dwelt in Egypt a long time; [l]and the Egyptians [4]vexed[1] us, and our fathers:

16 And [m]when we cried unto the LORD, he heard our voice, and [n]sent an angel, and [c]hath[1] brought us forth out of Egypt: and, behold, we [t]are in Kadesh, a city in the uttermost of thy border:

17 [p]Let us pass, I pray thee, through thy [5]country[1]: we will not pass through [6]the fields,[1] or through [7]the vineyards,[1] neither will we drink [t]of the water of the wells: we will go [8]by[1] the king's high way, we will not turn [9]to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed thy [1]borders.[1]

18 And Edom said unto him, Thou shalt not pass [2]by[1] me, lest I come out [z]against thee with the sword.[1]

19 And the children of Israel said unto him, We will go [4]by the high way: and if [5]I and my cattle[1] drink of thy water, [6x]then I will pay for it: I will[1] only, without doing any thing else, [7]go[1] through on my feet.

20 And he said, [z]Thou shalt not [7]go[1] through. And Edom came out against him with much people, and with a strong hand.

21 Thus Edom [b]refused to give Israel passage through his border: wherefore Israel [c]turned away from him.

22 ¶ And [8] the children of Israel, [t]even the whole congregation, [9]journeyed from [c]Kadesh, [f]and[1] came unto mount Hor.

23 And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron in mount Hor, by the [9]coast[1] of the land of Edom, saying, well, the nobles of the people digged it, by the direction of [a] the lawgiver,' with their staves. And from the wilderness they [1] went' to Mattanah:

19 And from Mattanah to Nahaliel: and from Nahaliel to Bamoth:

20 And from Bamoth [2] in the valley, that is in the [d] country' of Moab, to the top of [e] Pisgah, which looketh [3] f toward [h] Jeshimon.'

21 ¶ And 'Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, saying,

22 [l] Let me pass through thy land: we will not turn [4] into the fields, or into the vineyards': we will not drink [5] of the waters of the well: but' we will go [o] along' by the king's high way, until we [6] be past thy borders.'

23 [p] And Sihon would not suffer Israel to pass through his border: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wilderness': [7] and he came to Jahaz, and' fought against Israel.

24 And [u] Israel smote him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land from Arnon unto Jabbok, even unto the children of Ammon: for the border of the children of Ammon [t] was strong.

25 And Israel took all these cities: and Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all the [8] [y] villages' thereof.

26 For Heshbon [t] was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab, and taken all his land out of his hand, even unto Arnon.

27 Wherefore they that speak in proverbs say, [9] Come [t] into' Heshbon, let the city of Sihon be built and [z] prepared':

28 For [a] there is [c] a fire' gone out of Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon: it hath [4] consumed' [d] Ar of Moab, [o] and' the lords of [5] the high places of Arnon.

29 Woe to thee, Moab! thou art undone, O people of [f] Chemosh: he hath given his sons [6] that escaped,' and his daughters [o], [t] into captivity' unto Sihon king of the Amorites.

30 We have shot at them; Heshbon is perished even [b] unto Dibon, and we have laid [o] them' waste even unto Nophah, [z] which reacheth unto [c] Medeba.

31 [o] ¶ [t] Thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites.

32 And Moses sent to spy out [y] Jaazer,' and they took the [4] villages' thereof, and drove out the Amorites that [t] were there.

33 [o] ¶ [k] And they turned and went up by the way of Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan went out against them, he', and all his people, to [o] the' battle [m] at Edrei.

34 And the LORD said unto Moses, "Fear him not: for I have delivered him into thy hand, and all his people, and his land; and [q] thou shalt do to him as thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon.

35 [r] So they smote him, and his sons, and all his people, until there was none left him [5] alive': and they possessed his land.

22 AND [x] the children of Israel [7] set forward,' and pitched in the plains of Moab [b] on this side Jordan by' Jericho.

2 ¶ And [c] Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites.

3 And [d] Moab was sore afraid of the people, because they [t] were many: and Moab [9] was distressed because of the children of Israel.

4 And Moab said unto [b] the elders of Midian, Now shall [t] this company' lick up all [2] that are' round about us, as the ox licketh up the grass of the field. And Balak the son of Zippor [t] was king of [m] the Moabites' at that time.

5 [4] [e] He' sent messengers [o] therefore' unto Balaam the son of Beor [5] to [g] Pethor, which [t] is by the [6] river of' the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out from Egypt: behold, they cover the [1b] face of the earth, and they abide over against me:

6 Come now therefore, I pray thee, [c] curse me this people; for they [†] are too mighty for me: peradventure I shall prevail, [†] that we may smite them, and [†] that I may drive them out of the land: for I [2] wot [†] that he whom thou blessest [†] is blessed, and he whom thou cursest is cursed.

7 And the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with [h] the rewards of divination in their hand; and they came unto Balaam, and spake unto him the words of Balak.

8 And he said unto them, [k] Lodge here this night, and I will bring you word again, as the LORD shall speak unto me: and the princes of Moab abode with Balaam.

9 [l] And God came unto Balaam, and said, What men [†] are these with thee?

10 And Balaam said unto God, Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, hath sent unto me, saying,

11 Behold, [3] there is a people [†] come out of Egypt, [4] which [†] covereth the face of the earth: [5] come now, [†] curse me them; peradventure [p] I shall be able to [6] overcome them, and [†] drive them out.

12 And God said unto Balaam, Thou shalt not go with them; thou shalt not curse the people: for [q] they [†] are blessed.

13 And Balaam rose up in the morning, and said unto the princes of Balak, Get you into your land: for the LORD refuseth to give me leave to go with you.

14 And the princes of Moab rose up, and they went unto Balak, and said, Balaam refuseth to come with us.

15 ° ¶ [†] And Balak sent yet again princes, more, and more honourable than they.

16 And they came to Balaam, and said to him, Thus saith Balak the son of Zippor, [r] Let nothing, I pray thee, hinder thee from coming unto me:

17 For I will promote thee unto very great honour, and [°] I will do [†] whatsoever thou sayest unto me [1]: [a] come therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people.

18 And Balaam answered and said unto the servants of Balak, [d] If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, [e] I cannot go beyond the word of the LORD my God, to do less or more.

19 Now therefore, I pray you, [f] tarry ye also here this night, that I may know what the LORD will [2] say [†] unto me more.

20 [g] And God came unto Balaam at night, and said unto him, If the men [3] come to call thee, rise up, [°] and [†] go with them; but [4] [i] yet [†] the word which I [5] shall say [†] unto thee, that shalt thou do.

21 And Balaam rose up in the morning, and saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Moab.

22 ° ¶ [†] And God's anger was kindled because he went: [m] and the angel of the LORD [6] stood [†] in the way for an adversary against him. Now he was riding upon his ass, and his two servants [†] were with him.

23 And [n] the ass saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, [7] and [†] his sword drawn in his hand: and the ass turned aside out of the way, and went into the field: and Balaam smote the ass, to turn her into the way.

24 [8] But [†] the angel of the LORD stood in a [9] path of [†] the vineyards, a [1] wall [†] being on this side, and a [1] wall [†] on that side.

25 And ° when [†] the ass saw the angel of the LORD, [2] she thrust herself unto the wall, and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall: and he smote her again.

26 And the angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place, where [†] was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left.

27 And ° when [†] the ass saw the angel of the LORD, [3] she fell [†] down under Balaam: and Balaam's anger was kindled, and he smote the ass with [4] a [†] staff.

5 How goodly are thy tents, O Jacob, and thy tabernacles, O Israel!

6 As [c]the[1] valleys are they spread forth, as gardens by the [4]river's side, as the trees of lign aloes[5] which the LORD hath planted, [c]and[1] as cedar trees beside the waters.

7 [5]He shall pour the water out of[1] his buckets, and his seed [f]shall be [g]in many waters, and his king shall be higher than [h]Agag, and his [6]kingdom shall be exalted.

8 [m]God [6]brought[1] him forth out of Egypt; he hath as it were the [7]strength of [8]an unicorn[1]: he shall [p]eat up the nations his [9]enemies, and shall [7]break their [1]bones, and [7]pierce[1] them through with his arrows.

9 [m]He couched, he lay down as a lion, and as a [2]great lion: who shall stir[1] him up? [z]Blessed [3]is he[1] that blesseth thee, and cursed [3]is he[1] that curseth thee.

10 [o]¶ [1]And Balak's anger was kindled against Balaam, and he [m]smote his hands together: and Balak said unto Balaam, [b]I called thee to curse mine enemies, and, behold, thou hast altogether blessed [f]them these three times.

11 Therefore now flee thou to thy place: [c]I thought to promote thee unto great honour; but, lo, the LORD hath kept thee back from honour.

12 And Balaam said unto Balak, Spake I not also to thy messengers which thou sentest unto me, saying, 13 [h]If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the [4]commandment[1] of the LORD, to do either good or bad of mine own mind; [c]but[1] what the LORD [5]saith,[1] that will I speak?

14 And now, behold, I go unto my people: come [c]therefore, and [k]I will advertise thee what this people shall do to thy people [m]in the latter days.

she bare unto Amram Aaron and Moses, and Miriam their sister.

60 [a]And unto Aaron [1]was[1] born Nadab[o], [1] and Abihu, Eleazar[o], [1] and Ithamar.

61 And [a]Nadab and Abihu died, when they offered strange fire before the LORD.

62 [2]And [2]those[1] that were numbered of them were twenty and three thousand, [2]all males[1] from a month old and upward: [g]for they were not numbered among the children of Israel, because there was [i]no inheritance given them among the children of Israel.

63 ¶ These [t]are they that were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest[4], [1] who numbered the children of Israel [k]in the plains of Moab by [5]Jordan near[1] Jericho.

64 [l]But among these there was not a man of them [6]whom[1] Moses and Aaron the priest [7]numbered, when they[1] numbered the children of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai.

65 For the LORD had said of them, They [m]shall surely die in the wilderness. And there was not left a man of them, [n]save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

CHAPTER 27.

[o]1 The daughters of Zelophehad sue for an inheritance. 6 The law of inheritances. 12 Moses sueth for a successor. 18 Joshua is appointed.

THEN [8]came[1] the daughters of [7]Zelophehad, the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph: and these [t]are the names of his daughters; Mahlah, Noah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Tirzah.

2 And they stood before Moses, and before Eleazar the priest, and before the princes and all the congregation, [9]by[1] the door of the [1]tabernacle of the congregation,[1] saying,

3 Our father [g]died in the wilderness, and he was not [2]in[1] the company of them that gathered themselves together against the LORD [h]in the company of Korah[2]; but[1] died in his own [1]sin, and[1] had no sons.

4 Why should the name of our father be [2h]done[1] away from among his family, because he [2]hath[1] no son? [i]Give unto us [o]therefore[1] a possession among the brethren of our father.

5 And Moses [e]brought their cause before the LORD.

6 [o]¶[1] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

7 The daughters of Zelophehad speak right: [h]thou shalt surely give them a possession of an inheritance among their father's brethren; and thou shalt cause the inheritance of their father to pass unto them.

8 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a man die, and have no son, then ye shall cause his inheritance to pass unto his daughter.

9 And if he have no daughter, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his brethren.

10 And if he have no brethren, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his father's brethren.

11 And if his father have no brethren, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his kinsman that is next to him of his family, and he shall possess it: and it shall be unto the children of Israel [p]a statute of [4]judgment,[1] as the LORD commanded Moses.

12 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, [q]Get thee up into this [5]mount Abarim, and see[1] the land which I have given unto the children of Israel.

13 And when thou hast seen it, thou also [t]shalt be gathered unto thy people, as Aaron thy brother was gathered[6].

14 For[1] ye [u]rebelled against my [7]commandment in the desert[1] of Zin, in the strife of the congregation, [8]to sanctify me at the [9]water[1] before their eyes[1]: that is the [t]water of Meribah in[1] Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.[2]

15 [o]¶[1] And Moses spake unto the LORD, saying,

16 Let the LORD, [z]the God of the spirits of all flesh, [3]set[1] a man over the congregation,

17 [a]Which may go out before them, and which may [4]go[1] in before them, and which may [o]1 Offerings to be observed. 3 The continual burnt offering. 9 The offering on the sabbath, 11 the new moons, 16 the passover, 26 and day of first-fruits.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel, and say unto them, My [5]offering, and [u]my bread for my [6]sacrifices made by fire, [7]for [z]a sweet savour unto me, shall ye observe to offer unto me in their due season.

3 [8]And thou shalt say unto them, [y]This †is the offering made by fire which ye shall offer unto the LORD; [z]two lambs of the first year without [1]spot day by day, †for a continual burnt offering.

4 The one lamb shalt thou offer in the morning, and the other lamb shalt thou offer [2]at even;

5 And [3]a tenth †part of an ephah of [1]flour for a [2]meat offering, mingled with the fourth †part of an [b]hin of beaten oil.

6 †It is [d]a continual burnt offering, which was ordained in mount Sinai for a sweet savour, [3]a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

7 And the drink offering thereof †shall be the fourth †part of an hin for the one lamb: [g]in the holy †place shalt thou [4]cause the strong wine to be poured unto the LORD [c]for a drink offering.

8 And the other lamb shalt thou offer at even: as the [5]meat offering of the morning, and as the drink offering thereof, thou shalt offer †it, [e]a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

9 ¶ And on the sabbath day two [7]lambs of the first year without [8]spot, and two tenth [9]deals of flour †for a [5]meat offering, mingled with oil, and the drink offering thereof:

10 †This is [p]the burnt offering of every sabbath, beside the continual burnt offering, and [1]his drink offering.

11 ¶ And [q]in the beginnings of your months ye shall offer a burnt offering unto the LORD; two young bullocks, and one ram, seven [2]lambs of the first year without [3]spot;

36 But ye shall offer a burnt offering, [2] a sacrifice[1] made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD: one bullock, one ram, seven [3] lambs[1] of the first year without blemish:

37 Their [4] meat[1] offering and their drink offerings for the bullock, for the ram, and for the lambs, †shall be according to their number, after the [5] manner[1]:

38 And one [6] goat for[1] a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering, and [7] his meat offering, and his drink offering.[1]

39 [8] These things ye shall [d] do[1] unto the LORD in your [e] set feasts, beside your [f] vows, and your freewill offerings, for your burnt offerings, and for your [9] meat[1] offerings, and for your drink offerings, and for your peace offerings.

40 [1] And Moses told the children of Israel according to all that the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 30.

[1] Vows are not to be broken. 3 The exception of a maid's vow. 6 Of a wife's. 9 Of a widow's, or her that is divorced.[1]

AND Moses spake unto [g] the heads of the tribes [2] concerning[1] the children of Israel, saying, This †is the thing which the LORD hath commanded.

2 [3 h] If a man vow[1] a vow unto the LORD, or [4 i] swear[1] an oath to bind his soul with a bond[5];[1] he shall not [6 k] break his word[7],[1] he shall [l] do according to all that proceedeth out of his mouth.

3 [8] If a woman also vow[1] a vow unto the LORD, and [9] bind[1] †herself by a bond, †being in her father's house[1] in her youth;

4 And her father [2] hear[1] her vow, and her bond wherewith she hath bound her soul, and her father [3] shall hold[1] his peace at her: then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she hath bound her soul shall stand.

5 But if her father disallow her in the day that he heareth; [1] not any[1] of her vows, or of her bonds wherewith she hath bound her soul, shall stand: and the LORD shall forgive her, because her father disallowed her.

6 And if she [2] had at all an husband, when [b] she vowed, or uttered ought out[1] of her lips, wherewith she [3] bound her soul;

7 And her husband [4] heard it, and held[1] his peace at her in the day that he [5] heard it[1]: then her vows shall stand, and her bonds wherewith she [6] bound her soul shall stand.

8 But if her husband [7 c] disallowed her on[1] the day that he [5] heard it[1]; then he shall make [8] her vow which [2] she vowed, and that which she uttered with[1] her lips, wherewith she [6] bound her soul°, of none effect[1]: and the LORD shall forgive her.

9 But [1] every vow of a widow, and[1] of her that is divorced, [2] wherewith they have bound their souls, shall stand against her.

10 And if she vowed in her husband's house, or bound her soul by a boud with an oath [3];[1]

11 And her husband heard †it, and held his peace at her, †and disallowed her not[4]:[1] then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she bound her soul shall stand.

12 But if her husband °hath utterly[1] made them [5] void on the day[1] he heard †them; then whatsoever proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her soul, shall not stand: her husband hath made them void; and the LORD shall forgive her.

13 Every vow, and every binding oath to afflict the soul, her husband may establish it, or her husband may make it void.

14 But if her husband altogether hold his peace at her from day to day; then he establisheth all her vows, or all her bonds, which †are upon her: he °confirmeth[1] them, because he held his peace at her in the day that he heard †them.

15 But if he shall [7] any ways make them[1] void after that he

CHAPTER 31.

[o]1 The Midianites spoiled, and Balaam slain. 13 Moses is wroth with the officers for sparing the women.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 [a]Avenge the children of Israel of the Midianites: afterward shalt thou [b]be gathered unto thy people.

3 And Moses spake unto the people, saying, Arm [3]some of yourselves unto the war, and let them go against the Midianites, and avenge the LORD of[1] Midian.

4 [g]Of every tribe a thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel, shall ye send to the war.

5 So there were delivered [4] out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of [t]every tribe, twelve thousand armed for war.

6 And Moses sent them [c] to the war, a thousand of every tribe,[1] them and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war, with the [6]holy instruments, and [m]the trumpets to blow[1] in his hand.

7 And they warred against [7]the Midianites,[1] as the LORD commanded Moses; and [p]they slew [8]all the [q]males.[1]

8 And they slew the kings of Midian [9], beside the rest of them that were[1] slain; [o]namely,[1] [r]Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba,[1] five kings of Midian: [u]Balaam also the son of Beor they slew with the sword.

9 And the children of Israel took [2]all[1] the women of Midian [o]captives,[1] and their little ones[3], and took the spoil of[1] all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all their goods [4].

10 And [o]they burnt[1] all their cities [5] wherein they dwelt, and all their [6]goodly castles,[1] with fire.

11 And [x]they took all the spoil, and all the prey, [7]both of men and of beasts.[1]

B.C. 1452.

12 And they brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoil, unto Moses, and [1]Eleazar the priest, and unto the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the camp at the plains of Moab, which [2]are by Jordan near[1] Jericho.

13 ¶ And Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went forth to meet them without the camp.

14 And Moses was wroth with the officers of the host, [o]with[1] the captains [3]over thousands, and captains over[1] hundreds, which came from the [4c]battle.[1]

15 And Moses said unto them, Have ye saved [d]all the women alive?

16 Behold, [e]these caused the children of Israel, through the [f]counsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against the LORD in the matter of Peor, and [5h]there was a plague[1] among the congregation of the LORD.

17 Now therefore [i]kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman that hath known man by lying with [6]him.

18 But all the women children, that have not known [o]a[1] man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves.

19 And [6t]do ye abide[1] without the camp seven days: whosoever hath killed any person, and [n]whosoever hath touched any slain, purify [7]both yourselves and your captives[1] on the third day [o],[1] and on the seventh day [8].

20 And [9]purify all your raiment,[1] and all [7]that is made of [1]skins,[1] and all work of goats'[1] hair, and all things made of wood [2].

21 [o]¶[1] And Eleazar the priest said unto the men of war which went to the battle, This [t]is the [3]ordinance[1] of the law which the LORD [4]commanded Moses;

CHAPTER 32.

[o 1] The Reubenites and Gadites sue for their inheritance on the east side of Jordan.

NOW the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had a very great multitude of cattle: and when they saw the land of [e] Jazer, and the land of Gilead, that, behold, the place [f] was a place for cattle;

2 The children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spake unto Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and unto the princes of the congregation, saying,

3 Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and [6 g] Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and [7 f] Shebam,[1] and Nebo, and [8 f] Beon,

4 [9] Even the country [1] [w] which the LORD smote before the congregation of Israel, [f] is a land for cattle, and thy servants have cattle[1]:

5 Wherefore, said they, if [1] we have found grace in thy sight, let this land be given unto thy servants for a possession[2], and [1] bring us not over Jordan.

6 [o ¶ 1] And Moses said unto the children of Gad and to the children of Reuben, Shall your brethren go to [3] war, and shall ye sit here?

7 And wherefore [z] discourage ye the heart of the children of Israel from going over into the land which the LORD hath given them?

8 Thus did your fathers, [e] when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea [d] to see the land.

9 For [a] when they went up unto the valley of Eshcol, and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, that they should not go into the land which the LORD had given them.

10 [d] And the LORD's anger was kindled [1] the same time,[1] and he sware, saying,

11 Surely none of the men that came up out of Egypt, [e] from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I sware unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob; because [g] they have not [h] wholly followed me:

12 Save Caleb the son of Jephunneh the [2] Kenezite,[1] and Joshua the son of Nun: [g f] for [1] they have wholly followed the LORD.

13 And the LORD's anger was kindled against Israel, and he made them [k] wander [4] in the wilderness forty years, until [m] all the generation, that had done evil in the sight of the LORD, was consumed.

14 And, behold, ye are risen up in your fathers' stead, an increase of sinful men, to augment yet the [n] fierce anger of the LORD toward Israel.

15 For if ye [p] turn away from after him, he will yet again leave them in the wilderness; and ye shall destroy all this people.

16 [o ¶ 1] And they came near unto him, and said, We will build sheepfolds here for our cattle, and cities for our little ones:

17 But [z] we ourselves will [5] go ready armed [1] before the children of Israel, until we have brought them unto their place: and our little ones shall dwell in the fenced cities because of the inhabitants of the land.

18 [y] We will not return unto our houses, until the children of Israel have inherited every man his inheritance.

19 For we will not inherit with them on [6] yonder side Jordan, or [1] forward; [a] because our inheritance is fallen to us on this side Jordan eastward.

20 [o ¶ 1] And [b] Moses said unto them, If ye will do this thing[7], if ye will go armed before the LORD to [1] war,

[c] 1 Moses' speech in the end of the fortieth year, 6 briefly rehearsing the story of God's promise to Israel, 34 and his anger for their incredulity and disobedience.[1]

THESE †be the words which Moses spake unto all Israel [2 c] on this side [1] Jordan in the wilderness, in the [2] plain[1] over against [4 d] the Red sea,[1] between Paran, and Tophel, and Laban, and Hazeroth, and [5] Dizahab.[1]

3 And it came to pass [i] in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first †day of the month, †that Moses spake unto the children of Israel, according unto all that the LORD had given him in commandment unto them;

4 [n] After he had [7] slain[1] Sihon the king of the Amorites, which dwelt in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, which dwelt [8] at Astaroth [o] in[1] Edrei:

5 [q] On this side[1] Jordan, in the land of Moab, began Moses to declare this law, saying,

6 The LORD our God spake unto us [r] in Horeb, saying, Ye have dwelt long [u] enough in this [1] mount[1]:

7 Turn you, and take your journey, and go to the [2] mount of the Amorites, and unto [z] all the places nigh thereunto, in the [2] plain, in the hills, and in the vale, and in the south, and by the sea side, to[1] the land of the Canaanites, and unto Lebanon, unto[1] the great river, the river Euphrates.

5 [1]Meddle [1] not with them; for I will not give you of their land, [a]no, not so much as [2]a foot breadth;' [b]because I have given mount Seir unto Esau [t]for a possession.

6 Ye shall [3]buy meat [1] of them for money, that ye may eat; and ye shall also buy water of them for money, that ye may drink.

7 For the LORD thy God hath blessed thee in all the [4]works [1] of thy hand: he [5]knoweth [1] thy walking through this great wilderness: [c]these forty years the LORD thy God [t]hath been with thee; thou hast lacked nothing.

8 [6][d]And when [1] we passed by from our brethren the children of Esau, which [7]dwelt in Seir, through [1] the way of the [8]plain from [k]Elath, and from Ezion-gaber,' we turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab.

9 And the LORD said unto me, [9][k]Distress not the Moabites,' neither contend with them in battle: for I will not give thee of [1]their land for [1]a possession; because I have given [m]Ar unto [n]the children of Lot [t]for a possession.

10 [2][p]The Emims [1] dwelt therein [3]in times past,' a people great, and many, and tall, as [7]the [4]Anakims;

11 Which also were accounted giants, as the Anakims [1]; but the Moabites call them [5]Emims.'

12 [7]The [6]Horims [1] also dwelt in Seir [7]beforetime;' but the children of Esau [u]succeeded them[8], when they had [1] destroyed them from before them, and dwelt in their [z]stead; as Israel did unto the land of his possession, which the LORD gave unto them.[9]

13 Now rise up, °said I,' and get you over [z]the [a]brook Zered. And we went over the brook Zered.

14 And the [1]space [1] in which we came [c]from Kadesh-barnea, until we were come over the brook Zered, [z]was' thirty and eight years; [c]until all the generation of the men of war were [3]wasted out from among the host,' [f]as the LORD sware unto them.

15 [1] For indeed [1] the [a] hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from [2] among the host, [1] until they were consumed.

16 ¶ So it came to pass, when all the men of war were consumed and dead from among the people,

17 That the LORD spake unto me, saying,

18 Thou art [2] to pass over through Ar, the coast of Moab, this day [1]:

19 And [†] when thou comest nigh over against the children of Ammon, [4] distress them not, nor meddle [1] with them: for I will not give thee of the land of the children of Ammon [5] any possession; [1] because I have given it unto [g] the children of Lot [†] for a possession.

24 °¶ [1] Rise ye up, take your journey, and [b] pass over the [6] river [1] Arnon: behold, I have given into thine hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land: [d] begin to possess [†] it, and contend with him in battle.

25 [e] This day will I begin to put the dread of thee and the fear of thee upon the [7] nations [1] [†] that are under the whole heaven, who shall hear [8] report of thee, and shall tremble, and be in anguish because of thee.

26 ¶ And I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemoth unto Sihon king of Heshbon [b] with words of peace, saying, 27 [c] Let me pass through thy land: I will go [1] along by the high way, I will neither turn unto the right hand nor to the left.

28 Thou shalt sell me [2] meat [1] for money, that I may eat; and give me water for money, that I may drink: [d] only [2] I will [1] pass through on my feet;

29 °([1] [e] As the children of Esau which dwell in Seir, and the Moabites which dwell in Ar, did unto me;°) until I shall pass over Jordan into the land which the LORD our God giveth us.

30 [f] But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him: for [h] the LORD thy God [i] hardened his spirit, and made his heart [4] obstinate, that he might deliver him into thy hand, as [5] appeareth [1] this day.

31 And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have begun to [6] [m] give [1] Sihon and his land before thee: begin to possess, that thou mayest inherit his land.

32 [n] Then Sihon came out against us, he and all his people, [7] to fight [1] at Jahaz.

33 And [s] the LORD our God delivered him [8] before us; and [t] we smote him, and his [9] sons, and all his people.

34 And we took all his cities at that time, and [1] [x] utterly destroyed [2] [y] the men, and the women, [1] and the little ones [3], of every city, we left none to remain [1]:

35 Only the cattle we took for a prey unto ourselves, [4] and [1] the spoil of the cities which we [5] took. [1]

36 [c] From Aroer, which [6] is by the brink of the river [1] Arnon, and from the city that [7] is by the river, [1] even unto Gilead, there was not [8] one city too strong [1] for us: [s] the LORD our God delivered [9] all unto [1] us:

[o]1 An exhortation to obedience. 14 A dissuasive against idolatry. 41 Moses appointeth the three cities of refuge on that side Jordan.

[s]NOW therefore hearken, O Israel, [1] unto [u]the statutes and unto the [9]judgments, [1] which I teach you, for to do [1]them, [1] that ye may live, and go in and possess the land which the LORD [2] God of your fathers [1] giveth you.

2 [z]Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish [o]ought [1] from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you.

3 Your eyes have seen what the LORD did because of [c]Baal-peor: for all the men that followed Baal-peor, the LORD thy God hath destroyed them from [1]among you. [1]

4 But ye that did cleave unto the LORD your God [†]are alive every one of you this day.

5 Behold, I have taught you statutes and [2]judgments, [1] even as the LORD my God commanded me, that ye should do so in the [3] land whither ye go [4] to possess it.

6 Keep therefore and do [†]them; for this [†]is [e]your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the [5]nations, [1] which shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely this great nation [†]is a wise and understanding people.

8 And what [9]nation is there so great, [1] that hath statutes and [i]judgments so [1] righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day?

9 Only take heed to thyself, and [m]keep thy soul diligently, [p]lest thou forget the things which thine eyes [2]have seen, [1] and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life [5]: but [q]teach them thy sons, and thy sons' sons [1];

20 But the LORD hath taken you, and [c]brought you forth out of the iron furnace, [o]even[1] out of Egypt, [c]to be unto him a people of inheritance, as [9]ye are[1] this day.

21 Furthermore [e]the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and sware that I should not go over Jordan, and that I should not go in unto that good land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee [f]for an inheritance:

22 But [i]I must die in this land, [k]I must not go over Jordan: but ye shall go over, and possess [m]that good land.

23 Take heed unto yourselves, [n]lest ye forget the covenant of the LORD your God, which he made with you, [p]and make you a graven image [1], or the likeness of any thing,[1] which the LORD thy God hath forbidden thee.

24 For [c]the LORD thy God [1]is a consuming fire, even[1] [c]a jealous God.

25 ¶ When thou shalt beget children, and children's children, and ye shall have [2]remained[1] long in the land, and [y]shall corrupt [f]yourselves, and make a graven image [3], or the likeness of any thing, and [4]shall do[1] evil in the sight of the LORD thy God, to provoke him to anger:

26 [r]I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that ye shall soon utterly perish from off the land whereunto ye go over Jordan to possess it; ye shall not prolong [f]your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed.

27 And the LORD [p]shall scatter you among the [4]nations,[1] and ye shall be left few in number among the [5]heathen,[1] whither the LORD shall lead you [6].

28 And [y]there ye shall serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, [t]which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.

29 [s]But if from thence [7]thou shalt[1] seek the LORD thy God, thou shalt find [f]him, if thou [8]seek[1] him with all thy heart and with all thy soul.

30 When thou art in tribulation, and all these things [a]are come upon thee, [9][b]even in the latter days, if thou [d]turn[1] to the LORD thy God, and [1]shall be obedient unto his voice:[1]

31 [o]('For the LORD thy God [f]is [y]a merciful God;[o]) he will not [2]forsake[1] thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers which he sware unto them.

32 For [h]ask now of the days that are past, which were before thee, since the day that God created man upon the earth, and [o]ask[1] [f]from the one [3]side[1] of heaven unto the other, whether there hath been any such thing as this great thing [f]is, or hath been heard like it?

36 [g] Out of heaven he made thee to hear his voice, that he might instruct thee: and upon earth he [2]shewed thee[1] his great fire; and thou heardest his words out of the midst of the fire.

6 [2] Understand[1] therefore, that the LORD thy God giveth thee not this good land to possess it for thy righteousness; for thou [†] art [c] a stiffnecked people.

8 Also [f] in Horeb ye provoked the LORD to wrath, [5] so that[1] the LORD was angry with you to have destroyed you.

9 [g] When I was gone up into the mount to receive the tables of stone, [†] even the tables of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then [i] I abode in the mount forty days and forty nights[6], I neither did[1] eat bread nor drink water[7]:[1]

13 Furthermore [z] the LORD spake unto me, saying, I have seen this people, and, behold, [b] it [†] is a stiffnecked people:

[a] the mount burned with fire: and the two tables of the covenant [†] were in my two hands.

16 And [b] I looked, and, behold, ye had sinned against the LORD your God[1], and[1] had made you a molten calf: ye had turned aside quickly out of the way which the LORD had commanded you.

17 And I took [2] the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and brake them before your eyes.

18 And I [e] fell down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and forty nights[3]:[1] I did neither eat bread °,[1] nor drink water[3],[1] because of all your [4] sins[1] which ye sinned, in doing [5] wickedly[1] in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

19 [h] For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure, wherewith the LORD was wroth against you to destroy you. [k] But the LORD hearkened unto me °at[1] that time also.

20 And the LORD was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him: and I prayed for Aaron also the same time.

21 And [m] I took your sin, the calf which ye had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, [6] and ground it[1] very small, °even[1] until it was as [7] small[1] as dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the brook that descended out of the mount.

22 And at [p] Taberah, and at [q] Massah, and at [r] Kibroth-hattaavah, ye provoked the LORD to wrath.

23 [s] Likewise[1] [u] when the LORD sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you; then ye rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God, and [y] ye believed him not, nor hearkened to his voice.

24 [a] Ye have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew you.

25 [3d] Thus[1] I fell down before the LORD[1] forty days and forty nights[2], as I fell down at the first;[1] because the LORD had said he would destroy you.

26 [3g] I prayed therefore[1] unto the LORD, and said, O Lord GOD, destroy not thy people

27 Remember thy servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; look not unto the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin:

CHAPTER 10.

[o] 1 God's mercy in restoring the two tables, 6 in continuing the priesthood, 8 in separating the tribe of Levi, 10 in hearkening to Moses' suit for the people.

AT that time the LORD said unto me, [z] Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first, and come up unto me into the mount, and [r] make thee an ark of wood.

2 And I will write on the tables the words that were [3] in the first tables which thou brakest, and [z] thou shalt put them in the ark.

3 [4] And [†] I made an ark [5] of [a] shittim [†] wood, and [b] hewed two tables of stone like unto the first, and went up into the mount, having the two tables in mine hand.

4 And [c] he wrote on the tables, according to the first writing, the ten [6] [g] commandments, [h] which the LORD spake unto you in the mount out of the midst of the fire [k] in the day of the assembly: and the LORD gave them unto me.

5 And I turned [o] myself [†] and [m] came down from the mount, and [n] put the tables in the ark which I had made; [q] and there they be, as the LORD commanded me.

Aaron died, and there he was buried; and Eleazar his son ministered in the priest's office in his stead.

7 [a] From thence they journeyed unto Gudgodah; and from Gudgodah to [1] Jotbath, [†] a land of [2] rivers of waters. [†]

8 [o] [¶] [†] At that time [b] the LORD separated the tribe of Levi, [c] to bear the ark of the covenant of the LORD, [f] to stand before the LORD to minister unto him, and [g] to bless in his name, unto this day.

9 [h] Wherefore Levi hath no [3] part [†] nor inheritance with his brethren; the LORD [†] is his inheritance, according as the LORD thy God [4] promised [†] him.

10 And [k] I stayed in the mount, [6] according to [†] the [†] first time, forty days and forty nights [7]; [†] and [m] the LORD hearkened unto me [o] at [†] that time also [8], and [†] the LORD would not destroy thee.

11 [n] And the LORD said unto me, Arise, [p] take [†] thy journey before the people [9], that they may [†] go in and possess the land, which I sware unto their fathers to give unto them.

12 [¶] And now, Israel, [t] what doth the LORD thy God require of thee, but [u] to fear the LORD thy God, [x] to walk in all his ways, and [y] to love him, and to serve the LORD thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul, 13 To keep the commandments of the LORD, and his statutes, which I command thee this day [c] for thy good?

14 Behold, [†] [d] the heaven and the heaven of heavens is the LORD's thy God, [r] the earth also, [†] with all that therein [†] is.

15 [i] Only the LORD had a delight in thy fathers to love them, and he chose their seed after them, [†] even you [2] above all [3] people, as it is [†] this day.

16 Circumcise therefore [†] the foreskin of your heart, and be no more [p] stiffnecked.

year, the year of release, is at hand; and thine [a]eye be evil against thy poor brother, and thou [1]givest[1] him nought; and [c]he cry unto the LORD against thee, and [d]it be sin unto thee.

10 Thou shalt surely give him, and [e]thine heart shall not be grieved when thou givest unto him: because that [f]for this thing the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all thy [2]works,[1] and in all that thou puttest thine hand unto.

11 For [h]the poor shall never cease out of the land: therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt [3]open thine hand [o]wide[1] unto thy brother, to thy [4]poor, and to thy needy,[1] in thy land.

12 ¶ [5]And [k]if[1] thy brother, an Hebrew man, or an Hebrew woman, be sold unto thee, and serve thee six years; then in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from thee.

13 And when thou [6]sendest him out[1] free from thee, thou shalt not let him go [o]away[1] empty:

14 Thou shalt furnish him liberally out of thy flock, and out of thy [7]floor,[1] and out of thy winepress: [8]of that wherewith[1] the LORD thy God hath [p]blessed thee thou shalt give unto him.

15 And [r]thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt, and the LORD thy God redeemed thee: therefore I command thee this thing [9]to day.[1]

16 And it shall be, [u]if he say unto thee, I will not go [1]away[1] from thee; because he loveth thee and thine house, because he is well with thee;

17 Then thou shalt take an [2]aul,[1] and thrust [t]it through his ear unto the door, and he shall be thy [3]servant for ever. And also unto thy [4]maidservant thou shalt do likewise.

18 It shall not seem hard unto thee, when thou [5]sendest him away[1] free from thee; for [6]he hath been worth [a]a double hired servant to thee, in serving[1] thee six years: and the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all that thou doest.

19 ¶ [b]All the firstling males that [1]come[1] of thy herd and of thy flock thou shalt sanctify unto the LORD thy God: thou shalt do no work with the firstling of [2]thy bullock,[1] nor shear the firstling of thy [3]sheep.[1]

20 [f]Thou shalt eat [t]it before the LORD thy God year by year in the place which the LORD shall choose, thou and thy household.

21 [i]And if [4]there be any[1] blemish [o]therein[1], as if it be lame[o],[1] or blind, [o]or have[1] any ill blemish[5], thou shalt not sacrifice it unto the LORD thy God.

22 Thou shalt eat it within thy gates: [l]the unclean and the clean [o]person[1] shall eat it alike, as the [6]roebuck,[1] and as the hart.

23 [m]Only thou shalt not eat the blood thereof; thou shalt pour it [7] upon the ground as water.

5 Thou mayest not [a]sacrifice the passover within any of thy gates, which the LORD thy God giveth thee:

7 And thou shalt [3][c]roast and eat [1]it [f]in the place which the LORD thy God shall choose: and thou shalt turn in the morning, and go unto thy tents.

12 [c]And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt: and thou shalt observe and do these statutes.

13 ¶ [f]Thou shalt [2]observe[1] the feast of [3]tabernacles seven days, after that thou hast gathered in [4]thy [h]corn and thy wine[1]:

16 [o]¶[1] [d]Three times in a year shall all thy males appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall choose; in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles: and [g]they shall not appear before the LORD empty:

17 Every man [4][1]shall give [h]as he is able, [k]according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee.

CHAPTER 19.

[o]1 The cities of refuge. 14 The landmark is not to be removed. 15 Two witnesses required. 16 The punishment of a false witness.[1]

WHEN the LORD thy God [2c]hath[1] cut off the nations, whose land the LORD thy God giveth thee, and thou [r] succeedest them, and dwellest in their cities, and in their houses;

2 [f]Thou shalt separate three cities for thee in the midst of thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it.

3 Thou shalt prepare thee [3]a[1] way, and divide the [4]coasts[1] of thy land, which the LORD thy God [5]giveth[1] thee to inherit, into three parts, that every [6]slayer[1] may flee thither.

4 [o]¶[1] And [k]this [†]is the case of the [6]slayer[1], which shall flee thither[7], that he may live: Whoso[1] killeth his neighbour [8]ignorantly, whom he hated[1] not [t] in time past;

5 As when a man goeth into the [9]wood[1] with his neighbour to hew wood, and his hand fetcheth a stroke with the axe to cut down the tree, and the [2u]head slippeth from [3]the [p] helve, and [q]lighteth upon his neighbour, that he die; he shall flee unto one of [4]those[1] cities[o], and live:

6 [u]Lest the avenger of [o]the[1] blood pursue the [5]slayer,[1] while his heart is hot, and overtake him, because the way is long, and [6r]slay him[1]; whereas he [†]was not worthy of death, inasmuch as he hated him not [z] in time past.

7 Wherefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt separate three cities for thee.

8 And if the LORD thy God [a]enlarge thy [7]coast,[1] as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, and give thee all the land which he promised to give unto thy fathers;

9 If thou shalt keep all [8]these commandments to do them, [1] which I command thee this day, to love the LORD thy God, and to walk ever in his ways; [o]then shalt thou add three cities more for thee, beside these three:

10 That [1]innocent blood be not shed in [2] thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee [t]for an inheritance, and [†]so blood be upon thee.

11 [o]¶[1] But [b]if any man hate his neighbour, and lie in wait for him, and rise up against him, and smite him [c]mortally that he [3]die, and fleeth[1] into one of these cities:

12 Then the elders of his city shall send and fetch him thence, and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die.

13 [y]Thine eye shall not pity him, [h]but thou shalt put away [4†]the [o]guilt of[1] innocent blood from Israel, that it may go well with thee.

14 ¶ [i]Thou shalt not remove thy neighbour's landmark, which they of old time have set [5] in thine inheritance[o], [1] which thou shalt inherit [5] in the land that the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it.

15 ¶ [m]One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sinneth: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall [6]the[1] matter be established.

16 [o]¶[1] If [7]a false[1] witness [x]rise up against any man to testify against him [8] [†]that which is wrong[1];

17 Then both the men, between whom the controversy [†]is, shall stand before the LORD, [y] before the priests and the judges[o], [1] which shall be in those days;

18 And the judges shall make diligent inquisition: and, behold, [†]if the witness [†]be a false witness, [†]and hath testified falsely against his brother;

19 [b]Then shall ye do unto him, as he had thought to [9]have done[1] unto his brother: so [c]shalt thou put [1]the evil away from among you.[1]

20 [d]And those which remain shall hear, and fear, and shall henceforth commit no more any such evil [2]among you.[1] of the damsel, because he hath brought up an evil name upon a virgin of Israel: and she shall be his wife; he may not put her away all his days.

20 But if this thing be true, [1] and the tokens of virginity be not found for[1] the damsel:

21 Then they shall bring out the damsel to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her with stones that she die: because she hath [a] wrought folly in Israel, to play the [2] whore[1] in her father's house: [c] so shalt thou put [3] evil away from among you.[1]

22 ¶ [f] If a man be found lying with a woman married to an husband, then they shall both of them die, [o] both[1] the man that lay with the woman, and the woman: so shalt thou put away [4] evil from Israel.

23 ¶ If [5] a damsel [†] that is a virgin [o] be[1] [h] betrothed unto an husband, and a man find her in the city, and lie with her;

24 Then ye shall bring them both out unto the gate of that city, and ye shall stone them with stones that they die; the damsel, because she cried not, [†] being in the city; and the man, because he hath [i] humbled his neighbour's wife: [m] so thou shalt put away [4] evil from [6] among you.[1]

25 ¶ But if [7] a man find a betrothed damsel[1] in the field, and the man [n] force her, and lie with her [8]:[1] then the man only that lay with her shall die:

26 But unto the damsel thou shalt do nothing; [†] there is in the damsel no sin [†] worthy of death: for as when a man riseth against his neighbour, and slayeth him, even so [†] is this matter:

27 For he found her in the field [9], and[1] the betrothed damsel cried, and [†] there was none to save her.

28 ¶ [u] If a man find a damsel [†] that is a virgin, which is not betrothed, and lay hold on her, and lie with her, and they be found;

29 Then the man that lay with her shall give unto the damsel's father fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife[1];[1] [x] because he hath humbled her [2],[1] he may not put her away all his days.

30 ¶ [3] [b] A man shall not take his father's wife, [4] nor [c] discover[1] his father's skirt.

CHAPTER 23.

[o] 1 Who may or may not enter into the congregation. 9 Of uncleanness in the host. 21 Of vows, &c.[1]

HE that is wounded in the stones, or hath his privy member cut off, shall not enter into the [5] congregation[1] of the LORD.

2 [6] A bastard shall not enter into the [5] congregation[1] of the LORD; even to [7] his[1] tenth generation shall [8] he not[1] enter into the [5] congregation[1] of the LORD.

3 [6] [g] An Ammonite or [9] Moabite shall not enter into the [5] congregation[1] of the LORD; even to [7] their[1] tenth generation shall [1] they not[1] enter into the [5] congregation[1] of the LORD for ever:

4 [i] Because they met you not with bread and with water in the way, when ye came forth out of Egypt; and [k] because they hired against thee Balaam the son of Beor [2] of[1] Pethor of [3] Mesopotamia, to curse thee.

5 Nevertheless the LORD thy God would not hearken unto Balaam; but the LORD thy God turned the curse into a blessing unto thee, because the LORD thy God loved thee.

6 [p] Thou shalt not seek their peace nor their [q] prosperity all thy days for ever.

7 ¶ Thou shalt not abhor an Edomite; [r] for he [†] is thy brother: thou shalt not abhor an Egyptian; because [t] thou wast a stranger in his land.

8 The children [4] that are begotten of[1] them shall enter into the [5] congregation[1] of the LORD [o] in their third generation[1].

9 ¶ When [6] the host goeth forth[1] against thine enemies, then [7] keep thee from every [8] wicked[1] thing.

10 [o] ¶[1] [z] If there be among you any man, that is not clean by reason of [9] uncleanness that[1] chanceth him by night, then fore the LORD thy God, I have [6] brought [1] away the hallowed things out of [t]mine house, and also have given them unto the Levite, and unto the stranger, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all thy [7] commandments [1] which thou hast commanded me: I have not transgressed [8] thy commandments, [p] neither have I forgotten [t]them:

14 [q] I have not eaten thereof in my mourning, neither have I [5] taken away ought thereof for any unclean use, [1] nor given [o]ought [1] thereof for the dead:
[o]but [1] I have hearkened to the voice of the LORD my God, [1]and [1] have done according to all that thou hast commanded me.
15 [r] Look down from thy holy habitation, from heaven, and bless thy people Israel, and the [2] land [1] which thou hast given us, as thou swarest unto our fathers, a land [1] that floweth [1] with milk and honey.
16 ¶ This day the LORD thy God [2] hath commanded [1] thee to do these statutes and [3] judgments [1]: thou shalt therefore keep and do them with all thine heart, and with all thy soul.
17 Thou hast [u] avouched the LORD this day to be thy God, and [4] to [1] walk in his ways, and [o]to [1] keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his [3] judgments [1], and [o]to [1] hearken unto his voice:
18 And [s] the LORD hath avouched thee this day to be [5] his [1] peculiar people [c], as he hath promised thee, and that [t]thou shouldest keep all his commandments;
19 And to make thee [g] high above all nations which he hath made, [7] in praise, and in name, and in honour; and that thou mayest be [s] an holy people unto the LORD thy God, as he hath spoken.[8]

CHAPTER 27.

[o]1 The people commanded to write the law upon stones, 5 and to build an altar of whole stones. 11 The tribes divided on Gerizim and Ebal. 14 The curses pronounced on mount Ebal.[1]

AND Moses [9] with [1] the elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, Keep all the [1] commandments [1] which I command you this day.
2 And it shall be on the day
[m] when ye shall pass over Jor-

LORD thy God giveth thee, that [n] thou shalt set thee up great stones, and plaister them with plaister:
3 And thou shalt write upon them all the words of this law, when thou art passed over [2], that thou mayest go in unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, a land [3] that floweth [1] with milk and honey [4], as the LORD [5] God of thy fathers [1] hath promised thee.
4 [6] Therefore [1] it shall be when ye [7] be gone [1] over Jordan, [t]that ye shall set up these stones, which I command you this day, [t] in mount Ebal, and thou shalt plaister them with plaister.

CHAPTER 29.

[o] 1 Moses exhorteth them to obedience. 10 All are presented before the Lord to enter into his covenant. 18 The great wrath on him that flattereth himself in his wickedness. 29 Secret things belong unto God.

2 [p] THESE [†] are the words of the covenant [o], [†] which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, beside [r] the covenant which he made with them in Horeb.

2 [s] ¶ And Moses called unto all Israel, and said unto them, [h] Ye have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt unto Pharaoh, and unto all his servants, and unto all his land;

3 [k] The great [4] temptations which thine eyes [5] have seen, [†] the signs, and those great [6] miracles:

4 Yet [†] [l] the LORD hath not given you an heart to [7] perceive, [†] and eyes to see, and ears to hear, unto this day.

5 [m] And I have led you forty years in the wilderness: [p] your clothes are not waxen old upon you, and thy shoe is not waxen old upon thy foot.

6 [r] Ye have not eaten bread, neither have ye drunk wine or strong drink: that ye might know that I [†] am the LORD your God.

7 And when ye came unto this place, [x] Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, came out against us unto battle, and we smote them:

8 And we took their land, and [c] gave it for an inheritance unto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half tribe of [8] Manasseh. [†]

9 [y] Keep therefore the words of this covenant, and do them, that ye may [9 h] prosper in all that ye do.

10 ¶ Ye stand this day all of you before the LORD your God; your [1] captains of [†] your tribes, your elders, and your officers, [2] with [†] all the men of Israel,

11 Your little ones, your wives, and thy stranger that [3] is in thy camp, [†] from [m] the hewer of thy wood unto the drawer of thy water:

12 That thou shouldest [a] enter into [†] covenant [2] with [†] the LORD thy God, and [b] into his oath, which the LORD thy God maketh with thee this day:

13 That he may [c] establish thee [3] to day for a people unto himself, [†] and [†] that he may be unto thee a God, [d] as he [4] hath said [†] unto thee, and [e] as he [5] hath sworn [†] unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

14 Neither with you only [g] do I make this covenant and this oath;

15 But with [†] him that standeth here with us this day before the LORD our God, [i] and also with [†] him that [†] is not here with us this day:

16 (For ye know how we [o] have [†] dwelt in the land of Egypt; and how we came through [6] the nations [7] which ye passed by [†];

17 And ye have seen their abominations, and their [m] idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which [†] were among them:)

18 Lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, [q] whose heart turneth away this day from the LORD our God, to go [8] and [†] serve the gods of [9] these [†] nations; [t] lest there should be among you a root that beareth [10 u] gall and wormwood;

19 And it come to pass, when he heareth the words of this [z] curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk [y] in the [3 z] imagination [†] of mine heart, [4 a] to add [b] drunkenness to thirst [†]:

20 [d] The LORD will not [5] spare [†] him, but then [e] the anger of the LORD and [f] his jealousy shall smoke against that man, and all the [6] curses that are [†] written in this book shall lie upon him, and the LORD [i] shall blot out his name from under heaven.

21 And the LORD [k] shall separate him unto evil out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that [7 l] are [†] written in this book of the law [5]: [†]

1 S ; all the words of this law[1]:[1]
13 And †that their children, [c]which have not known [o]any thing[1], [e]may hear, and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as ye live in the land whither ye go over Jordan to possess it.
14 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, [i]Behold, thy days approach that thou must die: call Joshua, and present yourselves
2 S tent of meeting in the [2]tabernacle of the congregation[1], that [l]I may give him a charge. And Moses and Joshua went, and presented themselves in the [2]tabernacle of the congregation[1].
3 S Tent 15 And [n]the LORD appeared in the [3]tabernacle[1] in a pillar
4 M Or, by of [o]a[1] cloud: and the pillar of [o]the[1] cloud stood [4]over the door of the [3]tabernacle[1].
16 [o]¶[1] And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thou shalt [q]sleep with thy fathers; and this people will [r]rise up, and
5 S strange gods [u]go a whoring after the [5]gods of the strangers[1] of the land, whither they go †to be among them, and will [x]forsake me, and [y]break my covenant which I have made with them.
17 Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and [a]I will forsake them, and I will [b]hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and 6 S come upon troubles shall [6c]befall[1] them; so that they will say in that day, [g]Are not these evils come upon us[o],[1] because our God †is [h]not among us?
18 And [i]I will surely hide my face in that day for all the 7 S evil [7]evils[1] which they shall have wrought, in that they are turned unto other gods.
19 Now therefore write ye this
8 A thou song for you, and teach [8]it the children of Israel: put it in their mouths, that this song may be [m]a witness for me against the children of Israel.
20 For when I shall have brought them into the land which I sware unto their fa-
9 S flowing thers, [9]that floweth[1] with milk and honey; and they shall have eaten and filled themselves,

1 S despise me, and break my covenant.
21 And it shall come to pass, [d]when many evils and troubles are [2]befallen[1] them, that this
2 S come upon song shall testify [3f]against[1]
3 S before them as a witness; for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed: for [g]I know their imagination [h]which they [k]go about, even now, before I have brought them into the land which I sware.
4 S So Moses 22 [4]¶ Moses therefore[1] wrote this song the same day, and taught it the children of Israel.
23 [m]And he gave Joshua the son of Nun a charge, and said, [p]Be strong and of a good courage: for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the land which I sware unto them: and I will be with thee.
24 ¶ And it came to pass, when Moses had made an end of [r]writing the words of this law in a book, until they were finished,
25 That Moses commanded the Levites, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying, 26 Take this book of the law, [z]and put it [5]in[1] the side of the 5 S by ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be there [c]for a witness against thee.
27 [d]For I know thy rebellion, and thy [f]stiff neck: behold, while I am yet alive with you this day, ye have been rebellious against the LORD; and how much more after my death?
6 S Assemble 28 [6]¶ Gather[1] unto me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, [k]and call heaven and earth to [7]re-
7 S witness cord[1] against them.
29 For I know that after my death ye will utterly [l]corrupt †yourselves, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and [n]evil will befall you [p]in the latter days; because ye will do [8]evil in the 8 A that which is sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands.

30 [1] And Moses spake in the ears of all the [2]congregation[1] of Israel the words of this song, until they were [3]ended.[1]

CHAPTER 32.

[o]1 Moses' song, which setteth forth God's mercy and vengeance. 46 He exhorteth them so to set their hearts upon it. 48 God sendeth him up to mount Nebo.[1]

[4]GIVE [c]ear, [o]O[1] ye heavens, [5]and I will speak; and [5]hear, O earth,[1] the words of my mouth.[c][1]

2 [d]My doctrine shall drop as the rain, my speech shall distil as the dew,[1] [f]as the small rain upon the tender [g]herb,[1] and as the showers upon the [g]grass[1]:

3 [1]Because I will publish[1] the name of the LORD: [t]ascribe ye greatness unto our God.

4 [2]He is [m]the[1] Rock, [n]his work [t]is perfect[2]: [1]for [p]all his ways [t]are [4]judgment[1]: [t]a God of [r]truth[1] and [r]without iniquity, just and right [t]is he.

5 [c]They have [6]corrupted themselves, [m]their spot is not the spot of[1] his children[2]:[1] they are a [b]perverse and crooked generation.

6 Do ye thus [c]require the LORD, O foolish people and unwise? [t]is not he [p]thy father [t]that hath [8y]bought thee? [p]hath he not[1] [h]made thee, and established thee[1]?

7 [o]¶[1] Remember the days of old, consider the years of [t]many generations: [m]ask thy father, and he will shew thee; [2]thy[1] elders, and they will tell thee.

8 When the Most High [3r]divided[1] to the nations their inheritance, when he [n]separated the [4]sons of Adam,[1] he set the bounds of the [5]people[1] according to the number of the children of Israel.

9 For [p]the LORD'S portion [t]is his people; Jacob [t]is the [u]lot of his inheritance.

10 He found him [b]in a desert land, and in the waste howling wilderness; he [6c]led[1] him about, he [7f]instructed[1] him, he [y]kept him as the apple of his eye[1]:

11 [b]As an eagle [y]stirreth up her nest, [y]fluttereth over her young, [1]spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings[1]:

12 [1]So the[1] LORD alone did lead him, and [t]there was no strange god with him.

13 [m]He made him ride on the high places of the earth, [2]that he might[1] eat the increase of the [2]fields[1]; and he made him to suck [b]honey out of the rock, and oil out of the flinty rock;

14 Butter of kine, and milk of sheep, with fat of lambs, and rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats, [c]with the fat of kidneys of wheat; and [4]thou didst drink the pure [y]blood of the grape.[1]

15 [6]¶[1] But [h]Jeshurun waxed fat, and [i]kicked: [k]thou art waxed fat, thou art grown thick, thou art [5]covered with fatness;[1] then he [y]forsook God [t]which [r]made him, and lightly esteemed the [m]Rock of his salvation.

16 [y]They [6]provoked[1] him to jealousy with strange gods, with abominations provoked they him to anger.

17 [c]They sacrificed unto [7]devils, [a]not to God;[1] to gods whom they knew not, to new gods [t]that came [8]newly up,[1] whom your fathers [y]feared[1] not.

18 [i]Of the Rock [t]that [1]begat thee thou art unmindful, and hast [k]forgotten God that [2]formed thee.[1]

19 [u]And [o]when[1] the LORD saw it, [3]he[1] [y]abhorred them, [y]because of the [4]provoking of his sons, and of[1] his daughters.

20 And he said, [1]I will hide my face from them, I will see what their end [t]shall be: for they [t]are a very froward generation, [z]children in whom [t]is no faith.

21 [c]They have moved me to jealousy with [t]that which is not God; they have provoked me to anger [c]with their vanities: and [d]I will move them to jealousy with [t]those which are not a people; I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.

22 For [i]a fire is kindled in mine anger, and [5k]shall burn[1] unto the lowest [6]hell,[1] and [t]shall consume[1] the earth with her increase, and [8]set[1]

23 I will [b]heap mischiefs upon them; [d]I will spend mine arrows upon them.[1]

24 They shall be [2]burnt[1] with hunger, and devoured with [3g]burning heat [4], and with[1] bitter destruction [5]: I will also send[1] [h]the teeth of beasts [6] upon them, with the poison of [7]serpents[1] of the dust.

25 [8i]The sword without, and terror[1] within, shall [m]destroy[1] both [o]the[1] young man and [o]the[1] virgin, the suckling [o]also[1] with the man of gray hairs.

26 [r]I said, I would scatter them [s]into corners,[1] I would make the remembrance of them to cease from among men:

27 Were it not that I feared the[1] wrath[1] of the enemy, lest their adversaries [x]should [2]behave themselves strangely, and[1] lest they should [y]say, [u]Our hand [3]is high,[1] and the LORD hath not done all this.

28 For they [t]are a nation void of counsel, [t c]neither is there any[1] understanding in them.

29 [5d]O that they were wise, [t]that they understood this, [t f]that they would consider their latter end!

30 How should [h]one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, except their Rock[1] had sold them, and the LORD had [e]shut[1] them up?

31 For [n]their rock [t]is not as our Rock, [p]even our enemies themselves [t]being judges.

32 For [q]their vine [t]is of the vine of Sodom, and of the fields of Gomorrah: their grapes [t]are grapes of [s]gall, their clusters [t]are bitter:

33 Their wine [t]is [u]the poison of dragons, and the cruel [y]venom of asps.

34 [t]Is not this [z]laid up in store with me, [o]and[1] sealed up [8]among my treasures?

35 [9a]To me belongeth vengeance,[1] and recompence[1]; their foot shall slide in due time[1]: for [c]the day of their calamity [t]is at hand, and the things that [2]shall[1] come upon them [3]make haste.

36 [d]For the LORD shall judge his people, [a]and repent himself for his servants[1],[1] when he seeth that their [c]power is gone, and [t c]there is none [2] shut up [3], or left.[1]

37 And he shall say, [f]Where [t]are their gods, [4]their[1] rock in [5]whom they trusted,[1]

38 Which did eat the fat of their sacrifices, and drank the wine of their drink [c]offerings[1]? let them rise up and help you, [7]and[1] be [k]your protection.

39 See now that [u]I, [t]even I, [t]am he, and [t p]there is no god with me: [q]I kill, and I make alive; I [8]wound,[1] and I heal: [9]neither is there any[1] that can deliver out of my hand.

40 [t]For I lift up my hand to heaven, and say, [1]I live for ever[2].[1]

41 [w]If I whet [5]my glittering sword, and mine hand take hold on [4]judgment[1]; [y]I will render vengeance to mine [5]enemies, and will reward[1] them that hate me.

42 I will make mine arrows [b]drunk with blood, and my sword shall devour flesh; [o]and that[1] with the blood of the slain and [o]of[1] the captives, [o]from [7]the beginning of [e]revenges upon[1] the enemy.

43 [3g]Rejoice, O [9]ye nations, with his people: for he will [i]avenge the blood of his servants, and [k]will render vengeance to his adversaries, and [m]will [1]be merciful unto his land, and to[1] his people.

44 ¶ And Moses came and spake all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he, and [t]Hoshea the son of Nun.

45 And Moses made an end of speaking all these words to all Israel:

46 And he said unto them, [x]Set your [2]hearts[1] unto all the words which I testify [3]among[1] you this day[4],[1] which ye shall command your children [5] to observe to do[9],[1] all the words of this law.

47 For it [c]is not a[1] vain thing for you; [b]because it [t]is your life[7]:[1] and through this thing ye shall prolong [t]your days [5]in[1] the land, whither ye go over Jordan to possess it.

CHAPTER 1.

°1 Joshua appointed to succeed Moses. 5, 9 God promiseth to assist Joshua. 10 Joshua prepareth the people to pass over Jordan.

NOW [1] after the death of Moses the servant of the LORD °it came to pass [1], that the LORD spake unto Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' [a] minister, saying,

2 [f] Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, thou, and all this people, unto the land which I do give to them, [t] even to the children of Israel.

3 [i] Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, [2] that have I given unto you, as I said [1] unto Moses.

4 [k] From the wilderness [3] and this Lebanon [3] even unto the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and unto the great sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your [4] coast.[1]

5 [m] °There shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life: [n] as I was with Moses, [t] so [p] I will be with thee: [q] I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

6 [t] Be strong and of a good courage: for [3 u] unto this people shalt thou divide for an inheritance the land, [1] which I sware unto their fathers to give them.

7 Only be [c] thou [1] strong and very courageous, [6] that thou mayest [1] observe to do according to all the law, [z] which Moses my servant commanded thee: [z] turn not from it [t] to the right hand or [t] to the left, that thou mayest [1 a] prosper [1] whithersoever thou goest.

8 [b] This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth [2];[1] but [c] thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt [c] have good success.

9 [g] Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; [h] be not [1] afraid, [1] neither be thou dismayed: for the LORD thy God [t] is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

10 ¶ Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying,

11 Pass through the [5] host, [1] and command the people, saying, Prepare you victuals; for [t] within three days ye [6] shall [1] pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land, which the LORD your God giveth you to possess it.

12 ¶ And to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to [7] half the [1] tribe of Manasseh, spake Joshua, saying, 13 Remember [7] the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, The LORD your God [8] hath given you rest, and hath given [1] you this land.

14 Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle, shall [9] remain [1] in the land which Moses gave you [1] on this side [1] Jordan; but ye shall pass [2] before your brethren [y] armed, all the mighty men of valour, and help them;

CHAPTER 2.

° 1 Rahab receiveth and conceraleth the two spies sent from Shittim. 8 The covenant between her and them. 23 Their return and relation.

AND Joshua the son of Nun [l] sent [m] out of Shittim two men [6] to spy secretly, saying, Go view the land, [7] even Jericho. And they went, and [z] came into [8] an harlot's house, named [q] Rahab, and [r] lodged there.

2 And [w] it was told the king of Jericho, saying, Behold, there came men in hither [9] to night of the children of Israel to search out the [1] country.

3 And the king of Jericho sent unto Rahab, saying, Bring forth the men that are come to thee, which are entered into thine house: for they be come to search out all the [1] country.

4 [a] And the woman took the two men, and hid them, and said thus, There came men unto me, but I wist not whence they †were:

5 And it came to pass †about the time of [3] shutting of the gate, when it was dark, that the men went out: whither the men went I wot not: pursue after them quickly; for ye shall overtake them.

6 But [a] she had brought them up to the roof [°] of the house, and hid them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order upon the roof.

7 And the men pursued after them the way to Jordan unto the fords: and as soon as they which pursued after them were gone out, they shut the gate.

8 ° ¶ And before they were laid down, she came up unto them upon the roof;

9 And she said unto the men, I know that the LORD hath given you the land, and that [d] your terror is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land [1] [e] faint because of you.

10 For we have heard how the LORD [f] dried up the water of the Red [2] sea for you, when ye came out of Egypt; and [g] what ye did unto the two kings of the Amorites, that [3] were on the other side Jordan, Sihon and Og, whom ye utterly destroyed.

11 And as soon as we had [h] heard †these things, [1] our hearts did melt, neither [k] did there remain any more [5] courage in any man, because of you: for [n] the LORD your God, he †is God in heaven above, and [6] in earth beneath.

12 Now therefore, I pray you, [t] swear unto me by the LORD, since I have [7] shewed you kindness, that ye will also shew kindness unto [z] my father's house, and [y] give me a true token:

13 And †that ye will save alive my father, and my mother, and my brethren, and my sisters, and all that they have, and [8] deliver our lives from death.

14 And the men [y] answered her, Our life [z] for yours, if ye utter not this our business. And it shall be, when the LORD [2] hath given us the land, that [b] we will deal kindly and truly with thee.

15 Then she [c] let them down by a cord through the window: for her house †was upon the town wall, and she dwelt upon the wall.

16 And she said unto them,

14 °¶[1] And it came to pass, when the people removed from their tents, to pass over Jordan, [4]and the priests bearing[1] the [c]ark of the covenant [5] before the people;
15 And [6]as[1] they that bare the ark were come unto Jordan, and [g] the feet of the priests that bare the ark were dipped in the [7]brim[1] of the water, (for [i]Jordan overfloweth all [8]his[1]

16 That the waters which came down from above [9]stood that [1]came[1] down [n]toward the sea of the [2]plain, even [p]the salt and the people passed over right against Jericho.

17 And the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the midst of Jordan, [q]and all [3]the Israelites[1] passed over on dry ground, until all the

AND it came to pass, when all the [4]people[1] were clean passed [r]over Jordan, that the LORD spake unto Joshua, saying,
2 [t]Take you twelve men out of the people, out of every tribe a man,

ing, Take you hence out of the place where [z]the priests' feet stood firm, twelve stones, and ° ye shall[1] carry them over with you, and [5]leave them[1] in [y] the lodging place, where ye shall lodge this night.

4 Then Joshua called the twelve men, whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of every tribe a man:
5 And Joshua said unto them,
Pass over before the ark of the LORD your God into the midst of Jordan, and take you up every man of you a stone upon his shoulder, according unto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel:
6 That this may be a sign among you, †that [u] when your children ask °their fathers[1] [f] in time to come, saying, What †mean ye by these stones?
7 Then ye shall [1]answer them,
That[1] [h] the waters of Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD;
when it passed over Jordan, the waters of Jordan were cut off: and these stones shall be for [i]a memorial unto the children of Israel for ever.
8 And the children of Israel
did so as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the midst of Jordan, as the LORD spake unto Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel[2], and[1] carried them over with them unto the place where they lodged, and laid them down there.
9 And Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests which bare the ark of the covenant stood: and they are there[5] unto this day.
10 °¶[1] For the priests which bare the ark stood in the midst was finished that the LORD commanded Joshua to speak

Joshua: and the people hasted

11 And it came to pass, when all the people were clean passed over, that the ark of the LORD passed over, and the priests, in the presence of the people.

AND it came to pass, when all the kings of the Amorites, which [1]were on the side of[1] Jordan westward, and all the kings of the Canaanites, [b]which †were by the sea, [c]heard [2] that the LORD had dried up the waters of Jordan from before the children of Israel, until [3]we were passed over, that their heart melted, [c]neither was there spirit in them any more, because of the children of Israel.

3 And Joshua made him [4]sharp knives,[1] and circumcised the children of Israel at [5]g the hill of the foreskins.

4 And this †is the cause why Joshua did circumcise: [6*t*]All[1] the people that came [7] out of Egypt, †that were males, †even all the men of war, died in the wilderness by the way, after they came [7] out of Egypt.

5 [8]Now[1] all the people that came out were circumcised: but all the people †that were born in the wilderness by the way as they came forth out of Egypt, [c]them[1] they had not circumcised.

6 For the children of Israel walked [q]forty years in the wilderness, till all the [9]people that were[1] men of war[c],[1] which came[7] out of Egypt, were consumed, because they [1]obeyed not[1] the voice of the LORD: unto whom the LORD sware that [u]he would not [2]shew them[1] the land[c],[1] which the LORD sware unto their fathers that he would give us, [x]a land [3]that floweth[1] with milk and honey.

7 And [z]their children, †whom he raised up in their stead, them [4]Joshua circumcised[1]: for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them by the way.

8 And it came to pass, [c]when they had done circumcising all the [5]people,[1] that they abode in their places in the camp, [f]till they were whole.

[3 A] he caused [4]compassed[1] the city, going

12 ¶ And Joshua rose early in the morning, [4]and the priests took up the ark of the LORD.

13 And [5] seven priests bearing
[5 A] the [5] seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD went on continually, and blew with the trumpets: and the armed

14 And the second day they compassed the city once, and returned into the camp: so they did six days.

15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they rose early [3]about[1] the dawning of the day, and compassed the city after the same manner seven times: only on that day they compassed the city seven times.

16 And it came to pass at the seventh time, when the priests blew with the trumpets, Joshua said unto the people, Shout; for the LORD hath given you the city.

17 ° ¶ And the city shall be [4]accursed, even it, and all that are therein,[1] to the LORD: only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all that [1]are with her in the house, because [h]she hid the messengers that we sent.

19 But all the silver, and gold, and vessels of brass and iron, [7]are [n]consecrated[1] unto the LORD: they shall come into the treasury of the LORD.

20 So the people shouted [8] when[1] the priests blew with the trumpets: and it came to pass, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, [9]and[1] the people shouted with a great shout, [1]that[1] [q]the wall fell down [2]°flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city.

22 [5]But Joshua had[1] said unto the two men that had spied out the [6]country,[1] Go into the harlot's house, and bring out thence the woman, and all that she hath, [a]as ye sware unto her.

24 And they burnt the city with fire, and all that [1]was therein: [d]only the silver, and the gold, and the vessels of brass and of iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD.

25 [2]And Joshua saved Rahab the harlot alive,[1] and her father's household, and all that she had [4]; and [e]she dwelleth in Israel even[1] unto this day; because she hid the messengers, which Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

let [a] about two or three thousand men go up and smite Ai; [c] and make not all the people to [1] labour thither; for they [t] are but few.

4 So there went up thither of the people about three thousand men: [c] and they fled before the men of Ai.

5 And the men of Ai smote of them about thirty and six men: [2] for they chased them from before the gate [t] even unto [3] Shebarim, and smote them [4] [e] in the going down: wherefore [f] the hearts of the people melted, and became as water.

6 ¶ [1] And Joshua [g] rent his clothes, and fell to the earth upon his face before the ark of the LORD until the [5] eventide, [1] he and the elders of Israel [6], and [1] put dust upon their heads.

7 And Joshua said, Alas, O Lord GOD, [t] wherefore hast thou at all brought this people over Jordan, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to [7] destroy us? would to God [1] we had been content [8], and dwelt on the other side [1] Jordan!

8 [g] O [1] Lord, what shall I say, [1] when Israel turneth [1] their [p] backs before their enemies!

9 For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land shall hear [t] of it, and shall [2] environ [1] us round, and [q] cut off our name from the earth: and [r] what wilt thou do [3] unto [1] thy great name?

10 ¶ [1] And the LORD said unto Joshua, Get thee up; wherefore [4] [u] liest thou thus [1] upon thy face?

11 [g] Israel hath sinned [5], and they have also [1] transgressed my covenant which I commanded them: [6] [b] for [1] they have even taken of the [7] accursed thing, [1] and have also stolen, and [c] dissembled also, and they have [8] put it even [1] among their own stuff.

12 [d] Therefore the children of Israel [9] could not [1] stand before their enemies, [1] but turned their [1] backs before their enemies, because [e] they [2] were accursed: neither will I [1] be with you any more, except ye destroy the [3] accursed [1] from among you.

13 Up, [g] sanctify the people, and say, [b] Sanctify yourselves against [1] to morrow [1]: for thus saith the LORD [2] God of Israel, [3] There is an accursed [1] thing in the midst of thee, O Israel: thou canst not stand before thine enemies, until ye take away the [4] accursed [1] thing from among you.

14 In the morning therefore ye shall be brought [5] according to [1] your tribes: and it shall be, [t] that the tribe which [d] the LORD taketh shall come [6] according to the families thereof; [1] and the family which the LORD shall take shall come [7] by households; and the household which the LORD shall take shall come [7] man by man.

15 [h] And it shall be, [t] that he that is taken with the [8] accursed [1] thing shall be burnt with fire, he and all that he hath: because he hath [k] transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he [m] hath wrought [n] folly in Israel.

16 ¶ So Joshua rose up early in the morning, and brought Israel [7] by their tribes; and the tribe of Judah was taken:

17 And he brought [7] the [9] family of Judah; and he took the family of the [1] Zarhites [1]: and he brought [2] the family of the [1] Zarhites [1] [2] man by man; and Zabdi was taken:

18 And he brought [2] his household man by man; and Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, [t] was taken.

19 And Joshua said unto Achan, My son, [x] give, I pray thee, glory to the LORD [4] God of Israel, [2] and [5] make confession unto him; and [a] tell me now what thou hast done; hide [t] it not from me.

20 And Achan answered Joshua, and said, [c] Indeed [1] I have sinned against the LORD [4] God of Israel, and thus and thus have I done:

21 When I saw among the [7] spoils [1] a goodly [8] Babylonish garment, [1] and two hundred shekels of silver, and a [f] wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted them, and took them; and, behold, they [t] are hid in the earth in the midst

AND the LORD said unto Joshua, [p] Fear not, neither be thou dismayed: take all the people of war with thee, and arise, go up to Ai: see, [q] I have given into thy hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land:

2 And thou shalt do to Ai and her king as thou didst unto [7] Jericho and her king: only [r] the spoil thereof, and the cattle thereof, shall ye take for a prey unto yourselves: [2 S set] [2] ²lay¹ thee an ambush for the city behind it.

3 °¶ ¹ So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up [1 S to 2 A men, the] ¹against¹ Ai: and Joshua chose out thirty thousand [2] mighty men of valour, and sent them ¹away¹ by night.

4 And he commanded them, saying, Behold, [s] ye shall lie in [2] wait¹ against the city, °*even*¹ behind the city: go not very far from the city, but be ye all ready:

5 And I, and all the people that † are with me, will approach unto the city: and it shall come to pass, when they come out against us, as at the first, that [t] we will flee before them[3], 6 (For¹ they will come out after us[4])¹ till we have [u] drawn them [5] from the city; for they will say, They flee before us, as at the first [6]: therefore¹ we will flee before them[7].

7 Then¹ ye shall rise up from the ambush, and [8] seize upon¹ the city: for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand.

8 And it shall be, when ye have [9] taken¹ the city, † that ye shall set the city on fire¹: according to the commandment¹ of the LORD shall ye do[2]. [i] See,¹ I have commanded you.

9 [3] ¶ Joshua therefore¹ sent them forth: and they went to ⁴lie in ambush,¹ and abode between Beth-el and Ai, on the west side of Ai: but Joshua lodged that night among the people.

10 [5] And Joshua rose up early in the morning, and [6] numbered¹ the people, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai.

11 [u] And all the people, even ⁷*the people* of¹ war that † were with him, went up, and drew nigh, and came before the city, and pitched on the north side of Ai: now † there was a valley between [8] them¹ and Ai.

when the king of Ai saw †it, that they hasted and rose up early, and the men of the city went out against Israel to battle, he and all his people, [1 s] at a time appointed, before the plain'; but he [a] wist not that there were liers in' ambush against him behind the city.

15 And Joshua and all Israel [b] made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness.

16 And all the people that [3 s] were in Ai' were called together to pursue after them: and they pursued after Joshua, and were drawn away from the city.

17 And there was not a man left in Ai or Beth-el, that went not out after Israel: and they left the city open, and pursued after Israel.

18 And the LORD said unto Joshua, Stretch out the [4 s] spear that is' in thy hand toward Ai; for I will give it into thine hand. And Joshua stretched out the [5 s] spear that he had' in his hand toward the city.

19 And the ambush arose quickly out of their place, and they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand [6 s]: and they' entered into the city, and took it[7], and' hasted and set the city on fire.

20 And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and, behold, the smoke of the city ascended up to heaven, and they had no [8 s] [i] power to flee this way or that way: and the people that fled to the wilderness turned back upon the pursuers.

21 And when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended, then they turned again, and slew the men of Ai.

22 And the other [9 s] issued' out of the city against them; so they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side: and they smote them, so that they [p] let none of them remain or escape.

23 And the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.

B.C. 1451.

24 And it came to pass, when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness wherein they 'chased' them, and [o] when' they were all fallen [o] on' the edge of the sword, until they were consumed, that all [3] the Israelites' returned unto Ai, and smote it with the edge of the sword.

25 And [o] so it was, that' all that fell that day, both of men and women, †were twelve thousand, †even all the men of Ai.

26 For Joshua drew not [4] his hand back,' wherewith he stretched out the [r] spear,' until he had [6] utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.

27 [c] Only the cattle and the spoil of that city Israel took for a prey unto themselves, according unto the word of the LORD which he [d] commanded Joshua.

28 [7] And' Joshua burnt Ai, and made it [s] an [8] heap for ever, †even a desolation [9] unto this day.

29 [f] And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree until [1] eventide: [g] and as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take' his carcase down from the tree, and cast it at the entering of the gate of the city, and [2 h] raise' thereon a great heap of stones, [o] that remaineth' unto this day.

AND it came to pass, when all the kings which [8] were on this side [1] Jordan, in the [9] hills, and in the valleys, and in all the coasts [1] of [p] the great sea [1] over against [1] Lebanon, [q] the Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, heard † thereof;

2 That they [r] gathered themselves together, to fight with Joshua and with Israel, with one [u] accord.

3 ¶ [2] And [1] when the inhabitants of [y] Gibeon [z] heard what Joshua had done unto Jericho and to Ai,

4 They [3] did work wilily, and went and [4] made as if they had been ambassadors, and took old sacks upon their asses, and [5] wine bottles, old, and rent, [1] and bound up;

5 And old shoes and clouted upon their feet, and old garments upon them; and all the bread of their provision was dry [6] and [1] mouldy.

6 And they went to Joshua [b] unto the camp at Gilgal, and said unto him, and to the men of Israel, We [7] be [1] come from a far country: now therefore make ye a [8] league [1] with us.

7 And the men of Israel said unto the [c] Hivites, Peradventure ye dwell among us; and [b] how shall we make a [1] league [1] with you?

8 And they said unto Joshua, [c] We † are thy servants. And Joshua said unto them, Who † are ye? and from whence come ye?

9 And they said unto him, [c] From a very far country thy servants are come because of the name of the LORD thy God: for we have [h] heard the fame of him, and all that he did in Egypt,

12 This our bread we took hot † for our provision out of our houses on the day we came forth to go unto you; but now, behold, it is dry, and [5] it is [1] mouldy:

13 And these [6] bottles of wine, [1] which we filled, † were new; and, behold, they be rent: and these our garments and our shoes are become old by reason of the very long journey.

15 And Joshua [a] made peace with them, and made a [8] league [1] with them, to let them live: and the princes of the congregation sware unto them.

LORD[1] God of Israel. And all the congregation murmured against the princes.

19 But all the princes said unto all the congregation, We have sworn unto them by the LORD[1] God of Israel: now therefore we may not touch them.

20 This we will do to them[2]; we will even let them live,[1] lest [d]wrath be upon us, because of the oath which we sware unto them.

21 And the princes said unto them, Let them live[3]; but let them be[1] [g]hewers of wood and drawers of water unto all the congregation; as the princes had [4h]promised[1] them.

22 °¶ [1] And Joshua called for them, and he spake unto them, saying, Wherefore have ye beguiled us, saying, [i]We †are very far from you; when [k]ye dwell among us?

23 Now therefore ye †are [l]cursed, and there [5]shall [m]none of you be freed from being bondmen, and[1] [p]hewers of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God.

24 And they answered Joshua, and said, Because it was certainly told thy servants, how that the LORD thy God [q]commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you[6], [r]therefore [s]we were sore afraid [7]of[1] our lives because of you, and have done this thing.

25 And now, behold, we †are [x]in thine hand: as it seemeth good and right unto thee to do unto us, do.

26 And so did he unto them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, that they slew them not.

27 And Joshua [z]made them that day [a]hewers of wood and drawers of water for the congregation, and for the altar of the LORD, °even[1] unto this day, [d]in the place which he should choose.

B.C. 1451.

NOW it came to pass, when [1]Adoni-zedec[1] king of Jerusalem °had[1] heard how Joshua had taken Ai, and had [2]utterly destroyed it; [a]as he had done to Jericho and her king, so he had done to [b]Ai and her king; and [c]how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them;

2 That they [e]feared greatly, because Gibeon †was a great city, as one of the [f]royal cities, and because it †was greater than Ai, and all the men thereof †were mighty.

3 Wherefore [3]Adoni-zedec[1] king of Jerusalem sent unto Hoham king of Hebron, and unto Piram king of Jarmuth, and unto Japhia king of Lachish, and unto Debir king of Eglon, saying,

4 Come up unto me, and help me, [4]that we may[1] smite Gibeon: [n]for it hath made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel.

5 Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, [r]gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their hosts, and encamped [5]before[1] Gibeon, and made war against it.

6 °¶ [1] And the men of Gibeon sent unto Joshua [u]to the camp to Gilgal, saying, Slack not thy hand from thy servants; come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us: for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the [6]mountains[1] are gathered together against us.

7 So Joshua [7]ascended[1] from Gilgal, he, and [y]all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valour.

8 °¶ [1] And the LORD said unto Joshua, [b]Fear them not: for I have delivered them into thine [8]hand[1]; [c]there shall not a man of them stand before thee.

9 Joshua therefore came [9]unto them suddenly, and[1] went up from Gilgal all [1] night.

10 And the LORD [c]discomfited them before Israel, and [2]slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them [3]along the way that goeth up [f]to[1]

11 And it came to pass, as they fled from before Israel, [1] and[1] were in the going down [2]to[1] Beth-horon, [c]that the LORD cast down great stones from heaven upon them unto Azekah, and they died: [†] they were more which died with [3] hailstones than [†] they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword.

12 ¶ Then spake Joshua to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel [4],[1] and he said in the sight of Israel, [5d] Sun, [6e] stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of [7f] Ajalon.[1]

13 And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the [8] people[1] had avenged themselves [9] upon[1] their enemies. [†] [h] Is not this written in the book of [1i] Jasher? So the sun stood still[1] in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day.

14 And there was [l] no day like that before it or after it, that the LORD hearkened unto the voice of a man: for [n] the LORD fought for Israel.

15 ¶ [p] And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal.

16 [2] But[1] these five kings fled, and hid themselves in [3] a[1] cave at Makkedah.

17 And it was told Joshua, saying, The five kings are [4] found hid in a[1] cave at Makkedah.

18 And Joshua said, Roll great stones [5] upon[1] the mouth of the cave, and set men by it for to keep them:

19 [6] And stay ye not, but[1] pursue after your enemies, and [r] smite the hindmost of them; suffer them not to enter into their cities: for the LORD your God hath delivered them into your hand.

20 And it came to pass, when Joshua and the children of Israel had made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, till they were consumed, [7] that the rest which remained of them entered into fenced cities.

21 And[1] all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace: [b] none [1] moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel.

22 Then said Joshua, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring [2] out[1] those five kings unto me out of the cave.

23 And they did so, and brought forth those five kings unto him out of the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, [c] and[1] the king of Eglon.

24 And it came to pass, when they brought [2] out[1] those kings unto Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said unto the [3] captains[1] of the men of war which went with him, Come near, [g] put your feet upon the necks of these kings. And they came near, and put their feet upon the necks of them.

25 And Joshua said unto them, [k] Fear not, nor be dismayed [4],[1] be strong and of good courage: for [m] thus shall the LORD do to all your enemies against whom ye fight.

26 And afterward Joshua smote them, and [5] slew them,[1] and hanged them on five trees: and they [q] were hanging upon the trees until the evening.

27 And it came to pass at the time of the going down of the sun, [†] that Joshua commanded, and they [r] took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave wherein they had [6] been hid,[1] and laid great stones [7] in the cave's mouth, which remain until[1] this very day.

[o]1 Divers kings overcome at the waters of Merom. 10 Hazor is taken and burnt. 16 All the country taken by Joshua. 21 The Anakims cut off.[1]

AND it came to pass, when Jabin king of Hazor [6]had heard those things,[1] that he [c]sent to Jobab king of Madon, and to the king [7]of Shimron, and to the king of Achshaph,

4 And they went out, they and all their hosts with them, much people, [n]even as the sand that †is upon the sea shore in multitude, with horses and chariots very many.

5 And [o]when[1] all these kings [o]were[1] [q]met together [3],[1] they came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, to fight [4]against[1] Israel.

7 So Joshua came, and all the people of war with him, against them by the waters of Merom suddenly[1]; and they[1] fell upon them.

8 And the LORD delivered them into the hand of Israel, [2]who[1] smote them, and chased them unto [c]great Zidon, and unto [f]Misrephoth-maim, and unto the valley of Mizpeh eastward; and they smote them, until they left them none remaining.

9 And Joshua did unto them [i]as the LORD bade him: he houghed their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire.

10 ¶ And Joshua [3]at that time turned back,[1] and took Hazor, and smote the king thereof with the sword: for Hazor beforetime was the head of all those kingdoms.

11 And they smote all the souls that [t]were therein with the edge of the sword, [4]utterly destroying [t]them: there was [5]not [m]any left to breathe[1]: and he burnt Hazor with fire.

12 And all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them, did Joshua take, and [6]smote them with the edge of the sword, [7]and he[1] [8]utterly destroyed them[9],[1] [n]as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded.

13 But [t]as for the cities that stood [1]still [r]in their strength,[1] Israel burned none of them, save Hazor only; [t]that did Joshua burn.

14 And all the spoil of these cities, and the cattle, the children of Israel took for a prey unto themselves; but every man they smote with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, neither left they any [2]to breathe.[1]

15 [o]¶[1] [y]As the LORD commanded Moses his servant, so [z]did Moses command Joshua[3],[1] and [a]so did Joshua; [4][b]he left nothing undone of all that the LORD commanded Moses.

16 [5] So Joshua took all that land, [c]the [6]hills, and all the south country,[1] [y]and all the land of Goshen, and the [7]valley, and the plain, and the mountain[1] of Israel, and the [1]valley[1] of the same;

17 [2][b]Even from [c]the mount Halak,[1] that goeth up to Seir, even unto Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon under mount Hermon: and [d]all their kings he took, and smote them, and [3]slew them.[1]

18 Joshua made war a long time with all those kings.

19 There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, save [g]the Hivites the inhabitants of Gibeon: [4]all other they took[1] in battle.

20 For [h]it was of the LORD to [5]harden their hearts, [6]that they should[1] come against Israel in battle, that he might [7]destroy them utterly, and[1] that they [3]might have no favour, but that he might destroy them, [k]as the LORD commanded Moses.

21 ¶ And [9]at that time came Joshua,[1] and cut off [l]the [1]Anakims[1] from the [2]mountains[1], from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the [2]mountains[1] of Judah, and from all the [2]mountains[1] of Israel: Joshua [3]destroyed them utterly[1] with their cities.

22 There was none of the [1]Anakims[1] left in the land of the children of Israel: only in Gaza, in [p]Gath, [q]and in Ashdod, [4]there remained.[1]

23 So Joshua took the whole land, [7]according to all that the LORD [5]said[1] unto Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance unto Israel [u]according to their divisions by their tribes. [x]And the land [6]rested[1] from war.

32 [7]These are the countries which Moses did distribute for inheritance [1] in the plains of Moab, [8]on the other side Jordan, by [1] Jericho, eastward.

33 [i]But unto the tribe of Levi Moses gave [8]not any [1] inheritance: the LORD [1] God of Israel was [1] their inheritance, [m]as he [2]said [1] unto them.

CHAPTER 14.

[o]1 The nine tribes and a half to have their inheritance by lot. 6 Caleb by privilege obtaineth Hebron.

AND these [3]are the countries [1] which the children of Israel [4]inherited [1] in the land of Canaan, [q]which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the [5]fathers [1] of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed [6]for inheritance to them.

2 [r]By lot was [1] their inheritance, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and [†]for the half tribe.

3 [x]For Moses had given the inheritance of [7] two tribes and [8]an half tribe on the other side [1] Jordan: but unto the Levites he gave none inheritance among them.

4 For [b]the children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim: [9]therefore they gave no part [1] unto the Levites in the land, save cities to dwell [1]in, with their suburbs [1] for their cattle and for their substance.

5 [y]As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land.

6 ¶ Then the children of Judah [2]came [1] unto Joshua in Gilgal: and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the [3x]Kenezite [1] said unto him, Thou knowest [a]the thing that the LORD [1]said [1] unto Moses the man of God concerning me and [2]thee [c]in Kadesh-barnea.

7 Forty years old [†]was I when Moses the servant of the LORD [c]sent me from Kadesh-barnea to [3]espy [1] out the land; and I brought him word again as [†]it was in mine heart.

8 Nevertheless [f]my brethren that went up with me made the heart of the people melt: but I wholly [h]followed the LORD my God.

9 And Moses sware on that day, saying, [i]Surely the land [k]whereon thy [4]feet have [1] trodden shall be [5]thine inheritance, and thy children's [1] for ever, because thou hast wholly followed the LORD my God.

10 And now, behold, the LORD hath kept me alive, [n]as he [6]said, [1] these forty and five years, [7]even since [1] the LORD spake this word unto Moses, while [8]the children of Israel [p]wandered [1] in the wilderness: and now, lo, I [†]am this day fourscore and five years old.

11 [7]As yet I [†]am as strong this day as [†]I was in the day that Moses sent me: as my strength [†]was then, even so [†]is my strength now, for war, [9]both [1] [u]to go out[6], [1] and to come in.

12 Now therefore give me this mountain, whereof the LORD spake in that day; for thou heardest in that day how [y]the [1]Anakims were there, and that the cities were great and fenced: [z]if so be [1] the LORD [†]will be with me, [2]then [a]I shall be able to [1] drive them out, as the LORD [1]said.[1]

13 And Joshua [c]blessed him[4], [d]and gave [1] unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh [o]Hebron [1] for an inheritance.

14 [5e]Hebron therefore [1] became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the [6]Kenezite [1] unto this day[7], [1] because that he [y]wholly followed the LORD[8] God of Israel.

15 [9]And [1] [k]the name of Hebron [1] before was Kirjath-arba[1]; which Arba was [2]a great [1] man among the [3]Anakims. [1] [i]And the land had rest from war.

9 And the border was drawn from the top of the hill unto the fountain of the water of Nephtoah, and went out to the cities of mount Ephron; and the border was drawn to Baalah, which is Kirjath-jearim:

10 And the border compassed from Baalah westward unto mount Seir, and passed along unto the side of mount Jearim, which is Chesalon, on the north side, and went down to Beth-shemesh, and passed on to Timnah:

11 And the border went out unto the side of Ekron northward: and the border was drawn to Shicron, and passed along to mount Baalah, and went out unto Jabneel; and the goings out of the border were at the sea.

12 And the west border was to the great sea, and the coast thereof. This is the coast of the children of Judah round about according to their families.

13 ¶ And unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh he gave a part among the children of Judah, according to the commandment of the LORD to Joshua, even the city of Arba the father of Anak, which city is Hebron.

14 And Caleb drove thence the three sons of Anak, Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai, the children of Anak.

16 ○¶ And Caleb said, He that smiteth Kirjath-sepher, and taketh it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife.

17 And Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife.

18 And it came to pass, as she came unto him, that she moved him to ask of her father a field: and she lighted off her ass; and Caleb said unto her, What wouldest thou?

4 [7 k]So[1] the children of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, took their inheritance.

5 ¶ And the border of the children of Ephraim according to their families was thus: even the border of their inheritance [5]on the east side[1] was [m]Ataroth-addar, [n]unto Beth-horon the upper;

6 And the border went out [p]toward the sea to [p]Michmethah on the north side[1]; and the border [1]went[1] about eastward unto Taanath-shiloh, and passed [2]by[1] it on the east [3]to Janohah[1];

7 And it went down from [4]Janohah[1] to Ataroth, [r]and to [5]Naarath, and came to[1] Jericho, and went out at Jordan.

8 [6]The border went out from Tappuah westward unto the [u]river[1] Kanah; and the goings out thereof were at the sea. This [t]is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim [7]by[1] their families[8].

9 And [x]the separate cities[1] for the children of Ephraim [9]were among[1] the inheritance of the children of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages.

10 [z]And they drave not out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer: but the Canaanites [1]dwell among the Ephraimites[1] unto this day, and [2]serve under tribute.[1]

CHAPTER 17.

○ 1 The lot of Manasseh. 7 His coast. 12 The Canaanites not driven out. 14 The children of Joseph obtain another lot.[1]

3 [3]THERE was also a[1] lot for the tribe of Manasseh; for he [t]was the [v]firstborn of Joseph[1]; to wit,[1] for [y]Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead[1]:[1] because he was a man of war, therefore he had [w]Gilead and Bashan.

2 [2]There was also a lot[1] for [b]the rest of the children of Manasseh [3]by[1] their families; [d]for the children of [e]Abiezer, and for the children of Helek, [f]and for the children of Asriel, and for the children of Shechem, [h]and for the children of Hepher, and for the children of Shemida: these [t]were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph [3]by[1] their families.

3 ○ ¶ But [1]Zelophehad, the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters: and these [t]are the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

4 And they came near before [q]Eleazar the priest, and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, [7]The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brethren[4]. Therefore[1] according to the commandment of the LORD he gave them an inheritance among the brethren of their father.

5 And there fell ten [5]portions[1] to Manasseh, beside the land of Gilead and Bashan, which [6]were on the other side[1] Jordan;

6 Because the daughters of Manasseh had an inheritance among his sons: and the [7]rest of Manasseh's sons had the land of Gilead.[1]

7 ○ ¶ And the [8]coast[1] of Manasseh was from Asher to [9]Michmethah, that lieth[1] before Shechem; and the border went along [1]on[1] the right hand[2] unto the inhabitants of En-tappuah.

8 [3]Now Manasseh had the land of Tappuah[1]: but [a]Tappuah on the border of Manasseh [t]belonged to the children of Ephraim[1];[1]

9 And the [5]coast descended [b]unto the [c]river[1] Kanah, southward of the [6]river[1]: [d]these cities [7]of Ephraim are[1] among the cities of Manasseh: [8]the coast of Manasseh also [w]was[1] on the north side of the [9]river,[1]

10 °¶[1] And Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD: and there Joshua divided the land unto the children of Israel according to their divisions.

12 [e]And their border on the north [7]side[1] was from Jordan; and the border went up to the [8]side of Jericho on the north °side[1], and went up through the [9]mountains[1] westward; and the goings out thereof were at the wilderness of Beth-aven.

13 And the border [10]went over from thence toward[1] Luz, to the [8]side of Luz[11], [f]which is Beth-el,[1] southward; and the border [12]descended to Ataroth-adar, near the hill[1] that †lieth on the south [13]side [g]of the nether Beth-horon.[1]

20 [f] Did not Achan the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the [8]accursed [1] thing, and wrath fell [9]on [1] all the congregation of Israel? and that man perished not alone in his iniquity.

25 For the LORD hath made Jordan a border between us and you, ye children of Reuben and children of Gad; ye have no [4]part [1] in the LORD: so shall your children make our children cease from fearing the LORD.

26 Therefore we said, Let us now prepare to build us an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice:

27 But [1] that it may be [1] [b] a witness between us [9], [1] and you, and [2]our generations after us, that we [3]might [1] [c]do the service of the LORD before him with our burnt offerings, and with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings; that your children may not say to our children in time to come, Ye have no [4]part [1] in the LORD.

28 Therefore said we, [5]that it [1] shall be, when they [6]should so [1] say to us or to our generations in time to come, that we [7]may say again, [1] Behold the pattern of the altar of the LORD, which our fathers made, not for burnt [5]offerings, nor for sacrifices [1]; but it †is a witness between us and you.

AND it came to pass [4] a long time after that [1] the LORD [m] had given rest unto Israel from all their enemies round about, [5] that Joshua [n] waxed old and [q] stricken in age.

2 And [1] Joshua [r] called for all Israel, [o] and[1] for their elders [o], and for their heads, and for their judges [o], [1] and for their officers, and said unto them, I am old [6] and stricken in age[1]:

3 And ye have seen all that the LORD your God hath done unto all these nations because of you; for the [x] LORD your God[1] is he[1] that hath fought for you.

4 Behold, [z] I have [8] divided unto you by lot[1] these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, even unto the great sea [9 b] westward.[1]

5 And the LORD your God, [c] he shall [1] expel them[1] from before you, and drive them from out of your sight; and ye shall possess their land, [c] as the LORD your God [2] hath promised[1] unto you.

6 [2 g] Be ye therefore[1] very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, [h] that ye turn not aside therefrom [1] to the right hand or [1] to the left;

7 That ye [i] come not among these nations, these that remain among you; neither [k] make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear by them, neither serve them, nor bow [1] yourselves unto them:

8 "But [b] cleave unto the LORD your God, as ye have done unto this day.

9 [d] For the LORD hath driven out from before you great nations and strong: but [1] as for you, [e] no man hath [2] been able to stand [1] before you unto this day.

10 [g] One man of you [3] shall chase a thousand: for the LORD your God, he [1] it is that fighteth for you, [h] as he [4] hath promised[1] you.

11 [i] Take good heed therefore unto [k] yourselves, that ye love the LORD your God.

12 Else if ye do in any wise [l] go back, and cleave unto the remnant of these nations, [1] even these that remain among you, and [o] shall[1] [p] make marriages with them, and go in unto them, and they to you:

13 Know for a certainty that [r] the LORD your God will no more drive [5] out any of these nations from before you[1]; "but they shall be [6] snares and traps unto you, and scourges [1] in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until ye perish from off this good land which the LORD your God hath given you.

14 And, behold, this day [y] I [1] am going the way of all the earth: and ye know in all your hearts and in all your souls, that [a] not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spake concerning you; all are come to pass unto you, [o] and[1] not one thing hath failed thereof.

15 [7 a] Therefore[1] it shall come to pass, [8] that as all[1] good things are come upon [9] you,[1] which the LORD your God [1] promised you;[1] so shall the LORD bring upon you [7] all [2] evil things, until he have destroyed you from off this good land which the LORD your God hath given you.

AND Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to [c] Shechem, and [g] called for the elders of Israel, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers; and they [i] presented themselves before God.

2 And Joshua said unto all the people, Thus saith the LORD [1] God of Israel, [k] Your fathers dwelt [2] on the other side of the flood in old time, even [1] Terah, the father of Abraham, and the father of [3] Naehor [1]: and [m] they served other gods.

3 And [p] I took your father Abraham from [4] the other side of the flood,[1] and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed, and [r] gave him Isaac.

4 And I gave unto Isaac [t] Jacob and Esau: and I gave unto [u] Esau mount Seir, to possess it; [5 v] but[1] Jacob and his children went down into Egypt.

5 [5 b] I sent Moses also[1] and Aaron, and [c] I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did [7] among them[1]: and afterward I brought you out.

6 And I [f] brought your fathers out of Egypt: and [g] ye came unto the sea; [d] and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and [8] horsemen unto the Red [9] sea.[1]

7 And when they [m] cried [1] unto the LORD, [h] he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, [p] and brought the sea upon them, and covered them; and [q] your eyes [2] have seen what I have done[1] in Egypt: and ye dwelt in the wilderness [3 r] a long season.[1]

8 And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt [4] on the other side[1] Jordan; [t] and they fought with you: and I gave them into your hand, [1] that ye might possess[1] their land; and I destroyed them from before you.

9 Then [a] Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and [2] warred against Israel, and[1] [b] sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you:

10 [c] But I would not hearken unto Balaam; [a] therefore he blessed you still: so I delivered you out of his hand.

11 And [f] ye went over Jordan, and came unto Jericho: and [h] the men of Jericho fought against you, the [3] Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; and I delivered them into your hand.

12 And [1] I sent the hornet before you, which drave them out from before you, [1] even the two kings of the Amorites; °but[1] [n] not with thy sword, nor with thy bow.

13 And I [4] have given you a land for which ye did not labour,[1] and [q] cities which ye built not, and ye dwell [5] in them; of the[1] vineyards and oliveyards which ye planted not do ye eat.

14 °¶ [1] [z] Now therefore fear the LORD, and serve him in [z] sincerity and in truth: and [a] put away the gods which your fathers served [c] on the other side of the flood,[1] and [d] in Egypt; and serve ye the LORD.

15 And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, [e] choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether [h] the gods which your fathers served that [7] were on the other side of the flood,[1] or [k] the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: [i] but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

16 And the people answered and said, God forbid that we should forsake the LORD, to serve other gods;

17 For the LORD our God, he [i] it is that brought us [3] up and our fathers[1] out of the land of Egypt, from the house of [9] bondage, and [1] which[1] did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the

[a] asked [1]the LORD, saying, Who shall go up for us [2] against the Canaanites °first', to fight against them?

2 And the LORD said, [b]Judah shall go up: behold, I have delivered the land into his hand.

3 And Judah said unto Simeon his brother, Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and [a]I likewise will go with thee into thy lot. So Simeon went with him.

4 And Judah went up; and the LORD delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand: and they [1]slew[1] of them in [a]Bezek ten thousand men.

5 And they found Adoni-bezek in Bezek: and they fought against him, and they [1]slew[1] the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

6 But Adoni-bezek fled; and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his great toes.

7 And Adoni-bezek said, Threescore and ten kings, having [k]their thumbs and their great toes cut off, [l]gathered their meat under my table: [m]as I have done, so God hath requited me. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and [2]there he died.

8 Now [q]the children of Judah [o]had[1] fought against Jerusalem, and [3]had taken it, and smitten[1] it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire.

9 [o]¶[1] [m]And afterward the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites [o],[1] that dwelt in the [4]mountain,[1] and in the [5]south, and in the [2]valley.[1]

10 [6]And Judah went against the Canaanites that dwelt in Hebron: (now the name of Hebron [7]before was [a]Kirjath-arba:) and they slew[1] Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai.

11 [b]And from thence he went against the inhabitants of Debir[3]: and[1] the name of Debir [9]before was Kirjath-sepher:[1] 12 [d]And Caleb said, He that smiteth [1]Kirjath-sepher,[1] and taketh it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife.

13 And Othniel the son of Kenaz, [g]Caleb's younger brother, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife.

14 [g]And it came to pass, when she came [2]to[1] him, that she moved him to ask of her father a field: and she lighted [3]from off [t]her ass; and Caleb said unto her, What [1]wilt[1] thou?

15 And she said unto him, [b]Give me a [2]blessing: for thou hast given me a south land;[1] give me also springs of water. And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the nether springs.

16 ¶ [c]And the children of the Kenite, Moses' [3]father in law,[1] went up out [c]of [4]the city of palm trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which [5]lieth[1] in the south of [f]Arad; [g]and they went and dwelt [6]among[1] the people.

17 [h]And Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they [7]slew[1] the Canaanites that inhabited Zephath, and [8]utterly destroyed it. And the name of the city was called [9]t[1] Hormah.

18 Also Judah took [m]Gaza with the [1]coast[1] thereof, and [2]Askelon[1] with the [1]coast[1] thereof, and Ekron with the [1]coast[1] thereof.

19 And [p]the LORD was with Judah; and [r]he drave out the inhabitants of the [3]mountain; but[1] could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had [t]chariots of iron.

20 [x]And they gave Hebron unto Caleb, as Moses [4]said: and he expelled[1] thence the three sons of Anak.

21 [y]And the children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites that inhabited Jerusalem[5];[1] but the Jebusites [6]dwell[1] with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem [7]unto this day.

22 ¶ And the house of Joseph, they also went up against Bethel: [c]and the LORD [t]was with them.

23 And the house of Joseph [g]sent to [8]descry[1] Beth-el. (Now the name of the city [9]before was[1] [f]Luz.)

24 And the [1]spies[1] saw a man come forth out of the city, and they said unto him, Shew us, we pray thee, the entrance into the city, and [h]we will [2]shew thee mercy.[1]

25 And [o]when[1] he shewed them the entrance into the city, [3]they smote the city with

CHAPTER 2.

[o] 1 An angel rebuketh the people at Bochim. 6 The wickedness of the new generation. 14 God's anger and pity. 20 The Canaanites left to prove Israel.

AND [5] an [e] angel [1] of the LORD came up from Gilgal [f] to Bochim [s], and [1] said, I made you to go up out of Egypt, and have brought you unto the land which I sware unto your fathers; and [g] I said, I will never break my covenant with you [7]:

2 And [h] ye shall make no [8] league [1] with the inhabitants of this land; [i] ye shall [9] throw [1] down their altars: [k] but ye have not [1] obeyed [1] my voice: why have ye done this?

3 Wherefore I also said, I will not drive them out from before you; but they [2] shall be [3m] [o] as thorns in your sides, and [n] their gods shall be a [p] snare unto you.

4 And it came to pass, when the angel of the LORD spake these words unto all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voice, and wept.

5 And they called the name of that place [t] Bochim: and they sacrificed there unto the LORD.

6 ¶ [5] And [1] when [x] Joshua had [6] let the people go, [1] the children of Israel went every man unto his inheritance to possess the land.

thers: and there arose another generation after them, which [b]knew not the LORD, nor yet the [1]works which he had done[1] for Israel.

11 ¶ And the children of Israel did [2] evil in the sight of the LORD, and served [3] Baalim:
12 And they [d]forsook the LORD[4] God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed [f]other gods, of the gods of the [5]people[1] that [t]were round about them, and [h]bowed themselves [6]unto them, and[1] provoked the LORD to anger.
13 And they forsook the LORD, [t]and served Baal and [7] Ashtaroth.
14 [o]¶[1] [m]And the anger of the LORD was [8]hot[1] against Israel, and he [p]delivered them into the hands of spoilers that spoiled them, and [q]he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they [r]could not any longer stand before their enemies.
15 Whithersoever they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them for evil, as the LORD had [9]said,[1] and [t]as the LORD had sworn unto them: and they were [1]greatly distressed.
16 ¶ Nevertheless[1] [z]the LORD raised up judges, which [2y]delivered[1] them out of the hand of those that spoiled them.
17 And yet they [3]would not hearken unto their judges, but[1] they [z]went a whoring after other gods, and bowed themselves [4]unto them: they turned [5]quickly out of the way [6]which[1] their fathers walked [o]in[1], obeying the commandments of the LORD; but they did not so.
18 And when the LORD raised them up judges, then [b]the LORD was with the judge, and [7]delivered[1] them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge: [a]for it repented the LORD because of their [8]groanings[1] by reason of them that oppressed them and vexed them.
19 [9]And[1] it came to pass, [f]when the judge was dead, [1]that they returned, and [g]corrupted themselves more[1] than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down unto them; [1][a]they ceased not from their [o]own[1] doings, nor from their stubborn way.
20 [o]¶[1] [e]And the anger of the LORD was [2]hot[1] against Israel; and he said, Because [3]that this people hath[1] [e]transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not hearkened unto my voice;
21 [g]I also will not henceforth drive out any from before them of the nations which Joshua left when he died:
22 [i]That [4]through[1] them I may [k]prove Israel, whether they will keep the way of the LORD to walk therein, as their fathers did keep[1] it, or not.
23 [5]Therefore[1] the LORD [n]left those nations, without driving them out hastily; neither delivered he them into the hand of Joshua.

7 [2] [a]And the children of Israel did [3] evil in the sight of the LORD, and forgat the LORD their God, [b] and served [4] Baalim and [c] the groves.'

8 ¶ Therefore the anger of the LORD was [5] hot' against Israel, and he [d] sold them into the hand of [6 d] Chushan-rishathaim' king of [7 h] Mesopotamia: and the children of Israel served [6] Chushan-rishathaim' eight years.

9 And when the children of Israel [8] cried unto the LORD, the LORD [i] raised up a [8 m] deliverer' to the children of Israel, who [9] delivered' them, [†even] [n] Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother.

10 And [p] the [1] Spirit' of the LORD [q] came upon him, and he judged Israel [2], and' went out to war [3]:' and the LORD delivered [4] Chushan-rishathaim' king of [5 r] Mesopotamia into his hand [6];' and his hand prevailed against [4] Chushan-rishathaim'.

11 And the land had rest forty years. And Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

12 ¶ [u] And the children of Israel [7] did evil again' in the sight of the LORD: and the LORD strengthened [z] Eglon the king of Moab against Israel, because they had done [8] evil in the sight of the LORD.

13 And he gathered unto him the children of Ammon and [2] Amalek [9], and' went and smote Israel, and' possessed [a] the city of palm trees.

14 [2] So' the children of Israel [b] served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years.

15 But when the children of Israel [c] cried unto the LORD, the LORD raised them up a [3] deliverer,' Ehud the son of Gera, [4 d] a' Benjamite, a man [e] lefthanded: and [9] by him' the children of Israel sent a present [5] unto Eglon the king of Moab.

17 And he [9] brought' the present unto Eglon king of Moab: and' Eglon [†was] a very fat man.

18 And when he had made an end [2] to offer' the present, he sent away the people that bare the present.

19 But he himself turned [3] again' [d] from the [4 c] quarries that [†were] by Gilgal, and said, I have a secret errand unto thee, O king [5]: who' said, Keep silence. And all that stood by him went out from him.

20 And Ehud came unto him; and he was sitting [6] in [i] a summer parlour, which he had for himself alone.' And Ehud said, I have a message from God unto thee. And he arose out of [†his] seat.

21 And Ehud put forth his left hand, and took the [7] dagger' from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly:

22 And the haft also went in after the blade; and the fat closed upon the blade, [8] so that he could not draw the dagger' out of his belly; and [9 f] the dirt came out.'

29 And they [2] slew [1] of Moab at that time about ten thousand men, [2] all [b] lusty, and all men [1] of valour; and there escaped not a man.

30 So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And [d] the land had rest fourscore years.

31 ¶ And after him was [c] Shamgar the son of Anath, which [2] slew [1] of the Philistines six hundred men [g] with an ox goad: [h] and he also [4] delivered [1] [k] Israel.

CHAPTER 4.

[o] 1 Deborah and Barak deliver them from Jabin and Sisera. 18 Jael killeth Sisera.[1]

AND [n] the children of Israel again did [5] evil in the sight of the LORD, when Ehud was dead.

2 And the LORD [q] sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, that reigned in [r] Hazor; the captain of whose host [t] was [r] Sisera, which dwelt in [r] Harosheth of the [6] Gentiles.

3 And the children of Israel cried unto the LORD: for he had nine hundred [g] chariots of iron; and twenty years [2] he mightily oppressed the children of Israel.

4 ¶ [7] And [1] Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of [8] Lapidoth,[1] she judged Israel at that time.

5 [9] And she [9] dwelt under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Beth-el in [1] mount[1] Ephraim: and the children of Israel came up to her for [2] judgment.[1]

6 And she sent and called [d] Barak the son of Abinoam out [e] of Kedesh-naphtali, and said unto him, Hath not the LORD [2] God of Israel [4] commanded, saying, Go and draw [5] toward [1] mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun?

7 And [f] I will draw unto thee to the [g] river Kishon Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his multitude; and I will deliver him into thine hand.

8 And Barak said unto her, If thou wilt go with me, then I will go: but if thou wilt not go with me, [o] then [1] I will not go.

9 And she said, I will surely go with thee: notwithstanding the journey that thou takest shall not be for thine honour; for the LORD shall [c] sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh.

10 [o] ¶ [1] And Barak called [f] Zebulun and Naphtali [1] to Kedesh; and [2] he went up with [1] ten thousand men [t] at his feet: and Deborah went up with him.

11 Now Heber [t] the Kenite [3], which was of [1] the children of [m] Hobab the [4] father in law of Moses, had severed himself from the Kenites, and [1] pitched his tent [5] unto the plain of Zaanaim,[1] [p] which [t] is by Kedesh.

12 And they [6] shewed [1] Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam was gone up to mount Tabor.

13 And Sisera [u] gathered together all his chariots, [t] even nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people that [t] were with him, from Harosheth of the [7] Gentiles [8] unto the river [o] of [1] Kishon.

14 And Deborah said unto Barak, Up; for this [t] is the day in which the LORD hath delivered Sisera into thine hand: [a] is not the LORD gone out before thee? So Barak went down from mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him.

15 And [c] the LORD discomfited Sisera, and all [t] his chariots, and all [t] his host, with the edge of the sword before Barak; [9] so that [1] Sisera lighted down [1] off [t] his[1] chariot, and fled away on his feet.

16 But Barak pursued after the chariots, and after the host, unto Harosheth of the [2] Gentiles: and all the host of Sisera fell [3] upon [1] the edge of the sword; [o] and [1] there was not [h] a man left.

17 [4] Howbeit Sisera fled away on his feet to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite: for [t]there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.

18 [o] ¶ [1] And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said unto him, Turn in, my lord, turn in to me; fear not. And [1] when he had [1] turned in unto her into the tent, [2] she covered him with a [3] mantle.[1]

19 And he said unto her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water to drink; for I am thirsty. And she opened [t]a bottle of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him.

20 [4] Again [1] he said unto her, Stand in the door of the tent, and it shall be, when any man doth come and [5] enquire [1] of thee, and say, Is there any man here? that thou shalt say, No.

21 Then Jael Heber's wife [r] took a [6] nail of the tent, [1] and [t] took an hammer in her hand, and went softly unto him, and smote the [7] nail [1] into his temples, and [8] fastened it [1] into the ground: [s] for he was [1] fast asleep and weary. So he died.[1]

22 And, behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said unto him, Come, and I will shew thee the man whom thou seekest. And [2] when he came into her tent, [1] behold, Sisera lay dead, and the [3] nail [1] [t]was in his temples.

23 So [b] God subdued on that day Jabin the king of Canaan before the children of Israel.

24 And the hand of the children of Israel [4c] prospered, and prevailed [1] against Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.

CHAPTER 5.

[o] The song of Deborah and Barak.[1]

THEN [g] sang Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam on that day, saying,

2 [5,6] Praise ye the LORD for the [k] avenging of Israel, [l] when the people willingly offered themselves.[1]

3 [m] Hear, O ye kings; give ear, O ye princes; I, even I, will sing [t]praise to the LORD [7] God of Israel.

4 LORD, [a] when thou wentest [1] out of Seir, when thou marchedst out of the field of Edom, [b] the earth trembled, [2] and the heavens dropped, the clouds also [1] dropped water.

5 [c] The mountains [3d] melted from before the LORD, even [c] that Sinai from before the LORD [1] God of Israel.

6 In the days of [g] Shamgar the son of Anath, in the days of [h] Jael, [4i] the highways were [1] unoccupied, and the [k] travellers walked through [5m] byways.

7 [6] The inhabitants of the villages ceased, they ceased in Israel, [1] until that I Deborah arose, that I arose [n] a mother in Israel.

8 They [p] chose new gods; then [t]was war in the gates: [q] was there a shield or spear seen among forty thousand in Israel?

9 My heart [t]is toward the governors of Israel, [7] that [u] offered themselves willingly among the people [8].[1] Bless ye the LORD.

10 [9x] Speak, [1] ye [y] that ride on white asses, [z] ye that sit [1] in judgment, and [1] walk by the way.

11 [2] They that are delivered from [1] the noise of archers [3] in the places of drawing water, there shall they rehearse the [a] righteous acts of the LORD, even the righteous acts [t]toward the inhabitants of his villages in Israel: then shall [1] the people of the LORD [5] go [1] down to the gates.

12 [d] [△] Awake, awake, Deborah[c]; [1] awake, awake, utter a song: arise, Barak, and [c] lead thy captivity captive, thou son of Abinoam.

13 [7] Then he made him that remaineth [f] have dominion over the nobles among the people: the LORD made me have dominion over the mighty.[1]

5 For they came up with their cattle and their tents, [1] and they came [a] as grasshoppers [1] for multitude; [o] for [1] both they and their camels were without number: and they [2] entered [1] into the land to destroy it.

6 And Israel was [3] greatly impoverished because of the Midianites [1]; and the children of Israel [d] cried unto the LORD.

7 ¶ And it came to pass, when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD because of [4] the Midianites,[1]

8 That the LORD sent [g] a prophet unto the children of Israel [5], which [1] said unto them, Thus saith the LORD [6] God of Israel, I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you forth out of the house of bondage;

9 And I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and [7] drave them out from before you, and gave you their land;

10 And I said unto you, I [†]am the LORD your God; [7] [m] fear not [1] the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but ye have not [8] obeyed [1] my voice.

11 ¶ And [9] there came an angel of the LORD, [1] and sat under [1] an oak [1] which [†]was in Ophrah, that [†]pertained unto Joash [q] the Abi-ezrite [1]: and his son [r] Gideon [3] threshed wheat by [1] the winepress, [u] to hide [†]it from the Midianites.

12 And the [x] angel of the LORD appeared unto him, and said unto him, The LORD [†]is [z] with thee, thou mighty man of valour.

13 And Gideon said unto him, Oh my [4] Lord, [1] if the LORD be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and [b] where [†]be all his [5] miracles [1] [c] which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt? but now the LORD hath [6] [e] forsaken us, [1] and delivered us into the [7] hands of the Midianites.[1]

14 And the LORD [8] looked upon him, and said, [h] Go in this thy might, and [o] thou shalt [1] save Israel from the hand of [9] the Midianites [1]: [k] have not I sent thee?

15 And he said unto him, Oh [o] my [1] Lord, wherewith shall I save Israel? behold, [†b] my family is poor [1] in Manasseh, and I [†]am the least in my father's house.

16 And the LORD said unto him, [c] Surely I will be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites as one man.

17 And he said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, then [c] shew me a sign that [2] thou [1] talkest with me.

18 [f] Depart not hence, I pray thee, until I come unto thee, and bring forth my [3] [h] present, and [4] set it [1] before thee. And he said, I will tarry until thou come again.

19 [o] ¶ [†] [i] And Gideon went in, and made ready [k] a kid, and unleavened cakes of an ephah of [5] flour [1]: the flesh he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought [†]it out unto him under the [6] oak, and presented [†]it.

20 And the angel of God said unto him, Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes, and [u] lay [†]them upon this rock, and [p] pour out the broth. And he did so.

21 [o] ¶ [1] Then the angel of the LORD put forth the end of the staff that [†]was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and [r] there [r] rose [1] up fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes [8]. Then [1] the angel of the LORD departed out of his sight.

22 And [9] when Gideon [y] perceived that he [was an] [1] angel of the LORD, [1] Gideon said, Alas, O Lord GOD! [2 a] for because I have seen an [1] angel of the LORD face to face.

23 And the LORD said unto him, [d] Peace [†]be unto thee; fear not: thou shalt not die.

24 Then Gideon built an altar there unto the LORD, and called it [5 f] Jehovah-shalom: unto this day it [†]is yet [g] in Ophrah of the [4] Abi-ezrites.[1]

25 ¶ And it came to pass the same night, that the LORD said unto him, Take thy father's [o] young [1] bullock, [5 i] even the second bullock of seven years old, and throw down the altar

26 And build an altar unto the LORD thy God upon the top of this [2b] rock, [c] in the ordered place,[1] and take the second bullock, and offer a burnt [3] sacrifice[1] with the wood of the [4] grove[1] which thou shalt cut down.

27 Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had [5] said[1] unto him: and [6] so it was,[1] because he feared his father's household [e], and the men of the city, [7] that he could not do †it by day, that he did †it by night.

28 ¶ And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was [8] cast[1] down, and the [9] grove[1] was cut down that †was [1] by it, and the second bullock was offered upon the altar †that was built.

29 And they said one to another, Who hath done this thing? And when they [2] enquired[1] and asked, they said, Gideon the son of Joash hath done this thing.

30 Then the men of the city said unto Joash, Bring out thy son, that he may die: because he hath [3] cast[1] down the altar of Baal, and because he hath cut down the [4] grove that was by[1] it.

31 And Joash said unto all that stood against him, Will ye plead for Baal? [5] will ye save him? he that will plead for him, [6] let him be put to death [7] whilst it is yet morning: if he †be a god, let him plead for himself, because †one hath [8] cast[1] down his altar.

32 Therefore on that day he called him [9a] Jerubbaal, saying, Let Baal plead against him, because he hath [5] thrown[1] down his altar.

33 ¶ Then all [h] the Midianites and the Amalekites and the children of the east [1] were gathered together, and went[1] over, and pitched in [k] the valley of Jezreel.

34 But [4] the [2] Spirit[1] of the LORD [2m] came upon Gideon [4], and he [n] blew a trumpet; and [5] Abi-ezer[1] [2] was gathered [6] after him.

35 And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh; [1] who also was gathered[1] after him: and he sent messengers unto Asher, and unto Zebulun, and unto Naphtali; and they came up to meet them.

36 ° ¶ [1] And Gideon said unto God, If thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast [2] said[1], 37 [d] Behold, I will put a fleece of wool [3] in the floor; and if the dew be[1] on the fleece only, and †it be dry upon all the [4] earth beside,[1] then shall I know that thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast [2] said[1].

38 And it was so: for he rose up early on the morrow, and [5] thrust[1] the fleece together, and wringed the dew out of the fleece, a [6] bowl full[1] of water.

39 And Gideon said unto God, [6] Let not thine anger be [7] hot[1] against me, and I will speak but this once: let me prove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece; let it now be dry only upon the fleece, and upon all the ground let there be dew.

40 And God did so that night: for it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

Gilead. And there returned of the people twenty and two thousand; and there remained ten thousand.

1 A ¶ 4 [1]And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people †are yet †too many; bring them down unto the water, and I will try them for thee there: and it shall be, †that of whom I say unto thee, This shall go with thee, the same shall go with thee; and of whomsoever I say unto thee, This shall not go with thee, the same shall not go.

5 So he brought down the people unto the water: and the LORD said unto Gideon, Every one that lappeth of the water with his tongue, as a dog lappeth, him shalt thou set by himself; likewise every one that boweth down upon his knees to drink.

6 And the number of them that lapped, †putting their hand to their mouth, [2]were[1] three hundred men: but all the rest of the people bowed down upon their knees to drink water.

7 And the LORD said unto Gideon, [b]By the three hundred men that lapped will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into thine hand: and let all the °other[1] people go every man unto his place.

8 [3]So the people took victuals in their hand, and their trumpets: and he sent all [4]the rest of[1] Israel every man unto his tent, [5]and retained those[1] three hundred men: and the [6]host[1] of Midian was beneath him in the valley.

9 ¶ And it came to pass the same [c]night, that the LORD said unto him, Arise, get thee down [7]unto the host[1]; for I have delivered it into thine hand.

10 But if thou fear to go down, go thou with [8]Phurah[1] thy servant down to the [6]host[1]:

11 And thou shalt [f]hear what they say; and afterward shall thine hands be strengthened to go down [7]unto the host[1]. Then went he down with [8]Phurah[1] his servant unto the [9]outside[1] of the [g]armed men that †were in the [1]host.[1]

12 And the Midianites and the Amalekites and [h]all the children of the east lay along in the valley like [1]grasshoppers[1] for multitude; and their camels †were without number, as the sand [2]by the sea side[1] for multitude.

13 And when Gideon was come, behold, †there was a man that told a dream unto his fellow, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and, lo, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the [3]host[1] of Midian, and came unto [4]a[1] tent, and smote it that it fell, and [5]overturned it,[1] that the tent lay along.

14 And his fellow answered and said, This †is nothing else save the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel: °for[1] into his hand [6]hath God[1] delivered Midian, and all the host.

15 ¶ And it was †so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and [a]the interpretation thereof, that he worshipped[7], and[1] returned into the [3]host[1] of Israel, and said, Arise; for the LORD hath delivered into your hand the host of Midian.

16 And he divided the three hundred men †into three companies, and he put [5c]a trumpet in every man's hand, with[1] empty pitchers, [1]and [d]lamps[1] within the pitchers.

17 And he said unto them, Look on me, and do likewise: and, behold, when I come to the [2]outside[1] of the camp, it shall be †that, as I do, so shall ye do.

18 When I blow [3]with a[1] trumpet, I and all that †are with me, then blow ye the trumpets also on every side of all the camp, and say, [4]The sword of the LORD, and of[1] Gideon.

19 ¶ So Gideon, and the hundred men that †were with him, came unto the [2]outside[1] of the camp in the beginning of the middle watch[5]; and[1] they had but newly set the watch: and they blew the trumpets, and brake [6]the pitchers that †were in their hands.

20 And the three companies blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers, and held the [7]lamps[1] in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right

AND [d]the men of Ephraim said unto him, [f]Why hast thou served us thus, that thou calledst us not, when thou wentest to fight with [1]the Midianites[1]? And they did chide with him [h]sharply.

2 And he said unto them, What have I [2]done now[1] in comparison of you? †Is not the gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of [3]Abi-ezer[1]?

3 [i]God hath delivered into your [4]hands[1] the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparison of you? Then their [1a]anger was abated toward him, when he had said that.

4 °¶[1] And Gideon came to Jordan, [2]and passed over, he, and the three hundred men that †were with him, faint, yet pursuing °them[1].

6 °¶[1] And the princes of Succoth said, †[k]Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hand, that [l]we should give bread unto thine army?

7 And Gideon said, Therefore when the LORD hath delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into mine hand, [n]then I will [4p]tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers.

8 °¶[1] And he went up thence [q]to Penuel, and spake unto them [5]likewise[1]: and the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered °him[1].

9 And he spake also unto the men of Penuel, saying, When I [y]come again in peace, [z]I will break down this tower.

10 ¶ Now Zebah and Zalmunna †were in Karkor, and their hosts with them, about fifteen thousand †men, all that were left of [b]all the [6]hosts[1] of the children of the east: for there fell [c]an hundred and twenty thousand men that drew sword.

9 [a] described [1] unto [1] him the princes of Succoth, and the elders thereof, [2] even threescore and seventeen [1] men.

15 And he came unto the men of Succoth, and said, Behold Zebah and Zalmunna, [3] with whom ye did [c] upbraid [1] me, saying, †Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hand, that we should give bread unto thy men †that are weary?

16 [e] And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he [4] [f] taught the men of Succoth.

17 [h] And he [5] beat [1] down the tower of [k] Penuel, and slew the men of the city.

18 ° ¶ [1] Then said he unto Zebah and Zalmunna, What manner of men †were they whom ye slew at [n] Tabor? And they answered, As thou †art, so †were they; each one [q] resembled the children of a king.

19 And he said, They †were my brethren, ° even [1] the sons of my mother: †as the LORD liveth, if ye had saved them alive, I would not slay you.

20 And he said unto Jether his firstborn, Up, †and slay them. But the youth drew not his sword: for he feared, because he †was yet a youth.

21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, Rise thou, and fall upon us: for as the man †is, so is his strength. And Gideon arose, and [z] slew Zebah and Zalmunna, and took [6] away the [b] ornaments [1] that †were on their camels' necks.

22 ¶ Then the men of Israel said unto Gideon, Rule thou over us, both thou, and thy son, and thy son's son also: for thou hast [7] delivered us from [1] the hand of Midian.

23 And Gideon said unto them, I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you: [g] the LORD shall rule over you.

24 °¶ [1] And Gideon said unto them, I would desire a request of you, that ye would give me every man the [8] earrings of his [9] prey. [1] (For they had golden earrings, [b] because they †were Ishmaelites.)

25 And they answered, We will willingly give †them. And they spread a garment, and did cast therein every man the earrings of his [1] prey. [1]

26 And the weight of the golden earrings that he requested was a thousand and seven hundred shekels of gold; beside [2] ornaments, and [d] collars, and [1] purple raiment that †was on the kings of Midian, and beside the chains that †were about their camels' necks.

27 And Gideon [g] made an ephod thereof, and put it in his city, †even [i] in Ophrah: and all Israel [l] went ° thither [1] a whoring after [3] it: which thing [1] became [m] a snare unto Gideon, and to his house.

28 [4] ¶ Thus was Midian [1] subdued before the children of Israel, [5] so that [1] they lifted up their heads no more. [p] And the [6] country was in quietness [1] forty years in the days of Gideon.

29 ¶ And Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and dwelt in his own house.

30 And Gideon had [r] threescore and ten sons [t] of his body begotten: for he had many wives.

31 [u] And his concubine that †was in Shechem, she also bare him a son, [7] whose name he [x] called [1] Abimelech.

32 °¶ [1] And Gideon the son of Joash died [y] in a good old age, and was buried in the sepulchre of Joash his father, [a] in Ophrah of the [8] Abi-ezrites. [1]

33 [9] And it came to pass, [c] as soon as Gideon was dead, that the children of Israel turned again, and [d] went a whoring after [1] Baalim, [e] and made Baal-berith their god.

34 And the children of Israel [f] remembered not the LORD their God, who had delivered them out of the [2] hands [1] of all their enemies on every side:

35 [h] Neither shewed they kindness to the house of Jerubbaal, [3] namely, [1] Gideon, according to all the goodness which he had shewed unto Israel.

21 And Jotham ran away, and fled, and went to [a]Beer, and dwelt there, for fear of Abimelech his brother.

22 ¶ [1]When Abimelech had reigned three years over Israel,

23 Then[1] [b]God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem [c]dealt treacherously with Abimelech:

24 [d]That the [2]cruelty done[1] to the threescore and ten sons of Jerubbaal might come, and [3]their blood[1] be laid upon Abimelech their brother, which slew them[4];[1] and upon the men of Shechem, which [5]aided him in the killing of[1] his brethren.

25 And the men of Shechem set liers in wait for him [e]in the top[1] of the mountains, and they robbed all that came along that way by them: and it was told Abimelech.

26 [7]And Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brethren, and went over to Shechem: and the men of Shechem put their [8]confidence[1] in him.

27 And they went out into the [9]fields,[1] and gathered their vineyards, and trode the grapes, and [1]made [g]merry,[1] and went into [2]the house of their god, and did eat and drink, and cursed Abimelech.

28 And Gaal the son of Ebed said, [f]Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? is not he the son of Jerubbaal? and Zebul his officer? serve [2]the men of [A]Hamor the father of Shechem: [3]for[1] why should we serve him?

29 And [p]would to God this people were under my hand! then would I remove Abimelech. And he said [4]to Abimelech, Increase thine army, and come out.

30 [o]¶[1] And when Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger was [q]kindled.

31 And he sent messengers unto Abimelech [5r]privily,[1] saying, Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed and his brethren [6]be[1] come to Shechem; and, behold, they [1]fortify the city against thee.[1]

32 Now therefore[2] up by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and lie in wait in the field:

33 And it shall be, that in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, thou shalt rise early, and set upon the city: and, behold, when he and the people that is with him come out against thee, then mayest thou do to them [3e]as thou shalt find occasion.

34 ¶ And Abimelech rose up, and all the people that were with him, by night, and they laid wait against Shechem in four companies.

35 And Gaal the son of Ebed went out, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and Abimelech rose up, and the people that were with him, from [4]lying in wait.[1]

36 And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, Behold, there come people down from the [5]top[1] of the mountains. And Zebul said unto him, Thou seest the shadow of the mountains as if they were men.

37 And Gaal spake again and said, See[6] there come people down by the [7h]middle of the land, and [8]another company come along by the plain of [k]Meonenim.[1]

38 Then said Zebul unto him, Where is now thy mouth, [9]wherewith[1] thou [m]saidst, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? is not this the people that thou hast despised? go out[1], I pray now,[1] and fight with them.

39 And Gaal went out before the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.

40 And Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him, and [2]many were overthrown and[1] wounded, [t]even unto the entering of the gate.

41 And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Zebul [3]thrust[1] out Gaal and his brethren, that they should not dwell in Shechem.

42 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the people went 45 And Abimelech fought against the city all that day; and [a]he took the city, and slew the people that [†]was therein[5], and[1] [c]beat down the city, and sowed it with salt.

46 ¶ And when all the men of the tower of Shechem heard [a]that,[1] they entered into [7]an[1] hold of the house [g]of [8]the god Berith.[1]

47 And it was told Abimelech [o],[1] that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together.

48 And Abimelech gat him up to mount [h]Zalmon, he and all the people that [†]were with him; and Abimelech took [9]an axe in his hand, and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it[1], and laid [†]it on his shoulder[2], and[1] said unto the people that [†]were with him, What ye have seen [t]me do, make haste, [†]and do as I [†]have done.

49 And all the people likewise cut down every man his bough, and followed Abimelech, and put [†]them to the hold, and set the hold on fire upon them; so that all the men of the tower of Shechem died also, about a thousand men and women.

50 ¶ Then went Abimelech to Thebez, and encamped against Thebez, and took it.

51 But there was a strong tower within the city, and thither fled all the men and women, and all they of the city, and shut [2]it to them,[1] and gat them up to the [4]top[1] of the tower.

52 And Abimelech came unto the tower, and fought against it, and went hard unto the door of the tower to burn it with fire.

53 And a certain woman [a]cast [1]a piece of a[1] millstone upon Abimelech's head, and [o]all to[1] brake his skull.

54 Then [b]he called hastily unto the young man his armourbearer, and said unto him, Draw thy sword, and [2]slay[1] me, that men say not of me, A woman slew him. And his young man thrust him through, and he died.

55 And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed every man unto his place.

56 °¶[1] [c]Thus God [3]rendered[1] the wickedness of Abimelech, which he did unto his father, in slaying his seventy brethren:

57 And all the [4]evil[1] of the men of Shechem did God [5]render[1] upon their heads: and upon them came [f]the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal.

NOW [d]Jephthah the Gileadite was [e]a mighty man of valour, and he [t]was the son of [f]an harlot: and Gilead begat Jephthah.

2 And Gilead's wife bare him sons; and [1]his wife's sons grew up, [2]and they thrust[1] out Jephthah, and said unto him, Thou shalt not inherit in our father's house; for thou [t]art the son of [3]a strange[1] woman.

3 Then Jephthah fled [h]from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of Tob: and there were gathered [i]vain [4]men[1] to Jephthah, and [5]went out with him.

4 ¶ And it came to pass [6k]in process of time,[1] that the children of Ammon made war against Israel.

5 And it was so, that when the children of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah out of the land of Tob:

6 And they said unto Jephthah, Come[5],[1] and be our [7]captain,[1] that we may fight with the children of Ammon.

7 And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, [z]Did not ye hate me, and [8]expel[1] me out of my father's house? and why are ye come unto me now when ye are in distress?

8 [z]And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, Therefore [9]we [b]turn[1] again to thee now, that thou mayest go with us, and fight [1]against[1] the children of Ammon, and [2]be [d]our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

9 And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home again to fight [1]against[1] the children of Ammon, and the LORD deliver them before me, shall I be your head?

10 And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, [k]The LORD [3][m]be [4]witness between us[5], if we do not so according to thy words.[1]

11 Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him "head and [1]captain' over them: and Jephthah [2]uttered' all his words [b]before the LORD in [3]Mizpeh.'

12 ¶ And Jephthah sent messengers unto the king of the children of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to do with me, that thou art come [4]against me to fight in' my land?

13 And the king of the children of Ammon answered unto the messengers of Jephthah, [c]Because Israel took away my land, when [5]they' came up out of Egypt, from Arnon even unto [d]Jabbok, and unto Jordan: now therefore restore those lands again peaceably.

14 And Jephthah sent messengers again unto the king of the children of Ammon:

15 And [6] said unto him, Thus saith Jephthah',' [e]Israel took not away the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon:

16 But when [8]Israel' came up from Egypt, and [9] [f]walked through the wilderness unto the Red [1]sea,' and [m]came to Kadesh;

17 Then [g]Israel sent messengers unto the king of Edom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, pass through thy land: [r]but the king of Edom [2]would not hearken thereto.' And in like manner [3]they' sent unto the king of Moab: but he would not [o]consent': and Israel [4]abode in Kadesh.

18 Then [4]they went along' through the wilderness, and [p]compassed the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and [5]came by the east side of the land of Moab, [q]and [5] pitched on the other side of Arnon[6], but' came not within the border of Moab[7]:' for Arnon [t]was the border of Moab.

19 And [d]Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon; and Israel said unto him, [6]Let us pass, we pray thee, through thy land [8]into' my place.

20 [9]But Sihon trusted not Israel to pass through his [9]coast': but Sihon gathered all his people together, and pitched in Jahaz, and fought against Israel.

21 And the LORD' God of Israel' delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they [e]smote them: so Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country.

22 And they possessed [d]all the [2]coasts' of the Amorites, from Arnon even unto Jabbok, and from the wilderness even unto Jordan.

23 So now the LORD' God of Israel' hath dispossessed the Amorites from before his people Israel, and shouldest thou possess [3]it'?

24 Wilt not thou possess that which [g]Chemosh thy god giveth thee to possess? So whomsoever [h]the LORD our God [4]shall drive out' from before us, them will we possess.

25 And now [t]art thou any thing better than [6]Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? did he ever strive against Israel, or did he ever fight against them[5],' 26 While Israel dwelt in "Heshbon and her [6]towns, and in [p]Aroer and her [6]towns, and in all the cities that [7]be' along by the [6]coasts' of Arnon, three hundred years[9]? why therefore' did ye not recover [t]them within that time?

27 [1]Wherefore I' have not sinned against thee, but thou doest me wrong to war against me: the LORD [2] [u]the Judge[2] [v]be judge this day between the children of Israel and the children of Ammon.

28 Howbeit the king of the children of Ammon hearkened not unto the words of Jephthah which he sent him.

29 ¶ Then [b]the [3]Spirit' of the LORD came upon [c]Jephthah, and he passed over Gilead[6],' and Manasseh, and passed over Mizpeh of Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead he passed over [t]unto the children of Ammon.

30 And Jephthah [f]vowed a vow unto the LORD, and said, If thou [4]shalt without fail' deliver the children of Ammon into mine [5]hands,'

31 Then it shall be, that

AND Samson went down [a]to [1]Timnath[1], and [c]saw a woman in [1]Timnath[1] of the daughters of the Philistines.

2 And he came up, and told his father and his mother, and said, I have seen a woman in [1]Timnath[1] of the daughters of the Philistines: now therefore [d]get her for me to wife.

3 Then his father and his mother said unto him, [†]Is there never a woman among the daughters of [e]thy brethren, or among all my people, that thou goest to take a wife of the [f]uncircumcised Philistines? And Samson said unto his father, Get her for me; for [i]she pleaseth me well.

4 But his father and his mother knew not that it [†]was [l]of the LORD[2], that[1] he sought an occasion against the Philistines[3]: for[1] at that time [m]the Philistines had [4]dominion[1] over Israel.

5 ¶ Then went Samson down, and his father and his mother, to [5]Timnath[1], and came to the vineyards of [5]Timnath[1]: and, behold, a young lion roared [p]against him.

6 And [q]the [6]Spirit[1] of the LORD came mightily upon him, and he rent him as he would have rent a kid, and [†]he had nothing in his hand: but he told not his father or his mother what he had done.

7 And he went down, and talked with the woman; and she pleased Samson well.

8 [c][¶][1] And after a [7]time[1] he returned to take her, and he turned aside to see the carcase of the lion: and, behold, [†]there was a swarm of bees [8]and honey in the carcase of the lion.[1]

9 And he took [2]thereof in[1] his hands, and went on[1] eating, and[1] came to his father and mother, and [2]he gave[1] them, and they did eat: but he told [3]not them[1] that he had taken the honey out of the [4]carcase[1] of the lion.

10 [5][¶] So[1] his father went down unto the woman: and Samson made there a feast; for so used the young men to do.

11 And it came to pass, when they saw him, that they brought thirty companions to be with him.

Why are ye come up against us? And they [1]answered, To bind Samson are we come up, to do to him as he hath done to us.

11 Then three thousand men of Judah [a]went [2] to the top of the rock [1] Etam, and said to Samson, Knowest thou not that the Philistines [†]are [y]rulers over us? what [3] [†]is this [†]that thou hast done unto us? And he said unto them, As they did unto me, so have I done unto them.

12 And they said unto him, We are come down to bind thee, that we may deliver thee into the hand of the Philistines. And Samson said unto them, Swear unto me, that ye will not fall upon me yourselves.

13 And they spake unto him, saying, No; but we will bind thee fast, and deliver thee into their hand: but surely we will not kill thee. And they bound him with two new [4]cords, and brought him up from the rock.

14 [5]¶ And when [1] he came unto Lehi, the Philistines shouted [6]against [1] him: and [7]the [z]Spirit [1] of the LORD came mightily upon him, and the [8]cords [1] that [†]were upon his arms became as flax that was burnt with fire, and his bands [9][m]loosed [1] from off his hands.

16 And Samson said, [2]With the jawbone of an ass, [2][†]heaps upon heaps, with the [4]jaw [1] of an ass have I [5]slain [1] a thousand men.

IN [a] those days †there was no king in Israel: and in those days [c] the tribe of the Danites sought them an inheritance to dwell in; for unto that day °all[1] their inheritance had not fallen unto them among the tribes of Israel.

2 And the children of Dan sent of their family five men from their [1]coasts,[1] [f]men of valour, from [g]Zorah, and from Eshtaol, [h]to spy out the land, and to search it; and they said unto them, Go, search the land: [2]who when they came to mount Ephraim, to[1] the [i]house of Micah, [3]they[1] lodged there.

3 When they †were by the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite: and they turned [4]in[1] thither, and said unto him, Who brought thee hither? and what [5]makest† thou in this †place? and what hast thou here?

4 And he said unto them, Thus and thus [6]dealeth Micah[1] with me, and [7]hath [j]hired me, and I am [8]his priest.

5 And they said unto him, [r]Ask counsel, we pray thee, [t]of God, that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous.

6 And the priest said unto them, [u]Go in peace: before the LORD † is your way wherein ye go.

7 ¶ Then the five men departed, and came to [a]Laish, and saw the people that †were therein, [c]how they dwelt [9]careless,[1] after the manner of the Zidonians, quiet and secure; [1]and there was no [d]magistrate in the land,[1] [2]that might put them to shame in †any thing;[1] and they †were far from the Zidonians, and had no[4] business[1] with †any man.

8 And they came unto their brethren to [c]Zorah and Eshtaol: and their brethren said unto them, What say ye?

9 And they said, [x]Arise, [5]that we may[1] go up against them: for we have seen the land, and, behold, it †is very good: and †are ye [z]still? be not slothful to go,[1] †and to enter [6] to possess the land.

10 When ye go, ye shall come unto a people [b]secure, and [1]to a large land[1]: for God hath given it into your [z]hands[1]; [d]a place where †there is no want of any thing that †is in the earth.

11 ¶ And there [3]went[1] from thence of the family of the Danites, out of Zorah and out of Eshtaol, six hundred men [4][e] appointed[1] with weapons of war.

12 And they went up, and [5]pitched in [z]Kirjath-jearim,[1] in Judah: wherefore they called that place [6][k] Mahaneh-dan[7] unto this day: behold, †it is behind [8]Kirjath-jearim.[1]

13 And they passed thence unto [5]mount[1] Ephraim, and came unto [m]the house of Micah.

14 °¶[1] [n]Then answered the five men that went to spy out the country of Laish, and said unto their brethren, Do ye know that [p]there is in these houses an ephod, and teraphim, and a graven image, and a molten image? now therefore consider what ye have to do.

15 And they turned [1]thitherward,[1] and came to the house of the young man the Levite, †even unto the house of Micah, and [2][u] saluted him.[1]

16 And the [e]six hundred men [3]appointed[1] with their weapons of war, [4]which were[1] of the children of Dan, stood by the entering of the gate.

17 And [z]the five men that went to spy out the land went up, †and came in thither, †and took [b]the graven image, and the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image: and the priest stood [5]in[1] the entering of the gate with the six hundred men [3]that were appointed[1] with weapons of war.

18 And [6] these went into Micah's house, and fetched the [7]carved[1] image, the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image[8]. Then said the priest[1] unto them, What do ye?

19 And they said unto him, Hold thy peace, [g]lay thine hand upon thy mouth, and go with us, [h]and be to us a father and a priest: †is it better for thee to be °a[1] priest unto the house of one man, or [9]that thou be a[1] priest unto a tribe and a family in Israel?

[o]1 A Levite goeth to Beth-lehem to fetch home his wife. 16 An old man entertaineth him at Gibeah. 22 The Gibeathites abuse his concubine to death. 29 He divideth her into twelve pieces.[1]

AND it came to pass in those days, [c]when [1]there was no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite sojourning on the [4]side of mount[1] Ephraim, who took to him [e]a concubine out of [f]Beth-lehem-judah.

2 And his concubine played the [5]whore[1] against him, and went away from him unto her father's house to Beth-lehem-judah, and was there [6g]four whole[1] months.

3 And her husband arose, and went after her, to speak [7h]friendly[1] unto her, [o]and[1] to bring [8]her again, having his servant with him, and a couple of asses: and she brought him into her father's house: and when the father of the damsel saw him, he rejoiced to meet him.

4 And his father in law, the damsel's father, retained him; and he abode with him three days: so they did eat and drink, and lodged there.

5 [o]¶[1] And it came to pass on the fourth day, [9]when[1] they arose early in the morning, [1]that[1] he rose up to depart: and the damsel's father said unto his son in law, [m]Comfort thine heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward [2] go your way.

6 [2]And[1] they sat down, and did eat and drink[4] both of them together: [1]for[1] the damsel's father [o]had[1] said unto the man, Be content, I pray thee, and tarry all night, and let thine heart be merry.

7 And [o]when[1] the man rose up to depart[5],[1] his father in law urged him[6]: therefore[1] he lodged there again.

morning on the fifth day to depart[1]: and the damsel's father said, Comfort thine heart, I pray thee[2]. And they tarried [a] until afternoon, and they did eat[3] both of them.

9 And when the man rose up to depart, he, and his concubine, and his servant, his father in law, the damsel's father, said unto him, Behold, now the day [b] draweth toward evening, I pray you tarry all night: behold, [c] the day groweth to an end, lodge here, that thine heart may be merry; and [4] to morrow get you early on your way, that thou mayest go [5] home.

10 But the man would not tarry that night, but he rose up and departed, and came [d] over against [6] Jebus, which is Jerusalem; and [7] there were with him [7] two asses saddled, his concubine also [7] was with him.

11 [8] And when they [7] were by Jebus, the day was far spent; and the servant said unto his master, Come, I pray thee, and let us turn [9] in into this city [e] of the Jebusites, and lodge in it.

12 And his master said unto him, We will not turn aside [9] hither into the city of a stranger, that [7] is not of the children of Israel; we will pass over [f] to Gibeah.

13 And he said unto his servant, Come [9], and let us draw near to one of these places[3] to lodge all night, in Gibeah, or in [g] Ramah.

14 And they passed on and went their way; and the sun went down upon them [h] when they were by Gibeah, which [7] belongeth to Benjamin.

15 And they turned aside thither, to go in [9] and to lodge in Gibeah: and [9] when he went in, [i] he sat him down in the street of the city: for [7] there was no man that [j] took them into his house to lodging.

16 [9] ¶ And, behold, there came an old man from [k] his work out of the field at even, which was also of mount Ephraim, and he sojourned in Gibeah: but the men of the place [7] were Benjamites.

17 And when he had lifted up his eyes, he saw a wayfaring man in the street of the city: and the old man said, Whither goest thou? and whence comest thou?

18 And he said unto him, We [7] are passing from Beth-lehem-judah toward the side of mount Ephraim; from thence am I: and I went to Beth-lehem-judah, but I am [7] now going to the house of the LORD; and there [7] is no man that [l] receiveth me to house.

19 Yet there is both straw and provender for our asses; and there is bread and wine also for me, and for thy handmaid, and for the young man [7] which is with thy servants: [7] there is no want of any thing.

20 And the old man said, Peace [7] be with thee; howsoever [7] let all thy wants [7] lie upon me; only lodge not in the street.

21 So he brought him into his house, and gave [8] provender unto the asses: [m] and they washed their feet, and did eat and drink.

22 [9] ¶ Now as they were making their hearts merry, behold, [n] the men of the city, certain [10] sons of [2] Belial, beset the house round about, [3] and beat at the door, and spake to the master of the house, the old man, saying, Bring forth the man that came into thine house, that we may know him.

23 And [o] the man, the master of the house, went out unto them, and said unto them, Nay, my brethren, [9] nay, I pray you, do not [7] so wickedly; seeing that this man is come into mine house, [p] do not this folly.

24 Behold, [7] here is my daughter a maiden, and his concubine; them I will bring out now, and [o] humble ye them, and do with them what seemeth good unto you: but unto this man do not [q] so vile a thing.

25 But the men would not hearken to him: so the man [3] took his concubine, and brought her forth unto them; and they [r] knew her, and abused her all the night until the morning: and when the day began to spring, they let her go.

18 ○¶ [1] And the children of Israel arose, and [e]went up to [3]the house of God,' and [f]asked counsel of God', and said, Which of us shall go up first to the' battle against the children of Benjamin? And the LORD said, Judah shall go up first.

19 And the children of Israel rose up in the morning, and encamped against Gibeah.

20 And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel [5]put themselves in array to fight' against them at Gibeah.

21 And [h]the children of Benjamin came forth out of Gibeah, and destroyed down to the ground of the Israelites [6] that day twenty and two thousand men.

22 And the people[7] the men of Israel' encouraged themselves, and set [8]their' battle again in array in the place where they [9]put' themselves in array the first day.

23 (And the children of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until even', and asked counsel' of the LORD, saying, Shall I [2]go up again' to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And the LORD said, Go up against him.)

24 [3] And the children of Israel came near against the children of Benjamin the second day.

25 And [m] Benjamin went forth against them out of Gibeah the second day, and destroyed down to the ground of the children of Israel again eighteen thousand men; all these drew the sword.

26 ○¶ ' Then all the children of Israel, and all the people, [p] went up, and came unto [4]the house of God,' and wept, and sat there before the LORD, and fasted that day until even', and' offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

27 And the children of Israel [2]enquired' of the LORD, (for [b]the ark of the covenant of God †was there in those days, 28 [c]And Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, [d]stood before it in those days,) saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease? And the LORD said, Go up; for [3]to morrow' I will deliver [4]them' into thine hand.

29 And Israel [g] set liers in wait [5]round about Gibeah.'

30 [6]And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and [7]put' themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times.

31 And the children of Benjamin went out against the people, †and were drawn away from the city; and they began [i]to smite [8]of the people, and kill,' as at other times, in the [9]highways', of which one goeth up to [1][k]the house of God,' and the other to Gibeah [2] in the field, about thirty men of Israel.

32 And the children of Benjamin said, They †are smitten down before us, as at the first. But the children of Israel said, Let us flee, and draw them [3]from the city unto the [9]highways'.

33 And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and [4]put' themselves in array at Baal-tamar: and the liers in wait of Israel [5]came' forth out of their [6]places, even out of the meadows of Gibeah.'

34 And there came [7] against Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was sore: [n]but they knew not that evil [8]was near' them.

35 And the LORD smote Benjamin before Israel: and the children of Israel destroyed of [9]the Benjamites' that day twenty and five thousand and 36 [1] So the children of Benjamin saw that they were smitten: "for the men of Israel gave place to [2]the Benjamites[1], because they trusted unto the liers in wait which they had set [3]beside[1] Gibeah.

37 [c]And the liers in wait hasted, and rushed upon Gibeah; and the liers in wait [d]drew †themselves along, and smote all the city with the edge of the sword.

38 Now [4]there was an[1] appointed [e]sign between the men of Israel[1] and the liers in wait[1], that they should make a great [6h]flame with[1] smoke rise up out of the city.

39 [7]And [o]when[1] the men of Israel [8]retired in the battle,[1] Benjamin began [k]to smite †and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons: for they said, Surely they are smitten down before us, as †in the first battle.

40 But when the [9]flame[1] began to arise up out of the city [1]with[1] a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites [m]looked behind them, and, behold, [p]the [2]flame of the city ascended up[1] to heaven.

41 And [o]when[1] the men of Israel turned[3] again,[1] the men of Benjamin were amazed: for they saw that evil [q]was come upon them.

42 Therefore they turned †their backs before the men of Israel unto the way of the wilderness; but the battle [4]overtook[1] them; and [5]them[1] which †came out of the cities [o]they[1] destroyed [6]in the midst of them.

43 Thus they[1] inclosed the Benjamites round about, and chased them, and [7]trode them down [8u]with ease[1] [x]over against Gibeah toward the sunrising.

44 And there fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men; all these were men of valour.

45 And they turned and fled toward the wilderness unto the rock of [y]Rimmon: and they gleaned of them in the [9]highways[1] five thousand men; and [1]pursued[1] hard after them unto Gidom, and [1]slew[1] two thousand men [o]of them[1].

46 So that all which fell that day of Benjamin were twenty and five thousand men that drew the sword; all these were men of valour.

47 [b]But six hundred men turned and fled [2]to[1] the wilderness unto the rock [3] Rimmon, and abode in the rock [3] Rimmon four months.

48 And the men of Israel turned again upon the children of Benjamin, and smote them with the edge of the sword, [4]as well the men of every city, as the beast, and all that [r]came to hand: also they set on fire all the cities that [r]they came to.[1]

3 And[1] said, O LORD[8] God of Israel, why is this come to pass in Israel, that there should be [9]to day[1] one tribe lacking in Israel?

8 °¶ And they said, What one is there of the tribes of Israel that came not up [1]to Mizpeh to the LORD? And, behold, there came none to the camp from [b]Jabesh-gilead to the assembly.

9 For [2]the people were numbered, °and,' behold, †there were none of the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead there.

10 And the congregation sent thither twelve thousand men of the valiantest, and commanded them, saying, /Go and smite the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead with the edge of the sword, with the women and the [3]children.'

11 And this †is the thing that ye shall do': [g]ye [4]shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman that †hath [5]lain' by man.

12 And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead four hundred [h]young virgins, that had [6]known no' man by lying with 'any male': and they brought them unto the camp to [i]Shiloh, which †is in the land of Canaan.

14 And Benjamin [3]came again' at that time; and they gave them [4]wives' which they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh-gilead: and yet so they sufficed them not.

15 And the people 'repented them for Benjamin, because that the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.

16 ¶ Then the elders of the congregation said, How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing the women are destroyed out of Benjamin?

17 And they said, †There must be an inheritance for them that 18 Howbeit we may not give them wives of our daughters: [a]for the children of Israel [3]have' sworn, saying, Cursed †be he that giveth a wife to Benjamin.

19 [r]Then' they said, Behold, †there is [s]a feast of the LORD [c]in Shiloh [c]yearly in a place' which †is on the north [c]side' of Beth-el, [d]on the east side [e]of the [7]highway' that goeth up from Beth-el to Shechem, and on the south of Lebonah.

20 [t]Therefore' they commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, Go and lie in wait in the vineyards;

21 And see, and, behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out [h]to dance in [8]dances, then come ye out of the vineyards, and catch you every man his wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin.

22 And it shall be, when their fathers or their brethren come [9]unto us to complain,' that we will say unto them, [1m]Be favourable unto them for our sakes: because we reserved not to each man his wife in the war: for ye did not give unto them at this time, that ye should' be guilty.

23 And the children of Benjamin did so, and took †them wives, according to their number, of them that danced, whom they [2]caught': and they went and returned unto their inheritance, and [3r]repaired' the cities, and dwelt in them.

24 And the children of Israel departed thence at that time, every man to his tribe and to his family, and they went out from thence every man to his inheritance.

25 "In those days †there was no king in Israel: [z]every man did †that which was right in his own eyes.

CHAPTER 1.

°1 Elimelech driven by famine into Moab, dieth there. 5 Mahlon and Chilion die also. 6 Naomi returning homeward, 14 Ruth accompanieth her. 19 They come to Beth-lehem.

1 S And

1 NOW[1] it came to pass in the days when [a]the judges 2 [b]ruled,[1] that there was [c]a famine in the land. And a certain man of [d]Beth-lehem-judah went to sojourn in the 3 M Heb. field. [3]country of Moab, he, and his wife, and his two sons.

4 M Heb. Noomi.

2 And the name of the man †was Elimelech, and the name of his wife [4]Naomi, and the name of his two sons Mahlon and Chilion, [g]Ephrathites of Beth-lehem-judah. And they came [h]into the country of Moab, and [k]continued there.

3 And Elimelech Naomi's husband died; and she was left, and her two sons.

4 And they took them wives of the women of Moab; the name of the one †was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth: and they dwelled there about ten years.

5 And Mahlon and Chilion died °also[1] both of them; and the woman was left of her two 5 S children and of [5]sons and[1] her husband.

6 °¶[1] Then she arose with her daughters in law, that she might return from the country of Moab: for she had heard in the country of Moab how that the LORD had [t]visited his people in [u]giving them bread.

they came to Beth-lehem. And it came to pass, when they were come to Beth-lehem, that [a]all the city was moved about them, and [b]they said, Is this Naomi?

20 And she said unto them, Call me not [2c] Naomi, call me [3d] Mara: for the Almighty hath dealt very bitterly with me.

21 I went out full, [e]and the LORD hath brought me home again empty: why [o]then call ye me Naomi, seeing the LORD hath testified against me, and the Almighty hath afflicted me?

22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter in law, with her, which returned out of the country of Moab: and they came to Beth-lehem [g]in the beginning of barley harvest.

CHAPTER 2.

[o] 1 Ruth gleaneth in the fields of Boaz. 4 He taketh knowledge of her, 8 and sheweth her favour.

AND Naomi had a [i]kinsman of her husband's, a mighty man of [4]wealth, of the family of Elimelech; and his name [t]was [5] Boaz.

2 And Ruth the Moabitess said unto Naomi, Let me now go to the field, and [t]glean [6] ears of corn after [t]him in whose sight I shall find grace. And she said unto her, Go, my daughter.

3 And she went, and came[o], [t] and gleaned in the field after the reapers: and her [7]hap was to light on [8]a part [t] of the field [t]belonging unto Boaz, who [t]was of the [7]kindred [t] of Elimelech.

4 [o][q] [t] And, behold, Boaz came from Beth-lehem, and said unto the reapers, "The LORD [t]be with you. And they answered him, The LORD bless thee.

5 Then said Boaz unto his servant that was set over the reapers, Whose damsel [t]is this?

6 And the servant that was set over the reapers answered and said, It [t]is the Moabitish damsel [s]that came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab:

7 And she said, [8]I pray you, let me glean [t] and gather after the reapers among the sheaves: so she came, and hath continued even from the morning until now, [t] that she tarried a little in the house.

8 Then said Boaz unto Ruth, Hearest thou not, my daughter? Go not to glean in another field, neither [2]go [t] from hence, but abide here fast by my maidens [3]: [t]

9 [t]Let thine eyes [t]be on the field that they do reap, and go thou after them: have I not charged the young men that they shall not touch thee? and when thou art athirst, go unto the vessels, and drink of [t]that which the young men have drawn.

10 Then she [r]fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said unto him, Why have I found grace in [4]thine eyes, [t] that thou shouldest take knowledge of me, seeing I [t]am a stranger?

11 And Boaz answered and said unto her, It hath fully been shewed me, [h]all that thou hast done unto thy mother in law since the death of thine husband: and [t]how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and the land of thy nativity, and art come unto a people which thou knewest not heretofore.

12 [m]The LORD recompense thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the LORD [5] God of Israel, [n]under whose wings thou art come to [6]trust. [t]

13 Then she said, [p]Let me find [7]favour [t] in thy sight, my lord; for that thou hast comforted me, and for that thou hast spoken [8r] friendly unto [t] thine handmaid, [t]though I be not [9]like unto [t] one of thine handmaidens.

14 And [t] Boaz said unto her, [2]At mealtime come thou [t] hither, and eat of the bread, and dip thy morsel in the vinegar. And she sat beside the reapers: and [3]he [t] reached her parched [t]corn, and she did eat, and [x]was sufficed, and left [4].

6 [S] also pull out some for her from the bundles, and leave it, and let her glean, her, and leave them, that she may glean them,[1] and rebuke her not.

17 So she gleaned in the field until even[1], and[1] beat out that she had gleaned[2]:[1] and it was about an ephah of barley.

18 °¶[1] And she took †it up, and went into the city: and her mother in law saw what she had gleaned: and she brought forth°,[1] and gave to her [c]that she had [3]reserved[1] after she was sufficed.

19 And her mother in law said unto her, Where hast thou gleaned [4]to day[1]? and where wroughtest thou? blessed be he that did [d]take knowledge of thee. And she shewed her mother in law with whom she had wrought, and said, The man's name with whom I wrought [4]to day[1] †is Boaz.

20 And Naomi said unto her daughter in law, [f]Blessed †be he of the LORD, who [g]hath not left off his kindness to the living and to the dead. And Naomi said unto her, The man [5]is near[1] of kin unto us, [6i]one of our [7]next[1] kinsmen.

21 And Ruth the Moabitess said, [8]He[1] said unto me °also[1], Thou shalt keep fast by my young men, until they have ended all my harvest.

22 And Naomi said unto Ruth her daughter in law, †It is good, my daughter, that thou go out with his maidens, [9]that they [n]meet thee not in any other field.

23 So she kept fast by the maidens of Boaz to glean unto the end of barley harvest and of wheat harvest; and [1]dwelt with her mother in law.

CHAPTER 3.

°1 By Naomi's instruction, 5 Ruth lieth at Boaz's feet. 8 Boaz acknowledgeth the right of a kinsman. 14 He sendeth her away with six measures of barley.[1]

[2]THEN[1] Naomi her mother in law said unto her, My daughter, [x]shall I not seek [3]y rest for thee, that it may be well with thee?

2 And now [4]is not Boaz of our kindred,[1] [a]with whose maidens thou wast? Behold, he winnoweth barley [5]to night[1] in the [6]threshingfloor.[1]

3 Wash thyself therefore, [a]and anoint thee, and put thy raiment upon thee, and get thee down to the [1]floor: but[1] make not thyself known unto the man, until he shall have done eating and drinking.

4 And it shall be, when he lieth down, that thou shalt mark the place where he shall lie, and thou shalt go in, and [b]uncover his feet, and lay thee down; and he will tell thee what thou shalt do.

5 And she said unto her, All that thou [2]sayest °unto me[1] I will do.

6 °¶[1] And she went down unto the [3]floor,[1] and did according to all that her mother in law bade her.

7 And when Boaz had eaten and drunk, and [e]his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of corn: and she came softly, and uncovered his feet, and laid her down.

8 °¶[1] And it came to pass at midnight, that the man was [4]afraid, and [h]turned himself: and, behold, a woman lay at his feet.

9 And he said, Who †art thou? And she answered, I †am Ruth thine handmaid: [k]spread therefore thy skirt over thine handmaid; for thou †art [5t]a near kinsman.

10 And he said, [m]Blessed †be thou of the LORD, my daughter: °for[1] thou hast shewed more kindness in the latter end than [p]at the beginning, inasmuch as thou followedst not young men, whether poor or rich.

11 And now, my daughter, fear not; I will do to thee all that thou [6]requirest[1]: for all the [7q]city of my people doth know that thou †art [r]a virtuous woman.

12 And now it is true that I [8]am thy[1] [t]near kinsman: howbeit [u]there is a kinsman nearer than I.

13 Tarry this night, and it shall be in the morning, †that if he will [z]perform unto thee the part of a kinsman, well; let him do the kinsman's part: but if he will not do the part of a kinsman to thee, then will I do the part of a kinsman to thee,

CHAPTER 4.

°1 Boaz calleth into judgment the next kinsman. 6 He refuseth the redemption according to the manner in Israel. 11 Boaz marrieth Ruth. 13 She beareth Obed.

[8]THEN went Boaz[1] up to the gate, and sat him down there: and, behold, [i]the [9]kinsman of whom Boaz spake came by; unto whom he said, Ho, such a one! turn aside, sit down here. And he turned aside, and sat down.

2 And he took ten men of [t]the elders of the city, and said, Sit ye down here. And they sat down.

3 And he said unto the [2]kinsman, Naomi, that is come again out of the country of Moab, selleth [1]a[1] parcel of land, which †was our brother Elimelech's:

4 And [t]I thought to [2]advertise thee,[1] saying, [x]Buy †it [y]before [3]the inhabitants,[1] and before the elders of my people. If thou wilt redeem †it, redeem †it: but if [4]thou wilt not redeem †it, then tell me, that I may know: [b]for †there is none to redeem †it beside thee; and I †am after thee. And he said, I will redeem †it.

5 Then said Boaz, What day thou buyest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must buy †it also of Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, [b]to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance.

6 °¶[1] [d]And the [1]kinsman said, I cannot redeem †it for myself, lest I mar mine own inheritance: [2]redeem thou my right to thyself[1]; for I cannot redeem †it.

7 [f]Now this [3]was the manner[1] in former time in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning [4]changing,[1] for to confirm all things; a man [5]plucked[1] off his shoe, and gave †it to his neighbour: and this [6]was a testimony[1] in Israel.

8 [7]Therefore the[1] kinsman said unto Boaz, Buy [8]it for thee. So[1] he drew off his shoe.

9 °¶[1] And Boaz said unto the elders, and †unto all the people, Ye †are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that †was Elimelech's, and all that †was Chilion's and Mahlon's, of the hand of Naomi.

10 Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, [h]that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye †are witnesses this day.

11 And all the people that †were in the gate, and the elders, said, [k]We are witnesses. [k]The LORD make the woman that is come into thine house like Rachel and like Leah, which two did [m]build the house of Israel: and [n]do thou worthily in [1p]Ephratah,[1] and [q]be famous in Beth-lehem:

12 And let thy house be like the house of [2]Pharez,[1] [r]whom Tamar bare unto Judah, of [s]the seed which the LORD shall give thee of this young woman.

13 °¶[1] So Boaz [t]took Ruth, and she [u]was his wife: and when[1] he went in unto her, [4] [v]the LORD gave her conception, and she bare a son.

14 And [c]the women said unto Naomi, Blessed †be the LORD, which hath not [d]left thee this

CHAPTER 1.

[o 1] Elkanah and his two wives. 9 Hannah's prayer. 20 Samuel is born, 24 and presented to the LORD.[1]

NOW there was a certain man of Ramathaim-zophim, of [1] mount Ephraim, and his name [1] was [c] Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, [d] an [2] Ephrathite [1]:

2 And he had two wives; the name of the one [1] was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

3 And this man went up out of his city [3] yearly [1] [g] to worship and to sacrifice unto the LORD of hosts in [i] Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, [4] the priests of [1] the LORD, [1] were there.

4 [o] ¶ [1] And when the [5] time was that Elkanah [n] offered, [1] he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters, portions:

5 But unto Hannah he gave [6 r] a worthy portion; [1] for he loved Hannah [7]: [1] [u] but the LORD had shut up her womb.

6 And her [8] adversary also [1]

8 [1] Then said [1] Elkanah her husband [2] to [1] her, Hannah, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thy heart grieved? [1] am not I [c] better to thee than ten sons?

9 [o] ¶ [1] So Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shiloh, and after they had drunk. Now Eli the priest sat upon [3] a seat by a [1] post of [h] the temple of the LORD.

10 [k] And she [1] was [l] in bitterness of soul, and prayed unto the LORD, and wept sore.

11 And she [m] vowed a vow, and said, O LORD of hosts, if thou wilt indeed [p] look on the affliction of thine handmaid, and [q] remember me, and not forget thine handmaid, but wilt give unto thine handmaid [1 t] a man child, then I will give him unto the LORD all the days of his life, and [x] there shall no razor come upon his head.

13 Now Hannah, she spake in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had been drunken.

14 And Eli said unto her, How long wilt thou be drunken? put away thy wine from thee.

15 And Hannah answered and said, No, my lord, I [t]am a woman [e]of a sorrowful spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but [1]have[1] [g]poured out my soul before the LORD.

16 Count not thine handmaid for [2]a daughter of [3][i]Belial: for out of the abundance of my [k]complaint and [4]grief[1] have I spoken hitherto.

17 Then Eli answered and said, [p]Go in peace: and [q]the God of Israel grant [o]thee[1] thy petition that thou hast asked of him.

18 And she said, [r]Let [5]thine handmaid[1] find grace in thy sight. So the woman [u]went her way, and did eat, and her countenance was no more sad.

19 ¶[1] And they rose up in the morning early, and worshipped before the LORD, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah: and Elkanah [w]knew Hannah his wife; and [c]the LORD remembered her.

20 [6]Wherefore[1] it came to pass, [c]when the time was come about[7] after Hannah had conceived, that she bare a son, and[1] called his name [y]Samuel, saying, Because I have asked him of the LORD.

21 And the man Elkanah, and all his house, [k]went up to offer unto the LORD the yearly sacrifice, and his vow.

22 But Hannah went not up; for she said unto her husband, I will not go up until the child be weaned, and [t]then I will [a]bring him, that he may appear before the LORD, and there [y]abide [q]for ever.

23 And [r]Elkanah her husband said unto her, Do what seemeth thee good; tarry until thou have weaned him; [z]only the LORD establish his word. So the woman [1]abode,[1] and gave her son suck[2] until she weaned him.

24 ¶[1] And when she had weaned him, she [b]took him up with her, with [3]three bullocks, and one ephah of [4]flour,[1] and a [5]bottle of wine, and brought him unto [c]the house of the LORD in Shiloh: and the child [t]was young.

25 And they slew [6]a[1] bullock, and [d]brought the child to Eli.

26 And she said, Oh my lord, [t]as thy soul liveth, my lord, I [t]am the woman that stood by thee here, praying unto the LORD.

27 [h]For this child I prayed; and the LORD hath given me my petition which I asked of him:

28 [l]Therefore [7]also I have [m]lent[1] him to the LORD; as long as he liveth [n]he [8]shall be lent[1] to the LORD. And [o]he [7]worshipped the LORD there.

7 The LORD [a] maketh poor, and maketh rich: [c] he bringeth low, [2] and [!] lifteth up.

8 [c] He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, [3] and [!] lifteth up the [4] beggar [!] from the dunghill, [h] to [5] set them among [!] princes, and [o] to make them [!] inherit the throne of glory: for [i] the pillars of the earth [†] are the LORD'S, and he hath set the world upon them.

9 [l] He will keep the feet of his [6] saints, and [!] the wicked shall be [7] silent [!] in darkness; for by strength shall no man prevail.

10 [8] The adversaries of [!] the LORD shall be [q] broken to pieces; [9 r] out of heaven shall he thunder upon them [!]: [m] the LORD shall judge the ends of the earth; and he shall give strength unto his king, and [y] exalt the horn of his anointed.

11 [1] And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house. [2] And the child did minister unto the LORD before Eli the priest.

12 ¶ Now the sons of Eli [†] were [2 c] sons of [3] Belial; [4 d] they knew not the LORD.

13 And the [5] priests' custom [!] with the people [†] was, that, when any man offered sacrifice, the priest's servant came, while the flesh was in seething, with a fleshhook of three teeth in his hand;

14 And he struck [†] it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the fleshhook brought up the priest took [6] for himself. [!] So they did in Shiloh unto all the Israelites that came thither.

15 [7] Also [!] before they [i] burnt the fat, the priest's servant came, and said to the man that sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priest; for he will not have sodden flesh of thee, but raw.

16 And [8] if any [!] man said unto him, [9] Let them not fail to [!] burn the fat [1 p] presently, and [†] then take [†] as much as thy soul desireth; then [2] he would answer him, Nay; [!] but thou shalt give [†] it me now: and if not, I will take [†] it by force.

CHAPTER 3.

[o]1 How the word of the Lord was first revealed to Samuel. 11 God telleth Samuel the destruction of Eli's house. 19 Samuel groweth in credit.[1]

AND [b]the child Samuel ministered unto the LORD before Eli. And [d]the word of the LORD was [1]precious in those days; [t]there was no [2]open vision.

2 And it came to pass at that time, when Eli [t]was laid down in his place, [3f]and his eyes began[1] to wax dim, [t]that he could not see[4];[1]

3 And [o]ere[1] [h]the lamp of God [5]went out [i]in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was,[1] and Samuel was laid down to sleep[6];

4 That the LORD called Samuel: and he [7]answered,[1] Here [t]am I.

5 And he ran unto Eli, and said, Here [t]am I; for thou calledst me. And he said, I called not; lie down again. And he went and lay down.

6 And the LORD called yet again, Samuel. And Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, Here [t]am I; for thou [8]didst call[1] me. And he answered, I called not, my son; lie down again.

7 [r]Now Samuel [t]did not yet know the LORD, neither was the word of the LORD yet revealed unto him.

8 And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. And he arose and went to Eli, and said, Here [t]am I; for thou [8]didst call[1] me. And Eli perceived that the LORD had called the child.

9 Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go, lie down: and it shall be, if he call thee, that thou shalt say, Speak, LORD; for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

10 And the LORD came, and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel [9]answered,[1] Speak; for thy servant heareth.

11 [o]¶ And the LORD said to Samuel, Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, [f]at which both the ears of every one that heareth it shall tingle.

14 And therefore I have sworn unto the house of Eli, that the iniquity of Eli's house [i]shall not be [6]purged with sacrifice nor offering for ever.

15 °¶[1] And Samuel lay until the morning, and opened the doors of the house of the LORD. And Samuel feared to shew Eli the vision.

16 Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel, my son. And he [f]answered,[t] Here [t]am I.

17 And he said, What [t]is the thing that the LORD hath [8]said[t] unto thee? I pray thee hide [t]it not from me: [p]God do so to thee, and [q]more also, if thou hide [t]any [r]thing from me of all the things that he [9]said[t] unto thee.

Israel: and when [1a]they joined battle, Israel was smitten before the Philistines: and they slew of [a]the [2]army in the field about four thousand men.

3 °¶[1] And when the people were come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, Wherefore hath the LORD smitten us [3]to day[t] before the Philistines? Let us [k]fetch the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of Shiloh unto us, that[t], when it cometh among us, it may[t] save us out of the hand of our enemies.

4 So the people sent to Shiloh, [5]that they might bring[t] from thence the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, [m]which [6]dwelleth between [n]the cherubims[t]: and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, [t]were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

5 And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again.

6 And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What [t]meaneth the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the ark of the LORD was come into the camp.

7 And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, God is come into the camp. And they said, Woe unto us! [o]for there hath not been such a thing [c]heretofore.

8 Woe unto us! who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty [7]Gods[t]? these [t]are the [7]Gods[t] that smote the Egyptians with all [8]the plagues[t] in the wilderness.

9 [e]Be strong, and quit yourselves like men, O ye Philistines, that ye be not servants unto the Hebrews, [f]as they have been to you: [g]quit yourselves like men, and fight.

13 And when he came, lo, Eli sat upon [2g] a seat by the way-side watching [1]: for his heart trembled for the ark of God. And when the man came into the city, and told [†] it, all the city cried out.

14 And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, What [†] meaneth the noise of this tumult? And the man [3] came in hastily, [1] and told Eli.

15 Now Eli was ninety and eight years old; and [k] his eyes [†] were [4] dim, [1] that he could not see.

18 And it came to pass, when he made mention of the ark of God, that he fell from off [9] the [1] seat backward by the side of the gate, and his neck brake, and he died: for he was an old man, and heavy. [x] And he had judged Israel forty years.

God of Israel be carried about unto Gath. And they carried the ark of the God of Israel about †thither.

9 And it was †so, that, after they had carried it about, [c] the hand of the LORD was against the city [d] with a very great [1] destruction[1]: and [e] he smote the men of the city, both small and great, and [2] they had emerods in their secret parts.

10 ¶ Therefore[1] they sent the ark of God to Ekron. And it came to pass, as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to [l] us, to slay us and our people.

11 [2]So they sent[1] and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and [4] said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to [5]his[1] own place, that it slay [l] us not, and our people: for there was a deadly [6]destruction[1] throughout all the city; [u] the hand of God was very heavy there.

12 And the men that died not were smitten with the [7]emerods[1]: and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

CHAPTER 6.

[o]1 The Philistines take counsel how to send back the ark. 10 They bring it on a new cart with an offering unto Beth-shemesh. 19 The people are smitten for looking into the ark.[1]

AND the ark of the LORD was [8] in the [8]country of the Philistines seven months[9].

2 And the Philistines [b] called for the priests and the diviners, saying, What shall we do [1]to[1] the ark of the LORD? [2]tell[1] us wherewith we shall send it to [2]his[1] place.

3 And they said, If ye send away the ark of the God of Israel, send it not [e] empty; but in any wise return him [d] a [4]trespass offering[1]: then ye shall be healed, and it shall [e] be known to you why his hand is not removed from you.

4 Then said they, What †shall be the [5]trespass[1] offering which we shall return to him? [6]They answered,[1] Five golden [1]emerods,[1] and five golden mice, [a] according to the number of the lords of the Philistines: for one plague †was on [2b] you all, and on your lords.

5 Wherefore ye shall make images of your [1]emerods,[1] and images of your mice that [f] mar the land; and ye shall [g] give glory unto the God of Israel: peradventure he will [h] lighten his hand from off you, and from off [i] your gods, and from off your land.

6 Wherefore then do ye harden your hearts, [k] as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? when he had [3] wrought [m] wonderfully among them, did they not let [2p] the people go, and they departed?

7 Now therefore [4]make[1] [q] a new cart, and °take[1] two milch kine, [r] on which there hath come no yoke, and tie the kine to the cart, and bring their calves home from them:

8 And take the ark of the LORD, and lay it upon the cart; and put [x] the jewels of gold, which ye return him [5] for a trespass[1] offering, in a coffer by the side thereof; and send it away, that it may go.

9 And see, if it goeth up by the way of [6]his own coast[1] to [y] Beth-shemesh, †then [z] he hath done us this great evil: but if not, then [a] we shall know that †it is not his hand †that smote us; it †was a chance †that happened to us.

10 °¶[1] And the men did so; and took two milch kine, and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home:

11 And they [7]laid[1] the ark of the LORD upon the cart, and the coffer with the mice of gold and the images of their [8]emerods.[1]

12 And the kine took the straight way [9] to the way of Beth-shemesh, and went along the highway,[1] lowing as they went, and turned not aside †to the right hand or †to the left; and the lords of the Philistines went after them unto the border of Beth-shemesh.

13 And †they of Beth-shemesh †were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley: and they

○1 The ark is brought into the house of Abinadab. 2 The Israelites solemnly repent. 13 The Philistines are subdued. 15 Samuel judgeth Israel.

1 AND the men of [2 a]Kirjath-jearim[1] came, and fetched up the ark of the LORD, and brought it into the house of [b]Abinadab in [3]the hill, and sanctified Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the LORD.

2 [4]And it came to pass, [5]while[1] the ark abode in [2]Kirjath-jearim[1], that the time was long; for it was twenty years: and all the house of Israel [6]lamented after the LORD.

3 ○¶ [1]And Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye do [c]return unto the LORD with all your [7]hearts,[1] †then [e]put away the strange gods and [8 f]Ashtaroth from among you, and [g]*h*prepare your hearts unto the LORD, and [i]serve him only: and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.

4 Then the children of Israel did put away [8 k]Baalim and [8 l]Ashtaroth, and served the LORD only.

5 [1]And Samuel said, [l]Gather all Israel to [2]Mizpeh[1], and I will pray for you unto the LORD.

6 And they gathered together to [2]Mizpeh[1], [n]and drew water, and poured †it out before the LORD, and [p]fasted on that day, and said there, [q]We have sinned against the LORD. And Samuel judged the children of Israel in [2]Mizpeh[1].

7 And when the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to [2]Mizpeh[1], the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard †it, they were afraid of the Philistines.

8 And the children of Israel said to Samuel, [u]Cease not to cry unto the LORD our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistines.

9 ○¶ [1]And Samuel took a sucking lamb, and offered †it for a [5]burnt offering wholly[1] unto the LORD: and [v]Samuel cried unto the LORD for Israel; [4 7]and the LORD [w]heard[1] him.

10 And as Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel: [a]but the LORD thundered with a great [1]thunder on that day upon the Philistines, and discomfited them; and they were smitten [2] before Israel.

11 And the men of Israel went out of [3]Mizpeh[1], and pursued the Philistines, and smote them, until †they came under Beth-car.

12 Then Samuel [d]took a stone, and set †it between [3]Mizpeh[1] and Shen, and called the name of it [4][e]Eben-ezer, saying, Hitherto hath the LORD helped us.

13 °¶ [f]So the Philistines were subdued, and they [i]came no more [5]into the coast[1] of Israel: and the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

14 And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even unto Gath; and the [6]coasts[1] thereof did Israel deliver out of the [7]hands[1] of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

15 And Samuel [n]judged Israel all the days of his life.

16 And he went from year to year [p]in circuit to Beth-el, and Gilgal, and [8]Mizpeh, and[1] judged Israel in all those places.

17 And [r]his return †was to Ramah[9];[1] for there †was his house; and there he judged Israel[1]; and there he [u]built[1] an altar unto the LORD.

6 °¶ But the thing [c]displeased Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us. And Samuel prayed unto the LORD.

7 And the LORD said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee: for [f]they have not rejected thee, but [g]they have rejected me, that I should not [3]reign[1] over them.

the sacrifice; and afterwards they eat that be bidden. Now therefore get you up; for [1]about' [b]this time ye shall find him.

14 And they went up [2]into the city: and when they were come into' the city, behold, Samuel came out against them, for to go up to the high place.

15 ¶ [d]Now the LORD had [3e]told Samuel in his ear' a day before Saul came, saying, 16 [4]To morrow' about this time I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin, [f]and thou shalt anoint him [5]to be captain' over my people Israel, [6]that he may' save my people out of the hand of the Philistines: for I have [h]looked upon my people, because their cry is come unto me.

17 And when Samuel saw Saul, the LORD [7]said unto him, [i]Behold the man [8]whom I spake to thee of'! this same shall [9k]reign' over my people.

18 Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the seer's house [t]is.

19 And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I [t]am the seer[1]:' go up before me unto the high place[2];' for ye shall eat with me [3]to day, and to morrow' I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that [t]is in thine heart.

20 And as for [m]thine asses that were lost [n]three days ago, set not thy mind on them; for they are found. And [4]on whom [r]is all the desire of Israel? Is it not on thee, and on' all thy father's house?

21 And Saul answered and said, † [x]Am not I a Benjamite, of the [y]smallest of the tribes of Israel? and [z]my family the least of all the families of the [5]tribe of Benjamin? wherefore then speakest thou [6e]so to me'?

22 And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the [7]parlour,' and made them sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden, which [t]were about thirty persons.

23 And Samuel said unto the cook, Bring the portion which I gave thee, of which I said unto thee, Set it by thee.

24 And the cook took up "the [1]shoulder,' and [t]that which [t]was upon it, and set [t]it before Saul. And Samuel said, Behold that which [2]is [c]left'! set it before thee, and eat: for unto this' time hath it been kept for thee [3]since I said,' I have invited the people. So Saul did eat with Samuel that day.

25 ° ¶' And when they were come down from the high place into the city, [4]Samuel' communed with Saul upon [y]the [5]top of the house.'

26 And they arose early: and it came to pass about the spring of the day, that Samuel called [6]Saul to the top of the house,' saying, Up, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out both of them, he and Samuel, abroad.

27 [7]And as' they were going down [8]to' the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the servant pass on before us, (and he passed on,) but stand thou still [9]a while, that I may shew thee' the word of God.

[1]THEN [p]Samuel took [2]a' vial of oil, and poured [t]it upon his head, [q]and kissed him, and said, † Is it not [3]because' [r]the LORD hath anointed thee [4]to be captain' over [u]his inheritance?

2 When thou art departed from me [5]to day,' then thou shalt find two men by "Rachel's sepulchre [6] in the border of Benjamin [b]at Zelzah; and they will say unto thee, The asses which thou wentest to seek are found: and, lo, thy father hath left [d]the care of the asses, and [7]sorroweth' for you, saying, What shall I do for my son?

9 [o] ¶ And it was [†] so, that when he had turned his [x] back to go from Samuel, God [4 y] gave him another heart: and all those signs came to pass that day.

10 [5] And [a] when they came thither to [6] the hill, behold, [b] a [7] company' of prophets met him; and [c] the [8] Spirit' of God came [9] upon him, and he prophesied among them.

11 And it came to pass, when all that knew him beforetime saw that, behold, he prophesied [1] among' the prophets, then the people said [z] one to another, What [†] is this [†] that is come unto the son of Kish? [†] Is Saul also among the prophets?

12 And one [2] of the same place answered and said, [2] But' who [†] is their father? Therefore it became a proverb, [†] Is Saul also among the prophets?

13 And when he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place.

14 ¶ And Saul's uncle said unto him and to his servant, Whither went ye? And he said, To seek the asses: and when we saw that [†] they were [1] no where,' we came to Samuel.

15 And Saul's uncle said, Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said unto you.

16 And Saul said unto his uncle, He told us plainly that the asses were found. But [2] of' the matter of the kingdom, whereof Samuel spake, he told him not.

17 ¶ And Samuel called the people together [h] unto the LORD [†] to [3] Mizpeh';

21 [4] When he had caused' the tribe of Benjamin [o] to come' near by their families, [5] the family of Matri was taken,' and Saul the son of Kish was taken [6]: and' when they sought him, he could not be found.

22 Therefore they [7 d] enquired' of the LORD further, [8] if the man should yet come thither.' And the LORD answered, Behold, he hath hid himself among the stuff.

CHAPTER 11.

[o] 1 Nahash offereth them of Jabesh-gilead a reproachful condition. 4 They send messengers, and are delivered by Saul. 12 Saul thereby confirmed king.

[1] THEN [r] Nahash the Ammonite came up, and encamped against [s] Jabesh-gilead: and all the men of Jabesh said unto Nahash, [2] Make a covenant with us, and we will serve thee.

2 And Nahash the Ammonite [1] answered [1] them, On this [†] condition will I make [2] a covenant [1] with you, that [o] I may thrust out [1] all your right eyes [3], and lay it [†] for [a] a reproach upon all Israel.

3 And the elders of Jabesh said unto him, [b] Give us seven days' respite, that we may send messengers unto all the [4] coasts of Israel: and then, if [5] there be no man [1] to save us, we will come out to thee.

4 ¶ [1] Then came the messengers [g] to Gibeah of Saul, and [6] told the tidings [1] in the ears of the people: and [h] all the people lifted up their [7] voices, [1] and wept.

5 And, behold, Saul came [8] after the herd out of the field; and Saul said, What [†] aileth the people that they weep? And they told him the [1] tidings [1] of the men of Jabesh.

6 [b] And the [2] Spirit [1] of God came [2] upon Saul when he heard those [1] tidings [1], and his anger was kindled greatly.

7 And he took a yoke of oxen, and [4 a] hewed [1] them in pieces, and sent [†] them throughout all the [5] coasts [1] of Israel by the [6] hands [1] of messengers, saying, [f] Whosoever cometh not forth after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done unto his oxen. And [7] the fear [1] of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out [8 h] with one consent. [1]

8 And [o] when [1] he numbered them in [i] Bezek [9], [1] the children [k] of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand.

9 And they said unto the messengers that came, Thus shall ye say unto the men of Jabesh-gilead, [1] To morrow, by that time the sun be [1] hot, ye shall have [2 q] help. [1] And the messengers came and [2] shewed it to [1] the men of Jabesh; and they were glad.

10 Therefore the men of Jabesh said, [4] To morrow [1] [r] we will come out unto you, and ye shall do with us all that seemeth good unto you.

11 And it was [†] so on the morrow, that [s] Saul put the people [z] in three companies; and they came into the midst of the [5] host [1] in the morning watch, and [6] slew [1] the Ammonites until the heat of the day: and it came to pass, that they which remained were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.

12 ¶ [1] And the people said unto Samuel, [c] Who [†] is he that said, Shall Saul reign over us? [d] bring the men, that we may put them to death.

13 And Saul said, [e] There shall not a man be put to death this day: for [7] to day [1] [f] the LORD hath wrought [8] salvation [1] in Israel.

14 [9] Then said Samuel to the people, Come [e], [1] and let us go [i] to Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there.

CHAPTER 12.

[o] 1 Samuel testifieth his integrity. 6 He reproveth the people of ingratitude. 16 He terrifieth them with thunder in harvest time. 20 He comforteth them in God's mercy.

AND Samuel said unto all Israel, Behold, I have hearkened unto [f] your voice in all that ye said unto me, and [t] have made a king over you.

2 And now, behold, the king [n] walketh before you: [p] and I am old and grayhead; and, behold, my sons [t] are with you: and I have walked before you from my [1] childhood[1] unto this day.

3 [2] Behold, here I am: [1] witness against me before the LORD, and before [u] his anointed: [y] whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I [3] received any [c] bribe[1] [4] [d] to [e] blind mine eyes therewith? and I will restore it you.

4 And they said, Thou hast not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, neither hast thou taken [5] ought[1] of any man's hand.

5 And he said unto them, The LORD [†] is witness against you, and his anointed [†] is witness this day, [k] that ye have not found [5] ought[1] [†] in my hand. And they [6] answered, He is[1] witness.

6 [o] ¶ [1] And Samuel said unto the people, [†] [u] It is the LORD that [7] [p] advanced[1] Moses and Aaron, and that brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt.

7 Now therefore stand still, that I may [8] [r] reason[1] with you before the LORD [9] of[1] all the [s] righteous acts of the LORD, which he did [z] to you and to your fathers.

8 "When Jacob was come into Egypt, and your fathers [b] cried unto the LORD, then the LORD [u] sent Moses and Aaron, [1] which[1] brought forth your fathers out of Egypt, and made them [1] dwell in this place.

9 [2] And when[1] they [c] forgat the LORD their God, [3] [d] he sold them into the hand of Sisera, captain of the host of Hazor, and into the hand of [e] the Philistines, and into the hand of the king [f] of Moab, and they fought against them.

10 And they cried unto the LORD, and said, [g] We have sinned, because we have forsaken the LORD, [h] and have served [4] Baalim and [4] Ashtaroth: but now [k] deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve thee.

11 And the LORD sent [m] Jerubbaal, and [5] Bedan, and [q] Jephthah, and [7] Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side, and ye dwelled [6] safe.[1]

12 And when ye saw that [t] Nahash the king of the children of Ammon came against you, [z] ye said unto me, Nay[7,1] but a king shall reign over us: when [z] the LORD your God [†] was your king.

13 Now therefore [a] behold the king [b] whom ye have chosen, and [†] send whom ye have [8] desired[1]! and, behold, [f] the LORD hath set a king over you.

14 If ye will [g] fear the LORD, and serve him, and [9] obey[1] his voice, and not rebel against the [h] commandment of the LORD, [1] then shall[1] both ye and also the king that reigneth over you [2] [i] continue following[1] the LORD your God[3]:

15 But if ye will [m] not [4] obey[1] the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then shall the hand of the LORD be against you, [5] [g] as [†] it was against your fathers.

16 [o] ¶ [1] Now therefore [r] stand[6] and see this great thing, which the LORD will do before your eyes.

17 [†] Is it not [u] wheat harvest [7] to day[1]? [y] I will call unto the LORD, [8] and he shall[1] send thunder and rain; [9] that ye may perceive[1] and see that [c] your wickedness [†] is great, which ye have done in the sight of the LORD, in asking you a king.

18 So Samuel called unto the LORD; and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day: and [b] all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.

19 And all the people said unto Samuel, [c] Pray for thy servants unto the LORD thy God, that we die not: for we have added unto all our sins this evil, to ask us a king.

20 °¶ And Samuel said unto the people, Fear not: ye have [1] done all this [2] wickedness: yet turn not aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart;

21 [3] And [c] turn ye not aside: [f] for then should ye go after vain [4] things, which cannot profit nor deliver [5]; for they † are vain.

SAUL [9 a] reigned one year; and when he had [1] reigned two years over Israel [1],

2 [2] Saul chose him three thousand † men of Israel; † whereof two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in [3] mount [1] Beth-el, and a thousand were with Jonathan in [c] Gibeah of Benjamin: and the rest of the people he sent every man to his tent.

3 And Jonathan smote [d] the garrison of the Philistines that † was in [a] Geba, and the Philistines heard † of it. And Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Let the Hebrews hear.

4 And all Israel heard say † that Saul had smitten [1] a [1] garrison of the Philistines, and † that Israel also [d] was had in abomination with the Philistines. And the people were [2] called [1] together after Saul to Gilgal.

5 ¶ And the Philistines [3] gathered [1] themselves together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which † is on the sea shore in multitude: and they came up, and pitched in Michmash, eastward [4] from [1] Beth-aven.

6 When the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait, (for the people were distressed,) then the people [k] did hide themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in [5] high places, [1] and in [e] pits.

7 [7] And some of [1] the Hebrews [8] went [1] over Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead [9]. As [1] for Saul, he † was yet in Gilgal, and all the people [t] followed him trembling.

8 ¶ [x] And he tarried seven days, according to the set time that Samuel had appointed: but Samuel came not to Gilgal; and the people were scattered from him.

9 And Saul said, Bring hither [1] a [1] burnt offering to me, and [2] peace offerings. And he offered the burnt offering.

10 And it came to [3] pass, that [1] as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might [4 b] salute him.

11 °¶ [1] And Samuel said, What hast thou done? And Saul said, Because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and † that thou camest not within the days appointed, and † that the Philistines [5] gathered [1] themselves together at Michmash;

21 [z]Yet they had [z]a file for the mattocks, and for the coulters, and for the forks, and for the axes[8], and [b]to sharpen[1] the goads.

[o] 1 Jonathan miraculously smiteth the Philistines' garrison. 15 A divine terror maketh them beat themselves. 24 Saul's unadvised adjuration.

NOW [g]it [2]came to pass[1] upon a day, that Jonathan the son of Saul said unto the young man that bare his armour, Come[o],[1] and let us go over to the Philistines' garrison, that [t]is on [3]the other[1] side. But he told not his father.

2 And Saul [4]tarried[1] in the uttermost part of Gibeah under [5]a[1] pomegranate tree which [t]is in Migron: and the people that [t]were with him [t]were [k]about six hundred men;

3 And [6][l]Ahiah,[1] the son of Ahitub, [7][m]I-chabod's[1] brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the [8]LORD'S priest[1] in Shiloh, [p]wearing an ephod. And the people knew not that Jonathan was gone.

4 [o]¶[1] And between the [9]passages,[1] by which Jonathan sought to go over [7]unto the Philistines' garrison, [t]there was a [1]sharp rock[1] on the one side, and a [1]sharp rock[1] on the other side: and the name of the one [t]was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.

6 And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armour, Come[o],[1] and let us go over unto the garrison of these uncircumcised: it may be that the LORD will work for us: for [t]there is no restraint to the LORD [q]to save by many or by few.

20 And Saul and all the people that [†] were with him [2 d] assembled themselves, and they [2 S] were gathered together, and came to the battle: and, behold, [e] every man's sword was against his fellow, and there was a very great discomfiture.

21 [3] Moreover [1] the Hebrews [†] that were with the Philistines [4] before that time, [1] which went up with them [5] into the camp [6] from the country round about, [7] even they also turned to be with the Israelites that [†] were with Saul and Jonathan.

22 Likewise all the men of Israel which [g] had hid themselves in [8] mount [1] Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle.

23 [h] So the LORD saved Israel that day: and the battle passed over [9] [i] unto [1] Beth-aven.

24 ° ¶ [1] And the men of Israel were distressed that day: [1] for Saul had [1] [k] adjured the people, saying, Cursed [†] be the man that eateth [†] any food until [2] evening, that I may be avenged on mine enemies. So none of the people tasted ° any [1] food.

26 And when the people were come [1] into the wood [1], behold, [5] the honey dropped [6]; [1] but no man put his hand to his mouth [7]: [1] for the people feared the oath.

27 But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oath: wherefore he put forth the end of the rod that [†] was in his hand, and dipped it in [8] an [1] honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes were enlightened.

28 Then answered one of the people, and said, Thy father straitly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed [†] be the man that eateth ° any [1] food this day. And the people were [u] faint.

29 Then said Jonathan, My father hath troubled the land: see, I pray you, how mine eyes have been enlightened, because I tasted a little of this honey.

30 How much more, if haply the people had eaten freely [1] to day [1] of the spoil of their enemies which they found? [2] for had there not been now a much greater slaughter [1] among the Philistines? [2]

31 And they smote [4] the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon: and the people were very faint.

32 And the people flew upon the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew †them on the ground: and the people did eat †them [d] with the blood.

33 °¶ [1] Then they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sin against the LORD, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, Ye have [5g] transgressed [1]: roll a great stone unto me this day.

34 And Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people, and say unto them, Bring me hither every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and slay †them here, and eat; and sin not against the LORD in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox [f] with him that night, and slew †them there.

35 And Saul [m] built an altar unto the LORD: [n] the same was the first altar that he built unto the LORD.

36 ¶ And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and spoil them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they said, Do whatsoever seemeth good unto thee. Then said the priest, Let us draw near hither unto God.

37 And Saul asked counsel of God, Shall I go down after the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into the hand of Israel? But [n] he answered him not that day.

38 And Saul said, [y] Draw [6] ye near hither, all the [z] chief [1] of the people: and know and see wherein this sin hath been this day.

39 For, †[a] as the LORD liveth, which saveth Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die. But †there was not a man among all the people †that answered him.

40 Then said he unto all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side. And the people said unto Saul, Do what seemeth good unto thee.

41 Therefore Saul said unto the LORD [1] God of Israel, [2a] Give a perfect lot. [1] [b] And [3] Saul and Jonathan were taken [1]: but the people [c] escaped.

42 And Saul said, Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was taken.

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, [c] Tell me what thou hast done. And Jonathan told him, and said, [f] I did [4] but [1] taste a little honey with the end of the rod that †was in mine hand [5], [1] †and, lo, I must die.

44 And Saul [c] answered, [1] [h] God do so and more also: [i] for thou shalt surely die, Jonathan.

45 And the people said unto Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who hath wrought this great salvation in Israel? God forbid: †[k] as the LORD liveth, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he hath wrought with God this day. So the people [7] rescued Jonathan, that he died not.

46 Then Saul went up from following the Philistines: and the Philistines went to their own place.

47 ¶ [8] So Saul took [1] the kingdom over Israel, [9] and [1] fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, and against the children of [p] Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of [q] Zobah, and against the Philistines: and whithersoever he turned himself, [1] he vexed †them.

48 And he [2r] gathered an host, [1] and [s] smote the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of them that spoiled them.

5 SAMUEL also ' said unto Saul, 'The LORD sent me to anoint thee †to be king over his people, over Israel: now therefore hearken thou unto the voice of the words of the LORD.

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I [e]remember ' †that which Amalek did to Israel, [n]how he [7]laid wait for ' him in the way, when he came up [8]from ' Egypt.

3 Now go and smite Amalek, and [9 q] utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass.

4 ' And Saul [2]gathered the people together, ' and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men of Judah.

5 And Saul came to [3]a ' city of Amalek, and [4 t]laid wait in the valley.

6 [o] ¶ ' And Saul said unto [u]the Kenites, [x]Go, depart, get you down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them: for [5]ye shewed kindness to all the children of Israel, when they came up out of Egypt. So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

10 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Samuel, saying,

13 And Samuel came to Saul: and Saul said unto him, [p]Blessed †be thou of the LORD: I have performed the commandment of the LORD.

14 And Samuel said, What †meaneth then this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?

15 And Saul said, They have brought them from the Amalekites: [r]for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God; and the rest we have [5]utterly destroyed.

16 Then Samuel said unto Saul, Stay, and I will tell thee what the LORD hath said to me this night. And he said unto him, Say on.

17 And Samuel said, [6 y] When ' thou †wast little in thine own sight, †wast thou not †made the head of the tribes of Israel[7], and ' the LORD anointed thee king over Israel[8]?'

18 And the LORD sent thee on a journey, and said, Go and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until [d]they be consumed.

19 Wherefore then didst thou not obey the voice of the LORD,

20 And Saul said unto Samuel, Yea, [a] I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, and have gone the way which the LORD sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have [2] utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

21 [b] But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the [3] things [c] which should have been utterly destroyed [1], to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God in Gilgal.

22 And Samuel said, [d] Hath the LORD [t]as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, [e] to obey [t]is better than sacrifice, [t]and to hearken than the fat of rams.

23 For rebellion [t]is as the sin of [4] [h] witchcraft, and stubbornness [t]is as [5] iniquity and idolatry.[1] Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, [f] he hath also rejected thee from [t]being king.

24 ¶ [1] [m] And Saul said unto Samuel, I have sinned: for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD, and thy words: because I [n] feared the people, and obeyed their voice.

25 Now therefore, I pray thee, pardon my sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD.

26 And Samuel said unto Saul, I will not return with thee: [u] for thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD hath rejected thee from being king over Israel.

27 And as Samuel turned about to go away, [z] he laid hold upon the skirt of his [6] mantle,[1] and it rent.

28 And Samuel said unto him, [c] The LORD hath rent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to a neighbour of thine, [t]that is better than thou.

29 And also the [7] [c] Strength of Israel [h] will not lie nor repent: for he [t]is not a man, that he should repent.

30 Then he said, I have sinned: [t]yet [k] honour me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD thy God.

31 So Samuel turned again after Saul; and Saul worshipped the LORD.

32 ¶ Then said Samuel, Bring ye hither to me Agag the king of the Amalekites. And Agag came unto him [1] delicately. And Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past.

33 And Samuel said, [c] As thy sword hath made women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal.

34 ¶ Then Samuel went to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house to [y] Gibeah of Saul.

35 And [y] Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death [2]: nevertheless [1] Samuel [i] mourned for Saul: and the LORD [k] repented that he had made Saul king over Israel.

2 And Samuel said, How can I go? if Saul hear [t]it, he will kill me. And the LORD said, Take an heifer [x] with thee, and say, [y] I am come to sacrifice to the LORD.

3 And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and [a] I will shew thee what thou shalt do: and [b] thou shalt anoint unto me [t]him whom I name unto thee.

4 And Samuel did that which the LORD spake, and came to Beth-lehem. And the elders of the [4] town [d] trembled at his [f] coming, [1] and said, [y] Comest thou peaceably?

6 °¶ And it came to pass, when they were come, that he looked on [1b] Eliab, and [c] said, Surely the LORD'S anointed †is before him.

7 But the LORD said unto Samuel, Look not on [d] his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have [2] refused' him: [e] for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man [h] looketh on the [f] outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the [i] heart.

8 Then Jesse called [m] Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this.

9 Then Jesse made [3g] Shammah to pass by. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this.

10 [4] Again,' Jesse made seven of his sons to pass before Samuel. And Samuel said unto Jesse, The LORD hath not chosen these.

11 And Samuel said unto Jesse, Are here all †thy children? And he said, 'There remaineth yet the youngest, and, behold, he keepeth the sheep. And Samuel said unto Jesse, [n] Send and fetch him: for we will not sit [5y] down till he come hither.

13 Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and [c] anointed him in the midst of his brethren: and [e] the [8] Spirit' of the LORD came [9] upon David from that day forward. So Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.

14 ¶ [1y] But the Spirit' of the LORD [2] departed from Saul, and [i] an evil spirit from the LORD [3k] troubled him.

15 And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth thee.

16 Let our lord now command thy servants, †which are [m] before thee, to seek out a man [o], †who is a cunning player on [4] an' harp: and it shall come to pass, when the evil spirit from God is upon thee, that he shall [a] play with his hand, and thou shalt be well.

17 And Saul said unto his servants, Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring †him to me.

18 Then answered one of the [1] servants,' and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Beth-lehemite, †that is cunning in playing, and [c] a mighty [2] valiant man,' and a man of war, and [3] prudent in [4y] matters,' and a comely person, and [k] the LORD †is with him.

19 °¶ Wherefore Saul sent messengers unto Jesse, and said, Send me David thy son, [n] which †is with the sheep.

20 And Jesse [p] took an ass laden with bread, and a [5] bottle of wine, and a kid, and sent †them by David his son unto Saul.

21 And David came to Saul, and [r] stood before him: and he loved him greatly; and he became his armourbearer.

22 And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Let David, I pray thee, stand before me; for he hath found favour in my sight.

23 And it came to pass, when [x] the evil spirit from God was upon Saul, that David took [6] an' harp, and played with his hand: so Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him.

4 °¶ [1] And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named [a]Goliath, of [b]Gath, whose height †was six cubits and a span.

5 And the had an helmet of brass upon his head, and he [1]was [c]armed [1] with a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat †was five thousand shekels of brass.

6 And †the had greaves of brass upon his legs, and a [2 g] target [1] of brass between his shoulders.

7 And the [3 h]staff of his spear †was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron: and [4]one bearing a shield [1] went before him.

8 And he stood and cried unto the [5]armies of Israel, and said unto them, Why are ye come out to set †your battle in array? †am not I a Philistine, and ye [i]servants to Saul? choose you a man for you, and let him come down to me.

9 If he be able to fight with me, and °to [1] kill me, then will we be your servants: but if I prevail against him, and kill him, then shall ye be our servants, and [p]serve us.

10 And the Philistine said, I [6 q]defy the armies of Israel this day; give me a man, that we may fight together.

11 [7]When [1] Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid.

12 ¶ [8] Now David †was [r]the son of that [s]Ephrathite of Bethlehem-judah, whose name †was Jesse; and he had [t]eight sons: and the man [u]went among men for [1] an old man in the days of Saul [1].

13 And the three eldest sons of Jesse [2]went and followed [1] Saul to the battle: and the [v]names of his three sons that went to the battle †were Eliab the firstborn, and next unto him Abinadab, and the third Shammah.

14 And David †was the youngest: and the three eldest followed Saul.

15 [3]But David went and returned [1] from Saul [w]to feed his father's sheep at Beth-lehem.

16 And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days.

17 [1]And Jesse said unto David his son, Take now for thy brethren an ephah of this parched †corn, and these ten loaves, and [2]run [1] to the camp to thy brethren;

18 And [3]carry [1] these ten [d]cheeses unto the [e]captain of †their thousand, and [f]look how thy brethren fare, and take their pledge.

19 Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, †were in the [5]valley [1] of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

20 °¶ [1] And David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the [6 t]trench, [1] as the host [7] was going forth to the [8 k]fight°, and [1] shouted for the battle.

21 [9]For [1] Israel and the Philistines °had [1] put the battle in array, army against army.

22 And David left [m]his [1] carriage [1] in the hand of the keeper of the [1]carriage [1], and ran [2]into [1] the army, and came and [n]saluted his brethren.

23 And as he talked with them, behold, there came up the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, out of the [3]armies [1] of the Philistines, and spake [r]according to the same words: and David heard †them.

24 And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled [z]from him, and were sore afraid.

25 And the men of Israel said, Have ye seen this man that is come up? surely to [4]defy Israel is he come up: and it shall be, †that the man who killeth him, the king will enrich him with great riches, and [a]will give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel.

26 And David spake to the men that stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away [b]the reproach from Israel? for who †is this [c]uncircumcised Philistine, that he should [d]°defy the armies of [e]the living God?

44 And the Philistine [q]said to David, Come to me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field.

45 Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a [7]shield ! : [r]but I come to thee in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, [8] whom ! thou hast [9 o] defied.

46 This day will the LORD [x]deliver thee into mine hand; and I will smite thee, and take thine head from [1] thee; and I will give [y] the carcases of the host of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the wild beasts of the earth; [z]that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel [2].

[o]1 Jonathan loveth David. 5 Saul enviеth his praise, 10 seeketh to kill him in his fury, 17 offereth him his daughters for a snare. 28 Saul's hatred, and David's glory increaseth.'

1 AND it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking unto Saul, that [a]the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, [c]and Jonathan loved him as his own soul.

2 And Saul took him that day, [d]and would let him go no more home to his father's house.

3 Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.

4 And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that †was upon him, and gave it to David, and his [2]garments,' even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle.

5 [o]¶' And David [3]went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and [4]behaved himself wisely: and Saul set him over the men of war, and [5]he was accepted' in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

6 [6] And it came to pass as they came, when David [o]was' returned from the slaughter of the [7h]Philistine, that [i]the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with [8]tabrets,' with joy, and with [9k]instruments of musick'.

7 And the women [l]'answered one another as they played,' and said, [2m]Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands.'

8 And Saul was very wroth, and [2]the' saying [F]displeased him; and he said, They have ascribed unto David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed †but thousands: and †what can he have more but [q]the kingdom?

9 And Saul eyed David from that day and forward.

11 And Saul [b] cast the [2]javelin[1]; for he said, I will smite David even to the wall [c] with it[1]. And David avoided out of his presence twice.
12 ° ¶ [1] And Saul was [e]afraid of David, because [d] the LORD was with him, and was [e] departed from Saul.
13 Therefore Saul removed him from him, and made him his captain over a thousand; and [h] he went out and came in before the people.
14 And David [3k] behaved himself wisely in all his ways; and [m] the LORD [†] was with him.
15 [4] Wherefore[1] when Saul saw that he behaved himself very wisely, he [5] was afraid[1] of him.
16 But [p] all Israel and Judah loved David[6], because[1] he went out and came in before them.
17 ¶ And Saul said to David, Behold[7] my elder daughter Merab, [u] her will I give thee to wife: only be thou [x] valiant for me, and fight [y] the LORD's battles. For Saul said, [z] Let not mine hand be upon him, but let the hand of the Philistines be upon him.
18 And David said unto Saul, [a] Who am I[8]? and [9] what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son in law to the king?
19 But it came to pass at the time when Merab Saul's daughter should have been given to David, that she was given unto [c] Adriel the [d] Meholathite to wife.
20 [f] And Michal Saul's daughter loved David: and they told Saul, and the thing [g] pleased him.
21 And Saul said, I will give him her, that she may be [i] a snare to him, and that [k] the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul said to David, Thou shalt [l] this day be my son in law [1] in the one of the twain.[1] 24 And the servants of Saul told him, saying, [1] On this manner spake David.

26 And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son in law[2]: and[1] [n] the days were not [q] expired[4].
27 Wherefore[1] David arose and went, he and [r] his men, and slew of the Philistines two hundred men; and [t] David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full tale to the king, that he might be the king's son in law. And Saul gave him Michal his daughter to wife.

and ¹Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father seeketh to ¹kill¹ thee: now therefore, I pray thee, take heed to thyself ²until¹ the morning, and abide in a secret †place, and hide thyself:

3 And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where thou †art, and I will commune with my father of thee; and ³what I see, that¹ I will tell thee.

4 °¶ ¹And Jonathan [c]spake good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, Let not the king [d]sin against his servant, against David; because he hath not sinned against thee, and because his works †have been to thee-ward very good:

5 For he °did¹ put his [e]life in his hand, and ⁴[f]slew¹ the Philistine, and [g]the LORD wrought a great ⁵salvation¹ for all Israel: thou sawest †it, and didst rejoice: [h]wherefore then wilt thou [i]sin against innocent blood, to slay David without a cause?

6 And Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan: and Saul sware, †As the LORD liveth, he shall not be [6]slain.¹

7 And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan shewed him all those things. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, ¹as [7m]in times past.¹

8 ¶ And there was war again: and David went out, and fought with the Philistines, and slew them with a great slaughter; and they fled ⁸from¹ [g]him.

9 And [9r]¹the¹ evil spirit from the LORD was upon Saul, as he sat in his house with his ¹javelin¹ in his hand: ²and David played with † his hand.

10 And Saul sought to smite David even to the wall with the ¹javelin¹; but he slipped away out of Saul's presence, and he smote the ¹javelin¹ into the wall: and David fled, and escaped that night.

11 [3u]Saul also¹ sent messengers unto David's house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal David's wife told him, saying, If thou save not thy life ¹to night, to morrow¹ thou shalt be slain.

12 °¶ ¹So Michal [o]let David down through ²a¹ window: and he went, and fled, and escaped.

13 And Michal took ³an [b]image,¹ and laid †it in the bed, and put a ⁴pillow of goats' hair ⁵for his bolster¹, and covered †it with ⁶a cloth.¹

14 And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, He †is sick.

15 And Saul sent the messengers °*again*¹ to see David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may slay him.

16 And when the messengers ⁷were come¹ in, behold, [8]there was an image¹ in the bed, with ⁹a¹ ⁴pillow of goats' hair ⁵for his bolster¹.

17 And Saul said unto Michal, Why hast thou deceived me ¹so, and sent away mine enemy,¹ that he is escaped? And Michal answered Saul, He said unto me, Let me go; [k]why should I kill thee?

18 ¶ ²So¹ David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and dwelt in Naioth.

19 And it was told Saul, saying, Behold, David †is at Naioth in Ramah.

20 And [n]Saul sent messengers to take David: [p]and when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing ³*as* appointed¹ over them, the ⁴Spirit of God was¹ upon the messengers of Saul, and they [7]prophesied.

21 And when it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they [5]prophesied likewise.¹ And Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they [5]prophesied also.¹

22 Then went he also to Ramah, and came to ⁶a¹ great well that †is in ⁷Sechu¹: and he asked and said, Where †are Samuel and David? And †one said, Behold, †they be at Naioth in Ramah.

[o] 1 David consulteth with Jonathan for his safety. 11 They renew their covenant. 18 Jonathan's token to David. 24 Saul seeketh to kill Jonathan. 35 Jonathan lovingly taketh leave of David.[1]

AND David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, What have I done? what †is mine iniquity? and what †is my sin before thy father, that he seeketh my life?

2 And he said unto him, God forbid; thou shalt not die: behold, my father [4] will do[1] nothing either great or small, but that he [5] will [i] shew it me[1]: and why should my father hide this thing from me? it †is not †so.

3 And David sware moreover, and said, Thy father [6] certainly knoweth[1] that I have found grace in thine eyes; and he saith, Let not Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved: but truly †as the LORD liveth, and †as thy soul liveth, †there is but a step between me and death.

4 Then said Jonathan unto David, [7 n] Whatsoever thy soul [8 p] desireth, I will even do †it for thee.

5 And David said unto Jonathan, Behold, [9] to morrow is[1] the [7] new moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at meat: but let me go, that I may [t] hide myself in the field unto the third †day at even.

6 If thy father [1] at all miss me,[1] then say, David earnestly asked †leave of me that he might run [y] to Beth-lehem his city: for [2] there is a[1] yearly [z] sacrifice there for all the family.

7 [c] If he say thus, † It is well; thy servant shall have peace: but if he be [3] very wroth, then be sure[1] that [d] evil is determined by him.

8 Therefore [o] thou shalt[1] [a] deal kindly with thy servant; for [b] thou hast brought thy servant into a covenant of the LORD with thee: [1] notwithstanding,[1] [d] if there be in me iniquity, slay me thyself; for why shouldest thou bring me to thy father?

9 And Jonathan said, Far be it from thee: for if I [2] knew certainly[1] that evil were determined by my father to come upon thee, then would not I tell it thee?

10 Then said David to Jonathan, Who shall tell me[1]? or what if[1] thy father answer thee roughly?

11 [o] ¶[1] And Jonathan said unto David, Come[o], and let us go out into the field. And they went out both of them into the field.

12 [4] And Jonathan said unto David, [5] O LORD[1] God of Israel, [6] when I have [h] sounded my father about [7] to morrow any time,[1] or the third †day, [o] and,[1] behold, †if there be good toward David, [8] and I then send not[1] unto thee, and [9 k] shew it thee;[1]

13 [i] The LORD do so [1] and much more to Jonathan: but if[1] it please my father †to do thee evil, [2] then I will shew it[1] thee, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: and [m] the LORD be with thee, as he hath been with my father.

14 And thou shalt not only while yet I live shew me the kindness of the LORD, that I die not:

15 But †also [q] thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from my house for ever: no, not when the LORD hath cut off the enemies of David every one from the face of the earth.

16 So Jonathan [u] made †a covenant with the house of David, saying, [3 x] Let the LORD even[1] require †it at the hand of David's enemies.

17 And Jonathan caused David to swear again, [4 a] because he loved him[1]: [b] for he loved him as he loved his own soul.

18 Then Jonathan said [5] to David, [c] To morrow[1] †is the new moon: and thou shalt be 19 And [†] when thou hast stayed three days, [o] then [!] thou shalt go down [2b] quickly, and come to [c] the place where thou didst hide thyself [3d] when the business was [†] in hand, and shalt remain by [4] the stone [/] Ezel.

20 And I will shoot three arrows on the side [†] thereof, as though I shot at a mark.
21 And, behold, I will send [5a] lad, [†] saying, Go, find [o] out [!] the arrows. If I [o] expressly say unto the lad, Behold, the arrows [†] are on this side of thee[6], take them; then come thou:[!] for [†] there is peace to thee[7], and [h] no hurt; [!] [†] as the LORD liveth.
22 But if I say thus unto the [8] young man, [!] Behold, the arrows [†] are beyond thee [9]; [!] go thy way [1]: [!] for the LORD hath sent thee away.
23 And [†] as touching [n] the matter which thou and I have spoken of, behold, the LORD [2] be [!] between thee and me for ever.
24 ¶ So David hid himself in the field: and when the new moon was come, the king sat him down to eat meat.
25 And the king sat upon his seat, as at other times, [†] even upon [3a] seat by the wall [1]: [!] and Jonathan [4] arose, [!] and Abner sat by Saul's side[5], and [!] David's place was empty.
26 Nevertheless Saul spake not any thing that day: for he thought, Something hath befallen him, he [†] is [q] not clean; surely he [†] is not clean.
27 And it came to pass on the morrow[6], which was the second day [o] of the month [1], that David's place was empty: and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, Wherefore cometh not the son of Jesse to meat, neither yesterday, nor [7] to day [!]?
28 And Jonathan [r] answered Saul, David earnestly asked [†] leave of me [†] to go to Bethlehem:
29 And he said, Let me go, I pray thee; for our family hath a sacrifice in the city; and my brother, he hath commanded me to be there: and now, if I have found favour in thine eyes, let me get away, I pray thee, and see my brethren. Therefore he [1] cometh not [!] unto the king's table.
30 Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, [e] Thou son of [2] the [!] perverse rebellious [†] woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own [3] confusion [!], and unto the [3] confusion [!] of thy mother's nakedness?
31 For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be [4] established, nor thy kingdom. Wherefore now send and fetch him unto me, for he [5y] shall surely die.
32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, [k] Wherefore [6] shall he be slain [!]? what hath he done?
33 And Saul [!] cast [7] a javelin [!] at him to smite him: [m] whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to [8] slay David. [!]
34 So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did eat no meat the second day of the month: for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame.
35 ¶ And it came to pass in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field [9] at the time appointed with David, and a little lad with him.
36 And he said unto his lad, Run, find [o] out [!] now the arrows which I shoot. [†] And as the lad ran, he shot an arrow [1p] beyond him.
37 And when the lad was come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the lad, and said, [†] Is not the arrow beyond thee?
38 And Jonathan cried after the lad, Make speed, haste, stay not. And Jonathan's lad gathered up the arrows, and came to his master.
39 But the lad knew not any thing: only Jonathan and David knew the matter.
40 And Jonathan gave his [2f] artillery [!] unto [u] his lad, and said unto him, Go, carry [†] them to the city.
41 [o] ¶ [!] [†] And as soon as the lad was gone, David arose [3] out of a place toward the [4] south, [!]

19 °¶[1] Then [q]came up the Ziphites to Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself with us in [1] strong holds in [2]the wood, in the hill of Hachilah, which †is [a]on the south of [2 b]Jeshimon'?

20 Now therefore, O king, come down[4] according to all the desire of thy soul to come down; and [d]our part †shall be to deliver him [5] into the king's hand.

21 And Saul said, Blessed †be ye of the LORD; for ye have [e] compassion on me.

22 Go, I pray you, [7]prepare yet,' and know and see his place where his [8 g]haunt is, and who hath seen him there: for it is told me †that he dealeth very subtilly.

23 See therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking places where he hideth himself, and come ye again to me [9]with the certainty,' and I will go with you: and it shall come to pass, if he be in the land, that I will search him out [1]throughout' all the [2]thousands of Judah.

24 And they arose, and went to Ziph before Saul: but David and his men †were in the wilderness [n]of Maon, in the [3]plain' on the south of [4]Jeshimon.'

25 [5]Saul also' and his men went to seek †him. And they told David: wherefore he came down [6r]into a' rock, and abode in the wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard that, he pursued after David in the wilderness of Maon.

26 And Saul went on on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain: [u]and David made haste to get away for fear of Saul; for Saul and his men [z]compassed David and his men round about to take them.

27 °¶ [v]But there came a messenger unto Saul, saying, Haste thee, and come; for the Philistines have [7z]invaded' the land.

28 [8]Wherefore' Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Philistines: therefore they called that place [9b]Sela-hammahlekoth.

29 °¶ [1]And David went up from thence, and dwelt in [2]strong holds at' [c]En-gedi.

°1 David in a cave at En-gedi, having cut off Saul's skirt, spareth his life. 8 He sheweth thereby his innocency. 16 Saul, acknowledging his fault, taketh an oath of David, and departeth.

AND it came to pass, [c]when Saul was returned from [c]following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, Behold, David †is in the wilderness of En-gedi.

2 Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and [f]went to seek David and his men upon the rocks of the wild goats.

3 And he came to the sheepcotes by the way, where †was a cave; and [h]Saul went in to [i]cover his feet': and' [k]David and his men [2]remained in the sides' of the cave.

4 [l]And the men of David said unto him, Behold [3] the day of which the LORD said unto thee, Behold, I will deliver thine enemy into thine hand, [4]that thou mayest' do to him as it shall seem good unto thee. Then David arose, and cut off the skirt of [m]Saul's robe privily.

5 And it came to pass afterward, that [p]David's heart smote him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt.

6 And he said unto his men, [q]The LORD forbid that I should do this thing unto my [5]master, the LORD's anointed, to [6]stretch' forth mine hand against him, seeing he †is the [7]anointed of the LORD.'

7 So David [8t]stayed his servants' with these words, and suffered them not to rise against Saul. [9]But' Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on †his way.

8 David also arose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, My lord the king. And when Saul looked behind him, David [1]stooped' with his face to the earth, and [2]bowed himself.'

9 °¶ And David said to Saul, [a]Wherefore [3]hearest thou' men's words, saying, Behold, David seeketh thy hurt?

10 Behold, this day thine eyes have seen how that the LORD had delivered thee 'to day' into mine hand in the cave: and †some bade †me kill thee:

19 For if a man find his enemy, will he let him go well away? wherefore the LORD reward thee good for that thou hast done unto me this day.

20 And now, behold, [g]I know °well[1] that thou shalt surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in thine hand.

21 [k]Swear now therefore unto me by the LORD, [k]that thou wilt not cut off my seed after me, and that thou wilt not destroy my name out of my father's house.

AND [c]Samuel died; and all [1]the Israelites were gathered[1] together, and [c]lamented him, and buried him in his house at Ramah. And David arose, and went down [g]to the wilderness of Paran.

2 [2] And †there was a man [h]in Maon, whose [3i] possessions †were in [6]Carmel; and the man †was very great, and he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats: and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel.

3 Now the name of the man †was Nabal; and the name of his wife Abigail: and [4]she was a woman[1] of good understanding, and of a beautiful countenance: but the man †was churlish and evil in his doings; and he †was of the house of Caleb.

5 And David sent °out[1] ten young men, and David said unto the young men, Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and [a]greet him in my name:

33 And blessed †be thy[1] advice,[1] and blessed †be thou, which hast [k]kept me this day from [2]coming to shed blood,[1] and from avenging myself with mine own hand.

35 So David received of her hand †that which she had brought him[7], and[1] said unto her, [7]Go up in peace to thine house; see, I have hearkened to thy voice, and have [y]accepted thy person.

36 °¶[1] And Abigail came to Nabal; and, behold, [a]he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king; and Nabal's heart †was merry within him, for he †was very drunken: wherefore she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light.

37 [8]But[1] it came to pass in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, [9]and[1] his wife °had[1] told him these things, [1]that[1] his heart died within him, and he became †as a stone.

38 And it came to pass about ten days †after, that the LORD smote Nabal, that he died.

And David sent and [4]communed with[1] Abigail, to take her to him to wife.

40 And when the servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake unto her, saying, David [5] sent us unto thee, to take thee to him to wife.

42 And Abigail hasted, and arose, and rode upon an ass, with five damsels of [8]her's that went [l]after[1] her; and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife.

43 David also took Ahinoam [n]of Jezreel; [p]and they [9]were also[1] both of them his wives.

4 David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul was come [1]in very deed.
5 ¶ And David arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched: and David beheld the place where Saul lay, and [a]Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host: and Saul lay [2]in the [b]trench, and the people pitched round about him.
6 Then answered David and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai [c]the son of Zeruiah, brother to Joab, saying, Who will [d]go down with me to Saul to the camp? And Abishai said, I will go down with thee.
7 So David and Abishai came to the people by night: and, behold, Saul lay sleeping within the [3]trench, and his spear stuck in the ground at his [4]bolster: but Abner and the people lay round about him.
8 Then said Abishai to David, God hath [e]delivered [5] thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear [6]even to the earth at [6]once, and I will not †smite him the second time.
9 And David said to Abishai, Destroy him not: [f]for who can [7]stretch forth his hand against the LORD's anointed, and be guiltless?
10 [8]David said furthermore, As the LORD liveth, [m]the LORD shall smite him; [9]or [n]his day shall come to die; or he shall [10]descend into battle, and perish.
11 [m]The LORD forbid that I should [7]stretch forth mine hand against the LORD's anointed: [2]but, I pray thee, take thou now the spear that †is at his [3]bolster, and the cruse of water, and let us go.
12 So David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's [3]bolster; and they gat them away, and no man saw †it, nor knew †it, neither [4]awaked: for they †were all asleep; because [o]a deep sleep from the LORD was fallen upon them.

B.C.c.1060.

13 ¶ Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of [1]an hill afar off; a great space †being between them:
14 And David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, Answerest thou not, Abner? Then Abner answered and said, Who †art thou †that criest to the king?
15 And David said to Abner, †Art not thou a valiant man? and who †is like to thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou not kept [2] thy lord the king? for there came one of the people in to destroy the king thy lord.
16 This thing †is not good that thou hast done. †As the LORD liveth, ye †are [3]e worthy to die, because ye have not kept [4]your master, the LORD's anointed. And now [5] see [5] where the king's spear †is, and the cruse of water that †was at his [6]bolster.
17 And Saul knew David's voice, and said, †Is this thy voice, my son David? And David said, †It is my voice, my lord, O king.
18 And he said, [h]Wherefore doth my lord [o]thus pursue after his servant? for what have I done? or what evil †is in mine hand?
19 Now therefore, I pray thee, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If [7]the LORD have [k]stirred thee up against me, let him [8]*i*accept an offering: but if [9]they be the children of men, cursed †be they before the LORD; [p]for they have driven me out this day [1]from [7]abiding in the [q]inheritance of the LORD, saying, Go, serve other gods.
20 Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth [2]before the face of the LORD: for the king of Israel is come out to seek [3]*r*a flea, as when one doth hunt a partridge in the mountains.
21 ¶ Then said Saul, [g]I have sinned: return, my son David: for I will no more do thee harm, because my [4]soul was [2]precious in thine eyes this day: behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly.

24 And, behold, as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes, so let my life be much set by in the eyes of the LORD, and let him deliver me out of all tribulation.

25 Then Saul said to David, Blessed [1] be thou, my son David: thou shalt both do [5] great things, and also shalt still [1] [k] prevail. So David went [o] on [1] his way, and Saul returned to his place.

[o 1] Saul hearing David to be in Gath seeketh no more for him. 5 David begged Ziklag of Achish.

AND David said in his heart, I shall now [n] perish one day by the hand of Saul: [t] there is nothing better for me than that I should [o] speedily [1] escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul shall despair of me, to seek me any more in [6] any coast [1] of Israel: so shall I escape out of his hand.

2 And David arose, [q] and [o] he [1] passed over [7] with [1] the six hundred men that [t] were with him [8] [t] unto Achish [o], [1] the son of Maoch, king of Gath.

3 And David dwelt with Achish at Gath, he and his men, every man with his household, [t] even David [u] with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, Nabal's wife.

4 And it was told Saul that David was fled to Gath: and he sought no more again for him.

5 ¶ And David said unto Achish, If [9] I have now [1] found grace in thine eyes, let them give me a place in [1] some town [1] in the [2] country, that I may dwell there: for why should thy servant dwell in the royal city with thee?

3 ¶ Now [a]Samuel was dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah, even in his own city. And Saul had put away [c]those that had familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land.

4 And the Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and pitched in [f]Shunem: and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they pitched in [g]Gilboa.

5 And when Saul saw the host of the Philistines, he was [h]afraid, and his heart [1]greatly trembled.[1]

6 And when Saul [2]enquired[2] of the LORD, [k]the LORD answered him not, neither by [m]dreams, nor [n]by Urim, nor by prophets.

7 [o]¶[1] Then said Saul unto his servants, Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and [3]enquire[1] of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, †there is a woman that hath a familiar spirit at En-dor.

8 And Saul disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and [4]he went,[1] and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and [z]he said, [5]I pray thee, divine unto me[1] by the familiar spirit, and bring me †him up, whom[1] I shall name unto thee.

9 And the woman said unto him, Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath [2]cut off those that have familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land: wherefore then layest thou a snare for my life, to cause me to die?

10 And Saul sware to her by the LORD, saying, †As the LORD liveth, there shall no [7]punishment happen to thee for this thing.

11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said, Bring me up Samuel.

12 And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice: and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou †art Saul.

13 And the king said unto her, Be not afraid: for what [1]sawest[1] thou? And the woman said unto Saul, I [2]saw [b]gods ascending[1] out of the earth.

14 And he said unto her, [d]What form †is he of? And she said, An old man cometh up; and he †is covered with [e]a [3]mantle.[1] And Saul perceived that it †was Samuel, and he [4]stooped[1] with †his face to the ground, and [5]bowed himself.[1] 15 [o]¶[1] And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up? And Saul answered, [i]I am sore distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and [t]God is departed from me, and [p]answereth me no more, neither [q]by prophets, nor by dreams: therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest make known unto me what I shall do.

16 [6]Then said Samuel,[1] Wherefore then dost thou ask of me, seeing the LORD is departed from thee, and [7]is become thine [8]enemy?[1]

17 And the LORD hath [9]done [r]to him,[1] [s]as he spake by [u]me: [1]for[1] the LORD hath rent the kingdom out of thine hand, and given it to thy neighbour, †even to David[2].[1]

18 [y]Because thou obeyedst not the voice of the LORD, [2]nor executedst[1] his fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore hath the LORD done this thing unto thee this day.

19 Moreover the LORD will [4]also deliver Israel[1] with thee into the hand of the Philistines: and [5]to morrow[1] †shalt thou and thy sons †be with me: the LORD [o]also[1] shall deliver the host of Israel [6] into the hand of the Philistines.

20 Then Saul [a]fell straightway [7]all along on[1] the earth, and was sore afraid, because of the words of Samuel: and there was no strength in him; for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night.

21 [o]¶[1] And the woman came unto Saul, and saw that he was sore troubled, and said unto him, Behold, thine handmaid hath [8]obeyed[1] thy voice, and I have [v]put my life in my hand, [o]1 David marching with the Philistines, 3 is disallowed by their princes. 6 Achish dismisseth him, with commendations of his fidelity.

NOW [h] the Philistines gathered together all their [4] armies [1] [†] to Aphek: and the Israelites pitched by [5] a [1] fountain which [†] is in Jezreel.

2 And the lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds, and by thousands: [6] but [1] David and his men passed on in the [7] rereward [1] [m] with Achish.

3 Then said the princes of the Philistines, What do these Hebrews here? And Achish said unto the princes of the Philistines, [†] Is not this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, which hath been with me [p] these days [o], [1] or these years, and I have [q] found no fault in him since he fell [8] unto me unto this day?

4 [9] And [1] the princes of the Philistines were wroth with him; and the princes of the Philistines said unto him, [r] Make [1] this fellow [1] return, that he may go [2] again [1] to his place [3] which [1] thou hast appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, lest [s] in the battle he [1] be [1] an adversary to us: for wherewith should [2] he [1] reconcile himself unto his [3] master [1]? [†] should it not [†] be with the heads of these men?

5 [†] Is not this David, of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying, [4] [b] Saul [5] slew [1] his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

6 [o]¶ [1] Then Achish called David, and said unto him, [6] Surely, as [1] the LORD liveth, thou hast been upright, and [t] thy going out and thy coming in with me in the host [†] is good in my sight: for [d] I have not found evil in thee since the day of thy coming unto me unto this day: nevertheless [e] the lords favour thee not.

7 Wherefore now return, and go in peace, that thou [f] displease not the lords of the Philistines.

8 [o]¶ [1] And David said unto Achish, But what have I done? and what hast thou found in thy servant so long as I have been [7] [g] with [1] thee unto this day, that I may not go [8] fight against the enemies of my lord the king?

9 And Achish answered and said to David, I know that thou [†] art good in my sight, [k] as an angel of God: notwithstanding [7] the princes of the Philistines have said, He shall not go up with us to the battle.

10 Wherefore now rise up early in the morning with [9] thy master's servants [1] that are come with thee: and as soon as ye be up early in the morning, and have light, depart.

11 So David [1] and his men rose up early [1] to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines. [u] And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

2 And had taken [1]the women captives, that were therein[1]: they slew not any, [c]either great or small,[1] but carried [2]them away,[1] and went [c]on[1] their way.

3 [2]¶ So[1] David and his men came to the city, [c]and,[1] behold, [t]it was burned with fire; and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, were taken captives.

4 Then David and the people that [t]were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep.

5 And David's [c]two wives were taken captives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

6 And David was greatly distressed; [d]for the people spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was [e]grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters: [y]but David [4]encouraged[1] himself in the LORD his God.

7 [5][k]And David said to Abiathar the priest, [6]Ahimelech's son,[1] I pray thee, bring me hither the ephod. And Abiathar brought thither the ephod to David.

8 [k]And David [7]enquired at[1] the LORD, saying, [8]Shall[1] I pursue after this troop[y]?[1] shall I overtake them? And he answered him, Pursue: for thou shalt surely overtake them, and[1] without fail recover all.

9 So David went, he and the six hundred men that [t]were with him, and came to the brook Besor, where those that were left behind stayed.

10 But David pursued, he and four hundred men: [m]for two hundred [2]abode[1] behind, which were so faint that they could not go over the brook Besor[3].[1]

11 [c]¶[1] And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and he did eat; and they [4]made him drink water;[1]

12 And they gave him a piece of a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisins[5]:[1] and [p]when he had eaten, his spirit came again to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk [t]any water, three days and three nights.

13 And David said unto him, To whom [t]belongest thou? and whence [t]art thou? And he said, I [t]am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite; and my master left me, because three days agone I fell sick.

14 We made [1]an invasion upon the south[1] of [a]the Cherethites, and upon [2]the coast[1] which [t]belongeth to Judah, and upon the [3]south[1] of [b]Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire.

15 And David said to him, [4]Canst[1] thou bring me down to this [5]company[y]!? And he said, Swear unto me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliver me [6]into the hands of my master, and I will bring thee down to this [5]company[1].

16 [c]¶[1] And when he had brought him down, behold, [t]they were spread abroad [7]upon all the earth,[1]/eating and drinking, and [8]dancing,[1] [9]because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah.

17 And David smote them from the twilight even unto the evening of [1]the next day: and there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men, which rode upon camels [c],[1] and fled.

18 And David recovered all that the Amalekites had [1]carried away[1]: and David rescued his two wives.

19 And there was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil, nor any [t]thing that they had taken to them: [1]David [2]recovered[1] all.

20 And David took all the flocks and the herds, which they drave before those other cattle, and said, This [t]is David's spoil.

21 [c]¶[1] And David came to the [n]two hundred men, which were so faint that they could not follow David, whom [3]they had made [c]also[1] to abide at the brook Besor: and they went forth to meet David, and

CHAPTER 31.

Q 1 Saul having lost his army, and his sons being slain, he and his armourbearer kill themselves. 8 The Philistines triumph over the dead bodies. 11 They of Jabesh-gilead recover the bodies, and bury them at Jabesh.[1]

1 NOW [d]the Philistines fought against Israel: and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down [2e]slain in mount [f]Gilboa.

2 And the Philistines followed hard upon Saul and upon his sons; and the Philistines slew [g]Jonathan, and [3]Abinadab, and [4]Melchi-shua, Saul's sons.[1]

3 And [h]the battle went sore against Saul, and the [i]archers [5k]hit[1] him; and he was [6]sore wounded[1] of the archers.

4 [l]Then said Saul [7]unto[1] his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest [m]these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and [8p]abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; [q]for he was sore afraid. Therefore Saul took [9a]sword, and [r]fell upon it.

5 And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he [1]fell likewise[1] upon his sword, and died with him.

6 So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armourbearer, and all his men, that same day together.

7 [o]¶[1] And when the men of Israel that †were on the other side of the valley, and †they that †were [2]on the other side[1] Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

8 [3]And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his three sons fallen in mount Gilboa.

9 And they cut off his head, and stripped off his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to [4c]publish it in[1] the house of their idols, and [5]among[1] the people.

10 [7]And they put his armour in the house of [6]h[1]Ashtaroth: and [i]they fastened his body to the wall of [k]Beth-shan.

CHAPTER 1.

[o]1 The Amalekite, who brought tidings of the overthrow, and accused himself of Saul's death, is slain. 17 David's lament for Saul and Jonathan.

1 S And

1 NOW [1] it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David was returned from [b]the slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had abode two days in Ziklag;
2 It came even to pass on the third day, that, behold, [c]a man came out of the camp from Saul [f]with his clothes rent, and earth upon his head: and [1]so it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the earth, and did obeisance.
3 And David said unto him, From whence comest thou? And he said unto him, Out of the camp of Israel am I escaped.
4 And David said unto him, [h]How went the matter? I pray thee, tell me. And he answered, 2 S The [2]That the [1] people are fled from the battle, and many of the people also are fallen and dead; and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also.
5 And David said unto the young man that told him, How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his son be dead?
6 And the young man that told him said, As I happened by chance upon [m]mount Gilboa, behold, [n]Saul leaned upon his spear; and, lo, the chariots 3 A the and [3]horsemen followed hard after him.
7 And when he looked behind him, he saw me, and called unto me. And I answered, [a]Here [1]am I.
8 And he said unto me, Who [1]art thou? And I answered him, I [1]am an Amalekite.
9 [1]He [1] said unto me [o]again [1], Stand, I pray thee, [2]upon [1] me, and slay me [3]: [1] for [4][p]anguish is come upon me, [1] because my life [1]is yet whole in me.
10 So I stood [2]upon [1] him, and [q]slew him, because I was sure that he could not live after that he was fallen: and I took the crown that [1]was upon his head, and the bracelet that [1]was on his arm, and have brought them hither unto my lord.
11 Then David took hold on his clothes, and [g]rent them; and likewise all the men that [1]were with him:
12 And they mourned, and wept, and fasted until even, for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of the LORD, and for the house of Israel; because they were fallen by the sword.
13 [o]¶ [1] And David said unto the young man that told him, Whence [1]art thou? And he answered, I [1]am the son of a stranger, an Amalekite.
14 And David said unto him, [r]How wast thou not [s]afraid to [5][t]stretch [1] forth thine hand to 5 S put destroy the LORD'S anointed?
15 And [p]David called one of the young men, and said, Go near, [1]and fall upon him. And he smote him that he died.
16 And David said unto him, [q]Thy blood [1]be upon thy head;

26 I am distressed for thee, my brother Jonathan: very pleasant hast thou been unto me: [f]thy love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women.

27 [g]How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war perished!

CHAPTER 2.

[1] David, by God's direction, goeth up to Hebron, where he is made king of Judah. [8] Abner maketh Ish-bosheth king of Israel. 18 Asahel is slain.'

AND it came to pass after this, that David [1b]enquired' of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah? And the LORD said unto him, Go up. And David said, Whither shall I go up? And he said, Unto [d]Hebron.

2 So David went up thither, and his [g]two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail [2]Nabal's wife' the Carmelite.

3 And [i]his men that †were with him did David bring up, every man with his household: and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

4 [n]And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. [3]And they told David, saying, [4]That [r]the' men of Jabesh-gilead †were they that buried Saul.

5 [o]¶' And David sent messengers unto the men of Jabesh-gilead, and said unto them, [u]Blessed †be ye of the LORD, that ye have shewed this kindness unto your lord, †even unto Saul, and have buried him.

6 And now [y]the LORD shew kindness and truth unto you: and I also will requite you this kindness, because ye have done this thing.

7 [5]Therefore now' let your hands be [6]strengthened,' and [b]be ye valiant: for [7]your master Saul' is dead, and also the house of Judah have anointed me king over them.

8 ¶ [8]But' [c]Abner the son of Ner, captain of [d]Saul's host, [5]took [c] Ish-bosheth' the son of Saul, and brought him over to Mahanaim;

12 ¶ And Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to [b]Gibeon.

13 And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out, and met [1 c]together[1] by [d]the pool of Gibeon[2:1] and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool.

14 And Abner said to Joab, Let the young men[3] now arise,[1] and play before us. And Joab said, Let them arise.

15 Then [4]there[1] arose and went over by number[5] twelve of Benjamin, which pertained to[1] Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David.

16 And they caught every one his fellow by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellow's side; so they fell down together: wherefore that place was called [6c]Helkath-hazzurim, which [†]is in Gibeon.

17 And [7]there was a very sore battle[1] that day; and Abner was beaten, and the men of Israel, before the servants of David.

18 °¶[1] And [8]there were[1] [f]three sons of Zeruiah [9]there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel: and Asahel [†]was [k]as light [l]of foot [1 m]as a wild roe.

19 And Asahel pursued after Abner; and in going he turned not to the right hand nor to the left [n]from following Abner.

20 Then Abner looked behind him, and said, [2]Art thou[1] Asahel? And he answered, [3]I am.[1]

21 And Abner said to him, Turn thee aside to thy right hand or to thy left, and lay thee hold on one of the young men, and take thee his [4 p]armour. But Asahel would not turn aside from following of him.

22 And Abner said again to Asahel, Turn thee aside from following me: wherefore should I smite thee to the ground? how then should I hold up my face to Joab thy brother?

23 Howbeit he refused to turn aside: wherefore Abner with the hinder end of the spear smote him [1 q]under the fifth rib,[1] that the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the same place: and it came to pass, [†]that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died stood still.

24 [2]Joab also[1] and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the sun went down when they were come to the hill of Ammah, that [†]lieth before Giah by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon.

25 °¶[1] And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one [3]troop,[1] and stood on the top of an hill.

26 Then Abner called to Joab, and said, Shall the sword devour for ever? knowest thou not that it will be bitterness in the latter end? how long shall it be then, ere thou bid the people return from following their brethren?

27 And Joab said, [†]As God liveth, [4]unless [r]thou hadst[1] spoken, surely then [5 g]in the morning the people had [h]gone [6]up every one from following[1] his brother.

28 So Joab blew [7]a[1] trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more.

29 And Abner and his men [8]walked[1] all that night through the [9]plain, and[1] passed over Jordan, and went through all Bithron, and °they[1] came to Mahanaim.

30 And Joab returned from following Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of David's servants nineteen men and Asahel.

31 But the servants of David had smitten of Benjamin, and of Abner's men, so that three hundred and threescore men died.

32 °¶[1] And they took up Asahel, and buried him in the sepulchre of his father, which [†]was in Beth-lehem. And Joab and his men went all night, and[1] they came to Hebron at break of day.[1]

CHAPTER 3.

[o] 1 David waxeth stronger. 2 Six sons born to him in Hebron. 12 Abner revolts to David. 22 Joab killeth Abner. 31 David mourneth for Abner.

NOW there was long war between the house of Saul and the house of David: [1] but David waxed stronger and stronger, [2] and the house of Saul waxed weaker and weaker.

2 ¶ And [a] unto David were sons born in Hebron: and his firstborn was Amnon, [d] of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess;

3 And his second, [f] Chileab, of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king [h] of Geshur;

4 And the fourth, [i] Adonijah the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital;

5 And the sixth, Ithream, [3] by [l] Eglah David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.

6 ¶ And it came to pass, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner [4] made himself strong [5] for the house of Saul.

7 [6] And [l] Saul had a concubine, whose name †was [p] Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah: and Ishbosheth said to Abner, Wherefore hast thou [7] gone in unto my father's concubine?

8 Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Ish-bosheth, and said, †Am I [t] a dog's head [7], which against Judah do shew kindness this day [l] unto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into the hand of David, [8] that [l] thou chargest me [9] to [l] day with [l] a fault concerning this woman [2]?

9 [x] So do God [l] to Abner, and more also, [8] except, [l] [y] as the LORD hath sworn to David, [4] even so I do [l] to him;

10 To translate the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, [b] from Dan even to Beer-sheba.

11 And he could not answer Abner [5] a word again, [l] because he feared him.

12 ¶ And Abner sent messengers to David [1] on his behalf, saying, Whose †is the land? saying also, Make thy league with me, and, behold, my hand †shall be with thee, to bring about all Israel unto thee.

13 [o] ¶ [1] And he said, Well; I will make a league with thee: but one thing I require of thee, [b] that is, [2] [c] Thou [l] shalt not see my face, except thou first bring [c] Michal Saul's daughter, when thou comest to see my face.

14 And David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth Saul's son, saying, Deliver † me my wife Michal, [3] which I espoused [l] to me [g] for an hundred foreskins of the Philistines.

15 And Ish-bosheth sent, and took her from †her husband, †even from [4] [k] Phaltiel [l] the son of Laish.

16 And her husband went with her [5] [l] along weeping behind [l] her to [m] Bahurim. Then said Abner unto him, Go, return [6]. And [l] he returned.

17 ¶ And Abner had communication with the elders of Israel, saying, [7] Ye sought for David [n] in times past to be king over you:

18 Now then do †it: [q] for the LORD hath spoken of David, saying, By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies.

19 And Abner also spake in the ears of [u] Benjamin: and Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and [o] that seemed good [l] to the whole house of Benjamin.

20 So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him. And David made Abner and the men that †were with him a feast.

21 And Abner said unto David, I will arise and go, and [z] will gather all Israel unto my lord the king, that they may make a [8] league [l] with thee, and that thou mayest [a] reign over all that [9] thine heart [l] desireth. And David sent Abner away; and he went in peace.

23 When Joab and all the host that †was with him were come, they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

24 Then Joab came to the king, and said, What hast thou done? behold, Abner came unto thee; why †is it †that thou hast sent him away, and he is quite gone?

25 Thou knowest Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive thee, and to know [f]thy going out and thy coming in, and to know all that thou doest.

26 And when Joab was come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, [2]which[1] brought him [3]again[1] from the [4]well of Sirah: but David knew †it not.

27 And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab [h]took him aside [5]in[1] the gate to speak with him [k]quietly, and smote him there [6]†under the fifth rib,[1] that he died, for the blood of [p]Asahel his brother.

28 °¶[1] And afterward when David heard †it, he said, I and my kingdom †are guiltless before the LORD for ever from the [q]blood of Abner the son of Ner:

29 [r]Let it [7]rest on[1] the head of Joab, and [8]on[1] all his father's house; and let there not [t]fail from the house of Joab one [x]that hath an issue, or that is a leper, or that leaneth on a staff, or that falleth [9]on[1] the sword, or that lacketh bread.

30 So Joab and Abishai his brother slew Abner, because he had [1]slain[1] their brother [a]Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.

31 ¶[1] And David said to Joab, and to all the people that †were with him, [c]Rend your clothes, and [d]gird you with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. And king David °himself[1] followed the [y]bier.

B.C.e.1048.

32 And they buried Abner in Hebron: and the king lifted up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept.

33 And the king lamented [1]over[1] Abner, and said, [2,3]Died Abner[1] as a "fool dieth?

34 Thy hands †were not bound, nor thy feet put into fetters: as a man falleth before [4b]wicked men, so fellest thou.[1] And all the people wept again over him.

35 And °when[1] all the people came [c]to cause David to eat [5]meat[1] while it was yet day,[6,1] David sware, saying, [7d]So do God[1] to me, and more also, if I taste bread, or [8]ought[1] else, [e]till the sun be down.

36 And all the people took notice †of it, and it [y]pleased them: as whatsoever the king did pleased all the people.

37 [y]For[1] all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not of the king to slay Abner the son of Ner.

38 And the king said unto his servants, Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?

39 And I †[am this day [4]weak, though anointed king; and these men the sons of Zeruiah †[m]be too hard for me: [n]the LORD °shall[1] reward the [1]doer of evil[1] according to his wickedness.

5 [2] And the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, went, and came about the heat of the day to the house of Ish-bosheth, [3] who lay on a bed on noon.

6 [4] And [5] they came thither into the midst of the house, as though they would have fetched wheat; and they smote him [6b] under the fifth rib: and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped.

7 For when they came into the house, [8] he lay on his bed in his bedchamber, [c] and they smote him, and slew him, and beheaded him, and took his head, and [9] gat them away through the plain all night.

8 And they brought the head of Ish-bosheth unto David to Hebron, and said to the king, Behold the head of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul thine enemy, [p] which sought thy life; and the LORD hath avenged my lord the king this day of Saul, and of his seed.

9 ¶ And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said unto them, As the LORD liveth, [r] who hath redeemed my soul out of all adversity,

10 When [x] one told me, saying, Behold, Saul is dead, [z] thinking to have brought good tidings, I took hold of him, and slew him in Ziklag, [1a] who thought that I would have given him a reward for his tidings:

11 How much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house upon his bed? shall I not therefore now [a] require his blood of your hand, and take you away from the earth?

12 And David [b] commanded his young men, and they slew them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up over the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-bosheth, and buried it in the [1a] sepulchre of Abner in Hebron.

CHAPTER 5.

[c] 1 The tribes anoint David over Israel. 6 He taketh Zion from the Jebusites, and dwelleth in it. 13 Eleven sons are born to him in Jerusalem. 17, 22 He twice defeateth the Philistines.

THEN [d] came all the tribes of Israel to David unto Hebron, and spake, saying, Behold, [e] we are thy bone and thy flesh.

2 Also in time past, when Saul was king over us, [2f] thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the LORD said to thee, [g] Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be [4] a captain over Israel.

3 [i] So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; [k] and king David made a [5] league with them in Hebron [l] before the LORD: and they anointed David king over Israel.

4 ¶ David was thirty years old when he began to reign, [t m] and he reigned forty years.

5 In Hebron he reigned over Judah [n] seven years and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years over all Israel and Judah.

6 ¶ [6] And the king and his men went [q] to Jerusalem [7] unto [r] the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land: which spake unto David, saying, [8] Except thou take away the blind and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: [u] thinking, David cannot come in hither.

7 Nevertheless David took the strong hold of Zion: [y] the same is the city of David.

8 And David said on that day, Whosoever getteth up to the gutter, and smiteth the Jebusites, and the lame and the blind, [2t] that are hated of David's soul, [b] he shall be chief and captain. [c] Wherefore they [3] said, The blind and the lame [4] shall not come into the house.

9 [5] So David dwelt in the [6] fort, and called it [e] the city of David. And David built round about from Millo and inward.

10 And David [7g] went on, and grew great, and the LORD God of hosts [8] was with him.

because the LORD had [1a] made a breach[1] upon Uzzah: and he called [2] the name of the place [c] Perez-uzzah to[1] this day.

9 And [d] David was afraid of the LORD that day[3], and[1] said, How shall the ark of the LORD come [4]to[1] me?

10 So David would not remove the ark of the LORD unto him into the city of David[5]:[1] but David carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom [e]the Gittite.

11 [g]And the ark of the LORD [6]continued[1] in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months: and the LORD [h]blessed Obed-edom, and all his [7]household.[1]

12 [i]¶[1] And it was told king David, saying, The LORD hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that [t]pertaineth unto him, because of the ark of God. [8n]So[1] David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with [9]gladness.[1]

13 And it was [t]so, that when [p]they that bare the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed [17]oxen and fatlings.[1]

14 And David [r]danced before the LORD with all [t]his might; and David [t]was girded [u]with a linen ephod.

15 [g]So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

16 And [22]as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, [3]Michal Saul's daughter looked through a[1] window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.

17 [i]¶[1] And [b]they brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in [4d]his[1] place, in the midst of the [5]tabernacle[1] that David had [g]pitched for it: and David [h]offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

18 And [6]as soon as[1] David had made an end of offering [7]burnt offerings and[1] peace offerings, [k]he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts.

19 [b]And he dealt among all the people, [t]even among the whole multitude of Israel, [1]as well to the women as men,[1] to every one a cake of bread, and a [2]good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.[1] So all the people departed every one to his house.

20 [i]¶[1] [e]Then David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel [3]to day[1], who [l]uncovered himself [3]to day[1] in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the [k]vain fellows [l]shamelessly uncovereth himself!

21 And David said unto Michal, It was before the LORD, [m]which chose me [4]before[1] thy father, and [4]before[1] all his house, to appoint me [5]ruler[1] over the people of the LORD, over Israel: therefore will I play before the LORD.

22 And I will [6]yet be[1] more vile than thus, and will be base in mine own sight: [7]and[1] [y]of the maidservants[1] which thou hast spoken of, of them shall I be had in honour.

23 [8]Therefore[1] Michal the daughter of Saul had no child [z]unto the day of her death.

2 That the king said unto Nathan the prophet, See now, I dwell in [c]an house of cedar, [c]but the ark of God dwelleth within [f]curtains.

3 And Nathan said to the king, Go, do all that [t]is [f]in thine heart; for the LORD [t]is with thee.

vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.
18 ¶ Then [3]went king David[1] in, and sat before the LORD, [4] and he said, [k]Who [t]am I, O thing in [7]thy sight,[1] O Lord also of thy servant's house for a great while to come[8]. [p]And is this[1] the [r]manner of [9]man,[1]

O Lord GOD[1]?
20 And what can David say more unto thee? for thou[2], Lord
GOD, [9]knowest thy servant.[1] 21 For thy word's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou [3]done all these great things,[1] to make thy servant know [4]them.[1]
22 Wherefore [u]thou art great,
O LORD God: for [t][b]there is none like thee, neither [1]is there any God beside thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.
23 [5]And [c]what one nation in went to redeem [6]for a people

[o]1 David subdueth the Philistines and the Moabites. 3 He smiteth Hadadezer, and the Syrians. 11 The presents and spoil dedicated to God. 16 David's officers.

1 AND [7]after this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them: and David took [2*f*]Metheg-ammah [1] out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And [u]he smote Moab, and measured them with [3]a line, casting them down to [1] the ground; [4]even with two lines measured he [1] to put to death, and [o]with [1] one full line to keep alive. And [o]so the Moabites [a]became [5]David's servants, and [b]brought gifts.[1]

3 [o]¶ [1]David smote also [d]Hadadezer [o], [1] the son of Rehob, king of [f]Zobah, as he went to recover [g]his [6]border at the river Euphrates.[1]

4 And David took [h]from him a thousand [o][i]chariots,[1] and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: and David [t]houghed all the chariot [†]horses, but reserved of them [†]for an hundred chariots.

5 [p]And when [7]the Syrians of Damascus came to succour Hadadezer king of Zobah, David [8]slew [1] of [7]the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

6 Then David put garrisons in [1]Syria of Damascus: and [1]the Syrians [a]became servants to David, [†]and brought [2]gifts.[1] [b]And the LORD [3]preserved David [1] whithersoever he went.

7 And David took [c]the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 And from [4c]Betah [o], and from [f]Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, king David took exceeding much brass.

9 [5]¶ When [1] [h]Toi king of Hamath heard that David had smitten all the host of Hadadezer,

10 Then Toi sent [6k]Joram his son unto king David, to [7i]salute him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer [o], [1] and smitten him: for Hadadezer [8m]had wars with Toi. And [9]Joram [p] brought with him vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and vessels of brass:

11 [1]Which also king David [q]did [1] dedicate unto the LORD, with the silver and gold that he [o]had [1] dedicated of all [2] nations which he subdued;

12 Of [3]Syria, and of Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the spoil of Hadadezer, son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

13 And David gat [†]him a name when he returned from [r]smiting of [3]the Syrians in [s]the [4]valley of salt, [2]being [†] eighteen thousand [†]men.

14 [o]¶ [1] And he put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom put he garrisons, and [c]all [5]they of Edom became David's servants.[1] [c]And the LORD [6]preserved David [1] whithersoever he went.

15 [7]And David reigned over all Israel; and David executed [8]judgment [1] and justice unto all his people.

CHAPTER 9.

[o] 1 David sendeth for Mephibosheth. 7 He entertaineth him at his table, and restoreth him all that was Saul's. 9 He maketh Ziba his farmer.

AND David said, Is there yet any that is left of the house of Saul, that I may [d] shew him kindness for Jonathan's sake?

2 And [†] there was of the house of Saul a servant whose name [†] was [e] Ziba [1]. And when they had [1] called him unto David [2],[†] the king said unto him, [†] Art thou Ziba? And he said, Thy servant [†] is he.

3 And the king said, [†] Is there not yet any of the house of Saul, that I may shew [f] the kindness of God unto him?
And Ziba said unto the king,
[2] Jonathan hath yet a son,
[†] which is [m] lame on [†] his feet.

4 And the king said unto him, Where [†] is he? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he [†] is in the house of [n] Ma-chir [o],[†] the son of Ammiel, in Lo-debar.

5 [o] ¶ [†] Then king David sent, and fetched him out of the house of Machir [o],[†] the son of Ammiel, from Lo-debar.

6 [4] Now when [†] [q] Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, [5] was come unto David, he [†] fell on his face, and did [6] reverence. [†] And David said, Mephibosheth. And he answered, Behold thy servant!

7 [o] ¶ [†] And David said unto him, Fear not: [r] for I will surely shew thee kindness for Jonathan thy father's sake, and will restore thee all the [7] land of Saul thy father; and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually.

8 And he [8] bowed himself,[†] and said, What [†] is thy servant, that thou shouldest look upon such [u] a dead dog as I [†] am?

9 [o] ¶ [†] Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said unto him, [9 z] I have [†] given unto thy master's son [o] all that pertained to Saul and to all his house[†].

10 [†] Thou therefore,[†] and thy shalt bring in the fruits, that thy master's son may have [3] food [†] to eat: but Mephibosheth thy master's son [q] shall eat bread alway at my table.

Now Ziba had [e] fifteen sons and twenty servants.

11 Then said Ziba unto the king, According to all that my lord the king [†] hath commanded his servant, so shall thy servant do. [5] As for Mephibosheth, said the king, he shall eat at my table, as one of the king's sons.

12 And Mephibosheth had a young son, [h] whose name [6] was Micha.[†] And all that dwelt in the house of Ziba [†] were servants unto Mephibosheth.

13 So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem: [k] for he did eat continually at the king's table; and [7] [t] was lame on both his feet.

5 When they told †it unto David, he sent to meet them[1], because[1] the men were greatly ashamed[2]: and[1] the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and †then return.

6 °¶[1] And when the children of Ammon saw that they[3 d] stank before[1] David, the children of Ammon sent and hired [e] the Syrians of Beth-rehob, and the Syrians of [4]Zoba,[1] twenty thousand footmen, and [5] of king Maacah[1] a thousand men, and [6] of [f] Ish-tob[1] twelve thousand men.

7 And when David heard of †it, he sent Joab, and all the host of [g] the mighty men.

8 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the entering in of the gate: and [i] the Syrians of [4]Zoba,[1] and of Rehob, and [6]Ish-tob,[1] and Maacah, †were by themselves in the field.

9 °When[1] Joab saw that [8] the front of the battle was against[1] him before and behind, he chose of all the choice †men of Israel, and put †them in array against the Syrians:

10 And the rest of the people he [9] delivered[1] into the hand of [1]Abishai his brother, [2]that he might[1] put †them in array against the children of Ammon.

11 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will come and help thee.

12 [n] Be of good courage, and let us [p] play the men for our people, and for the cities of our God: and [q] the LORD do that which seemeth him good.

13 [3] And Joab drew nigh,[1] and the people that †were with him[4],[1] unto the battle against the Syrians: and they fled before him.

14 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, [5] then fled they also[1] before Abishai, and entered into the city. [6] So[1] Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.

15 °¶[1] And when the Syrians saw that they were [1]smitten[1] before Israel, they gathered themselves together.

16 And [2] Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Syrians that †were beyond [b] the [3] river[1]: and they came to Helam[4]; and[1] [c] Shobach the captain of the host of Hadarezer [5]went before them.[1]

17 And °when[1] it was told David [6],[1] he gathered all Israel together, and passed over Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in array against David, and fought with him.

18 And the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew [7] the men of seven hundred chariots [o] of the Syrians[1], and forty thousand [h] horsemen, and smote Shobach the captain of their host, [8] who[1] died there.

19 And when all the kings †that were servants to Hadarezer saw that they were [9]smitten[1] before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and [k] served them. So the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more.

1 AND it came to pass, [2 l] after the year was expired,[1] at the time when kings go [3] forth[1] to battle, that [m] David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried °still[1] at Jerusalem.

2 ¶ And it came to pass [4] in an eveningtide,[1] that David arose from off his bed, [r] and walked upon the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he [t] saw a woman [5] washing herself[1]; and the woman †was very beautiful to look upon.

3 And David sent and [6] enquired[1] after the woman. And †one said, †Is not this [u] Bath-sheba, the daughter of [x] Eliam, the wife [y] of Uriah the Hittite?

4 And David sent messengers, and took her; and she came in unto him, and [b] he lay with her; [1 d] for she was [c] purified from her uncleanness [2]:[1] and she returned unto her house.

5 And the woman conceived [3], and[1] sent and told David, and said, I [†] am with child.

6 °¶[1] And David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah the Hittite. And Joab sent Uriah to David.

7 And when Uriah was come unto him, David [4] demanded of him[1] [g] how Joab did, and how the people [5] did,[1] and how the war prospered.

8 And David said to Uriah, Go down to thy house, and [h] wash thy feet. And Uriah departed out of the king's house, and there [i] followed him a [6] mess of meat from the king.

9 But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and went not down to his house.

10 And when they had told David, saying, Uriah went not down unto his house, David said unto Uriah, [7] Camest thou not from thy journey? why then[1] didst thou not go down unto thine house?

11 And Uriah said unto David, [m] The ark, and Israel, and Judah, abide in [8] tents[1]; and [n] my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord, are encamped in the open [9] fields[1]; shall I then go into mine house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? [†] as thou livest, and [†] as thy soul liveth, I will not do this thing.

12 And David said to Uriah, Tarry here [1] to day also, and to morrow[1] I will let thee depart. So Uriah abode in Jerusalem [2] that day, and the morrow.

13 And when David had called him, he did eat and drink before him; and he made him [p] drunk: and at even he went out to lie on his bed [q] with the servants of his lord, but went not down to his house.

14 °¶[1] And it came to pass in the morning, that David [r] wrote a letter to Joab, and sent [†] it by the hand of Uriah.

15 And he wrote in the letter, saying, Set ye Uriah in the forefront of the battle [1 a] hottest, and retire ye [c] from him, that he may [f] be smitten, and die.

16 And it came to pass, when Joab [2] observed[1] the city, that he assigned Uriah unto [3] a[1] place where he knew that valiant men [†] were.

17 And the men of the city went out, and fought with Joab: and there fell [†] some of the people [4] of the servants of David; and Uriah the Hittite died also.

18 °¶[1] Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war;

19 And [5] charged the messenger, saying, When thou hast made an end of telling [6] the matters of[1] the war unto the king, 20 [7] And if so be that[1] the king's wrath arise, and he say unto thee, Wherefore [8] approached[1] ye so nigh unto the city [9] when ye did[1] fight? knew ye not that they would shoot from the wall?

21 Who smote [k] Abimelech the son of [1 l] Jerubbesheth? did not a woman cast [2] a piece of a[1] millstone upon him from the wall, that he died [3] in[1] Thebez? why went ye [4] nigh the wall? then [5] say thou,[1] Thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

22 °¶[1] So the messenger went, and came and shewed David all that Joab had sent him for.
